Premier's message

Even though Christmas is a time of peace and goodwill, we have to acknowledge that we are living in troubled times. But we have many blessings too, and we can enjoy considerable amount of peace and goodwill.

To me, Christmas time is a family time, a time of love and peace. It is a time when we are reminded of the true meaning of Christmas. It is a time when we are reminded of the true meaning of Christmas. It is a time when we are reminded of the true meaning of Christmas.

As a nation, in a world so full of conflict, we have a special responsibility. We have a special responsibility. We have a special responsibility.

"AN ENERGY CRISIS IS HERE..."

SHOULD CERTAINLY BE A CONCERN IN ALBERTA"

"GAS SUPPLY HERE IS ADEQUATE..."
Says E.W. King, president of Alberta's major natural gas utilities.

What are the reserves of natural gas in Alberta?
Albertans have been blessed with a plentiful natural gas supply virtually under their feet. The gas discovered and developed to date has been in excess of the province's needs and the surplus has been exported to other markets. We believe it is prudent to continue to export natural gas from the province if surplus to provincial needs are evident, just so long as provision is made for the requirements of all Alberta consumers, including future new Albertans and non-Albertans.

The Energy Resources Conservation Board of Alberta estimates that, as of December 31, 1972, the remaining marketable reserves of natural gas in Alberta total approximately 44 billion cubic feet. It has been estimated that the gas discovered to date represents only about one-half of the ultimate total to be found in Alberta.

It is important to recognize that Alberta's requirements are but a small portion of the total requirements. For example, in 1972 Alberta used only about 15 per cent of the total marketable gas produced in the province, or about 280 billion cubic feet, and the balance was exported to other Canadian and U.S. markets.

What about the long-term future of Alberta's requirements? Our companies have had a policy of continually contracting for and developing new reserves of Alberta natural gas for the needs of our customers. This policy has been successful in ensuring that the demand has accelerated rapidly, actually doubling in the past 10 years.

It is also important to recognize that Alberta's requirements are but a small portion of the total requirements. For example, in 1972 Alberta used only about 15 per cent of the total marketable gas produced in the province, or about 280 billion cubic feet, and the balance was exported to other Canadian and U.S. markets.

All Albertans should be reassured that there is no need to be concerned regarding supplies of natural gas for this winter and in the foreseeable future.

Our natural gas companies have made a constant practice throughout their history of extending back to 1912, to plan and ensure that there would be adequate supplies of natural gas to meet the requirements. Each year we forecast Alberta's population and future growth and project requirements for as far in the future as 30 years. We then plan and ensure that there will be adequate supplies of natural gas and development of reserves.

It's your energy...and our concern.

Hardisty couple on trip to Hawaii

HARDISTY — Here to Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hardisty, Drayton Valley, a little daughter, Karen Ann, on December 19th. From grandparents here are Lloyd and Kay Stewart. A new couple joining the group is Mr. and Mrs. Paul and Mrs. M. J. Stewart. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stewart of Drayton Valley have a young son born December 19th and named Jeffrey Patrick. Congratulations to all the new parents.

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Harrison and family on the passing away of her father, Mr. Harrison, in Viking on December 11 at the age of 71 years.

Another person living in Hardisty at one time has passed away in the person of Donald George Maclellan at 72 years. He was sighted here at the P.B. roundhouse for a while and sympathy is extended to his wife, Margaret (Lalonde), a son, Garth as well as his mother and two brothers.

Captain and Mrs. Lance Maclellan from Hobbey, B.C. are spending a week with Jean's folks, the Jim Vorse family.

Mr. and Mrs. John Puntar have gone to Hawaii for a couple of weeks.

A friend appeared from George Harman, already in talk of his England on the 11th and he and his sister will be celebrating their birthday December 20th. George will be 53 and sister 48 so it sounds like a very happy reunion.

The Senior Hardisty Women's Luncheon team played their first game on Wednesday, December 11, 1973. They played against Wainwright who were quite an experienced team and lost 40-14. Although the score was bad, the team looked good and in the last quarter started playing well. They hope to play Clear before Christmas and are hoping to win such as Killam, Invermay and Hinton are willing to make up teams so they will be able to have more competition. Team members are Sharon-Jane Coles, Wendy Goodrich, Darla Watkins, Jean Watkins, Loretta, Corrine.

TOURIST ASSOCIATION TO PRESENT RESOLUTIONS

The December meeting of the Battle River Tourist Association was held Dec. 18 in Canmore. Regarding the Winter Photo contest, pictures are being collected for use in production of a winter brochure next year. A new photo competition is to get underway shortly.

Ken Lee of Seattle reported that he had managed to develop interest in the RCMP Centre, Paud and that a new project would be submitted for grants from communities in this area.

The Alberta Opportunity Co. offered to send a speaker to one of the Association's meetings. Their offer was accepted.

It was moved B.R.T.A. write to T.A.M.T.A. applying for a state Travel Alberta Advance in view of the increase in the affiliation fee.

A number of resolutions for presentation to the Annual Meeting of the Travel Industries Association of Alta. include:

1. Be signs (Zone 5) entry points. These signs be placed at highway points where tourists have no time and enter an other.
2. More adequate marking of forestry roads.
3. Increase and expand road side parks.
4. Provincial Parks - continue expansion and improvement.

It was suggested that a special bulletin be issued instructing hunters in proper procedures when hunting on farms, in an effort to improve man-deer relations. It was further decided that special attention to this subject should be paid in the next hunting brochure.

Christmas

Humble shepherds, tending their flocks by night, harkened to the angels' glorious message of the Saviour's birth and came in from the fields and found Him asleep in a manger...and they adored Him. Wise Men, journeying from the East, followed the Star to Bethlehem seeking the newborn King to bestow on Him their gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh...and to worship Him. As we rejoice this Christmas, let us cherish the spiritual rewards of love and friendship, peace and contentment. It is with heartfelt gratitude for your continued confidence, that we extend the season's best wishes.

Christmas Legends With Animals

Christmas season folklore is fascinating. Whether true or not, there are memorable tales on traditions of the holiday season.

Animals are prominently mentioned in many legends and customs.

The Christmas legend tells of the little grey lamb with a longed to be in the house. It wandered to the dwelling of the Holy Family, lying at the door. The Christ Child, seeing the lamb, beckoned him. He laid his hand on its head, and it became white as snow.

Norwegian, Swedish, and the Swiss make it a special point to be extremely friendly and hospitable on Christmas, both to domestic pets and wild life.

A persistent Christmas legend is that the boy, Jesus, was born in a manger. In Syria, the young boy, Jesus, was called the Christ Child. In England, he is called the Christ Child. In the United States, he is called the Christ Child. In the United States, he is called the Christ Child.

CHOIR SELECTIONS ENJOYED BY ALL
Musical selections rendered by the choir of the United Church were well received by the audience attending the annual Sedgewick Carol Festival, held on Sunday, Dec. 16th. The choir sang a medley of "Go Tell it on the Mountain" and "O Come, O Come, Emmanuel" under the direction of Mr. A. Blandy and accompanied by Mrs. Bennett.

Excuses! excuses!

A few Sunday ams, in the church, we sang a song written by the Medical Society, called "The Wedding Banquet". This song is taken from a Gospel story which was told by Jesus Christ. It illustrates the common people make when they are given an invitation to attend a certain wedding banquet. This song tells something more. It reveals to us the excuses some people give when they are not invited to an event, and to believe in, and serve God and the church.

"I cannot come because I have already thought up an excuse of why they do not believe in God or why they do not attend the church. We are no different today. Whenever a minister of the church gives some people an invitation they come up with an excuse. "I'm too busy," or "I like to sleep in," or "I'm partying tonight." The real truth is they are not interested in God or the church. They have allowed their "things" to take priority in their lives.

As we come to another Christmas, what excuse will we make for not attending the Christmas services? What excuse will we make for not thinking about the true meaning of Christmas? Before it is too late, let us be reminded that without Jesus Christ there would be no Christmas. Without Christ our lives are like a ship without a rudder, drifting aimlessly on the ocean of life. Without Christ we have no purpose in life.

Take time this Christmas season, and think about the invitation God has given each one of us through Jesus Christ. The invitation to accept Jesus as our Lord and Savior.

GRANTS - TAXABLE

Several farmers recently have asked me if the grants that the Government is giving are taxable. That I think is a good question especially if one wants to stay on good terms with National Revenue, and is worth considering in a court of law.

Doug Kells, in Hawaii, wrote to say that he and his wife were having a wonderful time and enjoying living in bathing suits.
 A birthday party was held at John Kells with Mr. and Mrs. Ron De Wark, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rebec, Mr. and Mrs. Page Flob, Mr. and Mrs. Kells, Emily and John Kells and the Kells family.

1. If you hire someone else to pay him wages to put up the building, the $2,000 grant may be applied to the labour portion of the cost of the building. This will then reduce the adaptive cost base starting point for the Capital Cost Allowance of the building by the amount of the wages. This could include wages

Under this program the grants obtained must be allocated between the actual capital and interest portions of the total cost, and reduce them accordingly.

3. PFRA Grants for Farm Wells

As the grant is for the purchase of Capital Assets the grant will reduce the Adjusted Cost Base of the well as under the Arda III Program.

All of the following are treated as direct income, and will be claimed as such.

Lisa Werner, D.V.M.

It's that time of year when so many start worrying about their calves and weanlings. The problems discussed with us by Dr. Lisa Werner, D.V.M., a high-pressurized woman calf crop mental depends on a high survival rate of live calves at birth as well as good healthy one lactation.

Last week we discussed some ways to reduce calf sickness, and by no means covered everything. According to Dale Norman, and Dr. Carl Haurle, an important piece of the puzzle which can be taken to those mentioned last week is that of vitamin A.C. and E. deficiencies. They state that many ranchers feel an injection of the vitamin A.C. and E. solutions intramuscularly, as well as a 3 or 4 quarted intake of the calf's milk reduces the practice that should be carried out with the newborn calf is the treatment of the navel. This is done with a 2 per cent iodine mixture. The treatment will prevent that one out of 40-50 calves from getting a navel infection or even a fatal brain infection.

Henry Hawkins of Strouse was honored at the last Calgary Bull club when the Alberta Cattle Raisers Club presented Henry his half century past together with a suitable supper and dancing at their banquet held at that time.

Then to qualify for a 30 year past would consist of raising a foal. There are less than ten such members in the Province that carry the half century past while there are quite a few in the very active Quarter Century Club. Jim Schallheim of Calgary is presently the president of this club while Leonard Berg of this area is the vice-president. With Mrs. Fred Buschfeld of Balzac as the secretary-treasurer

A letter received from the School Buildings Board, County of Education regarding the proposed additions and alterations to washroom facilities at Hatchery school advised that support could be given at the present time.

The Assistant Secretary, Treasurer advised that in a phone call to the School Buildings Board they indicated a program with regard to repairs and painting is presently under study and may be introduced in the near future. The letter was filed.

The School Committee was aware that tender had been received for the installation of hand dryers in the Boyland and

Figures show many empty classrooms

By Brian Peterson

About 170 million worth of the school building stock in Alberta is empty, according to a survey of school boards by the number of students in the province.

Mr. Hyndman, fighting back against school boards protesting the reduction of new book-keepers, says that unbalanced books could lead to a huge loss of the school system.

The revenue clearly is that we have to strive to keep a balance and look down the road carefully in terms of the rate of new construction compared to student numbers.

The winning essay

By Brian Peterson

Perhaps perhaps of Loughhead as a small village on Highway 10, it is one of the most interesting of the school boards.

The winning essay was written by a student of the school board.

REGULATING CROPPING FOR DISCHARGE OF FIREARMS

Shooting Allowed with Permission

Legislation now bans the discharge of firearms on occupied land without prior consent of the landowner or occupant. The regulation is in clause (1) of Bill 20, the Wildlife Amendment Act, effective August 1st, regulating hunting and shooting in Alberta. The act also specifies that no person may shoot along, across, or over a developed road allowance unless he is hunting game birds with a shotgun under the authority of a game bird licence. This is in addition to shooting bans in effect on all highways in the province.

All future municipal district and country by-laws relating to firearm use will be subject to ministerial approval at the provincial level.

B10
The Wildlife Amendment Act

Section 20, with amendments in bold face type, reads as follows: (1) in this section, "occupied lands" means (a) privately owned land under cultivation or enclosed by a fence of any kind and not exceeding one section in area upon which the owner or occupant actually resides, and (b) any other privately-owned land which is within one mile of the section referred to in clause (a) and which is owned or leased by the same owner or occupant.

2) no person shall hunt nor utilize or discharge any firearm upon or over occupied lands or enter upon such lands for this purpose of doing so, without the consent of the owner or occupant thereof.

Section 25, with amendments in boldface type, reads as follows: 1) Except in the case of a boat propelled by muscular power, no person (a) shall have a loaded firearm on or any kind of vehicle or boat, or (b) shall discharge a firearm from any kind of vehicle or boat, whether the vehicle or boat is moving or stationary.

2) Any firearm having a live shell or cartridge in the breach or chamber shall not be deemed to be loaded within the meaning of subsection (1).

3) No person shall hunt from an aircraft (a) discharge a firearm, or (b) cause a projectile from a firearm to pass within 200 yards of any occupied building.

(5) No person shall (a) discharge a firearm from, or (b) cause a projectile from a firearm to pass along or across a developed road allowance in any county or municipal district unless he is hunting game birds with a shotgun under the authority of a game bird licence issued pursuant to this Act or the regulations.

The Municipal Government Act is amended to add section 152 by renumbering the section as subsection (1) and by adding thereafter the following subsection:

(1) Upon the commencement of this section no council of a county or municipal district may pass a by-law under subsection (1) clause (d) without the consent of the Minister of Municipal Affairs and the Minister of Lands and Forests and any by-law passed thereafter by such council for the commencement of this subsection and which has not been rescinded prior to August 1, 1974 shall cease to be valid on and after that date.

News from Killam and District

KILLAM — Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Jim Larkin on the recently completed renovation of their Macdonald store in the many citizens with newly painted homes, which really look nice. I am sure everyone has noticed the new look in the town home on main street.

The farmers are really busy these days, planting and weeding. Jack Frost put on a scare to the country and freezing weather has been going on in many homes lately. I am all for good weather in order to get crops off, especially as those days are busy like this.

Now to hear Mrs. Larkins on the use of hospital and district with Mr. and Mrs. Gordon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Grant, who are in Killam, and Mr. and Mrs. Doug Grant and family of Edmonton, were welcomed at home by parents Mr. and Mrs. William Grant.

Get well wishes to Mrs. Len Dutton who underwent surgery in Edmonton. Mr. and Mrs. Margaret Dutton, who are in Killam, and Mr. and Mrs. Doug Grant and family of Edmonton, were welcomed at home by parents Mr. and Mrs. William Grant.

NOTICE

Every one of our appliances are covered by a factory warranty. These spell out, clearly and in non-legal language, our responsibilities (those services we provide free of charge) and those costs for which our customers might be responsible, during each year the warranty is in effect. Your dealer will be happy to show you the warranty covering the appliance of your choice. Ask for it.

The big story of Gibson Inner Space designs

At Gibson, we know that all good things do not necessarily come in small packages — particularly when it comes to food. That's why we've designed refrigerator interiors that will comfortably swallow a moveable feast. Tough, easy-to-clean, chrome shelves can be adjusted as little as two inches or as much as thirty-three inches. You can chill a giant Jerusalem or store a super smorgasbord. No matter what size packages you plan to refrigerate, you can adjust your Gibson accordingly.

Active year reported by Hardisty board

Work parties have been very busy around the Hardisty and District Recreation Centre this past year with many improvements made and projects completed. First and foremost of these is the renovation of the Artificial Ice Plant, servicing both curling and arena rinks. A new modern entryway, including the work of the volunteers, and other greatly improved the convenience as well as the appearance of the building.
New windows were installed. Draining water is now available from a fountain in the lobby.
The record and announcer booth above the arena is now possible and equipped with the latest equipment. The record and announcer booth above the arena is now possible and equipped with the latest equipment.

It's the season of joy and good will when friends gather together for happy times. May your Christmas Holiday be filled with many such moments.

LOUGHEED — ALBERTA

Christmas party at Lougheed

A very festive occasion took place at Lougheed Community Hall Saturday, November 30th when the Hazelwood Good Deeds ladies put on a lovely turkey supper for their families and guests. There were approximately one hundred in all.

As the evening progressed, a program was put on by the group. Miss Joy Lynn McClements was M.C. for the evening. The program commenced with the Good Deeds Club brassband, featuring Lougheed Lads as Vocalists on the piano and vocalists Madeline Mabel, Mrs. Violet Copeland and Country

Kate as Mrs. Josephine McClements. Then followed Miss Joanne McClements playing the piano and singing a couple of songs. Miss Elaine Metz played a couple selections on the piano. Macie Darren Metz sang a few vocal numbers. Then Mrs. Olive Lien, Carolyn and Darren presented a couple of instrumental selections. Miss Jane Moski of Toronto, Ont. gave a reading. The dalcies and flutes also favoured the gathering with a few instrumental tunes. Then to end the program, the M.C. played two Christmas songs on the piano.

After the enjoyable program everyone joined in a Sing Song, which was followed by the entrance of Santa Claus who passed out gifts and candy bags to each child. He also passed out gifts to the ladies for which they thanked him with smiles.

After Santa's job was done, he was sent away with a big applause. Candles and oranges were passed around and the evening closed with everyone having had a good time.

ANNUAL DONATIONS MADE BY BUNSHINE CLUB

The Christmas meeting of the Sunshine Club was held at the home of Lynne Elm with fourteen members and one visitor present. The meeting opened with the Lord's Prayer, followed by the reading of the previous minutes by Ron Elm.

Donations were sent to the Bachelors Association, The Elks Lodge of Hardisty, The Salvation Army and the United Church.

The next meeting will be held January 11th at the home of Irene Kella. Barbara Hays and K. Vandewark are on bench. The ladies plan to visit to K. Vandewark and the raffie, and special raffie to Eleanor Lawson. Mrs. Elm is to bring the special raffie for the next meeting.

An exchange of gifts took place.

The right concept of Christmas

According to Dr. Luke, as recorded in Luke 2, the message of Christmas is not that the Lord's angels visited the shepherds in the field, or that "suddenly they saw with the angel, a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God." The message is not in the instructions to the shepherds to go to Bethlehem and see the Christ Child, nor is it the place of birth, nor the coming of the Virgin Mary. All these are of vital importance, and not mere "trimmings." But the message of Christmas is "Glad you are born this day a Savior" who is come to seek and to save that which was lost.

The birth brought hope to all who will accept Him as savior and Lord of their life. "Forasmuch as I bear people love, and have compassion on the lowly, I shall glorify myself in Christ." This is the message of Christmas. It is the message of the birth of the Son of God, who is come to seek and to save that which was lost.

ed to him as "the light." Seven times in his Gospel and letters and Revelation, to use the word "light." To John, Jesus was not only God's son, Redeemer and Savior, but He was the light that dispelled the darkness of sin from the human heart, and would show us the way back home to God.

Your Christmas can be light, bright and become more meaningful if you would let the Christ Child of Christmas take control of your life, by simply accepting Him through faith as the Savior of your life. Keep Him in your heart and your Christmas. Have a blessed Christmas and an exciting '75.

The club also decided that we would hold a regular meeting on the fourth of March. This will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil LeVair. Alison and Carmen gave their talks, which were well done.

"You mean to say
I can use DDD for business calls and still get a breakdown of costs?"

Yes, that's where AGT's special billing services come in so handy!

When you arrange for special billing services, your monthly statement will show a breakdown of costs — very similar to "time and charges." You can put your finger on long distance costs and allocate them accordingly. By using special billing services, you can take advantage of low DDD rates, and still get "time and charges" for your cost accounting.

On January 22nd we were pleased to attend the opening of the Legislature, with the Honorable G. Steinhauser officiating at his first opening of the Legislature. Although he has only been in office a short time, Mr. Steinhauser is proving to be a popular and capable Lieutenant Governor.

The first week of the session has largely been occupied with the Syncretic issue, and I am distressed to say that the Premier has been very vague in informing the House of developments in this crucial issue.

On Friday, Mr. Schmidt, the Minister of Culture, Youth and Recreation, announced a new system of grants for improvement of recreational facilities. As soon as the details of these become available I will obtain copies so that this constituency can take advantage of the opportunities.

Next Saturday, I will be in Cochrane between two and four o'clock. I will be looking forward to having as many of the people there as possible.

This week in the Legislature we have had a debate on the Syncretic project. On Tuesday, the Premier announced that the project would be going ahead with the assistance of direct involvement by the governments, Alberta, Ontario and the Federal government.

The project has been welcomed by the opposition, but there is a concern that the terms have been anything but favorable to the Alberta government. I am sure that the project will be a very much needed and determined that the government under the terms of this agreement is going to contribute about $10 million to the project. As a member of the opposition, I am not going to take care of our oil royalties for some time to come.

Earlier in the week I was very disturbed by a news report that Prime Minister Trudeau was not going to extradite a nuclear test from the far sands by distributing a nuclear test. I am pleased in a report that Mr. Yurk's Minister of the Environment has announced that the government would consider allowing a nuclear test in the laboratory.

With the Syncretic project going ahead, it is also important that the Alberta government be designed. There are numerous concerns that land owners on the path of the corridor have and the opposition will do its utmost to protect these interests.

I am very pleased at the continued interest in the 1975 M.L.A. contest. Our students have been a credit to their schools. In the interest they have shown in Alberta, and I am always delighted when they come to Edmonton to visit the Legislature. This week I had the pleasure of welcoming in Grade 9 students from the Brewster Public School and the Grade 9 class from Killam Public School. I think having a "hot group" in the hall of the Legislature does a great deal towards improving the perceptions of members who are in the hall but they have a very critical and well informed audience.

Keeping in touch

In this week's column, I would like to share with you some of the pertinent facts that are affecting the beef market. I would like to give credit to Mr. B. Harpava, our Cattleman, on the beef market. I would like to give credit to the Cattleman's Association on the beef market.

The two principle factors that affected the present slump in the beef industry are: (1) a sharp decline in supply and (2) a sharp decline in demand. The supply decline is due to a sharp decline in the number of cattle being raised. The demand decline is due to a sharp decline in the number of cattle being sold.

The same broad situation applies to the American cattle industry as well. However, their cattle market is in a different state. A decline in the Canadian Cattleman's Association met on January 28th with the Trade Committee of the American National Cattleman's Association.

Unfortunately, all feeder cattle, including those over 700 pounds, can enter Canada outside our quota provisions provided they are designated as feeders and held for at least 90 days before slaughter. Feeder cattle imports must show necessary negative tests to five health items — TB, Brucella, Anaplasmosis, Blue-Tongue, and our DEN certification policy. Some bands of mixed-weight cattle have been allowed to enter legally because their average weight was under 700 lbs per animal. All of these loopholes in the present provisions have been vigorously pointed out to the staff in the Department of Agriculture.

During the last quarter of 1974, there were 7,183 slaughter cattle under 700 pounds imported from the U.S. that were not subject to the quota. In that same period, 8,971 feeder cattle were imported, most of them going to the Province of Alberta. From January 1st to January 28th, 13,578 U.S. cattle have been imported. This is an average of about 714 head per day. At this rate, the first quarter quota will be filled by the middle of February.

During the first two weeks of 1975, 10,100 light-weight feeders, mostly calves, were imported into Alberta. This, of course, has had a further depressing influence on the western calf prices and is strongly resented by the western cow-calf producer. It is perhaps too early to estimate the impact of Mr. Whelan's cow-subsidy policy of December 13th. Nevertheless, I strongly doubt that it will substantially reduce our Canadian cow and bred heifers. Present indications are that our 1975 calf crop could be up 2 per cent over 1974 and that crop was up 7 to 8 per cent over the previous year. A gloomy reality: 1975 beef-like more of the same.

The two principle factors that affected the present slump in the beef industry are: (1) a sharp decline in supply and (2) a sharp decline in demand. The supply decline is due to a sharp decline in the number of cattle being raised. The demand decline is due to a sharp decline in the number of cattle being sold.

lation in Las Vegas in an attempt to restore some economic base to current unsettled trade relations between our two countries. Hopefully, mutual understanding of how the two-part rate of our cow-calf markets, will be an important factor in the more substantial conditions and the Canadian industry will be a factor in the beef market.

Occasionally, from the industrial point of view, there is a greater need for government to keep in touch.

THE LETTER BOX

TO THE RATEPAYERS OF SEDGEWICK

As trustee on the school committee representing the Town of Sedgewick, I would like to inform my electors of our activities during the first three months of this year.

The organizational meeting was held on October 30th, at which time we took our oath of office. We were given copies of the County Act, School Act and other pertinent materials to make us knowledgeable in our new position. At this time the various sub-committees were formed. I was elected to serve on the Small School Study Committee and the Advisory Committee.

The name of "Advisory Committee" I believe, is self explanatory in its meaning, however, I feel some might question the meaning of the "Small School Study Committee".

The work of this committee is least since the term "small school" refers to a school with more than one grade per teacher, and we, at this time, have four schools in this category, namely Strone, Loughede, Alliance and Galahad.

This committee has held evening meetings with representatives in three of the involved areas and some interesting discussions have taken place. I feel some might question the meaning of the "Small School Study Committee".

On February 8th, Sedgewick and Dayland tied 4 to 4. R. Thompson and G. Simpson got two goals each. Assistants were by: Mayne (2), D. Jack and K. Truss.

The Sedgewick Midgets lost 5 to 4 to Forestburg on February 7th. Goal scorers were: D. Humphreys, M. Brandings, D. Truss and R. Lee. Assistants went to D. Truss, R. Lee, B. Rankin, S. Kohner, D. Bergsath, G. Frederick and D. Humphreys.

Welcome home to Mr. Bill Deane and his family who recently stayed in the Royal Alex Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Perrecks returned from Edmonton on Saturday afternoon.

time of year the budget represents much thought and consideration. We are hoping to curtail expenses in some areas while depriving our children of the needs of a good education.

We feel that it is necessary to put each school on a budget with regards to Physical Education Equipment, Extra curricular activities, Library Books and Instructional Supplies. In all fairness, this will be a lot of work for the school board.

At present, we do not have plans for any reduction in the instructional staff in the country, though it may be necessary to move some to other locations.

An orientation of the Trustees was held at Sedgewick School Library on November 2nd, when we met with the County Administrators Association in a working session.

At this time, administrators from each school presented a report on behalf of his staff. A tour of schools in the district was held in early December which the new trustees found very beneficial in familiarizing themselves with the needs of each school.

Under the Building Quality Restriction program (BQR), assistance is available to upgrade our school facilities. At the present time plans are underway to proceed with these improvements according to needs as found in a survey of schools in our county.

I hope the ratepayers of the town of Sedgewick would feel free to make suggestions with "improvement of education" in mind.

I hope this message has brought to your attention the role of trustee is active, interesting and very challenging. Good thinking and cooperation with all concerned is a necessity. I feel a real responsibility is attached to a trustee position and that you should be an "informed public" as well as concerned. My wheels are turning constantly as I strive to help meet the needs of education in our county.

IN MEMORIAM
In loving memory of our dear precious father and grandfather, Mr. G. Kjelland, Viking, who passed away February 22nd, 1974. Little did we know that morning. What sorrow the day would bring. When his heart of gold stopped beating. The he didn't know a thing. There was no chance to say "goodbye". That day you went away. You slept away so peacefully. One year ago today. Our hearts still ache with sadness. And silent tears still flow. To what it meant to lose you. No one will ever know. We cannot forget his footsteps. Or his dear familiar face. All we have are memories. Of the one we loved most. Lovingly remembered and sadly missed by his daughter, son-in-law and grandchildren. Kon. Gladys, Ronald, Douglas, Pete. Gordon G. Kjelland, Winnipeg. 20-2c pretty tired as they missed their sleep on the way home.

But I don't think that bothered them much as Helen sounded her usual lively self to me.

Quite a few kids from here

NOTES FROM AGRICULTURE CANADA

EUGENE WHELAN

Milk will be more abundant this year in most parts of Canada. The exception will be the prairie region where milk production is still declining.

Since the 1960's there has been a gradual decline in Canadian dairy output. Ten years ago, dairy farmers in this country produced more than 18 billion pounds of milk each year. By 1973, the yearly total was down to 16.5 billion pounds, and in 1974, only about 16.1 billion pounds of milk were produced.

But Agriculture Canada economists hope to see a reversal of the downward trend in the near future. With reasonable weather conditions, they expect an increase in milk output of about 200 million pounds.

The increase, however, is expected to come from production in the Maritimes, Ontario, Quebec and British Columbia.

During the past year, the three prairie provinces experienced a larger drop in milk production than the other provinces. This downward trend is apt to continue on the prairies this year although the decline should be less than last year.

United Church and the 50's

by Bonnie Friedrich
The '50's were a period of growth and rebuilding in the United Church. A church, church, an Education Building, or maras was built every week over a period of years.
In 1950 the General Council elected Rev. Clarence M. Nichol as B.A., D.D., LL.D., as the United Church moderator. He was the first moderator to have been ordained in the United Church.
A congregational every member visitation program called The Sector Plan, was used as a method of stimulating support and activity. It was used for local church requirements and the outreach work of the church.
Lay Training Centers were built as focal points of power and growth. Education was a top priority.
Junior Girls took over the Explorer Program. The Tyros became the program for the Junior Boys. C.G.I.T. and J.C. groups maintained a high membership.
An evangelistic thrust took place with preaching missions, schools for elders, special evangelists to Canada and a four year National Evangelistic Mission.

In 1950 the United Church formed a new unit called the United Church of Canada. The Bible and a curriculum of Bible and Faith were laid.

The '50's found the United Church a very viable, pulsating part of Canadian life.

DAYSLAND—Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Kapler had the misfortune of having their hardware store late early Tuesday morning. Several items were missing.

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Pederson left for a two week holiday to Hawaii.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hanshaw spent the weekend at Bentley at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ron Hanshaw and also curried in a hamper at Sylvan Lake.

Several ladies from the various churches met together to plan the Women's World Day of Prayer. This year it will be held in the Daysland Ukrainian Church on March 7th at 2:30 p.m. Mrs. Bernice Driscoll from Camrose will be guest speaker and an invitation is extended to all ladies in the district to join in the service and fellowship.

Miss Laura Graham returned home after a 4 week holiday on a bus tour that left from Camrose. It was a trip well worth going on and following are some of the places they stopped at. They went through Sask. and down to North Dakota, to Cedarville near Nashville, Tenn., where they went to the Grand Ole Opry. Then on to Miami and then by ship to Nassau where they saw different cities and gardens. From there they went to Orlando, Florida for four days of sight seeing. There was a tour of Cape Kennedy, and Daysland. Coming into Tallahassee they crossed a bridge 23 miles long. In one section you couldn't see land for six miles.

At New Orleans they took in the Mardi Gras. Next was the Gulf of Mexico and then on to Dallas, Texas, where they had a very short stay. As they were getting ready for bed they were told to hurry and get things together and get back on the bus. After getting back on the bus they were told a bomb had been planted in the hotel and that was why all the rush. So much for Dallas, Texas.

On the way back they stopped at Amarillo, New Mexico; Denver, Colorado; Wyoming and Great Falls, Montana.

Mrs. Leonard Nilsson accompanied Mrs. Lloyd Wallace of Camrose to Winnipeg to attend a Multiple Sclerosis Society Convention. Services for M.S. victims have improved considerably during the years, partly because of the advent of medicine but also because of public concern and the donations of funds going to it.

Reader writes

the strap at home was dreaded. My years of formal education included correspondence courses in grade nine and ten, grade eleven in a village school, and finally grade twelve at Nutana Collegiate in Saskatoon.

My first teaching assignment brought me back to the school where I spent my first eight years of schooling. Two students in grade ten were a few months older than I was. We managed very well. I must thank Mr. McDonaghe, my first superintendent, for the encouragement and assistance he had given me. His gentle ways and kind words did much more than any reprimand might have. In fact, a reprimand to a teenage teacher could have sent him anywhere to earn his livelihood by some other means.

I recall one of my teachers coming ill suddenly and because we did not have any substitute teachers (qualified or unqualified) I was pressed into service for the day at the age of thirteen to manage a classroom of fifty students.

Many of the students 4 years later were my first ever students when I became a temporary licensed teacher.

Looking at the progress made through the years I have several recollections about education from the stage of necessity in its earlier years to its present stage - an era of convenience and of luxury.

I often wonder about the reasons for improving the material facilities. What are our real aims? Because teachers are better trained and our facilities more extensive and much more technically superior, are the final results much more superior? These are questions I ask myself often.

Do we as parents really find time to sit down and discuss our children's goals with them? Are we aware that our children must have goals and aims to strive for? Do we know that if we continue to give our children no responsibilities that they will have no goals to strive for? Do we have time to share in confidence our children's goals and problems, or are we compensating for this valuable confidence with material gifts and money?

One of the goals that our grade nine students are deprived from are grade nine departmental examinations. Do all grade nines really pass into grade ten?

What has happened to good old-fashioned respect for others? Good old-fashioned respect has vacated many schools because students no longer fear punishment. What is happening in British Columbia schools when any student can cause a teacher and expect no reprimand? Let us save Alberta and help the child grow up even if he needs guidance and discipline periodically. Let us sincerely love our child; give him praise or a gentle tap with sincere love.

We must ask ourselves where we are heading.

Education is not just for schools, education is a twenty-four hour process; education must be shared among public, parent, teacher and student.

Yes, education has changed dramatically during the last thirty years. Will it change that dramatically during the next thirty years, twenty years or even ten years?

Sedgewick and District News

Several ladies from various churches gathered at the home of Mrs. Alice Armstrong on Tuesday to plan the service for the World Day of Prayer which will be held on Friday, March 7 at 2 p.m. at the Anglican Church.

On Friday the youngsters of the Kindergarten travelled out to the Ed Piep farm. There they enjoyed an old fashioned sleigh ride in a real horse drawn sleigh. This was followed by a lunch in the Piep home. 18 children took part, and they were accompanied by their teacher, Mrs. Polge, as well as Mrs. Joan James, Mrs. Susan Sparrow and Mrs. Linda Hall. I bet this was the first time most of the youngsters and maybe some adults travelled this way. Mr. Ed Piep was the capable driver.

Mrs. Madge Davidson and Mr. George MacKinnon accompanied Mr. Colin Bearsto to Edmonton on Tuesday. Madge and George are going to visit Mr. Jim Davidson who is a patient in the University Hospital. Get well wishes from all us, Jim. Folk from Killam, Loughheed and Merna as well as Sedgewick took in the Contemporary Service at the United Church on Sunday evening. Some lively singing and a film entitled "So Long Joey" was followed by lunch and a time of fellowship.

Lennie McBride of Edmonton spent the weekend at his parental home, B. McBride.

This month's "Supper of the Month" took the form of a Pancake Supper which was enjoyed by many folks last Friday evening at the United Church Hall.

Dr. and Mrs. Meer and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hansen spent the weekend in Las Vegas. Very enjoyable says Gerry. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Patten of Buck Lake, a son, Troy Allan on Sunday, February 23rd, weight 7 pounds, 5 ounces. Proud grandparents: Mrs. and Mrs. Lawson Patten and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Whitten. Mr. and Mrs. Bert Whitman and family spent the weekend at Buck Lake.

The Vivian Sparrow risk, consisting of Vivian (sister), Arvidh Gould (brother), Mark Kohar (sister) and Mary Simeon (sister), took first in the Grand Challenge of the Ladies open handicap held in Pseudon on February 21, 22 and 23.

The final in the Grand Challenge Event in the Men's Weekend at home were Margaret Han-Pire, Fran Anderson, Larvee B. and Maureen Coerin. I know I often miss out folks here, but if I don't see them and if no one tells me I just don't know. I really appreciate it if you would bring me any news. It's important to someone, somewhere.

Our young lady skaters did very well at the championships in Killam on Sunday. Linda Rae Walker and Linda Hebert won gold medals, Brenda Booth won a bronze, while just out of the medals were Kathy Clark who finished fourth and Lana Mayne who was fifth. Searle Citizens Club report.

The weekly bingo was well attended, with prizes well distributed.

At the Winter party, there were four tables in play. Harold MacKinnon and Harry Pottinger split the jackpot for high score. A delicious lunch was provided by our teacher members, Elders and Stella, who all got all out to serve something quite special.

The transmission in Rex Deer was so cussed, delegates will be on hand later.

A very enjoyable meal was shared by Tom Bruce. One of the KPR members was the door prize. The door prize, a 1/2 lunch brought the evening to a close.

Barriell at Killam turned out to be an all Sedgewick affair with the Clay Johnson risk beating the Mike Smith risk to take first prize. The Norm Rose risk was a pity in the 2nd event, but I was unable to track down any more winners. A risk consisting of Ian Eckstrand, Penny Hays, Elaine Stevens and Valerie Danielson captured first prize in the Junior Mixed Brevet at Loughheed. Congratulations.

Miss Mary Cherman spent a few days in Edmonton with daughter Pat last week. When Grant got tired of hatching her and her husband's life, she was at the direction of the U of A.

Membership reports showed that we have over 250 members with many being new ones.

Our annual banquet has been set for April 12 in the Loughheed Community Hall. Much discussion took place on the banquet as to price and type of food to be served. We will have a further report in this regard at our March meeting on the second Tuesday.

A delegation from our club recently visited our game of golf Gary Martin at Provost. They were sorry to report that he will soon be leaving us, it has been a pleasure working with him in the past and we wish him the best in his new position. We look forward to meeting and working together with his replacement. It was also reported that 7,000 yearling rainbow trout will be planted in Sedgewick Lake and 3,000 in Owen's Pond. So Mr. Plummer with any kind of luck at all we should have some good local fishing this year.

KINDERGARTEN VISITS THE POST OFFICE

by Betty Walsh
Last Wednesday morning, a procession of little folk of the Sedgewick Kindergarten, accompanied by their teacher Mrs. Polge and helper Mrs. Pat MacKinnon, paid a visit to the Post Office. They had composed and all signed a Thankyou letter and had brought it to the post office to see what happens to the letters when they are mailed. After the important business of buying the stamp and putting it on the envelope, they were allowed to in to see the next step after putting it in the mailbox.

First, all the letters were stamped and then the letters are sorted and put into bins collected by the mail truck. Where this truck comes in and loads and unloads the heavy bags and the next discovery. Then they were shown how the letters were sorted, some to go into the mail boxes, some on the shelves for people who call for their mail and some in a special place for rural route delivery.

The safe and where the stamps are kept and how the different kinds there are, and the money orders were then exhibited for them. By the time they left, they most likely knew more about the way a post office is run than most adults do. Those who organize or help in any way with these trips are to be highly commended for making the learning process so much fun for their little people.

How old do you have to be to quit school? Not less than 16, some say. Fred is an example.

So, he isn't a slow student, he's Fred Sparrow, a familiar school symbol for the last 35 years.

Parents can remember times back in 45 and 48, when Fred was there. Ready for anything. Armed with his books, he faced thousands of students and their problems. Students of all shapes, sizes and ages.

Why be only half Canadian, when Central High School has a specialized efficient French Language Lab that can help you become a whole Canadian.

With the help of Mrs. Lorna Offord, French teacher, you can experience the wonder of hearing your own voice speaking Central's second official language.

The new lab consists of 30 individual learning carrels where each student has his own tape recorder and head set.

Mrs. Offord has the technical know-how to switch one button and be able to listen to any student mastering the French language.

If you are seeking a job as a government official or any job with the National government, you must be able to speak at least some French. In any big bank or large corporation if you are bilingual the job pay greatly increases.

Are you planning to travel abroad or in our great country? If you are and you do speak the 2nd language it may save you a lot of time and trouble.

To think about it. The world is getting smaller every day and Canadians are an important part of that world. So why don't you learn French and become a whole Canadian.

CHANGE IN STANDING AT KILLAM COMPETITION
Due to an error in reading the judging sheets, a change of placing has been announced for the Figure Skating Competition held at Killam February 23rd.

In Pre-Juvenile girls class, Miss Lina Mayne of Sedgewick has been placed 2nd instead of 5th, and the 4th and 5th are two Camrose girls. The three slaters were actually tied for fourth place, making the placings very difficult with such close scores. Lina will receive a bronze medal.

SedgeWick News

Early on Sunday afternoon the home of Mrs. Mellon, which stood in the yard of the Ralph Storchak farm, was completely destroyed by fire. Mrs. Mellon was not in the house and we understand no one was hurt, but she lost everything as the fire was too far advanced by the time it was observed to save anything. I'm sure we all offer our sympathy to Mrs. Mellon as so many things can never be replaced.

Recreation Round-up

SEdgeWICK - The "Rec" was a busy place last week!

A large crowd at the Recreation Centre on Saturday and Sunday enjoyed watching some good curling in the Men's Bonspiel. The Skate-A-Ton on Sunday was also an attraction. A surprising number of folks put in a full hour of skating, including many pre-schoolers. Adults also took part, including one gentleman who not even had his skates on for two years. I wonder if he found he needed ice he did not even know he had on Monday?

German measles on the increase locally

There has been an increase in the incidence of German Measles (Rubella) reported across Canada and includes our health unit.

One of the main concerns is when rubella is acquired during the first three months of pregnancy which may produce severe malformations in various fetal organs. Depending on which tissues are multiplying most rapidly at the time, it may involve the heart, ears and back of the head. There is a rash of variable character resembling that of measles, scarlet fever or hives, or a number of mild viral infections of similar nature which appears first on the face and spreads rapidly downward over the body and fades away in a few days.

Usually no specific treatment is required. Rest and aspirin are all that's necessary to be protected for the next few years. The only contraindications are pregnancy with rubella and surgery to rubella or encephalitis.

Immunization is available to all females over 12 years by consulting with your family doctor who will have laboratory tests done on your blood to determine your level of immunity. If it is found to be low, you will be given a shot. This is a very safe procedure and eliminates the possibility of malformations in infants due to rubella.

The answers to the most frequently asked questions include: The incubation period is 14 to 21 days, usually 18 days. It is a mild infectious disease usually exhibiting slightly elevated temperature, mild cold symptoms and almost always enlargement of lymph nodes behind the ears and back of the head. 'Big kids' attend school at Strome

On Wednesday morning the school rang only to find that a day at the Strome School and many parents came to attend classes with their children. There may have been a few old faces as the younger pupils gave their names, but it was a new group of pupils. It was a very good day for the school and the parents.

SEDGEWICK — Numerous relatives and friends gathered at the T.J. Wilson home on Sunday afternoon March 10 to celebrate his mother's, Mrs. L. B. Wilson's 80th birthday. She lives at the Killam Auxiliary Hospital and enjoyed the afternoon seeing her children grandchildren and great grandchildren together.

Joy Vandervoede, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Vandervoede received the news last week that she had won a prize in an Alberta Poster and Essay Contest sponsored by Mr. Ralph Sorenson of Killam. The posters were on the theme "Travel Alberta" and the essays on a person in Alberta's history. Joy, who is a Grade IV student at Sedgewick Public School received her prize for the poster she submitted. There were 200 entries in the Poster Contest.

The prizes were awarded by Mr. Sorenson at a banquet held in the Elks Hall, Coramaton last Monday. Joy was accompanied by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Duford and Mrs. Elmore Teweedy. Mrs. Duford is the principal while Mrs. Teweedy is Joy's teacher. Joy received a cash and a cash award for her prize. Congratulations to our lady curlers again. A risk consisting of Mrs. Ardith Gould, Mrs. Donna Metz, Mrs. Martha Pope and Mrs. Vivian Sparrow came home from the Ladies' Luncheon in Irma with first prize in the second event.

to the air Flyers take

If you are getting "bugged" by light plane flying over the town of Hardisty and surrounding area, don't get disturbed. You are not being invaded by an enemy nor are you even being visited by an outsider looking for a place to land. It is just a Cessna trainer plane being used by the Hardisty Flying Club.

The club, after many months of frustration and delays, finally put "off the ground" last week when lessons began for 14 members of the club. Pilot Arun Anand, a registered pilot with Inter-provincial Airways is the instructor, and the club is using the flying field three miles south-west of the town of Hardisty. On the first day of operation half of the 14 students took their first lesson, a Familiarization Flight, and lessons are continuing daily until the training is completed for all students.

President of the Hardisty Flying Club is Fred Cron, a licensed pilot in his own rights. Secretary is Adolph Ruesch. It is due to the continuous effort of these two along with many others that the Club finally became operational.

LETTERS

Mr. Editor:
 Two Progressive Conservatives who at last weeks' Press, "Dear People Please vote for My Party" read slowly and carefully the editorial in the paper. I am sure that they do not intend to interfere with the process of collective bargaining. I think the time has certainly come when we must all weigh this matter very carefully and then make representation to the Government stating your opinions.

Hardisty auxiliary pays for heart monitor

The March meeting of the Hardisty Hospital Auxiliary took place on Wednesday, 12 of March with 10 members and one visitor in attendance.

The secretary gave the facts and figures for installing a p.p.p. machine in the hospital and a motion was carried to put this into effect.

Tray favors for St. Patrick's Day were to be made by Marion Madden and Maureen Hays.

Arrangements were discussed for the Spring Ringo in aid of funds for a new ECG machine in the hospital. The date for the ringo was set at Monday, April 14 in the Elks Hall. If it is available. Tickets will be available at 11 each. Jobs will be allocated to members at the next meeting.

April 18th will be the date of the next meeting after which the Annual General Meeting will be held. The present executive with to serve notice of intent to amend Article 7 section 4 governing the election of officers of members having at least 50 per cent attendance at the previous years' meetings. This may no longer be a requirement.

It is sincerely hoped that a good turn out will be in attendance and that the auxiliary may get off to an enthusiastic and healthy start to its new year.

Delegation Visits Dayland

A delegation of four members of the Hardisty Auxiliary visited the meeting held at Dayland on Thursday, the 13th of March. The main purpose of the visit was to hear a presentation by the Dayland Ladies guest speaker Mrs. Lorraine Morris, President of the Alberta Hospital Auxiliary Association.

The main theme of Mrs. Morris' talk was an increased emphasis on the co-operation and communication between hospital auxiliaries and the hospital administration. She saw the role of the auxiliary as extremely important in any community. It is a valuable human resource link in developing public relations between hospital administration and community by interpreting the purpose and aims of the hospital to the community. It is also an active volunteer service group enhanced by its fund raising efforts on behalf of the hospital.

Mrs. Morris also envisaged a place for an auxiliary member on most hospital boards. This position would not necessarily have any voting power but would enable the auxiliary to understand and possibly help form long range plans for both hospital and auxiliary. This work is looking forward to improve community relations the auxiliary involvement in it will be the ideal testament for the purpose.

not your hearts but come into Me all that toil and labour and are heavy laden and I will give you rest.
Jesus said when you see the trees putting forth their leaves you know that summer is close so likewise when you see these things come to pass know that the time is short and I will soon return. Jesus said people would return to their own ways having fled his ears.
So when you hear of wars and rumors of wars and earthquakes in different places, starvations and men's hearts fail them for fear of the things that should come upon the earth. Look up for Redemption draw nigh and is even at your door.
These are just a few things that are being fulfilled now so do not be fearful. Judgment will come upon you as a thief in the night and you won't have time to do anything then. It is not that I am afraid of you. Except him whose will is to get him. Rest part of your sins because judgment is coming severe than you think. His old world is coming worse and worse all the time, and when Jesus warms up people of His generation concerning this Coming and the Bapture of the church, His Bapture of the church, His Bapture in Lake 17:22 to the second Advent verse in the entire Bible, Jesus compared the conditions that would be present in the days of Sodom and Gomorrah.

Also Jesus said that the Coming of the Lord would be as it was in the days of Noah, the people would be eating and drinking and being merry until the day of the flood and God Himself closed the door and there was no flesh saved except that of Noah, 3 sons and their wives, a people, that all, remember also that we are God's creation and he wants you to serve Him with gladness because he made you, so that we may live new life in the coming world which God has promised those that serve him now, because He said he will destroy this world and make a new one and a new Heaven.

And if we open our hearts to the Spirit then we can and will become again a child of God as we were in the beginning when Adam and Eve were created. We claim that there is a Communication Gap in this age we live in but I don't see one between Jesus and his Father. There was never a Separation or a cloud of doubt or a misunderstanding because He never left Him for a moment. Why should He when Jesus does everything Father, are we doing only those things which please our Heavenly Father? Let's learn to live this way towards God. Jesus said "I do nothing of myself but that which my Father tells me." God loves you to just as much and waits patiently outside our hearts door, telling us to open it and confess and repent of our sins and that we want to please Him (God).
Then God forgives not only meagly or stammerly, BUT, Religiously and gratefully and abundantly. His forgiveness is worthy.

"He" does more than forgive "HE" remembers them no more. He does more than forgive, He casts them from us as far as the East is from the West and where sin is bound God's grace did much more. All because of the blood that Jesus shed on the cross for our sins and this is what sets His wealth of mercy free is Jesus.
"His" not what we have in God that Jesus But "He" who God has in us So turn to Him today while you can and while there is yet time! If you don't know how then give me a call at this number, 382-3535, or write Box 5, Killam, Alberta. T8B 2B4.

Hardisty Happenings

HARDISTY - It's all the style now to become a grandparent.

June Dore is rejoicing in a big new grandson, born to the Malar family of Calgary. Lola's new son weighed 8 lbs. 11 ounces and is called Paul Aaron Malar.

Dannie and Harriet Glendon also have a new grandson, born to Mr. and Mrs. Les Bullock of Walworth. The baby arrived on March 17th and weighed 7 pounds and 10 oz. His name is Shawn Geoffrey.

Congratulations to Doreen Bell on having the winning ticket from the Kinetix which entitled her to a 1 minute shopping spree. I bet that was the fastest Doreen ever worked in such a short time accumulating almost $200.00 worth of groceries. The Co-op Store is where this took place.

Alex and Carol Elmqvist, having spent the winter in Emily Elmqvist's home, are returning to Wilkie, live. We understand that Emily will be back in her own house around April 1st. She has been in Rod Deer all winter.

Caught a glimpse of Max Leodholm in town the other day.

Margaret and Ole Cherman are having a holiday away from the bugs for a change. They planned to visit Margaret's sister, Mrs. Trice in the Vancouver area, and then on to California.

A report from Calgary says that Minnie (Anderson) Hall and her husband Don played for a dance for the over 50's.

As part of this program, Cheryl Cherman has been transferred by the environmental department from Calgary to it's Red Deer office and has been appointed as a field worker. Congratulations, Cheryl. Gary had spent some time attending Mount Royal College in Calgary.

STROMBERG TAKES CAMROSE AGAIN
Camrose Constituency went Stromberg all the way. Every poll put the Progressive Conservative candidate in the lead with a large majority.

The unofficial count in the Camrose Constituency was: P.C. (Stromberg) 6,675
Social Credit (Field) 1,088
NDP (Moore) 1,134

Across Alberta, the P.C.'s got the mandate the Premier had asked for as they took 69 of the 75 seats. The ruling Tories polled 62 per cent of the total vote.

Two party leaders were defeated: Werner Schmidt for the Sherbrooke in Tabor; Warner, while Liberal Leader Nick Taylor lost in Calgary. Glenora and the more interesting battles was that of Grant Naylor who won was not decided until the last two polls came in, giving him a bare 100 majority.

Unifarm meets

Unifarm Ho's Annual Meet
The annual meeting of Unifarm staff district of Unifarm was held in Heister April 7 with 48 people present. A resolution was passed requesting that demerage charges on grain ships caused by strikes should not be charged against grain producers. Another resolution asked for improvement and continuance of the CN rail line from Forestburg to Alliance.

Reports were heard from the U.F.A. Co-op delegate and the Co-op Implements delegate. Our regional director reported on the year's work.

The guest speaker was Walter McHenry of the Department of Agriculture, who spoke on the Green Certificate Program.

Mission filled a need!

Dear Sir(s):
I thought that the Playfair Spiritual Life Mission was a great help to me and to other young people. I only attended one night but I am glad I got there.

When I was listening to Mr. Rees, I felt a great feeling, that can't be explained properly. I think other people must have felt the way I did.

I felt the Holy Spirit had finally come to me. I also felt that life was worth while.

I had tried to believe in God before the Mission, but I did not believe as much then as I do now.

I think that if I hadn't heard Art Perri, and Holden Booker, in one of the schools, I would not have gone to the Mission.

I would like to thank Art Perri, Holden Booker, and Alf Rees for the enlightenment I received by attending.

I also hope that there are more people, young and old who felt the way I felt the very last night of the Spiritual Life Mission.

I also wish to thank the woman who sat down with me in the basement of the Hall, Thursday night and helped me to realize that someone cared for me. That person who cares for all of us is God.

Dear Editor:
I am writing in answer to the mission "Was the Playfair Mission a success?" in tree-planting, Jim Baker outlined Credit Unions plans and CIS services for the coming year. Lunch was served afterwards. The next meeting will be on April 16. The guest speaker will be Glen Lundy, UFA delegate, and Ben Clari Co-op Implement delegate.

Shelly Dinn and Laura Lynn Shatz, right, were the Queens, while Jeannette Johnson was the Princess. The Hardisty ice reeve was a big success, with the theme "Movies on Ice".

I know a lot of people enjoyed the crusade and my friends and I went every night because the service was so interesting and Holden Booker and Art Perri would talk with us and discuss any problems or questions that we had. When the crusade came to an end, it was hard to part with Art, Holden and Alf Rees, because we had become attached to them in a spiritual way, but the most important thing was that they had brought a lot of people into a closer relationship with God. I'm really thankful to them for this and I know I won't forget them and a lot of other people won't either.

Many new faces in Lougheed's cabinet

Kevin Peterson
Premier Peter Lougheed reached into his back benches to find seven new cabinet ministers, including four from rural Alberta, when he put together his second cabinet.

Perhaps the greatest surprise of the new lineup was that the premier took three senior cabinet posts and handed them to first-time ministers, including a crucial portfolio of agriculture.

Marvin Moore of Smoky River, who has been a protégé of former minister Hugh Hornor since 1971, will move directly into the agriculture minister's job. Coupled with the ministerial switch is a deputy minister shake-up - the controversial Glen Purcell will move over to a new job with Dr. Horner, while assistant deputy minister J. G. O'Donoghue will move up.

Dr. Horner is expected to continue to have a major input into agriculture and rural development policy. He also will have a new transportation portfolio that will include highways construction as well as carrying the Alberta hall on continued discussions over freight rates.

The appointment of Dr. Horner is viewed as the boldest administration is prepared for an all-out fight to retain the Crownwest Pass grain rates which Ottawa has been rumbling about discontinuing. The new minister and department will also be pressing for a better deal on the shipping of processed agricultural products to end decades of discrimination against Alberta agricultural processors.

One new man whom some farmers had indicated they wanted in the cabinet also got the nod from Premier Lougheed. Dallas Schmidt, representing Wetaskinaw-Leduc, will be a minister-cum-deputy portfolio with special responsibility for rural local government.

Mr. Schmidt, who will resign his post as reeve of the County of Wetaskinaw, brings 16 years of local government and planning experience to the cabinet. He enters the government inner circle only a week after he was first elected to the Legislature.

Another newcomer both to the House and the cabinet is Lethbridge MLA Dick Johnston who will be this year's first minister in decades and hold the senior post of municipal affairs minister.

The 35-year-old accountant was one of two Sedgewick, Alta. who went directly into the cabinet. The Tories had no members from south of Calgary in the last Legislature, this time they held 11 of 13

As expected, Bob Bogle, the giant-lipped who consigned Sorensen party leader Werner Schmidt to political oblivion in Taler-Warner, moved directly to the top of the ladder. The 31-year-old Milk River teacher-businessman - he'll be the province's youngest minister - will be a minister-without-portfolio responsible for native affairs.

Another unexpected development was the appointment of Graham Harle to the consumer affairs post. The Stettin lawyer has been an impressive force in the House since he was first elected and is expected to push up Alberta's previous lackluster performance in the area.

Two urban newcomers also joined the cabinet. Edmonton's Julian Koskoff will be minister of Education - a surprise because of his lack of experience, while Calgary's Stewart McCre will have special responsibility for the southern city.

TO MOVE ON - Mr. Don MacIntosh, above, is all smiles about the move of Co-op Implementers to their building in Sedgewick. A special invitation attended the opening on April 13 is extended in the official second section of this issue.

Latest in rapeseed research

Prepared by Alberta Wheat Pool

Rapeseed, once a minor crop, now occupies an important position in Canadian grain production. Plant breeding and variety research began early in the history of rapeseed and has produced new rapeseed varieties regularly. Researchers continue to develop varieties better suited to the Canadian and export food and feed markets.

For most of Alberta and the Peace River area of British Columbia, Polish rapeseed is best suited to the growing season. Only in parts of southern Alberta and along the Alberta - Saskatchewan border is it possible to grow Argentine rapeseed successfully. Argentine varieties mature in about the same length of time as wheat, while the season for Polish rapeseed is similar to barley.

Erucic acid was one component of rapeseed oil found to be undesirable for human consumption. Breeders developed low erucic acid types such as the Polish varieties, Span and Torch, and the Argentine Zephyr and Midas varieties. Torch, the recommended Alberta variety, shows a yield advantage over Span in most parts of the province.

The feeding value of rapeseed meal is affected by the presence of glucosinolates. These limit the use of meal for feed purposes because the uptake of iodine by the thyroid gland is inhibited. Plant breeders have recently licensed a new Argentine variety low in both erucic and glucosinolates called Tower. It is not suited to Manitoba and Saskatchewan production and will be available for seeding in the spring of 1978. Although the meal produced from Tower rapeseed will have an advantage in the feed markets, the variety is not generally recommended for Alberta and British Columbia. The variety's growing season is too long for most parts of the province.

Breeding research for low erucic acid, low glucosinolate Polish rapeseed is proceeding but the genetic nature of the plant makes the low glucosinolate characteristic more difficult to achieve. Recently, low glucosinolate Polish types have been isolated, however evaluation is necessary to determine their production potential. Even if all plant breeding work goes smoothly, low glucosinolate Polish varieties will not be in commercial production before 1977. Until then, Alberta's Polish rapeseed, high in glucosinolate content, may be priced lower than Manitoba and Saskatchewan's low glucosinolate Argentine rapeseed.

One low glucosinolate variety has been isolated, researchers will work towards a lower fiber content in the meal. One way this can be accomplished is by producing rapeseed with a yellow seed coat. To identify yellowseeded rapeseed from must-hatched low seed coat with a brown spot may be possible. In addition to lower fiber content, yellow rapeseed would increase the seed's oil and protein content. Yellow rapeseed will be easier to develop in Polish varieties than in Argentine types.

An early maturing Argentine rapeseed variety in both erucic and glucosinolate may be possible for Alberta conditions. To date, plant breeders have produced one type which matures between the time necessary for present Argentine and Polish varieties. It is likely that researchers will develop even earlier maturing Argentine types before release for commercial production.

In addition to these rapeseed breeding projects, the fatty acid composition of rapeseed is under study. A change in fatty acids is considered to be nutritionally desirable. Rapeseed with a very high erucic acid content also is under investigation. An oil from this type of rapeseed could be utilized in the production of industrial products.

Present rapeseed research focuses on quality factors. Development of varieties with the desired qualities will be followed by more intensive work on agronomic characteristics. Yields, disease resistance, plant structure and seedling rates will be areas of future study. Regional adaptability of specific varieties may also be investigated.

4-H Club

Merna 4-H Beef Club. Wednesday, April 2nd, the Merna 4-H Beef Club met at the Alfred Bands home. There were ten members. Lee Webster, Ron Burdick and Glen Giesbrecht were present. The picnic was led by Glen Giesbrecht, roll call was on the menu of giving the breed, weight and gain of your calf. The minutes and treasurer's reports were adopted as usual.

The annual club tour will be held on April 16th, at ten o'clock from the Alfred Bands farm. A harsh committee, Lee Webster, Ron Burdick and Glen Giesbrecht are to see where a warmer rust for that day.

One winter was directed to winter with decorations for school. This consisted of seven Missions. Lee Webster and Glen Giesbrecht. We decided to take a Club trip later in the season.

Recent members were hosted on and the meeting adjourned by Doug Burdick. Mrs. Bands served lunch.

ALBERTA WHEAT POOL

Let's Talk It Over

Gordon Stromberg, M.L.A.

Monday the 7th, it will be business as usual. Because of the Election Act, from the time of calling the election to ten days after the election, or until an M.L.A. is officially sworn in, an M.L.A. cannot use their office, Government staff, constituency, etc. And that's the way it's got to be, but never the less, it's a heck of a way to try and run a constituency for 30 days. Ardell has been willing to type out many letters with one finger.

This past week, I met with the County Council of Camrose to discuss areas where we could work together such as the gravel pit road south of Camrose, and sewage gathering facilities for Round Hill and Chatham. Under present financing or grants by the Dept. of Environment, there is no way in the world the taxpayers of these hamlets will ever afford this necessity. I believe that out of the 400 hamlets in Alberta, only 2 or 3 now have systems. And now that we have a new Minister of Environment, I'm going to approach him to raise the grant higher. Also, with my good friend, Dr. Horner now in charge of the Highways Dept., I will be arranging an appointment with him to meet with County Council in regard to the gravel pit road.

Also spent last Wednesday at Bowf in the Uniform District of Camrose annual meeting — a very worthwhile day. I was asked a number of questions such as the price of farm fuels, if Peter gets 80 a barrel less, what? Strikes, marketing boards, railways, etc.

Many reasons for hedging offered

There are many reasons for planting a hedge.

A hedge may beautify property, hide unsightly objects, act as a shelter from harsh winds or be a background for colorful flower borders.

With the long prairie winter in mind, you may want a shelter and give a feeling of evergreen hedge that provides warmth and comfort.

A hedge of shrubs that have colorful bark, such as willow or dogwood, will provide relief from the monotonous of evergreens.

Something else to consider is cost. Evergreen hedges cost more to establish than deciduous ones. But they need less pruning.

Soil and site must also be considered. Some hedges, such as Salibush, Buffaloberry and Russian Olive will grow in alkaline soil. Others such as Amur maple, thrive in slightly acid soils. Some shrubs that will grow in the shade include dogwood, viburnums and conygmus.

Hedge plants should be in proportion to their surroundings. Hedges with large coarse leaves have no place around the urban home because they make other plants seem crowded.

On the farm, hedges have particular appeal. They can be used to screen farm buildings, to give privacy and perhaps most important, to give shelter from the wind and relief from the boundless open space of the Prairies.

Spiny or thorny hedge plants help keep animals from a particular area. Examples include, hawthorn, Salibush, Spiny Caragana and Canada plum.

When selecting deciduous plants for a hedge, use seedling plants, spruce or cedar, three to five years old, that have been transplanted in a nursery. They are easier to establish and more economical than larger specimens.

In the Prairie region, cedar hedges must have some protection from the southwest, or sunlight may brown the exposed parts.

For further information, write to Agriculture Canada, Information Division, Sir John Carling Building, Ottawa K1A 0C7. Ask for publication No. 1183, entitled Hedges for the Prairies.

with GORDON

Also did something I haven't done for a long time — took Ardell to a movie.

Sunday, Ardell and I took part in the happy celebration of Barney and Jessie Harbors 50th wedding anniversary in Camrose.

I don't know if you remember, but about two years ago, through this column, that I had approached both Horst Schmidt and Bert Hohl if something could be done in the way of funding for the abandoned and the historical cemeteries of Alberta. Before anything could be done, we had to know how many there were, their conditioning, age, etc. I advertised through this column for the location of such cemeteries. I am more than pleased that a total of $25,410 has been issued to the following cemeteries:

Meeting Creek - Little Rock $100, Meeting Creek $200, Round Hill - Thordal $1, $2,000, Calgary $750, Ukrainian $400, St. Stanislaus $2,000, Trudell $2, $500, Ukrainian Catholic $750, Camrose - Lake De May $200, Camrose Old $1500, Proletarian Lutheran $1000, Camrose (Inactive) $2,000, Camrose (Active) $1000.

Ramsden - Larson wed

On November 9th at 5:30 p.m., Trinity Lutheran Church was the scene of a lovely candle lit wedding when Elaine Ramsden and George Larson were united in marriage by the Rev. Dr. J. G. Ramsden.

Elaine is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Ramsden of Lougheed and John is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. John Ramsden of Whitehorse, N.W.T.

Pastor Palmer Olson officiated at the double ring ceremony before the altar decorated with tall bouquets and flanked by tall candelabra. Organist for the occasion was Mrs. Kay Routledge. Mrs. Christine Myrland sang The Wedding Prayer during the signing of the register. Kevin and Dale Probst, nephews of the bride, lit the altar candles prior to the ceremony.

Entering the church on the arm of her father, the bride was attired in a floor length gown of white tulle, featuring a lace applique and chapel train. Venise lace and tiny flowers trimmed the bodice and hemline. Her cathedral-length veil mistled from a Juliette cap trimmed with lace appliques and seed pearls, and her bouquet was of yellow roses centered by a single white orchid.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was her niece, Miss Beth Simpson. Bridesmaids were her sisters Mrs. Roxanne Toppe and Mrs. Pat Horinek, and the groom's sister Miss Anne Ramsden of Edmonton.

A dance, with music by the Little League Glee Club of Red Deer, was flower girl.

All were attired in identical floor-length gowns of blue polyester, styled with high necklines and ruffled sleeves. The bodices were trimmed with white maribou and they were matching maribou head pieces. Their bouquets were yellow roses. The flower girl carried a nosegay of blue lilies.

For his wedding, the groom chose a tuxedo featuring a variegated effect blue jacket with which he wore a pale blue ruffled shirt. His boutonniere was two yellow roses.

Attending the groom as best man was his brother Jim at Whitehorse. Groomsmen were John Larson, brother of the bride, Leo Thompson and Bud Hornek, brother-in-law of the bride. Their wives, pale blue tulle dresses were their. Mark and Joanne. Their boutonniere were blue lilies.

Best woman was Edna Thompson, nephew of the bride. Second of honor is the groom. He carried the bride on a blue lily cushion.

Following the guests were Alan Ramsden and George Simpson, nephews of the bride. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Larson chose a coral colored floor length gown and a corsage of yellow roses.

Mrs. Ramsden chose a floor length gown of white tulle. Her corsage was pink roses.

Following the ceremony, a reception for over 200 guests was held at Lougheed Community Hall where Mrs. Shirley Nease was in charge of the guest book.

The bride's table was centered with a lovely three-tiered wedding cake, flanked by blue and white tapera. Mrs. Larson was in charge of the very capable M. C. Mr. Gus Probst, brother-in-law of the bride, proposed the toast to the bride to which the groom ably responded. Toast to the bride was made by the bride's brother John. Telegrams were read from Ontario and Whitehorse.

During the reception, guests were entertained with several piano selections by Mrs. Myrtle Roggenbach and duets by the "New Sisters", Mrs. Judy Wagner and Mrs. Shari Hayes of Edmonton.

A dance, with music by the Horinek orchestra of Sedgewick, completed the evening.

For going away, the bride and groom chose brown slacks and jackets, with dark green sweater tops.

Out of town guests were from: Kelowna, Saskatoon, Lethbridge, Calgary, Edmonton, Whitehorse, High Level, Darwell, Drayton Valley, Red Deer, Castor, Canmore, Killam, Sedgewick and Hinton.

Joe and Elaine are residing in Red Deer where they are both Social Work students at Red Deer College. (Reprinted by special request) of service to the tourist. The tourist industry is an important source of revenue for the province and its benefits affect the whole economy of Alberta. Travel Alberta is conscious of this as the Battle River Tourist Association. They urge full use be made of this seminar.

President Ken Ince reported on the TIALTA Convention held at Calgary, and said that the 16 delegates from Zone 5 had played an important part

Tourist seminar

In the meeting, The Zone had been recognized in a number of ways, and had participated very actively in the business agenda. They also received high commendation for the work done within the Zone.

Their addition of a lively original skit, done up in a fine style by the members of the delegation, earned them rounds of applause. At the convention Leon D'Albertanson, member of the original board, and second president of Battle River Tourist Ass'n was honored by being awarded the Herb Webster Trophy, given annually to the person felt to be deserving of recognition for an outstanding contribution to tourism.

Mrs Edna Palmer, reported for promotional literature, said that 15 centres had sent in information requested by Travel Alberta for use in compiling their 'fare literature' for the coming year.

The Evans of Half Moon Lake Resort, Dade Ranch and Trailer Park were in attendance and explained the problems they faced regarding getting adequate signs placed on the highway, as well as a number of other problems faced by the members of the Resort and Campground Manager Association. She said that they would submit material for resolutions in time for the next convention of TIALTA.

Mrs Sylvia Clemens, Sec. Mgr. of B.R.T.A. reported on a meeting of Zone 4 which she attended and suggested that we follow their lead in providing information to travellers of pre-planned tours in our Zone. This idea was well received, and submission of proposals in this connection will be made at the next meeting.

Leon D'Albertanson, publicist chairman, proposed a series of advertisements in the weeklies in the Zone, urging residents to invite their friends and relatives to come to Battle River Tourist Zone for their holidays this summer. The advertisements also suggested that they pick up Zone literature and include it with their invitation. The go-ahead was given to this project which may include up to 8 or 10 advertisements. Included in these adds would be references to the pre-planned tours proposed by Mrs. Clemens.

The Taylors, Chavira spoke of developments in the Great West Country Vacation Area and thanked Zone 5 for their co-operation. They stated that the need for highway directional signs was one of their serious problems.

Hardisty Auxiliary joins provincial assoc.

A good assembly of sixteen members and three visitors attended the regular monthly and Annual General meetings of the Hardisty Hospital Auxiliary on Wednesday, April 9. The final preparations for the Bingo to be held on Monday, April 14th were made.

The president reported the purchase of an electric knife for the kitchen staff at the hospital for which grateful thanks were received. The director of nursing had suggested the necessity of a new electrocardiograph machine and a result, and a motion was passed to purchase both these items.

The secretary reported that a pop machine is being installed in the hospital in the near future. It is hoped that after a month's trial operation, the auxiliary will purchase the machine and it will be a permanent service for patients and visitors.

The membership unanimously voted to join the provincial organization, the Alberta Hospital Auxiliaries Association, following a lengthy discussion of the role of the auxiliary in relation to the hospital and the community. The members agreed that it has an important role as a "go between" for hospital and community and communications must be improved in this regard.

History of before union

Church

by Shirley E. Foster

Section IV
World War I in 1914 brought an increase in revenues and an increase in church goers as war often does. Mr. Jas. Stewart was the minister at this time and stayed with congregations until 1916.

The Prairie Park Congregation built their church in the year 1918. The two congregations that met in the Prairie Park School and the Assiniboia School respectively became one when the Prairie Park Church was built. It was located directly across the road from the F. Edgington farm, and was paid for within the year.

Nineteen ministers brought a change of ministers and an unexpected rise in membership. Membership stood at 75 but rose to an all-time high of 106 the following year. The minister, Mr. A. T. Barr, served until the fall of 1918.

In the spring of 1919, the Rev. N. D. MacDonald, M.A., B.D., became the minister, serving here until 1922. Rev. George Henwick followed Mr. MacDonald and ministered to the congregations from 1922 to 24. Times were very hard and attendance and support dwindled. There was talk of amalgamation with the Sedgewick congregation. Communicant membership was 60. The minister's salary was in arrears and the Board of Management found it difficult to meet obligations. Rev. T. G. Marshall succeeded Rev. Henwick in 1942. to be concluded

Sedgewick Bowlers sponsor Bow-a-thon

On Saturday, April 5th beginning at 10:00 a.m., and ending at 10 p.m. 22 bowlers from young to not so young, took part in a Bow-a-thon to raise money towards automatic pinners.

During the day bowlers contributed towards a "nickel pot" for high game winners and a "penny pot" for some event the purpose of which was not clear, but since several people collected the "lost" it wasn't too difficult to win. These helped add to the meritment of a very enjoyable day.

In spite of sore fingers, aching bodies, arms and legs, ten bowlers and two pin-setters managed to go the entire twelve hours, while other bowlers anywhere from 1 1/2 hours to 7 hours, raising approximately $1200.00.

She spent a month in Portland visiting her recently widowed sister-in-law, Mrs. Orey Elm. Had a short stay in Vancouver and found out while going through customs there, that J.C. Barley Growers: When You Don't Get a Second Chance to Knock Out Wild Oats Let Avenge® Make The First One Count!

AVENGES® for Control of Wild Oats in Barley
Even light infestations of 1-10 wild oat plants per square foot may cause severe barley yield losses which, if saved, would more than pay for the cost of control.

AVENGES® 200-C Herbicide gives excellent control of wild oats when applied from the 3-5 leaf stage of the weed — a wide flexibility of timing of application.

So this year start to rid your fields of wild oats, increase your barley yields and save on dockage at market.

This is the aim of the newly founded Flagstaff Association for children with Learning Disabilities. A special meeting is planned for Learning Disability Week to be held Thursday, April 24th at 8:00 p.m. at the Sedgewick Elementary School. Guest speaker for the evening will be Mrs. Evelyn Ungar, Director of the Evelyn Ungar School for Learning and Language Development in Edmonton.

You will enjoy meeting Mrs. Ungar, a very interesting and dedicated person. The public is invited to attend.

LETTER BOX

TO A DEAR FRIEND:

It was 3 o'clock in the morning and I could not go to sleep again and I was wondering who was the sender of the mysterious letter. It was rather a surprise when I came home from Church and discovered the bag full of mystery stories. I went right away to the desk and asked who had brought it. "It was a man, we don't know who; it was most likely someone from Sedgewick." Well, I decided to ask this letter to the Sedgewick Press to print it and I hope the right person reads it. Thank you a 1000 times, and may our Lord Bless You.

Industrial grain uses

AGRI - INSIGHT

When you seal an envelope, did you realize the gum on the envelope likely contains a component of wheat product? The charcoal briquettes for your barbecue may be held together by a wheat product. Explosives or the activated carbon in wax masks could originate from the brewer's malted barley. A solvent, utilized in the extraction of crude petroleum and the production of synthetic rubber, is derived from oats. These represent just a few of the industrial uses of wheat, barley and oats.

Food, feed and seed are the most common and significant uses of wheat, barley and oats. The brewer and distiller industries also find these grains valuable and essential. Only a small volume of these three grains are currently used for industrial purposes. However, there is a substantial potential for growth since grains are an almost renewable resource. Chemistry is the word used by cereal chemists to describe the changing farm commodities into industrial products.

Two major components of a wheat kernel are starch and gluten. The paper industry is the largest consumer of industrial wheat starch. It is used to increase the water and alkaline resistance of paper and add body to the paper. Corrugated paper adhesives utilize wheat starch.

Wheat starch is also purchased by textile manufacturers. It is employed as a binder, stiffening and finishing agent in finishing textiles. In addition, wheat starch is valuable as a thickening agent in textiles printing pastes.

Paper handling adhesive pastes are another use. Starch from wheat is suitable for carmen seals, envelope gums, paper bag seam seals and paper container labeling.

As wheat starch is white in color, it is useful for pharmaceutical fabrics and cosmetics. Charcoal briquettes can be held together with wheat starch. It is possible to produce a synthetic detergent bar from wheat, bleached hot water mill, ground oat hulls used as a skin conditioning additive in soaps and shave creams.

Wheat has potential in the fermentation industry. As conventional energy resources become scarce and more expensive, wheat can become a source of ethyl alcohol fuel.

One bushel of wheat yields about 2.5 gallons of alcohol. Whole wheat, wheat flour, wheat gluten and wheat straw have been employed in building materials such as lightweight concrete system board precast wallboard, hardboard and artificial wood. Wheat gluten has potential for use as castings, edible packaging and as a base for chewing gum.

Barley Barley usage has been primarily confined to the feed, food and distillery industries. Livestock feed, not barley, pearl-barley, however, barley flour for baby foods, malt and malt flour for the common uses.

Development of industrial uses of barley have focused on the malted barley left after the brewing process. This by-product (often called spent grain) can produce cellulose for explosives or activated carbon for gas masks. It can be converted to a form of cellulose suitable for textile and plastics production. Industrial solvents and lubricants are other possibilities. Spent grain can be used for non-flammable construction materials or as a soil compaction agent for concrete foundations.

The best known industrial use of oats is the production of a solvent called furfural from oat hulls. It is utilized in the extraction of crude petroleum, the manufacture of synthetic rubber and the production of grinding wheels.

Furfural is also involved in making plastic bottle caps, fabrics, wood adhesives, engine castings and floor tile cements.

Ground oat hulls have been suggested for an anti-skid tread composition, linoleum, construction board and as an abrasive. Oat hulls also appear to provide protection against insect pests. As a result, oat hull preparations or chewing gums may be suitable for humans.

As oat flour acts as an emulsifier, it has been used in milk butter, ice cream and bacon. Oat meal or flour is used for skin care, as a cleansing agent for masks and in baths to relieve itching. Oat meal may have applications in adhesives and as a stabilizer in ice cream.

Wheat will continue to be primarily a food grain and barley and oats feed grains. However it is important to realize that the growing of cereals ever increasing world population to examine alternative sources of supply for industrial products. As an annual crop grains could be the basis for products currently derived from non-renewable or long-term renewable resources.

The Community PressFinal installment of Church before union

by Shirley E. Forster

In 1923 the congregations faced the question of Union with the Methodist and Congregational faiths, because on June 16, 1923, the United Church of Canada would come into being. The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of Canada had gained the two-thirds majority required for the union.

Mary within the Presbyterian Church in Killam were opposed to the Union and the minister was very uncertain about it. Communication between General Assembly delegates had been poor and little or no literature had been given to the congregation regarding the proposed union.

Some of the people felt Mr. Marshall had expressed his own doubts regarding the union before the vote while others declared that he did not try to influence them in any way. The cause of Union was carried by a very small majority.

The disruption had come and the non-concurring members had decided to carry on the Presbyterian Church in Canada.

It was a difficult time and one which caused a few heart breaks and even family quarrels. The church buildings and all the contents and property became that of the United Church of Canada, so the Presbyterians were left to make a new start — but that is another story.

NOTES FROM AGRICULTURE CANADA

It pays to plant a nurse crop with your forage.

Recent forage at Agriculture

Canada's Moffett, Sask., Research Station have proved that what is still a profitable companion crop with alfalfa or bromegrass.

Farmers have long followed the practice of seeding a cereal nurse crop with forage.

The cereal crop gives some revenue during the first year

when the forage is getting established. The forage yield is reduced the first year if a nurse crop is seeded. But the Moffett scientists have proved that total return over a three-year period when a nurse crop is used top that of forage alone.

Bromegrass, which seeded alone yielded a total of 8.4

tons an acre in the years 1972

through 1974 with bromegrass seeding at $45 a ton and costing

$8 a ton to harvest, the net value of the crop was $312.81

an acre.

When the bromegrass was seeded with wheat at the rate of 15 bushels an acre, the hay yield dropped to 5.7 tons an acre over the three-year period. Net value of the forage crop was $211.89. But the wheat crop, valued at $4.00 a bushel, brought in $152.49 an acre. That's $314.38 more than the value of the bromegrass alone.

It was the same with alfalfa

With alfalfa hay selling at $55 a ton, the net value of the 6.5

tons an acre harvest was $357. But when a wheat nurse crop was grown, the net value of the two crops over the three years was $522.49

an acre.

If forage prices remained fluct, the Moffett scientists estimate that wheat prices would have to fall to $2.41 a bushel or less before the use of a nurse crop becomes uneco-nomical.

Before a farmer decides to plant a nurse crop with his forage, he should consider several factors besides price.

How serious is the weed problem? If growing the companion crop will tend to suppress weeds, it's better to grow wheat than not.

It's subject to the kind of erosion control the owner the forage crop is planting establishes.

It's these simple questions for both the forage and the nurse crop.

The Moffett team spoke to only one kind of companion crops.

Could you consider using the same system with the lucerne and timothy? It is possible to use both in the same field.

SAV GOODBYE TO WINTER BLUES

Since the results of the Nutrition Canada Survey came out in 1973, there has been a big push towards eating nutritious foods. But the results show that physical activity as well as food intake has to be considered if we want to be healthy, look good and feel good. Over half the adults in Canada are overweight. These people don't necessarily eat much more than the people of normal weight, but their physical activity is at a much lower level. So recently there has been a new emphasis placed on physical activity.

For example, the Summer Game last summer, The Canadian Winter Games this spring, and Shape-A-Body, a travelling team that tests how physically fit we Albertans are SHOPPING FOR PHYSICAL FITNESS.

weights, they're less today than the steel ones and won't damage the floors.

Home Economist, Arlene McKay reports that equipment such as barres, exercisers, weight reduction belts and inflation suits are useless.

The barres exerciser may be harmful to some muscles and the spine. A rowing machine, unless it provides for free exercise, isn't very beneficial and takes up space.

expensive. A good gadget may be worth it if it really gets you exercising regularly. But if you throw it in a closet 10 days after you get it — for a person who really wants to get into doing a series of exercises, both running and calisthenics, then a mat for the floor might be the best investment of all.

SIMPLE THINGS such as climbing the stairs instead of taking the elevator is one form of exercise. Walking especially for the elderly, and jogging, a great winter exercise, also helps keep you in shape. Instead of sitting down to a cup of coffee and a pastry a better bet might be a half-hour walk in the fresh air. Especially if it's with a friend or two.

Remember though that exercise should be adapted to the degree of fitness, health and age. And when a certain level of fitness has been achieved, you should try and keep it. Training then becomes gradually easier — that's why you should keep at it.

Jog, walk, bowl, dance — go going! Deep down you know it's right.

WARBLEES ARE ILLEGAL

On March 11th, 1975, the Lieutenant Governor, Ralph Steinhilber, signed an order in Council which prohibited the importation of warblee birds in force on April 1st, 1975. In effect this Agricultural Pests Act 1974 replaces the former Agriculture Pests Act and becomes a law enforced by officers and carries with it penalties of not more than $1,000 fine or 60 days in JAIL upon summary conviction.
This new act deals with Agricultural Pests and nuisances and specifically names several, one of which is the Warblee. It also outlines the duties of each person who owns, occupies or controls any lands, premises, or property, to control the named pests. More specifically to the control of the Warblee Fly, which is a pest named in the Act, a complete appendix has been attached which specifically points out the details related to Warblee Control. The appendix very specifically spells out that any "person who owns, controls or is in possession of livestock must take active measures, to destroy the warblee grub". The methods and specified periods of time are then outlined in detail.

This act also applied to livestock coming into Alberta, and require the warblee-infested livestock coming in be tested at the first point of unloading of the cattle.

The act requires that a owner or operator of a market shall provide facilities to the satisfaction of an officer for proper examination and treatment of animals. However, it is recommended that farmers treat their own livestock at home.

With most of our local cattle being produced in the smaller livestock units, it would appear that you treat your own livestock.

Finally, the Act also includes some exceptions to mass treatment, but these are very specific and apply in only special areas and cases.

If you have any questions about this new Act, or would like to see it in its entirety, you may do so by contacting me at my office.

HARDISTY GOLF CLUB FACES CRITICAL YEAR

With the onset of spring and summer comes the prospect of many enjoyable rounds of golf for the local golfers. The Lakeview Golf Club in Hardisty is one of the many pleasant courses that the County of Flanagan is fortunate to possess.

Over the last few years the membership has been dwindling at Lakeview and the present executive is anxious to get the club back on its feet.

Members are vital to the function of any organization, but to attract members the club also has to make an effort to improve its facilities. Two main areas of improvement are upmost, the courses and the clubhouse. Both of these are important and expensive undertakings but must be the aim of the club and its members if the club is to continue to exist.

At a meeting to be held at the clubhouse on Sunday, May 18th at 2pm these issues will be discussed. It is hoped that the club will be able to purchase new gang mowers and discuss fund raising ideas in order to put modern conveniences into the clubhouse.

All past members and interested new members are urged to attend the meeting as without the support of its membership these improvements cannot be considered. Remember SUNDAY MAY 18th at the CLUBHOUSE

Capacity crowd attend opening

Official opening of the new Co-op Implements depot at Sedgewick on April 17th was one of the biggest events held in recent years.

More than 1000 farmers and local people turned out to see Don Chant, Co-op Implements district delegate, and Henry Scedman cut the ribbon officially opening the new $230,000 sales and service centre.

Construction work on the project began in September, 1974.

Mr. Chant said "There's no doubt the new building gives our members one of the most up-to-date facilities in Alberta, and will allow our co-operative to provide much better service than ever before."

Activities were underway at the Sedgewick depot by 10:00 a.m. and when the ribbon cutting ceremony took place at 5:00 every seat in the building was taken, and twice as many were standing.

Co-op Implements members later attended a dinner, followed by entertainment and dancing.

Don V. Larson, president of the co-operative from Winnipeg, who was guest speaker at the opening, said "Farmers in the Sedgewick district must be congratulated on a magnificent planning and executed affair. This is one of the most widely attended and well organized opening program ever conducted for the completion of a new Co-op Implements depot. It was well planned and the spirit and enthusiasm of our farmers was magnificent!" he said.

Committee member Rolf Jacobsen was master of ceremonies and a number of well-known guest speakers helped the Co-op Implements people launch the new project.

Guest Speakers were D.V. Larson, Winnipeg, president of

Sedgewick News

Mrs. Anis Hagen is a patient in St. John Hospital.

Rev. Hulton of Camrose and his daughter, Dr. Helen Hulton of Nepal were Wednesday lunch guests with Mr. and Mrs. David Black.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Harris accompanied Dick Bergesch, Christine Caser, Bob Steadman and Marshall Fox to the Provincial Badminton Championships held in Calgary on the weekend. Bob and Christine tied for third place with Edmonton City and North Central, while Dick and Marshall played stub in the "A" event. Congratulations go out to all four athletes who were able to provide some competition to the other teams from across Alberta.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Olmstead and boys of Red Deer spent the weekend in Sedgewick with brother Stan and family.

Please remember to pass along any news to your newspaper, Donna Martin. Phone 284-2541.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Jim Olson (nee Carol Taylor) of Pasadena, California, a six and one half pound baby girl on April 28th. Congratulations. Parents and grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Taylor are doing well.

Feed grain may be more questionable. The C.W.B. is encouraging increased area in feed grains, which will result in increased production. This could reduce the price, somewhat, and the final price will be determined somewhat by the reaction of livestock feeders. The feelings of the economist at this point is that barley and oat prices will be buoyed up by up to 25 per cent.

The prices in oilseeds will also be somewhat reduced and nine dollar rape will be quite unlikely. Of course, due to market demands, this years rapeseed crop will have to be virtually all L.E.A.R. (low acid acid rape seed).

I realize that several local farmers are chafing contracts for High Eerie acid rapeseed to be used in the industrial oil market. I would like to give a word of caution here. Although there is nothing wrong with growing high acid rapeseed, you will not be able to grow L.E.A.R. rapeseed on these fields in the next 5 years or so. Therefore, either keep some of your fields out of the high acid rape rotation, or be quite sure that you will have a market for your product for the next 5 to 10 years. You cannot use the same land and switch back to L.E.A.R. 2 years after you have grown high acid rape on it.

Have you got a field that's badly infested with wild oats, and haven't got adequate wild oat herbicide? Why not seed it to a biennial mixture and "lose" place? If you don't have quite maybe you could maximum $2.00 an acre last maximum of $4.00 from the Service Board for control of wild oats in this field. Not only do you receive a return from the alfalfa and the grain, but you clean up your field as well.

PLANNING YOUR CROPS

As field work commences, farmers will have very little time to read newspapers and magazines. It is with this in mind that I will only make a few brief comments about crop planning.

What about wheat? The lion, Otto Laing is encouraging us to grow more of it despite of market problems at the west coast. Did you know that it cost the grain producers over 13 million dollars in demurrage charges in the 1974-75 crop year. That works out to about 2 cents a bushel. Not much in spite of west coast problems, wheat, at the current prices still seems a good choice.

Feed grain may be more questionable. The C.W.B. is encouraging increased area in feed grains, which will result in increased production. This could reduce the price, somewhat, and the final price will be determined somewhat by the reaction of livestock feeders. History of St. Pauls at Strome

by Mrs. Alice Pooler

Following Church Union in 1928, Rev. Mr. Miller served Strome, Wavy, 14th and Haseville. He was in 1927 by Rev. Haseville, who served until June, 1928. It was under Mr. Haseville's leadership that the new and present church building was erected at a cost of $10,000. It was dedicated December 2, 1928 by Dr. G. A. Kelly, President of the United Church. In spite of a recession and poor crops there was an excellent response to the appeal for funds and many of the first wave donated. Among the accomplishments of the Ladies Aid in 1929, besides the usual running expenses of the church, was the making of the new church, the purchase of pews and furnishings, and a large grant to the M and M fund. Excellent Lodges No. 40 also donated some pews. The Ladies Aid money was raised by means of sale of work, a silver tea, and a church supper.

During the early years, the church served a large number of people. In 1929 the Wavy Lake Sunday School had an enrollment of 40 while Strome's Sunday School had 87 pupils and 7 teachers under the supervision of Mrs. H. V. Phipps. The Sunday School seemed to keep growing and in 1931 there was an enrollment of 81 in Strome. There were also a young peoples group. The Church was made up of 75 families, with 90 communicant members. Fifteen new members were received that year in Strome, and four in Wavy Lake. The average attendance in Strome was 44. A group of young girls working under Mrs. Paul, raised the money to place the railing at the church front and the hymn rack.

Mr. Hagood was followed by Mr. Bevan, then Mr. Smith and 1935 by Mr. Lee. This history will conclude next week.

Killam-Strome United Church members having names and addresses of members and adherents who have moved away are asked to please give these names and addresses to Joy Hampshire in Killam and Miss Curtis in Strome.

Galahad ladies attend W.M.S. Banff convention

The three ladies from Missionary Church W.M.S. who were proud, if to attend the annual Convention at Banff at the weekend were Carrie Bowler, Mrs. J. L. Bowler and Mrs. J. L. Bowler. They were accompanied by Mr. Hugh Bowler (this first trip to Banff) and driver Gary Wil. s.

The hostesses for this year were Edmonia and Athabasca Ladies. The theme was "Anointed with Oil - My cup runneth over." They also carried their theme through out the program, even to the visiting the Athabasca Tar Sands to get a soil sample for each delegate. These samples were placed at the Prayer Breakfast with many other reminders of the oil and light both temporal and spiritual that we in Alberta are privileged to have. There were 174 ladies present at the Prayer Breakfast.

Spence will not permit going into all the program but 2:00 p.m. Friday when the afternoon session started until 4:00 p.m. Saturday when the last session closed every hour was packed with information speakers, special music, singing, panel discussions and testimonies from Missionaries.

Some of the highlights of the Sessions were 1. Testimony's

We will close this report with the theme song of the convention which was written by Sharon Schaeffer a former missionary to Nigeria.

Oh Lord, My God amidst me from above,
Give me Thy Spirit, fill me with your love,
With things amazing in my cup o'er flow,

Use me, O Father till the whole world knows, indications at the present time are that herbicides will continue to be in short supply this spring and summer. Along with the short supply there is also the increased price, which is sure to pay. With these facts evident it becomes imperative that the available supplies are used wisely.

Use Herbicides in 1975

To ensure such use, there are several things a farmer should do:

1. Give priority to the weed-eat fields, to the crops that can't stand competition or suffer greatest dollar loss because of weeds, and to crops in which damage has already been done.

2. Buy your herbicides if you have not yet done so. If a selected one is not available purchase an alternative if it exists and is obtainable. Be sure to choose the material suited for the job - not MC PA for redroot, pinweed, not 2,4-D for wild buckwheat.

3. Read the label and follow label instruction and precautions.

4. Check the sprayer, thoroughly. Mix certain tank, lines, hoses, filters, and screens are clean and free of dirt and rust particles.

Replace worn nozzle tips, consider buying a set that's more wear-resistant than brass.

Be sure that the pump has adequate capacity. It must supply the desired flow and pressure at the nozzle for the boom length and spray volume to be used, and still have enough capacity.

Selective post-emergence treatments must be applied at the correct stage of weed crop growth. Remember the small weeds are killed more readily than large ones and the crop has specific stages during which they are least susceptible to injury.

Keeping in touch

Arnold Malone, M.P.
Battle River Constituency

In the fall of 1974, I had the occasion to meet with four gentlemen in the Killam community who brought to my attention a rather perplexing problem. One of the persons had spoken of a neighbour who had been to the Port of Thunder Bay and noticed with several boxes that had overhauled the rail spur line and were submerged in the Port of Thunder Bay. They requested that I do an investigation on this issue and share the information with constituents through this column.

It has now been learned that in the year of 1974, a total of 7,863 bushels were involved in three mishaps wherein four grain cars had overhauled the rail spur line and had submerged into the Port. I attempted to collect data on the extent of this problem during the past five years. To my surprise, I learned that this information was not readily available. However, we know exactly why that happened.

Another subject I would like to share with constituents is the Senator's Bill S-14, a Bill that would restrict gun use in Canada. For those who are concerned about the purpose of this Bill, you may be relieved to learn that it has little chance of passing into law. On three previous occasions in recent years, similar bills have been introduced and all have been defeated. In many ways, the Bill has been formulated as a means of stimulating public comment so that the bill responsible for writing legislation might have the benefit of the input of the public at large on the very important question of how to control violent behaviors committed with a gun.

The gentlemen who first brought this question to my attention were quite concerned and wondered whether or not such losses would be deducted from the grain payments sent to farmers. While we naturally deplore any action that concludes with the waste of any valuable product, I feel somewhat gratified in being able to assure farmers that none of these losses are deducted from payments to the Canadian Wheat Board and subsequently to the farmer. Self insurance premiums are in the operating expenses of the railways and they, therefore, establish against a particular individual, whereas the railways may choose to sue.

When one considers that from 1981 to 1970, 44 per cent of the murder victims in Canada were killed by guns and over one-half of these were domestic murders, certainly one must conclude that there is reason for concern.

On the other face of this debate, one needs to question whether or not stricter gun laws would, in fact, achieve the desired results. As an example, the State of New York has the world's highest murder rates and most of the murders are inflicted with a gun. Moreover, the question arises as to whether or not laws that restrict the use of guns would merely mean that the law-abiding citizens would register their guns or accept restricted use thereof while on the other hand, those prone to criminal activities would retain such weapons under concealment.

As stated above the general purpose for Bill S-14 is to stimulate public comment with the hope that the public might become involved in seeking an amiable solution to what is obviously a complicated problem. The kind of response that legislators need is one that will consider both methods of protecting the society at large while at the same time giving due consideration to the variability of the program and the freedom of the individual.

Of one thing we can be certain, the gun is an improper instrument for keeping in touch.

Barley Growers:
Now, more than ever before, every extra bushel counts in market profits!

This year, don't let wild oats rob you of those profits. Give them a knock-out punch with AVENGE® Wild Oat Herbicide!

AVENGE® for Control of Wild Oats in Barley
Even light infestations of 1-10 wild oat plants per square foot may cause severe barley yield losses which, if saved, would more than pay for the cost of control.

AVENGE® 200-C Herbicide gives excellent control of wild oats when applied from the 3-8 leaf stage of the weed - a wide flexibility of timing of application.

So this year start to rid your fields of wild oats, increase your barley yields and save on dockage at market.

News from Hardisty

HARDISTY — Mr. Clement Pro has just returned from a trip to Chilliwack to visit his family. He found the family very happy and working on a dairy but with everything modern, the work is not hard. Louis and his oldest son work there. 30 c

However, the weather was about the same as here and they feel that spring is about three weeks later than usual, so plans are to be late all over this spring. 30 c

On the 23rd of April, 1930, the leaves here were out! Seems hard to believe, but many in the northern part of the province welcome this much-needed moisture. 30 c

Noel Nelson and his mother went to Medicine on Monday, his mother to attend the funeral of Mrs. Bert Stenstrom, another old-timer. The main service was given by Rev. Aslev. Raymond L. Nelson, son of the deceased, was also present. 30 c

Your report was pleased to see cousins from Dray Valley and Sedgewick attending. We wish to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hall from Torosa. Mr. Hall, an old and successful, is Don's brother. He went to school in Silver Lake but left the Hardisty area in 1927. 30 c

We presume Mrs. Hall is a transplanted westerner and we hope that she will enjoy living here. They live on the former Hayes Legman place by Linda and Leo Hendricks. 30 c

Almost before we realized, Peter and Carol Miller were transferred to Manville. The new manager is Mr. Rick Surgeny, who with his wife Beverly and five children, came from Kildare. Their children are Doreen, Scott, Michael, Tricia and Kyle, two of whom are school-age. They have taken up residence in the house recently vacated by the Miller family. 30 c

While Peter and Carol will be missed a great deal, we do welcome the Surgenys and hope they like us here. A warm welcome also goes out to Mark Lemond from North Sydney, Cape Breton, who is a cousin of Ruth Tillman's and is going to learn the art of farming from Gilbert this summer. Welcome to Alberta, Mark. 30 c

The community was shocked to learn of the sudden passing on May 1st. Steve's sympathy to Joyce and family. 30 c

Congratulations to Annie Willebrand who was a junior at Leth's Football, which was a draw for the Alberta Greener district, which takes in quite a large area. Annie is the second winner for this area, which is also an honor for Leth's Football. 30 c

Congratulations to Dr. Wells of Jasper who graduated from the University with a B.Sc. degree in Chemical Science. This will be another excellent addition to the staff. 30 c

Betty Jean Peterson is a grandchild for the first time, to a 19th, 7 or baby girl, born in Vernon, B.C. and named Bernadette. 30 c

Homer and Rex Elm just had a letter from Homer's sister Helen, saying that Harold Parker had passed away about a month ago, at the age of 90. His dad had said here and he had a gas station for a boat man in Vancouver. His mother and her 30 c husband had a hardware in a part of Vancouver, Broadway, I believe, and she is a widow. Mr. Parker passed away on March 26th, 1975. He is survived by his loving wife Helen (Miller), daughter Mrs. Jean Sparks, two grandsons: Philip and Colin; three sisters, Mrs. Doris Neale, Burnaby, Mrs. E. (Kay) Hendricks of Calgary and Mrs. (H.T.) Edith Gaskill of Red Deer, and his aunt Miss Marjorie Reeves of Toronto. 30 c

Mrs. Bob Quast and Linda spent overnight with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Lyle Quast. To Mrs. Cantlon — Mrs. Quast and her daughters of Hanna have enjoyed your book very much! 30 c

Birthday greetings and many more to Mr. Clement Pro who celebrated his 37th birthday on May 2nd. 30 c

Don and Panna wider arrived overnight with their hoped would be "many Albertans" but the weatherman so far hasn't given us much sun. Seen in town visiting her folks, the Don Wilders, was 30 c

Mrs. Ron Anderson and her family. Mr. and Mrs. T.J. Harrison are on their way back to Hardisty too, to maybe they will bring warmer weather with them. Sandra Cameron has finished her term at University and flew to England where she intends to stay the summer. 30 c

Hardisty Legion Auxiliary ladies and their daughters entertained the Flaxstaff Senior Citizens Lodge with a variety night, followed by community singing. Lunch was served 30 c Reap some benefits from all the cheques you write.

If you write ten or more cheques a month, consider a Commerce Key Account.

Because at 16¢ each, ten cheques already cost you $1.60. That's for the cheques you write, period.

But an extra 90¢ makes it a whole different story.

With a Commerce Key Account you can get a preferred rate on most consumer loans, and that's a nice thing to remember. You can get this summer's travellers' cheques for no extra service charge.

You'll have an identification card which allows you to cash a personal cheque, up to $100, at any of our 1600 Commerce branches in Canada.

And that's not all. There is no service charge when you use 24-Hour Cash Dispensers, you'll get special cheques, money orders, domestic drafts, and a whole raft of other services.

All for a flat $2.50 a month. Or, in your case, maybe 90¢ more than you are paying now for cheques alone.

But hold on. We don't think everybody should get a Commerce Key Account. If you're not writing ten or more cheques you could be wasting your money.

And that's exactly what a Commerce Key Account doesn't want you to do.

Sedgewick and District News

by Donna Martin

Monday wasn't exactly the ideal day for the big town cleanup which Sedgewick had planned as a way of welcoming spring. But — maybe next week — it can't rain forever. Grace and Debbie Davidson, have just returned from a very pleasant trip through British Columbia, accompanied by their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Robinson of Edmonton. They stopped in Sydney, B.C. for a lunch and visit with Howard and Orpha Smith, and report they enjoyed a really nice get-together. Mr. and Mrs. Smith send greetings to their many friends in Sedgewick and district.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorne French spent Sunday in Edmonton at a friend's show.

Alvan Cookson dropped in on his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cookson on Saturday. Alvan is busy trying to convince some brooding hens to hatch the duck and goose eggs which he received from Mrs. Annie Oliver. Good luck Allan.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Harris made a short trip to Chazy on the weekend. Greg and Donna Martin spent a very wet weekend in Pechibald with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Martin.

Congratulations to Mr. Ben Weber, whose painting was recently awarded the Dorothy Gardner Memorial Award at the Camrose Art Show.

Charles Cottell and Rose Falla achieved the highest scores at the Senior Citizens Whist Party on Wednesday. The low awards went to Mr. Overt Bakken and Mrs. Bessie Russell. The card players were pleased to welcome a carload of players from Killam.

Mrs. Ida Black drew Mrs. Elsie Cookson, Mrs. Dorothy Lane and Mrs. Donna Martin to a meeting of the Cambridge Community Association at the home of Mrs. Verena Cookson on Tuesday. On the way home the ladies dropped in to visit the five-day-old chickens of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Peterson.

Sara, tiny baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Myhrberg was baptized recently, and to mark the occasion, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Myhrberg of Edmonton, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Midbo and family of Viking and group grandmas, Mrs. M. Myhrberg of Camrose, were guests with Peter, Christine and family. Christine's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Merwin Haukas and children of Fort St. John, Ontario also attended and spent a few days visiting at the Myhrberg home.

Visitors at the Bill Martin home over the weekend were son and daughter-in-law, Ken and Linda Martin of Edmonton, daughter Donna from Devon, and daughter Cheryl of Calgary.

Pleased to see Bert Whithead home after a week's stay in Edmonton hospital. Proves that "you can't keep a good man down".

The new Ed Simons house seems to be progressing nicely despite the weather. And now it appears that preparations are being made to pour cement for the new Lutheran Church.

Several ladies attended a shower in Loughheed recently in honor of bride-to-be Mrs. Barbara Fox.

We're glad to see Jean Johnson home again after a short stay in hospital in Edmonton. To celebrate her return, Bill, Jenn and Adele spent the weekend at their estate at Buffalo Lake. But in this weather, Jean admits, it wasn't much of a celebration.

Constance and Mrs. Dale Djos of Kelowna B.C. and daughter Donna arrived Sunday night to visit with Donna's parents Mr. and Mrs. Nels Djos and family.

Members of Sedgewick ladies attended the Central Alberta Lutheran Church Women's Conference at the Canadian Lutheran Bible Institute in Camrose last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Nordstrom were visitors in Edmonton over the weekend. If you know of any news, please call Donna Martin, phone 384-3544.

RECORD THROWS AT HARDISTY

The throwing action of the Flaxmill Relays started in excellent fashion at Hardisty on May 7th with between 70 and 80 athletes taking part.

The standard of throwing was very high, with some really excellent performances being recorded. If the meet had been officially sanctioned by the Alberta Track & Field Association, two new Provincial All Stars records would have been established — The first by Mike McConnell of Sedgewick in Bantam Boys javelin with a throw of 38.90 m., bettering the old mark by almost 3 m., and the second by Shelly Dion of Hardisty in Bantam girls Discus with a throw of 27.00 m. which bettered the previous record by 19 cm.

A large number of parents were on hand to witness a successful evening. Best performances by age groups were:

Girls born 1961 or later: Shot: Kellina Sax, 6.99 m. Discus: Shelly Dion 27.00 m. Javelin: Deb Harrison 20.55 m. Boys born 1961 or later: Shot: Kevin Whitehead 10.01 m. Discus: Kevin Kelly, 25.96 m. Javelin: M. McConnell, 38.90 m. Girls born 1959 or 1960: Shot: D. Johannessen, 9.04 m. Discus: D. Johannessen 25.96 m. Javelin: Becky Johannessen, 26.35 m. Boys born 1959 or 1960: Shot: Richard Cooper, 12.13 m. Discus: James Ley, 41.70 m. Javelin: Greg Whitehead 38.90 m.

Mrs. Jennie Lockhart was born in Millbrook, Ontario, in 1882. She went with her parents to St. Louis and at the age of eighteen accompanied an aunt and uncle to Bangor, Ireland. She was predeceased by her husband in 1951, and continued to reside at Strume until September 1974. Failing health later made it necessary for her to enter the Parkland Nursing Home at Viking.

She went to be with the Lord on April 10th, 1975.

She leaves to mourn her passing: son, Willie (1) at Killam, James, Noel and Samuel at Strume; one daughter, Esther (Mrs. Malcolm Monson) at Camrose; 12 grandchildren and 3 great grandchildren. One great grandchild predeceased her in Nov. 1964.

Funeral services were held at the Strume Baptist Church on Tuesday, April 22, with Mr. Melvin Deitch officiating.

Palldressers were Paul Williams, Jack Golden, Jack Butler, Albert Spaulding, George Congdon, Jack Olson. Interment was in Wavy Lake Cemetery. Free and Sons, Killam were in charge of all arrangements.

Barley Growers: When You Don't Get a Second Chance to Knock Out Wild Oats Let AVENGE® Make The First One Count!

AVENGE® for Control of Wild Oats in Barley
Even light infestations of 1-10 wild oat plants per square foot may cause severe barley yield losses which, if saved, would more than pay for the cost of control.

AVENGE® 200-C Herbicide gives excellent control of wild oats when applied from the 3-6 leaf stage of the weed—a wide flexibility of timing of application.

So this year start to rid your fields of wild oats, increase your barley yields and save on dockage at market.

Bottle River Constituency

Many Canadians have heard about the National Capital Commission and perhaps a considerable number have wondered about the objectives of its projects. It is the aim of the National Capital Commission to establish a large region on both the Ottawa and Quebec sides of the Ottawa River to be designed and protected as the National Rideau. In some ways this region would take on an aspect similar to that of Washington, D.C. Specifically, it would designate a region rather than just a city as Canada's national capital.

It is the intent of those in the National Capital Commission to protect the area with numerous green belts and to establish methods for urban development. In short, the objective of the National Capital Commission is to preserve and beautify a region of Canada wherein movements may be established to give recognition to our past and where the present environment enhances working conditions and serves as a source of pride to visiting dignitaries.

In the years, 1841 to 1857 the capital, filled from Kingston to Montreal to Toronto to Quebec City.

The royal choice of Ottawa as the capital, in 1858, caused derelict slaughter, cultural ruins, ruins of lumber villages and even some legislative acts.

Reader comments on spraying

Last summer, as some of you know, we had considerable herbicide spraying damage to our farmstead. At the time there was aerial spraying done for our neighbors in the immediate area and the plane was flying right over our farmstead. The local aerial sprayer from the Market was doing this spraying.

At the time, there was considerable confusion as to whether or not it was aerial spraying damage. On contacting our local AG, Fieldman and discussing this, he stated all the trees in the area looked the same - twisted. The local aerial sprayer said we were spraying many runners.

To prove our point, we hired Mr. P. D. Hargrave who was the head of the Brooks-Hargrave firm, but is now one of the four inspectors in Alberta. Below is part of his report.

"Report of Hericidal damage to Shrubbery and ornamental plantings on the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Jack McLean. Killam.

Dissemination to a quest from Mr. McLean to inspect and evaluate some shrubbery and ornamental plantings which they felt had been severely damaged by herbicide. I set out to farm on Oct. 12th, 1974.

The shrubbery is in vigorous prime growing condition and the ornamental plantings surrounding the residential area are carefully maintained and attractive.

On examination of the trees in the shrubbery and ornamental plantings, there is definite indication of rather heavy herbicidal application that has caused the death of the trees and shrubs. The distribution of the new growth of both Deciduous and Evergreen plant materials is such that it would indicate damage caused by herbicidal application during the rapid elongation of new growth of the plant materials. The distortion of new growth is much more apparent in the central and eastern end of the shrubbery plantings than in the western section. All of the ornamental plant materials have been affected. The extent of the distortion is much more than would be expected from normal herbicidal drift from field application.

The total damage will not be possible to evaluate until new growth starts in spring of 1975. At the present time, although damage has been severe in some cases, there does not seem to be an indication that it will be lethal. There will be some inhibition of growth on some of the plants.

Also in 1943, Mr. Lee received, followed then by Mr. Woelet, then in 1947 by Mr. Whaley and in 1950 by Mr. Richards. In 1950, a new manse was built in Killam and Mr. and Mrs. Richards moved to Killam. The former manse in Strone was rented out and finally sold in 1968.

In 1927, Mr. Kay served to 1954, then Mr. Huston from 1954 to 1962, Mr. Morris from 1962-68, Mr. Peterson from 1960-1969. Our present manse was built in Killam. Mr. and Mrs. Richards have been serving the Killam - Strone Church faithfully since 1969.

The Sunday School Superintendents over the years have been Mr. H. V. Phelps from 1928-1954, followed by Mr. Mel Johnson, Mr. Alvin Gordon, again Mr. H. V. Phelps from 1954 to 1974 and presently Mr. Wm. Mobler.

Those serving as Secretary-Treasurer over the years were H. V. Phelps, Oscar McCune, Mr. W. Hargrave, Dr. S. V. Carmichael, S. W. Stewart, A. C. Aldridge, James Gold, Jack Butler, James Foster and presently Mr. Herman Rowe.

Those serving as organist were Mr. Hunter, Mrs. Cae, Mrs. Michael, Beale Paul, Norma Storch, Mrs. Sig Johnson, and presently Mrs. A. Gordon.

A copy of the 1974 financial statement might be of interest. Receipts: Cash in bank $121.00, General Contributions $86.42, Wood & Produce $21.80, Anniversary offering $62.75, Loose collection $2.63, Envelope collection $84.27, Total $653.87.

Disbursements: Cheque to Mr. Smiley $121.00, Stationery, Stamp $2.50, Payment on bank note $46.82, U.C. Publishing house $6.00, M & M Fund $6.70, Cash on hand $843.37, Total $1241.37.

1974 salary for Mr. Smiley was $800.00, amount paid was $508.00, with an amount due of $312.00. The minutes of the annual meeting show that for quite a number of years, a grant was received from the mission board.

IN THIS CORNER...

Let the mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus

Have you ever thought deeply upon these words of the Apostle Paul? Have you ever let them seep so deep into your mind that they become expressed through your life?

When one considers the amazing mind that was in Christ Jesus, then one is compelled to conclude that the mind of Jesus was always oriented to the infinite mind of God. Therefore, perhaps what the apostle is trying to say is that we should frequently direct our thoughts to reflect upon God. So many of us find ourselves worrying about the circumstances of our life; we become anxious and tense in trying to resolve our many problems. I wonder if it is not true for us to try and live another way and instead of focusing our thoughts upon the problems, we should focus them upon Him who is the solution. In other words, perhaps we should try and think more frequently about the Being of God. In that little classic entitled "The Practice of the Presence of God", Brother Lawrence writes: "In order to know God, we must listen to Him. As we come to think of Him, we shall grow in our love for Him, and our heart will be where our treasure is." There can be no doubt that the Being of God to whom we owe our very existence and in whom we must trust for life and death.

No one and nothing can be more important to us than the One who is able to help us love the abundant life.

What can come before Him who is able to satisfy all our needs?

It is not amazing that we can pass through our days with very few thoughts of the One in whom we must live and move and have our Being? Is it not incredible that we focus so much of our attention upon the problems that confront us and pay relatively little attention to Him who is able to lead us safely through the maze of difficulties with which we are so often surrounded.

Frequently we become enguiled in a whirlpool of concerns and anxieties that we can play havoc with our

Sedgewick News

A lovely bridal shower in honor of Mrs. Sharon Anicholski, formerly Sharon Stuve, of Salmon Arm, B.C., took place on Wednesday, May 14 at the home of Mrs. C. B. Robertson. A very pleasant evening was enjoyed, with Mrs. Margaret Humphreys as mistress of ceremonies, after which Sharon graciously thanked everyone for their thoughtful gifts. Among the out-of-town guests in attendance were Sharon's mother, Mrs. H. Stuve and her grandmother Mrs. Gossell, both of Camrose.

It seems that Sedgewick managed to enjoy a very cheerful and relaxing Victorian Day weekend in spite of all the wind, and, of course, we all now have our gardens pinched, don't we?

Mr. Nelson Ruanella of Calgary weekendend in the district visiting his sister, Mrs. Charlie Lane and family, as well as Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jamieson and Mrs. Betty Kendrick.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Lane and family of Calgary spent the weekend with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Lane and with his sister, Mrs. Lois Fisher and family of Hardisty. Guests at the Colvin Beards home over the weekend were son Carl with Julie and the children from Swan Hills.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Robertson and baby son of Edmonton were visitors with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Carmel Robertson.

Last Wednesday's Senior Citizens' Whist Party produced the following results: High, Mrs. Bonnie Russell and Mrs. Hazel MacKinnon tied for the ladies, with Mrs. MacKinnon winning the out. High for the men: Mr. Henry Jamieson; Low, Mrs. Elizabeth Muirhead and Mr. Charlie Costall.

Birthday greetings from the community are extended to Mr. Charles Costall, who was guest of honour at an open house on Sunday to mark his 60th birthday. The family were present for the occasion on a number of occasions to mention them all by name, declares Mrs. Costall.

It was another cold and shivery weekend at Buffalo Lake for the hardy Bill Johnson family.

Miss Carol Farquharson took advantage of the long weekend for another trip to Edmonton.

Mr. and Mrs. Greg Scott motored to Devon to visit Shirley's parents last weekend. They also recently took in a Language Arts Conference for teachers in Banff.

David & Wendy Elve made another journey on from Calgary, collected their little, Rastachek nephews from Langford, and spent Saturday calling on Wendy's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cookson.

They also picked up her sister and brother-in-law Donna and Greg, and took them to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Cookson of Langford for a weekend of enjoyable, mostly, potato planting, fertilizer hauling and banana cream.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Truss and Kevin visited with relatives in Edam, Sask.

Guests at the Muirhead home this weekend included, Mr. and Mrs. D. Bratland, Mrs. Jean Bratland, Miss Jean Chamberlain, Miss Pat Bromley and Mr. David Muirhead, all of Edmonton.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Simons were recent visitors to Prescott.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Eastly and family of Calgary visited at their parental homes in Sedgewick and laughed on the long weekend.

Calling all painters! The United Church is planning a face-lifting this Friday and Saturday. It's the ideal time to give the old girl a new spring outfit.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Deviginn, Miss Carol Ann Bergum, Miss Pat Welch and Mr. and Mrs. Red George, all of Edmonton, and Mr. and Mrs. Ken Schneider (nee Sandra Bergum) of Calgary invaded the Nelson Bergum home over the weekend for a sleep of garden planting and good fellowship.

Mr. & Mrs. Wayne Osborne and family of Salmon B.C. were recent visitors with Mrs. Edith Brandington and other members of the Brandington family.

Weekend guests with Mr. and Mrs. Guy Barclay were Mrs. Marilyn Brown and little daughter Michelle of Edmonton.

Recent Sunday dinner guests at the home of Marilyn and Crest Maertz were Margaret and Anna Piller and Donald Yarmach, all of Fort Saskatchewan, and Leonard Maertz of Elkville.

CLASS ATTEND

SPECIAL GAMES
The Special Education class from the Sedgewick Public School spent an interesting enjoyable day at the Special Games on Friday, May 15 at the University of Alberta.

They left at 6:00 A.M. by bus but no one was depressed by this. Sing songs were conducted by the students themselves. Children from the Strone Class were also on the bus.

One teacher, Mrs. Stella Woodward and six mothers chaperoned the children. The Strone teacher, Mrs. Bong, proceeded to an Edmonton meeting Thursday evening.

All the children participated in the Games and worked their way home exhilarated. They also won some "fun" buttons for skill games. They did very well for themselves.

Most of the credits go to their gym teacher, Mr. D. Rasmussen. The Army served lunch to around twelve hundred children, the teacher and parents.

From 5:00 to 6:00 P.M. the Kiwanis treated the children, parents, teachers, coaches, counsellors and all interested persons to a barbecue at Laurier Park.

There were trips to Valley Zoo, Magicians and various musical groups.

The dance was skipped as rain descended upon us, causing us to make a run for the bus.

The contestants were much quieter on the trip home but very happy over their successes.

NEW TECHNICIAN - Terry Green, right, records the information on a soil test of a lawn plot on the Jim Clark farm. Terry is the new assistant to Glen Werner, D.A., as applied the leaf powder for the sample.

Terry hails from Camrose and will be assisting in checking and measuring of the numerous fertilizer, forage and leuca plots in the County.

Fastball comment by Doug

by Doug Munro
Despite the late seeding season, fastball gets underway on all fronts this week. The senior men of the Fastball Fastball League start play on Mondays and Thursday, with only five teams this year. The Killam Bees who usually fielded strong teams on the field, but who consistently had organizational problems, have finally folded. The absence of Norm Bergeson and Rick Gross left the team without any leadership. The class of the League to gain this year should be the Killam Cubs. Last year's league champions, they have even more players this year making competition for rich positions keen. Their chief competition will come from either Loughheed or Forestburg who both stand to be the most improved teams in the league. Loughheed has numerous first young High School athletes added to an already tough young team from last year. With an extra year's experience their batting should improve to complement the excellent fielding they have already demonstrated. Sedgewick also claims to be improved this year with the addition of two new players, but they have also lost several as well. All three clubs added a new pitcher but the remainder of the team looks much the same as the team that missed the playoffs last year - mainly due to poor batting, an area that is difficult to improve. Meanwhile the Flagstaff Ladies League has increased to 15 teams with the addition of Sedgewick. They will be playing on Wednesday nights. Alberta Championship teams in 1971 are playing in this league. The Loughheed Rockettes (Intermediate B) are stronger than ever. The Strome Tigerettes (Bantam B) however are rebuilding as

Use AMINE 80 and use it almost anywhere

Of all the 2,4-D formulations, Amine 80 is probably the safest and easiest to use. Crops are more tolerant to this dependable, general purpose 2,4-D than to most other formulations. And Amine 80, being the least volatile, is the most satisfactory 2,4-D to use adjacent to susceptible crops. Amine 80 is particularly recommended as the 2,4-D to use in a tank mix with Banvel.

Your Pool Man has Amine 80 now. You'll know it by its POOL label.

Fastball comment

(Intended for last week)
With no elections on the horizon to extract me I will again try to write a weekly column to keep the area informed on a few happenings in the great sport of fastball. It is that time of year again - even if the weather hasn't yet recently seemed like it. But if the visible activity on the diamond has just appeared, much has been happening backstage in the boardrooms.

The Flagstaff Men's League has already organized with several new formats. The Flagstaff Ladies League looks as though it will be reorganizing soon - any interested teams are to contact Doug "Luna" But in this first article I will note some happenings in the umpiring scene.

The Flagstaff Softball Umpires Association has held its organizational meeting already with Verne Coates moving up to take the President's chair. George Gascoyne remains the Sec. - Treas. and Umpire-in-chief of the branch. Anyone in this area wishing to be a registered Alberta Softball Umpire must do so

Thief in the night food for thought

Curious about this strange film that's to be shown May 31 at 7:30 p.m. in the Foreburg Elementary School Gym? If you are, read on.
"A Thief in the Night" is a full color action-packed show that you will remember for a long time. It is a clean, wholesome show that will want your whole family to see. But if you think this is just for kids and those "who aren't with it", we challenge you to come out, listen to its message, and to live accordingly.

As we survey the general world scene, it is obvious that our world is reaching a climax. Many of the scientists and other specialists acknowledge this fact. Even the Atomic Control Commission has moved the hands of the clock three minutes closer to 12 midnight; which is the end. And we wonder "Where will it all end?"
"A Thief in the Night" is based upon the truth Jesus Christ mentioned when He said He would come again, and take all His followers from off this earth to be with Him. It also gives a foretaste of what it will be like for those who refused this truth, and are left behind. It shows what it will be like under a One-World Government, and also the implementation of the Mark of the Beast system. Revelation 13:15-18 describes wherein a person can't buy or sell without a certain number. It is interesting to note that presently world bankers are on the verge of using such a system.

Whether you agree with it or not, we give you a sincere invitation to come out on May 31st at 7:30, view this unusual film, and to listen to the special live music which will also be provided. Admission is free but a free-will offering will be received to help defray costs.

A NEW SEASON — The first Farmer's Market for 1975 was held Saturday, May 24th in Yellowknife. The main attraction was locally grown produce. One of the displays of plants was that of Mr. and Mrs. Lorraine Hume, pictured above. Other stalls at the Market were first as popular as before could take their load of home looking, handcraft, fresh cream, frying chickens and other items.

The Farmer's Market is sponsored under the auspices of the Sedgewick and District Agricultural Society, which held several successful markets last summer. Many people took the opportunity to earn extra revenue by selling a stall, and the buyers were assured of good quality home products.

SHOWER HELD FOR

CAROL SIMPSON

Miss Carol Simpson, bride-elect, was the guest of honour at a bridal shower held at the Glen Rogers School on May 19.

Decorations were in green and white, and Mrs. Mary Albrecht was the very capable mistress of ceremonies, managing to insert quite a bit of wit in the telling of certain episodes in Carol's life.

The program consisted of a recitation by Mrs. Melba Cameron and musical selections by Mrs. McKee Simpson.

Carol was assisted in gift opening by her bridesmaid-to-be, sister Karen Simpson and cousin Bonnie Simpson, her mother, Mrs. Shirley Simpson, and the groom's mother, Mrs. Lar. She received many lovely and useful gifts, for which she graciously thanked everyone present.

A delicious lunch was then served and Mrs. Marlene Simpson presented Carol with a beautifully decorated cake suitable for the occasion.

If you write ten or more cheques a month, consider a Commerce Key Account. Because at 16¢ each, ten cheques already cost you $1.60. That's for the cheques you write, period.

But an extra 90¢ makes it a whole different story.

With a Commerce Key Account you can get a preferred rate on most consumer loans, (and that's a nice thing to remember). You can get this summer's travellers' cheques for no extra service charge.

You'll have an identification card which allows you to cash a personal cheque, up to $100, at any of our 1600 Commerce branches in Canada.

Keeping in touch

At the time of writing this column, it is the middle of the seeding season and many farmers are "out on the land". Each year this annual cycle recurs wherein farmers return to the planting of crops like the instinct of geese flying north each spring. In large metropolitan areas, however, the novelty of farm life is such that a clear perspective of the farmers' occupation is considerably blurred. Few people who have lived for more than a generation in large urban centres fully appreciate that the farmer is in fact an industrialist in the business of food production.

Of critical importance to Canadians and human beings the world over is the fact that there are only two sources to food, namely, soil and water. Of great concern is the fact that each year literally millions of people die of starvation and even if there was a magical system for the distribution of food, the fact is that the world simply does not produce enough to go around to provide an ample diet for all humans.

It is in this perspective that we must do everything possible to reserve the resources that are the very basis for food production. There is a myth in Canada that we have lots of agricultural land; the fact is that that is simply not so. Only a small proportion of the area of Canada, less than 1 per cent, have climates and of these valuable parcels of land occur in areas of rapid urban and industrial growth. In the provinces of Quebec and Ontario the projected permanent conversion of land from agriculture to urban development between now and the year 2000 will be, at the lowest estimates, 800,000 acres and at the highest, 1,200,000 acres. Of the land that would potentially be used, about 1,000,000 acres would be on very good agricultural land in climatically favored areas.

The conversion of agricultural land to other use is not confined to central Canada. Urban encroachment upon agricultural land which surrounds the cities of Edmonton and Calgary has also recently been measured. It was found that urban growth around Edmonton has increased by 25,000 acres of good arable land between 1966 and 1973 and during the same time Calgary's growth claimed 15,500 acres of prime land. It is claimed that the average annual wheat production from the grain requirements for 230,000 people for 1973 is in an under-estimated nation where three-quarters of the people's calories intake is made up of 0.7 kilograms of food grain per day.

Arnold Malton, M.P.
Battle River Constituency

In short, what is happening is that the growth of urbanization is threatening our agricultural production as far from more favorable areas to less favorable climates.

If Canada is to maintain its capacity to produce a wide range of our most valuable resources. To be sure, we would not allow cities to grow over areas where crops, from one decade are found, nor would we allow cities to develop over farmland or any other very valuable resource. Yet the facts of the matter are, that if Canada's population continues to grow at the present rate, we will have extreme difficulty in being able to feed ourselves to the present level by the year 2000.

At the time of this writing, the City of Edmonton has a submission to the Provincial Government of Alberta requesting to expand her boundaries from its present size of 121.38 square miles to something in excess of 200 square miles. Sadly, most of the proposed expanded area is on the top two classes of soil.

New that spring is here it is time to keep in touch with what farming is all about. It is not simply a way of life; it is not just a life-style. It is, rather, the industry of food production. No other industry of such importance would have its resources destroyed with so little public protest.

The question of conservation of agricultural land is not simply one of economics, it is quite simply one of survival. At the present rate of farm land destruction, it is predicted that by the year 2000 that the present 34 million acres of farm land in Canada will have been reduced to somewhere between 9 million and 15 million acres. The time is long overdue to keep in touch with the fact that farming is the business of food production, a commodity that is required each and every day to sustain life.

News from Lougheed and District

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cookson are back spending a while in their home after living at the Plagiatal Lodge during the winter. Nice to see them around again.

Miss Anna Backen has returned to her job in Prince George. Mrs. Kari Eap and Betty are spending some time at the home farm.

Sure did some hard work there Fred! Hope that lawn responds well to all the effort you put into it!

There were many comings and goings for the long weekend, and I certainly do not know about them all. However

I did see Janet Probst, Karen Kenny, Dianne Collier, Raymond Shirell and Jim Kilgus visiting their families.

Also visiting (and probably doing some spring work too) at the J. Berchills were the Ken Edge family of Edmonton.

Miss Molly Ferneough has changed her place of residence again. She is now living in the former Percy Barton home on the west side. She will have room for more company now, she says, and to start things out, she had her uncle and aunt the Aubrey Ferneoughs of Stettler to visit recently.

Gretna Club report

Nine members and one visitor gathered at the home of Mrs. Charlie Cameron on May 14th for the regular meeting. The President, Melba Cameron, opened the meeting by welcoming all, and the usual order of business was dealt with. The Secretary gave the financial report for the club, since serving supper to the Fish and Game banquet in Lougheed on April 12th. Melba thanked Cathy Cameron and Margery Storkbach for their help at the banquet, and presented each with a gift of appreciation on behalf of the club.

Mrs. Zimmermann had purchased wash clothes for the club, and we are sending her a Thank You.

The chairs which were purchased for the Playgarden Lodge were ready to go in to the lodge and Marlene Simpson volunteered to take them in as she was going to Sedgewick the next day.

New business included plans for helping with a shower, a new Auction sale, and a 25th wedding anniversary. Sounds like a busy season ahead for the girls.

Christie Armstrong was the birthday girl this month, and was honored with Happy Birthday.

Roll call was - "A movie I would like to see." The next meeting is to be at Helen's. Reilly's on June 4th. Note the date is a week early, as our President will be away on the regular date. Roll call will be: "What I remember about my first day at school."

The meeting adjourned and Cathy served a delicious lunch. Cathy Markwart won the raffle, and Helen had the lucky tea cup.

Sedgewick News

It is obvious that seeding is in full swing when the ladies start cancelling their club meetings. And it is obvious, too, that gardening is well underway, since so many of my reliable news sources aren't around to answer their phones when I call to collect the news.

A number of Sedgewick ladies attended two showers held recently at Gower Park. School and in Lougheed in honor of Miss Carol Simpson, who becomes the bride of Mr. John Larson on Sat., May 31. Mrs. Stella Woodward spent the weekend with relatives in Athabasca.

The Snack Bar is now in the midst of renovations. Sedgewick School thrived with spring activity Monday, as junior and senior high school students participated in the County track meet.

While the kids were displaying their prowess at long jumps and fifty-meter dashes (note that all athletes gave good metric), over sixty-five teachers of mathematics assembled to hold a regional mathematics conference. The hungry teachers were served a hefty ham and scalloped potatoes dinner by the Anglican Church Women.

Deep sympathy of the community is extended to the family of Mr. Bert Whitehead who passed away on May 22.

The meeting adjourned and Cathy served a delicious lunch. Cathy Markwart won the raffle, and Helen had the lucky tea cup.

Mrs. Irene Rodnarsky was away for the weekend attending a wedding.

Mrs. and Mrs. Dave Beck are now busy engaged in planting oak trees around their new home.

Bob Roselchuk had the misfortune to become involved in a slight collision with his 1965 Buick Wildcat on Friday evening. Bob and the car emerged unharmed, but the Buick carried some distinct marks of the occasion, and the father-in-law is still recovering from the shock.

The cement has now been poured for the future Fernier residence.

The 30th Anniversary of the United Church of Canada was marked by a large gathering in Stettler on Sunday. A handful of Sedgewick ladies in long singing robes participated, and Reverend Cline was the featured speaker. After the service, a picnic lunch was enjoyed by all.

Rev. Bernice Osborne of Camrose conducted his final service at St. John's Anglican Church on Sunday, prior to the arrival of a new minister for St. Edmund's Mission in Edmonton.

Greg and Donna Martin visited with the Don Martin family of Penhold over the weekend. Donna did her best to keep the peace among the Red Deer, but Greg was on guard and would permit no one to touch his purchase of an encyclopedia on gardening.

Mrs. and Mrs. William Cookson have moved back to their home in Lougheed.

Welcome home to Jim and Betty Walsh, who returned home from their month-long visit to the United States last week-end. We're looking forward to hearing all about their adventures, but Betty says she can't start talking until she gets her garden planted.

Mrs. Beth Blinzer, Tricia and Jeff of Hellsburg were Mon. guests at the Mrs. Walsh home, and then discovered they couldn't get home again. Something about a problem with the truck.

Mrs. and Mrs. Randy Edmonds of Calgary visited with Mr. and Mrs. John Sarsin.

Mrs. and Mrs. Eric Hagan and Aaron and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Schmutz and boys visited with relatives in Edmonton Sunday.

Weekend guests at the Dick Erickson home were Michael Schmutz, Dave Siminik and Dianne Lindstrom all of Edmonton.

Mrs. and Mrs. Wade A. Nickel of Kamloops B.C. with Patricia Anne and Donnie, came to visit their daughter and son-in-law, Mrs. and Mr. Morris Heff in Edmonton. They all came down to Sedgewick and spent part of Sunday May 18th with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Heff.

Recent visitors at the Bob Munro home were daughter Delores Wallace, Mrs. M. Quebec, Constable Ken Munro and Heather Swinton of Whitehorse.

APPRECIATION NIGHT HELD FOR DUMANS

Over one hundred neighbors and friends gathered at the Battle Bend School last Friday night to honor Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Duncan, who have been in the community for many years since they moved to the Battle Bend area.

Mr. Norman Holt acted as M.C. and reminisced some of the things Hugh and Mary have done throughout the years. Hugh was presented with a pair of Bracers for his "sawing" episode.

The community presented them with a battery stunts wall clock with matching candle holders and an engraved plaque.

A very enjoyable evening ended with a delicious lunch and coffee.

Track and field winners

The Track and Field meet held in Sedgewick on Monday 26 was very successful due to the cooperation of all participating athletes and all participating involved.

The value of such an event became strikingly obvious to the parents and to the members of the community who were fortunate to be in attendance. The athletes performed excellently due to many hours of training and coaching. Students with strengths in this area were given an opportunity to achieve a degree of success and to be recognized for their achievements.

The entire student body of a particular school banded together to cheer and encourage their athletes in every attempt.

School spirit is alive and well and will remain this way if we continue to encourage and support these ventures.

Budget aids senior citizens

by Kevin Peterson
The Lougheed government threw another $4 million into the pot for senior citizens and promised special action on its 28th; personal tax cut when it recently brought back its 1973-74 budget.

The budget, which was announced in February and used as a platform for the March 26th election campaign, was actually identical to the original document, although $97 million in inflation-related spending had been added.

In the only major policy change, Provincial Treasurer Mr. Lethbridge said the province will guarantee its elderly a minimum monthly income of $255, up from the February promise of $225. For couples, the new figure will be $485 a month.

The income tax cuts - which will cost the province $115 million all told - work out to an average of $140 a year for taxpayers and will be felt on July pay cheques.

Since the change means taxpayees have been paying a too high a rate for the last half of 1975, they will get a double bonus for the last half of the year. For the average taxpayer (married with two children and earning $12,000 a year) pay cheques from July through December will have an extra $24 a month on them.

The tax cut gives Alberta the country's lowest provincial rate of basic federal tax in provincial levels, while Ontario and British Columbia provide the next lowest rate of 30.3%.

New expenditures from the February budget included $33 million in extra hospital money to pay for the recent wage increases. Alberta's towns and cities will also pick up $12.7 million in new grants which the province hopes will be used to aid low enforcement costs.

Rising welfare payments for natural gas also produced a $44 million increase in the original estimate on the cost of gas price hikes. The province now expects to spend $70 million protecting Alberta consumers against the effects of higher welfare prices.

Mr. Lethbridge did inject one note of caution into the budget when he warned that the Alberta economy is beginning to feel the effects of the consumer-side slowdown. The freeman treasurer abandoned the pre-election rhetoric of his predecessor Gordon Ministry to warn that "Alberta is being affected by the weakness in the national economy."

"If the national and American economies do continue to slide, we are bound to feel more effects in Alberta," he warned at the budget briefing.

Unemployment is rising slightly and the rate of investment in the province is "softening", he said. But he added that no severe problems are rearing their heads yet. "Certainly it is our assessment that at this time there is nothing more needed than what is in the budget."

Picking a picnic lunch with them, the pro kindergarten and kindergarten classes motored to Edmonton Saturday by bus to take in the thrills of the Shrine Circus and Stoney Valley Zoo. After an exciting long day, everyone including chauffeurs was glad to be home again.

Nine members and two visitors attended the monthly Willing Workers meeting at Doris Paschynka's home at 4 p.m. Several new local ideas were focused on as well as some very pertinent information from Children's Environment Advisory Service. Some committees have been set up to search out the pro's and con's for prospective projects and are to report for next month's meeting. Already some new trees have been purchased and thanks to John with his horse) are in the ground. C.E.A.S. advises to get away from the contemporary playground and has given us many new suggestions. After the meeting Doris served a scrumptious desert lunch and coffee. Watch for a later notice of our next meeting on June 16.

Bride elect Shelly Olen was honored when a lovely shower was held at the United Church on Friday, May 18. After Shelly was seated with her fiancée's mother Mrs. Ma-

Kathy Blaser assisted in opening the gifts for which Shelly graciously thanked everyone.

A scrumptious lunch was created and passed around and given by the guests.

When lunch was served, a beautifully decorated cake designed by Doris Wieschoster was cut and shared by all. On Saturday, a tremendous shower was held to surprise Shelly at Killam by Olive Galtely, and the groom.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Paschynka and family also attended the Shrine Circus and report it very entertaining. Those of you in the Strome district wanting any news in your paper phone it in to Charlotte Curtis at 378-3784 before 11:30 a.m. Mondays. You are as responsible as I.

Keeping in touch

Arnold Malone, M.P.
Battle River Constituency

It has been some time now since I have taken the opportunity to share with constituents some of my activities away from the National Capital. I must take pleasure in sharing with you some of the experiences of the recent weeks. On Monday, 4th of May, I was in Yukon-Kitikotia in the opening of the National Shipbuilding Federation's Shipyard and Tournament. The subject matter of this event was the social, political and economic development of the Territories. I participated in a panel along with Wally Firth, Minister of Territories, and Mr. David Scott, Speaker of the House of Commons. The Territorial Council is the equal of provincial councils for the Territories. This seminar was an extremely fine event and all reports I have received indicated that the students from across Canada received tremendous education on Canada's mainland.

Practically, my reason for being in Yukon-Kitikotia was to investigate the numerous problems associated with nutrition and education that are related to the people's "north of 60". Of genuine concern in the Northwest Territories is the fact that for all of 150,000 square miles, there are only fifteen clinics. The health of native children are in a deplorable condition. Traditionally, native people consumed an extremely high protein diet and a diet that was almost sugar free. In recent years, however, with the influx of teachers, health care workers, and other people, the native people have begun to consume much larger quantities of foods which are foreign to their digestive systems. The result is a much higher than average rate of health problems associated with nutritional imbalance. As an example, in the Inuit language, there is no distinction made between cold and flu. As a result, a nutritional might suggest to a child that he should drink lots of juice with the intent that he would increase his Vitamin

C intake, only to discover that the child consumed a large quantity of cold, assuming that it would achieve the same results.

Following my studies in the Territories, I returned to a weekend of speaking engagements at high school graduations in Irma and Provost, where I will be extremely fine graduation speaker. I was also pleased to have the opportunity to meet with the school children in Peace River Valley to answer questions about the role of the Federal Government. On the third weekend in May, I will be in the Communities. I have been to address a high school graduation. Following that occasion, I will be meeting with the Alberta Indian Brotherhood about some very deep concerns they have about changes in Federal policy, specifically as it relates to the areas of education and housing. The position of the native people is that they do not disagree in total with many of the new regulations that are being discharged by the Federal Government, but they do have a number of specific complaints and feel betrayed in the fact that they weren't

The Flagstaff Fastball League saw all teams in action during opening week. For openers, Foreburg upset the favorite Killam Cubs to win their only game of the week to tie for 1, no details reported. Meanwhile, Alliance outsluged Lougheed 18-11 in a game of errors. All four pitchers were hit hard and often. D. Munro gained the win with only 11 1/3 innings of starting pitching while D. Weber gained a save in long relief. Chuck Livingston swung the big hit for Lougheed while several Alliance batters had excellent games including D. Weber, D. Wolf and W. Ship-ton.

On Thursday, May 28th, the Killam Cubs rebounded to drop Alliance 7-4. D. Gibe gained the win in his last start surviving shaky infighting in the early innings to completely shut off Alliance batters in the late innings. D. Weber took the loss, giving 6 innings with D. Munro picking the 7th. D. Wolf was the only consistent Alliance batter while many Cubs batted well. The other game saw Lougheed beat Sedgewick's 1975 hopes with an 18-7 victory. R. Harris took the win with B. Treedy in relief while J. Dickau had the loss for Sedgewick. Chuck Livingston hit a home run for Lougheed.

In Flagstaff Ladies action Foreburg, Dawson, Strane, Bantams 17-11 on strong hitting. Meanwhile Sedgewick surprised the Lougheed Rockettes 25-6, a game in which strong Sedgewick hitting combined with control problems by Lougheed pitching.

On Sunday, June 1st, the Lougheed Rockettes won the 12-team major Ladies Tournament at Ostor, downing Cornerstone, Drumheller and Hobbick. Hobbick had surprisingly downed the Stettler Midgets, last years Alberta Championships, to reach the final.

Talk It Over — with Gordon

Gordon Strimberg, M.L.A.

This week in the Assembly I raised a number of questions to the Min. of Agriculture, Marv's Moore, regarding the Pooled Grants action in returning to grant the $1 per 100 milk subsidy to Dairy Co-ops in Alberta. About 3 or 4 Co-ops have been organized with the help and encouragement of the Dept. of Ag. with the idea in mind that a number of farmers, through loans guaranteed by Co-ops Activity Br.

anch could finance a large Dairy Co-op Farm, up to 100 cows, fire, manure-meat and labour and contribute feed from their individual farms. I personally like the idea and with the number of farmers quitting milking business, I suppose, partially because of the labour involved and also because of the amount of New Zealand and Quebec butter that looking imported into Alberta along with the annual milk shortages that are now being incurred in the Calgary milk shed. If the trend continues maybe someday in the future higher priced field milk will have to be imported from London, Washington.

One of the questions I asked the Min. if this action by the Federal Gov't. effectively kills these Dairy Co-ops? He didn't say in as many words but clearly way a Co-op can get a subsidy is if it consists of only three farmers and believe a quota of over 5000 lbs. The nearest Co-op formed is at Sedgewick and I am relieved that no Co-ops were formed in our Constituency. Never the less I suppose we'll have to eat rancid Quebec butter, Thomas Mr. Whelan.

Also asked Helen Huxley, Min. on Social Development and Health what she was going to do about grants to the Retarded Children Sheltered Workshops. These grants have not increased for 3 years and with inflation this voluntary organization have a duty of a time making ends meet. Helen's reply was that talks were on going with the Alberta Retarded Childrens Assoc. and there would be an increase but she would not tell me when or how much. I thought something as worthwhile as this should not have to be bargained for.

Wed. morning an enthusiastic group of seven ladies from the Camrose and County Assoc. of parents with children with Learning Disabilities met with Joan Kosik Min. of Education and his executive Ron Pentre. Discussions on ways the assoc. and the Dept. of Education could best complete one another in tackling this problem where an estimated 10% of Alberta school children need special help.

Wed. evening as well as night sitting I met with the Camrose Ag. Society in Camrose, going over a wide range of subjects from their racing, Ag. Soc. (Lion, B and a class Fair, etc.

Friday evening I met and I were guests of the Farming Ladies of the S.S. of Norway in Camrose at a family supper commemorating the Norwegian Independence Day. And being of Swedish ancestry I understand it is quite a joyous day in Sweden.

Also on the weekend we were at Rural Hill Banquet and Graduation Exercises where I was guest speaker. To the students of Rural Hill that was the most beautiful and decorated auditorium that I have ever seen.

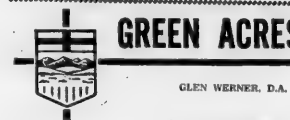

By the way, my left arm is still lame from those shots of last week.

GREEN ACRES

GLEN WERNER, D.A.

THREES
The 1974-75 shelterbelt tree program has just come to an end with just under 20,000 trees being planted and delivered. The tree planters have completed their rounds and are available to anyone with a large number of trees still to be planted. If you would like to have the planter to plant your trees call Mr. B. L. Lee at 381-2022. Continuation of trees available for the spring of 1976 has just been received and we are now taking orders. Due to various circumstances beyond our control some of the more popular trees will not be available next spring. No spruce or lodgepole pine, roses, Russian olive or Manchurian elm will be available to mention the most common ones. A fair supply of poplar, willow and birch will be available however, but I encourage ordering early; many orders made in fall are not completely filled.

After one initial delays the Summer Farm Employment Program is working smoothly. I have received a few inquiries recently regarding students who are to start work in July and have not received their contract forms as yet.

Upon checking with the Farm Labour Pool Office, I have been informed that those students who have made the required pre-registration and are to begin in July, will be receiving all the necessary forms around the middle of June. If you do not receive them by the end of June, check with my office or the Farm Labour Pool Office in Camrose.

Several weeks ago the Hon. Eugene Whelan, Minister of Agriculture announced a subsidy for cows marketed for slaughter between November 1st and April 30. If you have marketed cows for slaughter during this period of time you should make application. We have the forms in our office and I can sign them for you when they are completed.

NOTE
Summer is known for it's thunder storms, and lightning strikes. Consequently, several farms will be considering a stand insulator. If you own, you should contact your local power field representative to ensure that you have the appropriate type and size of hook-up switches. Switches which are under-rated for the load requirements are both costly in terms of power losses and also potentially dangerous.

GAME WINNERS AT HARDISTY

The winners of the Hockey Pools sponsored in Hardisty by the Figure Skating Club were as follows:
Final game - 1st and 2nd period, Helen Flisley; 3rd period, Claude May.

Previous pool winners included Dale Fagin, Wayne Bittner, Ron Groulx, Chuck Broughton, Darcy Broughton and Derek Drever.

The Figure Skating Club appreciated the support shown to the pools.

Better Weed Control

Why Banvel is a good buy this year

Buckwheat Cow Cockle, Smartweed, Hemp Nettle, and Canada Thistle are increasing in severity because they are not controlled by 2,4-D or MCPA. This year a "tank-mix" of Banvel plus 2,4-D or MCPA will kill just about all the said "broadsided" weeds in your cereal crop for less than $2.00 per acre.

See your Banvel service agent dealer for the full story on Banvel.

THE Homemakers

by Barbara Green,
District Home Economist
Camrose, Alberta

Jon Williams, Home Economist at Stettin, prepared an article which highlights the use of cash-ratios for remodeling.

If you'll look at your present dwelling and wonder, "I think I'd like to find this column interesting."

TO REMODEL OR NOT TO REMODEL
Remodeling a house successfully takes ingenuity, imagination, judgment, and also application of basic planning principles.

Some typical deficiencies of older houses are kitchen-work areas poorly planned and equipped, almost no built-in storage, and poor traffic patterns.

Farm houses have additional problems: front entrance rarely used, kitchen improperly located for a view to the rear court and driveway, too bathroom or washup facilities for men coming in from work, usually no farm house's area, and an open family to relax in work clothes.

Some of the assets of many older houses are: good exterior proportions, large rooms that respond well to redecorating, soundness, sometimes unmatched in new construction.

To determine if your house is worth the cost of remodeling, consider the following factors and obtain cost estimates for necessary changes:

Can the floor plan satisfy good planning principles and the needs of the family? Consider the rearrangement of existing space, as well as the addition of new space.

If remodeling cannot produce a good floor plan, then remodeling should not be attempted and the other factors shown below are unimportant.

Is the house structurally sound enough to remodel? Will the windows need to be replaced at a high cost time later?

Is the house properly oriented to the road or street and to service buildings and lots, in the case of farm houses? Is a new heating system needed?

Is more insulation needed? Is the electrical system adequate?

Is the water supply adequate, and the sewage disposal system of satisfactory capacity?

Is the family able to stand the financial burdens of remodeling?

Try to make your remodeled house comfortable, convenient, and adequate for the new house of it. Usually you must tolerate some unlevel floors, perhaps a high ceiling, and some features not present in a newly constructed house.

There are no exact figures for the amount to invest in remodeling, but generally the maximum should not exceed one-half that required for a new house. Certainly, no more than three-fourths the new house cost should be spent under ordinary circumstances.

Major expenditure can be justified if the house was built by parents or grandparents, or has other sentimental value.

The publication Family Housing Handbook is a source of excellent information on remodeling or building a new home. The booklet is well worth the $2.50 investment.

Summer Cooling?

If you've been contemplating Summer Cooling, we offer these helpful hints.

In summer, the hottest part of your home is the attic. One of the most economical and efficient ways to cool your entire home is by removing superheated air with an automatic attic ventilator, and in Alberta, it may be all you really need for summer comfort.

LOW COST COMFORT FOR YOUR ENTIRE HOME
An attic fan cools your entire home without exhausting excess hot air into the living area. Your family will probably sleep more comfortably and feel better during those hot, sweltering days.

QUICKLY AND EASILY INSTALLED
The power attic fan is quickly and easily installed. The lifetime lubricated electric motor requires no maintenance, is grounded for safety and protected against electrical burn-out.

PROTECTS YOUR HOME ALL YEAR LONG
Temperature difference between attic and living area occur all year long. In winter, moisture in air condenses and becomes damaging ice and mold.

TOTALLY AUTOMATIC
During a normal summer day, attic temperatures can often exceed 65 degrees Celsius. This trapped heat keeps your home uncomfortably warm both day and night.

Keeping in touch

It will come as a surprise to no one that the industrial work stoppages are up during the first quarter of 1975 as compared to the first quarter of 1974. In total, there have been 304 work stoppages for a total of 1,011,220 man days lost according to the Canada Department of Labour, 231,570 of the man days lost were in federal jurisdictions.

In the same period of 1974, there were 296 work stoppages involving 10,410 workers representing 21 man days lost for every 10,000 worked. In the first quarter of 1975, there were 57 man days lost through strike activity for every 10,000 worked.

On the month-by-month accounting of stoppages due to strikes, it is noted that the March statistics indicate a considerable increase over the month of February. The month of March recorded more than 1000 man days lost due to strikes than did the previous month of February. The total time lost in March includes 11 work stoppages in the federal jurisdiction that involves 14,874 workers and the loss of 120,800 man days. The man days lost in March represented 31 man days per 10,000 worked compared with 25 in the previous month of February.

The statistics simply underscore what most people know to be obvious: The facts are that our economy simply can not tolerate such massive disruption. There can be no doubt about the fact that a new and equitable method must be found to settle disputes between labour and management. Certainly, no one would wish to return to the 1950's when many labourers worked like draft animals, with almost no financial return for a job. On the other hand, it has become absolutely essential that our economy keep in touch with production. A large economy that rewards more than it produces is a very fragile bubble that can last only for a short period of time. At a point, the bubble will be simply too much and is certain to burst. It is at this time that demand and production be coupled together such that one does not advance above the other. Dollars, cents and production must all keep in touch with each other.

Hardisty service well attended

A large crowd attended the Hardisty United Church service on June 8th, marking the 50th anniversary. The sermon was very interesting, and more historical reality. Two poems, by Mrs. Cantlon and Delia Dannehy, were read. Beverly Rittaler and Len Anderson sang beautiful solos, a duet was presented by Doris Powell and Deven Bell, plus church members by different groups.

Following the service, the gathering moved to the C.E. building where a pot luck supper was enjoyed.

Mr. Jackson gave a resume on the life of Rev. Tom Jones who was a minister here in 1911. Barbara Hays read letters from some of the former ministers, and there was group singing.

At the Hardisty Agricultural Bazaar Monday Night, Mrs. J. Hays was the 4th jackpot. Helen Findlay won the door prize and Thelma Flaher the big things following the black-out.

The weather was special for the Nelson-Harrison wedding on Sunday, June 1st. A large number attended the church service. Following a reception at the hall, open house and a dance were held with music by the Sparkietones.

Doug and Joyce have had three weddings within a year so were well experienced and everything went very nicely. Allen's sister, Mary Brown sang two solos accompanied by Dorothy Jackson. During Open House, Doris Powell and Deven Bell sang a duet and during the dancing, our old friend and one-time Hardisty resident Geo. Hammett sang "Memories". Very well done, too, for 70 years old!

Ruth Longman accompanied the Chuck Broughons to Edmonton. Ruth phoned Jim Brady, a one-time Rosyth resident who will be 100 years old next January.

Quite a few Hardisty residents attended Camrose Jay Walkers Jambooree. Henry Hays and Virginia McGhie were fortunate to get their names drawn for a prize.

The Rufus Hurley's of Oyen were here to attend church services on Sunday, also Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Quintan from Chilliwack, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Muirhead of Aldridge.

Other Hardisty visitors who attended the special service on Sunday included the Geo. Lemays from Camrose, Len Anderson of Edmonton, the Dan Hittalers, Mrs. Dragers, Wister Gypsy from Calgary, and Mr. George Hammett.

Also seen in town was Dick Downie, looking younger than ever!

The June meeting of the Sunshine Club was held at the home of Mrs. Grace Kelles with eleven members present and two guests. Minutes were read and approved by Daisy Chompy-Ness. Treasurer's report was read and approved. Mrs. Kelles checked on cost of having a book printed and since most members are busy helping with spring chores, it was decided to wait until July before going ahead with project. Next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Roland Van Oost on June 23rd instead of 1st week in July. On lunch are Barb Hays and Lynn Elm and the special raffle will be donated by Mable Fritz.

Honoree Grace Kelles and co-hostess Daisy Chompy-Ness and committee served a very tasty lunch which was also enjoyed by some of the friends and family of members attending.

Congratulations are extended to Lorna Storkbakken who received her Bachelor of Science in Nursing at the University of B.C. She has accepted a position as nursing instructor at the Royal Columbian in Burnaby.

Flagstaff Fastball League team appear to have finally reached mid-season form as last week's action featured exciting pitching and catching, and fewer errors.

On June 2 Forebush edged Alliance 3-2 with a potential tying run put out at homeplate on a close slideplay for the final out of the game. Excellent fielding, many sharp catches, and good pitching kept the score low. Adams gained the win while Weber took the loss. In other action Sedgewick led Kilham Cubs 4-1 in one of the more exciting games of the season. That's what I call real friendship.

Flagstaff Fastball League team appear to have finally reached mid-season form as last week's action featured exciting pitching and catching, and fewer errors.

On June 2 Forebush edged Alliance 3-2 with a potential tying run put out at homeplate on a close slideplay for the final out of the game. Excellent fielding, many sharp catches, and good pitching kept the score low. Adams gained the win while Weber took the loss. In other action Sedgewick led Kilham Cubs 4-1 in one of the more exciting games of the season. That's what I call real friendship.

Mr. and Mrs. Carmen Robertson were recent Calgary visitors.

Wedding at Lodge

Romance again visited the Flagstaff Lodge when two of the guests, Mrs. Gladys Miller (nee Paterson) and Mr. Harold Erickson were united in marriage at 10 a.m. on Friday, June 13th.

CITIES TO HAVE EXTRA SEATS

By Kevin Peterson

The Alberta Legislature will have four more seats but rural representation will decrease by one seat if the redistribution proposal now before the house.

The instructions to the Electoral Boundaries Commission state that the redistribution efforts should produce 79 seats, 43 defined as urban and 36 rural.

The current 75-member Legislature has 38 urban and 37 rural members.

The new house would include 18 Edmonton MLA's (up two), 16 Calgary members (up 3), two from Lethbridge and one from Red Deer, Medicine Hat, Drumheller, Watrous, and St. Albert.

The bill merely provides total numbers and leaves it up to the commission, expected to be appointed shortly, to draw up new boundaries. No indication is given of what rural areas is likely to lose a seat, however most of the provinces least populous ridings are located in the southeast section of Alberta.

If the redistribution proposal had been in effect for the March 28 provincial election, the average size of the rural constituency would have been slightly more than 10,000 voters. The average urban riding would have 14,700 eligible voters.

House leader Lou Hyndman said the bill represents only the first step in a lengthy redistribution process that will be completed in time for the next provincial election, not expected until 1979.

Talk It Over

Gordon Strenberg, M.L.A.

With a time differential of 11 hours in total I have found out at first hand the meaning of jet lags and being homesick. Tokyo takes some time to get used to, with 11.5 million people living in an area 35 miles by 25, with air pollution to the point that visibility is limited to a few miles. With thoroughfare 12 lanes wide, with lanes elevated above that along with highways and subways to no end, with their trains traveling at 125 miles an hour and the drivers driving like speed maniacs, New Norway never looked better.

But nevertheless they are an ambitious and tolerant people well dressed, very polite and helpful, along with the cleanest streets in the world. Nowhere did I see litter or an unwashed car.

As I mentioned earlier, the Premier had asked me to take part with a group in an inaugural flight from Vancouver to Tokyo at the invitation of the Japanese Government.

The Alfalfa Producers Association of Alberta requested that I stay over in Japan for six days and accompany their secretary-manager in visiting the major trading centers in discussions on the sale of alfalfa pellets.

Briefly, Alberta's pelleting plants last year produced about 100,000 tons of D-high which was sold domestically in western Canada. Japan imported about 250,000 tons of pellets from California, Saskatchewan and New Zealand in that order. Last year imports from California were down about 35,000 tons due to the high cost of Alberta's natural gas pricing them out of world markets. And this year with a major increase in the price of Alberta gas, they are again pricing them out of world markets.

With their inflation at 30%, paying for their high oil bill, importing all their raw materials, they will still end up with a trade surplus of $5 billion this year, along with unemployment of 2%.

It is shocking to me that their trading companies know more about our cost, profits and companies than we do ourselves, and I suppose that in the future we will not have to worry about American ownership in Canada, but how much the Japanese have partnership in.

If the Alberta Alfalfa Producers Association are in agreement to the price offered we sold about 10,000 tons worth $750,000 and if the Assoc. guarantees delivery, protein and Vitamin A content, three of the trading companies expressed a desire to enter into long term contracts for next year.

Of the companies in Japan doing business in western Canada all said loud and clear that they were fed up with the unreliability of shipping out of the port of Vancouver and were looking for alternative sources of supply such as Brazil, Mexico and New Zealand. There is no question about it, the Japanese trading companies had just a bundle during the strike last summer in Vancouver.

In summary, I am of the opinion that the Japanese are the shrewdest, toughest dealers in the world. Even with their inflation at 30%, paying for their high oil bill, importing all their raw materials, they will still end up with a trade surplus of $5 billion this year, along with unemployment of 2%.

It is shocking to me that their trading companies know more about our cost, profits and companies than we do ourselves, and I suppose that in the future we will not have to worry about American ownership in Canada, but how much the Japanese have partnership in.

Sedgewick and District News

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Romberg were here on business Monday, and spent the night with the J. Hallams.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Johnson on the birth of a daughter at the Coon Hospital on June 19. Visiting at the Alce Bedou home last week from Vancouver were Mrs. Elwyn Bello with his wife and daughter. Alce took them to Prince Albert, Sask. for a two day visit with Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Zdzienicki.

Mr. Art Easly and Mr. Jim Davison left on Friday to attend the Senior Citizens card party Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Overt Bakken and Mrs. Harry Wilson were the prize for the highest scores. Consolation prizes went to Mrs. Gwen Weber and Mr. Steve Potage. Last week, high score given went to Tim Blakeley and A. W. Russell while Mrs. Res-sie Russell and Dave Black went to the Coon Hospital to meet Mrs. Wilma Olander and Mrs. Ruby Pedersen, both of Los Angeles, who will spend some time visiting relatives and friends in the district.

Mr. and Mrs. Neville Davis and sons of Ottawa are visiting here with his mother, Mrs. Christina Davis.

Visitors from June at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Lloyd Tanton included Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rambooth of Kelowna, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hunter of Bentley and Mrs. Ruby Pedersen of Coonville, California. Mrs. Pedersen is having an extended holiday here. She is the former Ruby Macneil and is a sister of Mrs. Hallam's mother. During the 1950's, she was telephone operator in Sedgewick and Loughheed. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Baker of Edmonton were here to attend the Hogganbach-Charmwedding on Saturday. Mrs. Margaret Pedersen accompanied them back to Edmonton enroute to Vancouver where she will visit her son Butler and his wife.

Congratulations and best wishes to the newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hogganbach (nee Pat Cheram) who were married on Saturday June 21. A very excited grandmother rang me last Saturday with the exciting news that she now had twin grandsons. So best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Tanton who became the parents of twin sons, both weighing over 8 pounds, at Killam hospital on Saturday morning, June 21st. Course, the proud grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Laird Tanton. Mrs. Laird Tanton's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Overt Laurin of Winnipeg, Man. visited with the Tantons and friends and relatives here a couple of days.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Bertram are holidaying with relatives at the west coast. At the weekend they joined members of Nelson's regiment (or should it be wing, since it's airforce) in a reunion.

Get well wishes to Mr. John Broadfoot, Mrs. Helen Webb and Mrs. Molly Anderson who were at the bereavement service at the church bulletin as I scan it after taking my seat in the Sedgewick United Church on this Sunday morning in April. Three small congregations out of many hundreds in the United Church of Canada with this in June of 1955 celebrates the fifty fifth anniversary of its inception. I have been a member of this church for a good many years but I'd never before wondered how these congregations began. Who started them, what denominations were they, where were the first services held. What better year than this to find out more about the pioneers who brought their church with them as they opened up the west. The church which we have in 1975 into the United Church of Canada.

With the aid of various folk who have lived in this district a lot longer than I have and some available from books and the history of the three churches is again in full into place. So here is what I've been able to discover about them from the beginnings to the present day.

Laird them in order they appear I began with Merna. There the first worship service was conducted in 1905 in Mr. and Mrs. Cox's and house by Rev. Fisher. Following this a student, Mr. Kirk, held services in various homes. In 1914 the church still in use was built by the Presbyterian and was opened for worship by Rev. Miller. A dedication service was conducted in June of that year by Rev. J. Thors. The minister at that time was Rev. J. McKay.

In April of 1922 a local union of the Presbyterians and the Methodists was effected, with Rev. D. Pomroy as minister. When the United Church came into being in 1925 the Merna church became part of the Alliance charge. From then until 1951 they were served by the ministers from Alliance due to the retirement in Dec. 1951 of the Alliance by Rev. Mr. J.E. Nicol, the Merna church became associated with the Sedgewick-Loughheed charge. Services to mark this were conducted by Rev. Don Lewis in June of 1954. So by the action of Coronation Presbytery came into being the three parishes of Sedgewick, Loughheed and Merna.

New Sedgewick When the village came into being in 1925, the building of a church was recommended at the fall by the Methodists. In 1927 it was completed and dedicated this was the church on the hill which stood proudly for many years. A manne was built right here in 1928 and housed the ministers and their families until the Fall of 1968 when a new manne was purchased.

From 1906 to 1908 the Rev. Bateman was the minister followed by the Rev. D.W. Galway and then the Rev. McDonald. Between 1913 and 1923 the Rev. Samuel Webster, the Rev. W.L. Bradley, the Rev. W. Pomroy and the Rev. Scott served the charge for varying periods of time. The Rev. MacDonald was the minister from 1923 to 1925 but at the time the United Church came into existence the Rev. MacGregor was leading the congregation. He was succeeded in 1927 by the Rev. P. Dawson, who later entered politics and became speaker of the Alberta Legislature. For 22 years the next minister Rev. M.M. MacLean, who arrived in 1929, faithfully served this charge.

The Rev. Vernon Wishart arrived right from St. Stevens College in 1932 and stayed until 1935 when he left to further his education in the United States. It was while Rev. Wishart was here that it was decided that 'the church on the hill' had served its time. So the present church was built and dedicated, the first service being held in June of 1935. The Rev. Jackson Strapp then arrived from eastern Canada and was with us until 1939. The Rev. John Clark then served for over a year, the balance of the time being filled by a student, Mr. Don Steele. In 1941 the Rev. John Fatt was inducted into the charge and he remained for two years. Seven years was the length of the stay of the next minister, the Rev. Don Lewis, who left in 70. Until spring of 74

History of Sedgewick-Loughheed

Sedgewick Pastoral Charge
Merna 8:45 a.m., Sedgewick 9:15 a.m., St. Andrews 11:30 a.m. So reads the of Canada church bulletin as I scan it after taking my seat in the Sedgewick United Church on this Sunday morning in April. There were three preaching points at that time. Loughheed, Groveland and Goose Creek, with Green Valley also included at times. Because of this the Loughheed church did not wish to unite with Sedgewick for a year's trial when it was suggested in 1922. They felt that a resident minister was necessary to handle the preaching load. But in May of 1923, when church union was voted on, it was passed by an overwhelming vote. From 1914 to 1929 the following ministers served at Loughheed: the Rev. MacDonald, the Rev. George Wood, the Rev. Wilson, Rev. A. Barr the Rev. William Eakin, the Rev. J. Graham, the Rev. W. Cunningham and the Rev. R. Atkinson. Also a student Mr. McKay.

Laurel. In 1929 Loughheed united with Sedgewick and the same minister has since served them both. So was born the Sedgewick - Loughheed charge which in 1954 became the Sedgewick - Loughheed Merna charge.

So today, after more than 50 years of labour and love by many people, the Sedgewick-Loughheed-Merna congregations meet here to celebrate the 50th Anniversary of the United Church of Canada. Let us hope she goes on from strength to strength in the 30 years ahead.

Keeping in touch

As a member of the Standing Committee on National Resources, I have been intensely involved in Bill C-8. This is a Bill that when passed will be an Act to establish a National Petroleum Company. It is widely known that Bill C-8 is taking an extraordinarily long time in passing the committee stage. Though space in this column will not allow for a complete analysis of this proposed legislation, I would like to share with constituents some of the concerns we have towards the proposed act.

One of the overriding concerns is the ever increasing Government expenditures during a time of high inflation. Petro-Canada, when created, will cost the Canadian taxpayer $1.8 billion dollars. That amount of money will undoubtedly stress the Canadian economy.

One of the overriding concerns is the ever increasing Government expenditures during a time of high inflation. Petro-Canada, when created, will cost the Canadian taxpayer $1.8 billion dollars. That amount of money will undoubtedly stress the Canadian economy.

The above arguments are of course, of a general nature. And while we may oppose them philosophically and be personally uncomfortable with the proposal of the Bill, the fact is that the Government is in power and once being elected, has the right to have its legislation brought before parliament. Some of the major concerns, however are contained within the individual clauses of the Bill itself. The following are examples of some of our concerns.

Clause 3 reads in part "to engage in exploration for, and the production, distribution, refining and marketing of,

It should go without question that Canada needs to enhance her search for petroleum supplies. The question, however, is whether or not a National Petroleum Company is the best method of finding supply. The facts are that within the last year and a half, between 1 and 2 of the small drilling companies in Canada have been asked to drill elsewhere because of the uncertainty of Canadian policy in the oil industry. Secondly, it should be questioned as to whether or not a National Petroleum Company is an efficient organizational structure. As an example Air Canada, a national airline operating in the most hostile part of Canada (the Toronto-Ottawa-Montreal Triangle) managed to lose 12 million dollars on its operation in the last fiscal year. Most private air carriers during that same time operated at a profit. It can be even questioned as to whether or not a crown corporation has the capacity to achieve its stated objective. As an illustration, one of the objectives of the CNR was to guarantee the movement of grain in the prairies. A review of reports from the National Railroad indicates that across the last decade and a half, there has been a very vigorous effort to relieve itself of its obligation to move grain.

Clause 3 reads in part "to engage in exploration for, and the production, distribution, refining and marketing of, ernment to make extensive loans to companies that they find in political favour and then in turn to have dealings with the same company.

Perhaps the most contentious of all clauses is clause 7, subsection (2) which reads in part that "The Corporation shall comply with any directions from time to time given service stations. While a legitimate argument can be put forward to enhance Canadian ownership, I think we have an obligation to question sincerely the role of Government in operating local service stations."

In Clause 5 which reads in part that the Corporation is to be established by "one hundred common shares of par value of 5 million dollars each." If a National Petroleum Co. is to be established, then it would seem logical that there be an opportunity for the Canadian citizen at large to participate. The fact that the common shares are of 5 million dollars each makes it such that it is impossible for the citizen to participate in this National Company.

In Clause 6, subsection (d) there is a very contentious issue that reads as follows: "to produce, distribute, transport and market other fuels and energy."

By the time you have had the opportunity to read this column, we will have completed our twentieth (20) hour meeting on this important Bill. Obviously, through the time spent in this column is too limited to give a full discussion of the Bill. However, the importance of the subject matter, I thought it was important to have this discussion even though the discussion has been considerably abbreviated.

At the 50th anniversary of the United Church Rev. Jackson read a letter from the first Minister in Hardisty Rev. Thomas D. Jones. Being interested in the early history of Hardisty and other places, your reporter wrote him and must quote a line. The young woman's wedding to her older ones. Quote "My work in the years in churches, congregations has been an absorbing sphere of service, and age came upon me almost in defiance of myself."

I think that applies to many of us although we hate to admit we are growing older, it comes in defiance of our selves. Mrs. Quast, Linda and Isabel Nelson visited Mrs. John Quast in Hanna last Monday before she moves out of her home into an apartment. While in Hanna, Isabel phoned her friends the Dick Clarkes and Dick picked her up for a little visit before their relations from California arrived. They are busy getting their yard in their lovely new home all finished up. *

The Central High track and field had an excellent year. Some of the forty odd County team went on to the zones in Canmore and brought home a large collection of ribbons as well as the Zone trophy. From here, the winners went on to the Regionals. At one level of competition the Central team had twice as many points as the next runner-up. Bob Steadman set a new record with his 11 foot Pole Vault. The zone trophy was accepted by Bob and Bari.

The students of Central High have a new home where they can spend spare, do homework, and eat lunch. The student lounge finally came into being this year. The boys shop class, Bays Overman, David Hampshire, Wayne Laro, Robert Kerschinger and Scott Peacock, led by Mr. R. Doody built the wood seats, tables and benches. Linda M. Fisher, Kathleen Steadman, and Lynn Child, aided by Miss Thym sewed the cushion and seat covers, painted walls and furniture, and put up posters and mobiles. A plaque commemorating these students and teachers, who worked together toward their common goal, will be hung in the lounge for future Centralists to read and appreciate.

The 75 Awards Night signified the end of year for the Central High School students. With only a few days left to exams, and summer holidays, the year comes to a close.

New County project starts

Many residents are aware of the Flagstaff County School Committee's decision to create a new experimental series of study for junior high students concerning an understanding of various dimensions of the local environment to include the county's colorful history.

Having enjoyed childhood and teaching experiences with the county, it is a pleasure for me to be selected as the individual to coordinate the development of the new course guide over the next three months time. I find the project fascinating and challenging.

In an attempt to facilitate the creation of meaningful historical dimensions of the course, it would be very helpful to receive various kinds of inputs from people throughout the county. First, any historical documents, anecdotes and artifacts that you can locate will be invaluable to the author. These will be viewed and/or read, cross-referenced and returned to the owner. If requested, by the end of Sept.

Second, suggestions of historical places of interest within the county will be appreciated as the author intends to provide a framework for student understanding of the value of time and place phenomena.

Third, please send in the names of a few people who might be interviewed by the author or later by students in attempts to capture exciting historical moments of the local area.

Send all material to: "County Curriculum Project" County of Flagstaff Office Sedgewick, Alberta.

As this project requires that I spend part of this summer in the county office, the family will be temporarily in Sedgewick for July and part of August. We hope to say Hello to many of you during that time.

Summer Cooling!

If you've been contemplating Summer Cooling, we offer these helpful hints.

Window Air Conditioners can offer an economical and efficient method of cooling your home without wasting energy.

A WISE INVESTMENT - Used intelligently, your Window Air Conditioner is a wise investment. Because your window air conditioner is a temporary item, it's important to get the most out of it. For maximum efficiency, your window air conditioner should be professionally fitted through the wall.

CORRECT SIZING - When considering an air conditioner, make sure it is the correct size (Btu capacity) for the room or home. Also check that it has a high efficiency rating. If it does, it will save you a great deal of money in the long run. Ask your dealer for details.

MONDAY JULY 7th
8:30 a.m. at the Club House
ALL MEMBERS,
PLEASE ATTEND

Fastball comment

Playoffs had been due to start on Thursday, July 3 at the Sedgewick Fastball League but last week's much welcomed rain made that an impossibility with many teams having two postponed games left to play. Both Thurs. June 26 games - Forestburg at Legheed and Alliance at Sedgewick - were rained out. On Monday, June 24, Sedgewick Forestburg, 10 to 7-1 tie. Bill Anderson was the distance for Sedgewick while Dan Maxwell pitched most of the game for Forestburg. J. Dickau hit a homerun for Sedgewick.

This year's playoff format in the F.F.L. sees only three teams reaching the playoffs at this stage that appears to be Forestburg, Killam and Sedgewick. The 2nd and 3rd place teams will play two game total play series with the winner playing the 1st place team in a best of 3 games final series. This should greatly speed up the playoffs.

The F.F.L. All Star Game has been scrapped as well. In its place will be a League Tournament starting at 2 p.m. on July 6 in Lougheed with all teams participating. Just before the final game the trophy awards will be presented. This year 5 trophies will be presented to individuals: Killam Farm Equipment trophy to a non-player for service to the league (Voted); Sedgewick-Coronation Young Social Creditor Trophy to the top rookie (Voted); Merna Hare Trophy to the most valuable player (Voted); Sedgewick Cougar Trophy to the top pitcher (winner of the Pharmacy Trophy to the top batter (average). As well the Killam Transit Mix Trophy will be presented to the permanent winning team.

This weekend is also busy as the Strome Tiger Hockey team to Spruce Grove for the North Zone Banham B final.

Hardisty school janitor honoured on retirement

After being janitor in the Hardisty school for 18 years, our Jovial J.C. Cavanagh retired, both as janitor and school bus driver.

Jim has driven the school bus for eleven years.

The Students Union presented Jim with an engraved clock to show their appreciation and the County of Hardisty staff also presented him with an engraved clock, presented to him by Mr. Bud Neas, Councillor. The teaching staff presented him with a beautiful wood carving of a man with a hoe in his hand. Would that be a hint to help Pauline with her garden? Also presented by Sean Tillman was a lovely cake, made and decorated by Mrs. Beruice Tillman. It was in the shape of a book and was decorated "Memories 1957-1975".

The pupils also gave him a large card autographed by all of them, along with a year-book dedicated to J.C.

His retirement starts the 1st of September. We surely hope he will enjoy many years of it.

J.C.'s wife Pauline was presented with a large clockpin holding a note of instructions that J.C. was expected to do around the home after his retirement.

J.C., with his good sense of humor, could see the funny side of all the frustrations that do not occur, so the big question now is who will be missed the most, Jim missing the staff and pupils or the staff and pupils missing him?

Hardisty Happenings

(Intended for last week)
Two little cousins were baptized by Rev. Jackson on June 22. Son of Henry and Maureen Hays. Darren James with godparents, Dr. and Mrs. Cahill, and Kevin Neil Albert Madden, son of Patrick and Lona and Brumhead. The bride's parent was Mr. Bob Foulon who was accompanied by his friend Mr. and Mrs. John Leino's mother, Mrs. Neil. Lean attended also as well as Patrick and Maureen's relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hays and family of Sherwood Park attended and Mrs. Hays had reintroduced Maureen and Henry's wedding cake with the little cousins' names on it and passed around later. A group of 45 guests at the Pat Madden home.

Also attending were Henry's and Harry's cousin Keith Manning and his wife Betty from Car. Flowers donated by Howard Hays for the church in memory of both sets of parents and Barbara's.
Congratulations to Lloyd Bronson on winning the $100.00 prize at the Killam bingo. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Pat Van Koughnet a baby girl, Tanya Gagne, 9 lbs. 1 oz., on June 14th.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Keobler (Pat Moody and husband) arrived from a World Tour last Monday, planning to stay for about three months, then to return to Sydney, Australia where Harry is employed as a mechanic. They really like living in Australia but naturally love Canada best. Congratulations to Lois Doney of Camrose and Ernie Renahaw whose marriage was celebrated on place June 21 with open house at the home of Danny Lawson. We wish them the best for the future.
Mr. Everett Bates of Nainburg, B.C., also his brother Wilfred Bates of Hardisty, they could see the were visiting with their aunt, Mrs. Eunice White.

Get Well wishes to George Matthews who has undergone surgery in the hospital here. He was in here with Mrs. Ruth and Joyce. Joyce used to live in New Brunswick but now resides in St. Albert.
Mrs. Eunice White received a card from Mrs. Alex Cameron who is visiting in his hospital for ten days. Guess they will soon be home again.

Get Well wishes go to Mrs. Marion Harrison who is a patient in Hardisty Hospital.
Mrs. Quasi, Linda and husband Nelson visited Mrs. Wilma Bone in Camrose Hospital and found her pretty good. Only a few days after operation. Sympathy is extended to Allan Jamieson on the passing away of his uncle, Billy McConnell at Miflet. The McConnells were well known in the Camrose-Miflet area and used to break the crop for your reporter's folks. A grand old man who attended the Albert barbeque very faithfully.

Chris and Shirley Bechtold and family of Calgary spent the weekend with Shirley's parents, Bob Quasi.
A shower was held in the Christian Education Building for Sharon Brown on June 21. Her marriage to Sid Rees took place Sat. June 20th.

At the head table to help Sharon were her mother, Maureen and John Rees, and Henry Jamieson of Segeiwick and sister Rose.
Stude Syder and Jamie Hendricks brought the gifts to the head table and were passed around to be admired by the guests. John Rees, and Nelson, Lunch followed and good wishes are sent to Sid and Sharon for the years ahead. They will be living in Fred.

Another shower this week was held in the same building for Carol Garthelche. At the head table representing Carol's mother was Rosemary Thompson, Irene Carlson, Linda Anderson and Corlene Rasmussen. Games were played and Debbie Dancelsky sang a solo accompanied by Mrs. Linda Olson on the piano. Cathy Syder and Debbie Dancelsky passed the gifts around. Lunch followed. Best wishes go to this couple also.

It didn't take long for the lovely gardens and beautiful flowers to be destroyed by a violent hailstorm which passed through this area on Wed. June 25 followed by a severe rain. Those who had not seen a hailstorm before were naturally quite frightened and some couple out in a Volkswagen found Jack Mazure's carapaga hedge very comforting until they could see the way home. It was lucky for a number of us that Doug Harrison had a good supply of glasses on hand as he was sure busy fixing broken windows.

It was nice to see Harry and Esther Moody at the Elks bingo Fri. night. Harry finds his walker easier to get around in the hospital.
Mrs. Ida Orr had her daughter, son-in-law and young granddaughter from Edmonton over the weekend. She has a pretty sharp granddaughter who should really go places in this world.

Hardisty Fire Dept. was called out Monday to a bale stack burning at the farm of Joe De Kock. The fire caused no serious damage.

Legislature report

by Kevin Peterson
Provincial government officials have found a response that even they find surprising from their first public attempt to recruit small businessmen to move into Alberta's smaller towns.

After three years of working with more than 70 smaller communities on what sort of services and businesses they felt were needed, the regional services branch of the business development department decided to test the water in June.

Four newspaper advertisements were placed with coupons that listed a selection of communities and the services they felt their area could support.

The department now reports that the ads drew 228 responses, mainly from Edmonton and Calgary where would-be businessmen were looking for a chance to set up shop in more quiet surroundings.

"The problem has always been putting the people who would like to get into their own business in touch with a community that needs them," says Ken Broadfoot, director of regional services. "Many young people, if you can offer them an opportunity in a small town, are willing to get up and move there."

The towns are called "opportunity towns" in government language, signifying the chance that people have to fill a need that the community feels.

The inventories for the 70 towns have all been compiled by local people, with help from the provincial department. The officials start out by looking at the hinterland of each area and then deciding what sort of basic industries the town is likely to attract.

The list then moves on to services that the community is large enough to support, ranging from restaurants to motels to shoe stores or electricians. The final part of the inventory is potentially the most embarrassing for the provincial officials — community people are asked whether they feel the government is treating their town well enough for new bridges have been heard. Residents of one community complained that they deserved an AGT serviceman for their problems — and got one.

While that ends the formal involvement of the regional services branch, they remain in touch. They quietly lobby cases where government improvements are needed, set up meetings and are available for expert advice when required.

One townspeople said "no program offers a unique chance for smaller communities. Any person attempting to attract new businesses or residents can only work part-time at the job, he admits, while the provincial officials are available to provide full-time input.

Killam donors win Red Cross pennant

Killam and district citizens donated the major number of pints of blood at the Red Cross Blood Donor clinic and were awarded a flag with a red cross. The clinic was held July 16 in Killam.

A total of 113 pints of blood were donated with 8 donors rejected. Of this total and heard on a phone book population count, Killam had 16 percent while Sedgewick had 7.9 percent.

THE BIG INCH

The ruled box is the amount of space occupied by a one-inch advertisement. It measures one column wide by 1 inch deep. It costs advertisers $1.12

It looks kinda lonesome by itself, but look at it this way: What you get when you buy a one-inch ad in The Community Press is not just a single inch of space in the paper, but one inch multiplied by our circulation of 1,950.

So you're buying 1,950 inches, which at 75 inches a page would be almost 26 pages of newspaper.

That's a mighty big chunk of space for a cost of only $1.12 and that includes mail delivery. Just imagine the cost of reaching all those people by post card. It would amount to $117.00.

So you can see that a little one-inch ad is really a BIG INCH when it's advertising space in The Community Press!

And figures show that it's the most effective and economical way possible to let people in the County of Flagstaff Trading area know that you have wares or services that they could use.

Hjesvolds attend
Detroit wedding

(Taken from the Citrus County Chronicle of June 24th of Irverness, Florida - written by columnist Donna Lou Backen).
"After spending three weeks on the road, Backen the Woods is just grand to return to by your writer and family and Jeff Norwood."

The first event of the trip to Detroit was to attend the wedding of niece Karen Crochella to Jim Martelle. Karen's yeangest sister Ingrid was a bridesmaid, brother Ron was an usher and brother Joe and his hand provided the dance music at the reception. Joe is an outstanding photographer for the Macomb Daily, a newspaper of Detroit and he was the wedding photographer.
The out-of-town guest list was large, and grandmother Martha Backen had family coming all the way from Viking, Alta-which is located southeast of Edmonton. They were, her brother Martin Hjesvold who resides at the Hjesvold homestead which has 200 acres and lights and fridge, a wood burning cook stove and running water via windmill. Martin played his violin at the reception for 300 guests.

Another brother John Hjelavold, a recently retired drayer, a niece Elise Simonson, a house painter, and her husband Pete, also retired, and a cousin, Henry Hefso, Henry is a retired farmer and now enjoys his spare time on the town's curling team with his two sons.

(Mrs. Backen is a niece-in-law of Mel Backen and Martin Hjesvold, who brought in the article for publication.)

Hazelwood Good Deed Club meets

The Hazelwood Good Deed Club met at our accustomed rendezvous at the Hardisty Lake picnic grounds on July 19 for their annual picnic. As nearly as we have been able to calculate, our July picnic has been a regular event for approximately 18 years and this one was attended by over sixty five enthusiastic picnicers ranging in age from two weeks to the blisful pension age. Quite a few donated bathing suits and enjoyed a dip in the lake before members and guests enjoyed a delicious supper, after which a lively game of softball took the spotlight. Spectators agreed that they had never seen bases run faster by cowboy boots or bare feet, while Dizzy Dean himself would have envied the fancy curves, spinners and drop balls Joe Hogg and Gary Cox sent across the "plate".
We were only sorry to miss the familiar faces, Margaret Denham and Mrs. McCrea Sr.
Jo McClements was unfortunate to be caught with her shingles down. Better luck next time. Jo, also Elsie Trager, who travelled two hundred miles to join a chickenplucking crew. We hope to have you both back in the ball game at the next year's picnic.

Former Stromeite celebrates 90th

Mr. Joseph D. Robertson of Edmonton, Alberta, celebrated his 90th birthday on July 26 in Ottawa, Ontario.

Mr. Robertson was born near Ottumwa, Iowa on July 26, 1885. He married Elizabeth Petrie of Fairmont, Minn. in 1911 and later moved to Strome where he farmed for 25 years.

After retiring in 1946 he travelled extensively, touring every province and state in Canada and the U.S.A. At the age of 84 years he and his wife made a round-the-world trip by air.

Mr. and Mrs. Robertson will fly to Ottawa where a family celebration will be held at the home of their granddaughter, Shirley MacMillan of Kempville, Ont.

Other family members attending the celebration will be their two sons, George of Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia and Leo of Ottawa. Three grand-children, Bill and Jim of Ottawa and Glenn of Ormrod, N.B. and three great-grandchildren will also be present.

Arnold Malone, M.P.

By the time you read these comments, the House will have recessed for the summer months. It is anticipated that the House will remain recessed until the 14th of October. This period of adjournment will provide an excellent opportunity for me to meet with a more personal basis with the constituents of Battle River.

Earlier this spring, I purchased a holiday home in an intending to use the vehicle as a mobile constituency office. The unusually long session in Ottawa has prevented me from equipping the office in a manner complete to my expectations. I will have hand however a large number of pamphlets and brochures explaining the services of the Federal Government. It is my intention to travel this mobile office to various areas, exhibitions and sports days this summer in an attempt to meet as many constituents as possible. I hope this will be an opportunity for constituents to share their ideas and recommendations with me.

The recess from Parliament will be a welcomed relief from the hot humidity of the Ottawa climate. More importantly, it will be a chance to prepare and research in detail a number of the recommendations that I intend to put to the Government in the next session.

Two rather important activities will keep me highly involved in the political arena through much of the recess. In the first instance, I have been requested to serve on the Committee of Privileges and Elections in respect to investigating allegations of impropriety by M.P. John Reid. That Committee will commence its hearings on August 11 and will be calling witnesses for as long as it is necessary to complete the necessary fact-finding mission to which the Committee has been obliged to investigate.

The second major activity of my summer will be a trip to Alaska's north slope, along the northern shelf and down the Mackenzie Valley as part of an investigation about matters relating to the proposed Mackenzie Valley Pipeline. This investigative trip will be under the authorization of the Standing Committee of National Resources in this case. The Committee will have Edmonton on Sept. 5th and return Sept. 13. It is hoped that a number of authorities who are in a position to comment on many of the concerns about the proposed pipeline will be on the tour as advisers. On this trip the Committee will be operating on a very tight agenda and we are planning to get some first-hand information about the merits of establishing the Mackenzie Valley Pipeline so that meaningful recommendations may be made to Parliament.

Even though the House has now recessed, I would wish to assure all constituents that the office is still in full operation and that staff will be available to receive your messages. Those wishing to phone Ottawa ought to be reminded that during the recess the hours change and the staff no longer leaves at 5 p.m. but rather 4 p.m. and, of course, of importance is the fact that Alberta is two time zones removed from Ottawa, thus requiring that any calls placed to my office ought to be placed before 2 p.m. Alta. time.

I am looking forward to the opportunity of travelling through the constituency on a more frequent basis during the recess and will be grateful for a more personalized opportunity for keeping in touch.

Fababeans here to stay

by Maureen Lee

Manitoba thinks we are terrific. Alberta doesn't seem to think so. Fababeans are small seeded relatives of the garden broad bean, similar to a soy-bean; growing straight up to a height of 3 to 5 feet, and have excellent straw strength.

These plants are a good source of protein for all farm animals, yet demand a lot of work and attention. In Alberta, fababeans are still in the experimental stage, and nothing like the average cereal grain farmer would have to require a long germination period with irrigation - a set up that Albertans aren't adjusted to.

The seed should be sown into a moist, firm seedbed as early as possible in Alberta, late April or early May.

Herbicide treatment is a must unless the grower is certain that he selected a very clean field for protection. Because fababeans are a poor competitor to weeds, weed control is the most important factor in a successful crop.

Fababeans require no special equipment over and above what the average cereal grain farmer would have. In combining, the bottom pods of the plant tend to shatter - and this makes it important to closely match the pickup speed to the ground speed.

Fababeans yield in Alberta vary. In this general district, the crop paid for itself, but with very little or no profit on an average sized plot. They haven't proved themselves as a good crop for Alberta the way things are now. But, with time, energy, and experimentation, Alberta might just have a new high protein feed for all farm animals.

For more information on this experimental plant, call in at the D.A.'s office in Sedgewick.

Great time had at Hastings Coulee

The Hastings Coulee Hall board and U.C.W. combined efforts to organize a homecoming weekend for all former residents of the area.

The first meeting was held Jan. 31, where Roger Jones was elected chairman and Marian Beebe, secretary.

Plans were made and committees set up to plan and organize the home coming. The people of the community responded with enthusiasm and it was with a real community spirit that the whole project was undertaken and completed.

The Hall board, with Carl Stenson as chairman, did a splendid job, getting the hall ready for the occasion. The inside of the hall was painted and the floor sand and polished. The grounds on all four corners were mowed and picnic tables brought in to make a beautiful setting, reminiscent of pioneer times. Historic pictures and antiques were on display as well as paintings by local artists.

Saturday at 2 o'clock the schedule of events began with over 50 people meeting together at the hall. The program chairman, Tip Henderson had a presentation of plaques (to those present).

1. Earliest pioneer - Sarah Blush
2. Oldest child born in the district - Sarah Blush Elders
3. Earliest teacher - Mary Knutson

A blue spruce tree was planted by Tip with Debbie, his daughter, taking part in the ceremony. This in tribute to the pioneers and old timers of the district.

A banquet served armagored style featured roast beef, The farmers of the district donated the hips of beef and the farmers wives provided a delicious and beautiful array of salads and everything else to bring together a great meal. The convener of the food committee was Delores Krotzsch whose duties carried over for lunch in the morning and dinner Sunday.

At 9 o'clock the activities started the event had much joy working together. Those who came to visit found much pleasure in renewing old acquaintances and seeing familiar faces and remembering long forgotten events.

The working committee leaders were: Antiques - Elmar Fossen History and Communications - Emelyn Evans Entertainment - Garth Lundy Food - Delores Krotzsch Finance Committee - Leo Wenzel and Jim Gowanlock

Ruby Keen with her original orchestra, thrilled us all with playing together as they had so many times through the past forty years. Ivan Mallett, on behalf of the present guests, thanked the people of the Hastings Coulee for making the occasion so enjoyable and memorable.

Sunday, July 6th, activities were all held at Big Knife Provincial Park. The Lions club were hosts to a pancake breakfast. At 11 o'clock there was an open air church service where several hundred people worshipped together. Rev. George Butler coordinated the church service. Rev. Dick Swaren and Rev. Frank Andersen both former residents extended greetings and best wishes. Rev. Bob Seal delivered the message and reminded us of the many incomes he had of his days in this area. Important as the past is, we must keep building forward and going onward, remembering always that it is our faith in our Lord Jesus Christ that holds us steady and confident in our hope for the future.

There was a time for races, softball and games of all kinds. This was followed by the Forestburg Band playing a most enjoyable number of selections.

At 2 o'clock there was another time of feasting and fellowship. This time everybody contributed pot luck style and there resulted a picnic traditional Hastings Coulee fashion.

Everybody reported having a wonderful time of visiting and fellowship. Those who had stayed the event had much joy working together. Those who came to visit found much pleasure in renewing old acquaintances and seeing familiar faces and remembering long forgotten events.

"ON THE FARM SERVICE"

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Electors:

Back once again with a brief message.

Yes, like the students and teachers, the summer recess is a welcome break for school committee members. Our last meeting of the school term was held on June 18th.

At that date, we were informed that teaching staffs in our county were complete in spite of the strike action threat. Negotiators have worked diligently in the past few months trying to come to terms with the teachers and still stay within budget projections. We feel the government must see the writing on the wall and raise the allocation of funds to meet the inflexible needs.

I have been elected to meet with High School principals, the superintendent and his associates at a seminar in late August. The proposed agenda sounds interesting and will include:

1. Review of proposed offerings 1975-76
2. Ways of financing of development and implementation of a viable alternate program for non-matric students
3. Status of industrial education, business ed., home economics, special programs, health and work education
4. Planning for high school students (my real concern)
5. Status of school committees

With public support, I'd like to hold "Concern of Parents." I would appreciate any suggestions or constructive criticism which parents, teachers and the interested public would like me to convey to this meeting. Please feel free to contact me by phone or mail. Notices can be withheld at your request, but letters must be signed.

I've reduced your immediate concerns. Failure on your part to contact me in this regard will indicate complete satisfaction with the present conditions.

School committee member Jean Johnson

It is a wonder of our "Chamber of Commerce" meeting is taking place.

There is a lot of business to be done here and very little time to do it from the "Chamber of Commerce" meeting. Could it be that the business is cut and dried before the meeting?

Really work

Thurs. Aug. 7, 1975 Community Press - Page 19

Or could it be the secret meetings held, that the membership are not notified of?

As so often happens, secrecy has misled. Whatever the good intentions that led to the decision to allow secrecy, it seems certain that the secrecy has done more harm than good.

Written by one of the good citizens who could have been very interested in the progress of our town.

For 10 years, we've worked hard turning oil sand into energy.

That first step forward:

In the 200-year history of Alberta's unique oil sands, Great Canadian Oil Sands Limited stands alone. Beginning in 1963, GCOS was the first to take up the tremendous challenge of petroleum production from oil sand by beginning construction of a large-scale plant. Pioneering, we knew, was tough. But hopes were high. Sun Oil made a major capital investment. And soon, more than 125,000 Albertans joined us in our venture by investing in Great Canadian debentures and common shares. Today, we're still the only petroleum producer in the oil sands.

Pioneering problems:

The early GCOS years were the most difficult, for the sand resisted almost every effort to make it productive. Complex plans had to be altered, designs redrawn and strategy and production schedules constantly realigned. Mining the sand proved formidable. In summer, heavy equipment was in danger of becoming hopelessly mired in oil sand made soft and sticky by the sun's heat. And in winter, the combination of severe cold and the sand's natural abrasive and adhesive properties made the oil sand tougher than concrete to dig. These problems to some extent are still with us. Most surprising, our power plant failed on several occasions causing major production setbacks. So far, Sun Oil has invested some $300 million, four times more than originally intended. But today, we are producing some 50,000 barrels of high quality petroleum a day.

Knowledge for others:

Overcoming early problems led to the rise of a whole new technology at Great Canadian. That technology and our oil sand experience is unique. And it will go a long way toward easing the entrance of other companies into petroleum production from the sands. In some ways, our knowledge has already paid off for new projects. Because we tackled the problems we did, when we did, new plants will likely run more efficiently and at less start-up cost. That saving is good news for energy development.

GAS ALBERTA — REVISED RATES FOR NATURAL GAS

Effective April 1, 1975 Gas Alberta's wholesale price to the rural gas distributors was increased from 30¢/Mcf to 42¢/Mcf. This is a direct result of the increase in the support price for rebate calculation from 16.7¢/Mcf to 28¢/Mcf. The average field price for natural gas has roughly tripled from 16.7¢/Mcf prior to January 1, 1974 to over 50¢/Mcf today. Alberta consumers are still sheltered through the Natural Gas Rebate Plan from a substantial portion of this increase.

Gas Alberta averages all gas purchase prices and the 42¢/Mcf is "net after rebate" and includes the operating costs of the regulator stations. There is some inflationary increase built into the wholesale price to cover higher administration, transportation and operating costs.

Eastern grain movement

ACRI - INSIGHT
 by Alberta Wheat Pool
 Prairie grain for export moves in three directions. west to the Pacific coast, north to Churchill or east to Thunder Bay and other eastern ports. The vast majority of grain moving eastward is handled through the terminal elevators at Thunder Bay.

During the past four crop years, handlings at the Lakehead terminal elevators ranged from 477 to 811 million bushels. Eighteen terminals in the port have storage for over 82 million bushels. Most grain moves through Thunder Bay from April to December, when navigation on the Great Lakes and St. Lawrence Seaway is possible. Rail shipments from the Lakehead are heaviest during the winter months. While ocean vessels are able to navigate the Seaway and head at Thunder Bay, less than 10% of eastern grain exports are loaded directly onto ocean vessels at the Lakehead.

A fleet of 40 lake vessels which operate between Thunder Bay and the St. Lawrence ports carry most of the grain shipped east. Experience has shown the vessels are capable of moving over 600 million bushels during the navigation season.

Some of Canada's eastern grain exports are shipped by lake vessel to transfer elevators along Lake Huron, Lake Erie and Lake Ontario. Nine transfer elevators in L. Huron ports are capable of storing 31.3 million bushels. When the St. Lawrence Seaway opened, use of these elevators decreased, but the West Board still utilizes the facilities to rail about 25 million bushels of grain to the Atlantic ports each winter.

Transfer elevators are also located along Lake Erie and Lake Ontario. Total storage capacity is approximately 17 million bushels. These facilities were constructed in the early 1900's to transfer grain from lake vessels to Canal vessels or rail cars for movement further east.

In addition to supplying domestic grain needs, the elevators along the Lake Huron, Erie and Ontario route continue to be used by the West Board to supplement the export program. A federal government subsidy, the Atlantic and East (A & E) subsidy, encourages their use for movement of export grain to eastern ports. The subsidy, paid to the railroads for a low rate on export grain, applies to grain transported from these ports to the St. Lawrence and Atlantic ports. As a result, the Canadian Wheat Board stores grain in the facilities at the close of navigation on the Great Lakes, for later shipment to terminals on the St. Lawrence River and Atlantic coast. This allows the Board to continue an export program during the winter.

Elevators along the St. Lawrence River also function as transfer elevators unloading lake vessels and rail cars and unloading grain onto ocean vessels. Total storage capacity is over 65 million bushels. These elevators are also used to export U.S. grain, but at least 90% of their storage space must be reserved for Canadian grain.

Operations at the Atlantic coast elevators are mainly confined to the winter months. Most of the grain moved to the ports is shipped by rail from transfer elevators on the Great Lakes. Storage capacity for the four Atlantic terminals is 8 million bushels. On the average, the facilities handle only 35 million bushels each year.

While Thunder Bay handles most export grain moving east, grain is also shipped by rail from the prairies direct to eastern ports. Grain for the domestic market in eastern Canada is also supplied by rail from the prairies. In addition, Thunder Bay terminals ship grain during the winter by rail direct to St. Lawrence and Atlantic facilities for export to overseas customers.

Shower for Hardisty girl

On July 21 a shower sponsored by the U.C.W. and the Strong Ladies was held at the hall to honor Gail Tillmar, whose marriage to Larry Kolbitsch took place August 2.

Accompanying Gail at the table were her mother, Bernice, Anna Kolbitsch and a best friend, Lorene Winger. The evening opened with Ben Hahn, president of the U.C.W., welcoming everyone. A small program consisting of a recitation by Mrs. Cantlon, a duet by Mrs. Powell and her daughter Doreen Bell, singing by Ruth Tillmar and a contest followed.

The three sisters, Joann Nelson, Charlene Alderode and Bev Pedlar assisted with the gifts while Margaret Quinlan and daughter, Gail Hixon, fashioned a ball from the boys for the bride to be to model. After presents which were lovingly were duly admired and a thank you speech given by Gail, a nice lunch followed.

Our best wishes go out to this young couple who will be making their home on the farm.

Mrs. Charlie Hiley is now at the Killam Auxiliary Hospital.

Congratulations go to Ruth Longman on winning the mini Jackpot at the Elks Bingo Friday night. Her daughter, Elaine Miller of Calgary was also at the Bingo and visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Buckley (Anna Kolbitsch) and daughter Joann were camping at Hardisty Lake, all the way from Edmonton to camp here.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Elmquist and twin daughters of Wadena, Sask., were visiting Gordon's mother, Mrs. Myrtle Elmquist and also his sisters, Marion Madden and Ivy May. They were joined here by their daughter Barbara from Wetaskiwin.

We were saddened to learn of the passing away of Mr. Ludwig Hollinger after a lengthy illness. He was buried in Sharon Lutheran Church cemetery and sympathy is sent to Mrs. Hollinger, Gordon and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Drager, Mr. and Mrs. Don Rithaler and Billie Jo Drager had a lovely trip to B.C. They were away ten days.

The Don Rithalers have now been transferred to New Brunswick where Don will be stationed for three years, so they will be missed by Father and Mother Drager.

Born on July 21 to Darrell and Freda Brausen, a baby girl, weighing 8 lbs. 9 oz. and named Leslie Dawn.

Mrs. Louise Brausen of Galahad has been visiting at her son's home and was there to welcome her new granddaughter.

Mr. and Mrs. George Peterson from Hanna visited with their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Roux and family.

We all wish Mr. and Mrs. Barney Matthews many more happy anniversaries. They celebrated their 50th on July 20 by being at the lake among relatives and friends and followed by open house in their yard in the evening.

Mrs. Bernice Tillmar and Gail spent eight days visiting sisters and friends. They visited their former neighbor, Mrs. Maud Galloway and her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Albert Howard. Mrs. Galloway's daughter Doris and her husband visited with Gilbert Tillmar and also their old home place. Took back to Edmonton as a souvenir, a garden plan which her late father Henry Galloway had made.

Mr. Clair Lukens and Mr. and Mrs. Allen Davies of Vancouver visited with the Lakens family last week. Allen is a nephew of Letty's.

Mrs. and Mrs. Eric Prior of Irma and Mrs. and Mrs. Albert Hinton of Manville visited with Letty and Brenda recently and brought back greetings from our former bomber, Peter Milnes and family.

Related congratulations go to Fred and Jane Come on the arrival of a little granddaughter in June, born to Mr. and Mrs. Ken Eltinger of Canoe and named Jane Clare.

It appears that after the Donkey Ball game, the caretaker of the donkeys took off with the truck and the money. The owner had to come up from Ontario and finish the circuit. In the meantime the donkeys got pretty hungry and thirsty as people didn't realize that they were abducted in Hardisty.

Wilda Bock is home again and is acting a walker now. The Medical Centre presented Isabel Nelson with an Instantaneous Kodak on her retirement as cleaning woman at the centre.

One of our new probation officers is Mr. Albert Poltry and we wish to welcome him to Hardisty.

You don't have to be famous to be somebody.

It's also the people in your community who are the stars. And they are all people. They are the ones who are the stars. They are the ones who are the stars. They are the ones who are the stars.

Are they rich and famous? Probably not. They are the people who are the stars. They are the people who are the stars. They are the people who are the stars.

Talk It Over

Gordon Stromberg, M.L.A.

— with Gordon

A few years ago the Government announced a 5 year program for street improvement for the smaller centers of Alberta. A number of villages in our Constituency took advantage of this grant, mainly for paving of their main streets. The grant was for $20,000 for each town and the towns were to work out their own arrangements for engineers and contractors. This week, at the request of some village mayors, I asked for an experienced engineer from the Dept. of Transport to look over the paving job, because of the asphalt bleeding up the pavement during the hot weather in July which caused no end of grief due to the tar that was tracked into homes. The contractor has spread sand on the streets and this might help cure the asphalt but the engineer will be continuing the general contractor with some recommendations. The towns we visited were Ferintosh, Edberg, Rosalind, Donalds and Basvil. In my opinion, the street improvement program has been one of the best programs the government has had to make life in the smaller centers a lot more attractive. Also in my opinion any 5 year program that we implement should be scrapped and supplemented for a yearly program to riding out. For example, the towns that paved their streets 3 years ago under this program were very fortunate. Now with spiralling costs and the price of asphalt almost tripled, the $20,000 grant does not go too far down the street.

Last year I asked the Provincial Treasurer why the province couldn't remove the 40 percent royalty on oil and asphalt that is used by local governments. As matters now stand, a contractor passes on his cost of asphalt to his bid and the government pays some of this royalty in grants to the cities, towns, villages, counties and municipalities. But there are thousands of miles of street and road improvements done and paying a 40 percent royalty on our own oil does not make much sense to me. The Treasurer's argument to my suggestion was that the book work would be too complicated which I seriously question. Also attended the viewing of the first Mobile Home of the assembly line of the new HomeCo Plant in Camrose. This plant which will eventually employ a number of people is partially financed through the Alberta Opportunity Company.

Wednesday saw me in the city for a committee meeting on Health services. Thursday, an all day caucus and back again Friday on constituency work.

There was a good meeting on the Martin Basin study on Wednesday night in Camrose. Friday, I had a short visit with the Delegation from Ireland that were visiting the Agriplast plant. And no work done on Ardell's porch.

Got a problem, write me at Rm. 513, Legislature Building, Edmonton or phone me collect.

M.L.A. reports

Henry Kroeger M.L.A.

The final sitting of the spring session of the Alberta Legislative ended Wednesday, June 26. A good deal of legislation was handled in the six weeks of the session.

The Senior Citizens benefits were increased to $255 per month if you qualify for this income supplement. The rules for the supplement are laid down by the Federal Government and if you are uncertain about this I will be glad to help.

A good deal of time was spent on gas Co-ops, the energy policy as it relates to what is being done federally, and also the rail line abandonment policy. A firm stand is being taken on the rail question and the Crows Nest rate.

The most controversial legislation was bill 35 which has to do with the right of the government to appoint members to boards in order to get representation if it is deemed desirable. These appointments will be made with care, should be valuable to the good function of government. If you have questions about this, I'll be pleased to answer.

Mail should be addressed to me at the Legislative Building in Edmonton since I'll be there once a week to deal with it. Telephone calls will be directed to me at the office in Consort, 877-5555. If you are calling long distance, please call person to person, collect.

Hardisty News Items

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Alderice and family of Taber were weekend visitors with Mrs. Annie Alderice in the Hardisty Auxiliary Hospital. Later Sat. she was entertained with a victory drive in the country. Also learning Allan and Ann had been to visit Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Martin of Okotoks; Ernie will be 81 years old this fall and still gardening and driving his car.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mills enjoyed a holiday in B.C. recently. They visited Mr. and Mrs. Ted Harding (Mitz Gadd) one time Hardisty residents, now of Nanaimo. From there they headed to Gibson's where George's sister, Fawn and her husband reside. Also George's niece Dorothy and her husband, they saw where the Beachcombers are still doing several members such as Retic, Molly's place and the harbor full of boats as are shown on T.V. From there they went to Quesset to visit George's sister Lulu and family and niece Dorothy's mother. Then spent awhile in Prince George to visit their son Doug and family.

The Drever family attended Vicki Drever's wedding in Camrose on July 12th. They took Darlene and Donna with them and they enjoyed seeing their first wedding.

A recent visitor for a day was Mrs. Doreen Neufeld and two young daughters. She likes sunny Alberta better than rainy Chilliwack.

Sympathy is extended to June Bove and her family on the passing of their mother, Mrs. Mina Fisher in Camrose. By mistake Mrs. Audrey Johnson of Edmonton got the wrong number and talked to Isabel Nelson. She asked for all her friends in Hardisty and said that she and Stan wished to be remembered to all. Also her son Randy is touring Europe with the other boys and he had sent her a music box, replica of an old Dutch windmill from Holland of which she is very proud. Glad to know that Grandpa Kella is home from the hospital.

Mrs. Billie Robinson has spent some time visiting her sisters in Red Deer.

Part of our 'energy dollar' buys a nice day
in the country.

Most people consider a pleasant day spent in the country with families and friends as one of the few things in life. Freedom to run, jump and play under clean, blue skies. But few realize how much it actually costs to keep the air clean. A portion of every energy dollar which Calgary Power spends goes toward environmental control. Electrostatic precipitators (ultra-sophisticated air purifiers) installed on the thermal generating plants located on Lake Wabamun are designed to remove 99.5% of the flyash from exhaust gases. That's good, but it's expensive.

Two units at the Sundance operation across the lake have already been equipped with precipitators and by 1980, another four will have been installed.

The cost of environmental programs is astronomical. Present estimates call for an expenditure of over $100 million on environmental protection at our Sundance and Wabamun plants.

As a concerned company, we will continue to spend part of our energy dollar to buy a nice day in the country for all Albertans.

The Matthews celebrate 50th

On Sunday, July 20, Mr. and Mrs. Barney Matthews celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary. By special arrangement with the weather man, the day was perfect, so the outdoor program planned by the family could be carried out. In the afternoon some 35 family members gathered at the lakeside home of son Bill for an informal get-together and delicious barbeque supper prepared and served by the sons and daughters-in-law. Beautiful and thoughtful gifts were presented by the children, grandchildren and other members of the family. Those present were son Frank, wife Sheila and son Gerry of Calgary; daughter-in-law Emily Duncan with husband Ed, and son Michael; granddaughters Sharon and Barbara Matthews of Trochu; Patricia Matthews of Calgary; Debbie (Matthews) Rowland and husband Glen of Deer; Dr. Howard and Red Deer, Bill of Hardisty and Dick with wife Myrtle and children, Linda, Louise and David; Barney's sister, Mrs. Doris Lloyd of Brownvale and her daughter, Mrs. Donna Hedford of Prince George, B.C.; his brother Eddie and wife Gladys of Hugenheim; Barbara's sister, Mrs. Hutchison and wife Laura of Camrose and Gerald of Pigeon Lake and wife Miriam; her sisters, Mrs. Edith Bladen and husband Laurie and Mrs. Helen Sanders and husband Ray of Dabunell; her nephews David Hutchison with wife Ruby and children Cathy and Mark of Dabunell and Ken Hutchison and wife Jean of Edmonton. Also from out of town were Mrs. Ragna Steinhilber of Camrose, Dave Thibodeau, also of Camrose and Jim Fuller and Lloyd Boles of Trochu. Frank's daughter Sharon was the only grandchild unable to attend.

Barney and his wife Miriam have been members of the Anglican Church, the Legion and Auxiliary, Barney of the Elks and Barbe in the Rebekah Lodge. Their many friends wished them every happiness in the years to come.

In the evening, open house was held on the Matthews' lawn in town. Many friends and neighbors attended with gifts, cards and messages of good wishes. A lovely cake made by Barney's sister, Edith, carried the decoration used by her parents at their golden anniversary 23 years ago. Lunch was served by members of the Legion Auxiliary.

Barney and Mrs. Matthews have lived in Hardisty since 1928. Barney was employed at the CPR roundhouse until his retirement. Both are active members of the Anglican Church, the Legion and Auxiliary, Barney of the Elks and Barbe in the Rebekah Lodge. Their many friends wished them every happiness in the years to come.

Many medals

About 35 track athletes from the County of Flagstaff took part in the Central Alberta Summer Games in Lacombe on July 26th and 27th. They came away with a very impressive list of medals, 31 of the athletes taking part received at least one medal and two, Jackie Costas of Loughbea and Bart Soke of Hardisty won six medals each. Three others, Jim Oberg and Duwayne Balter of Forestburg and Steve Masure of Hardisty collected five medals each. The total number of medals won by our athletes in track and field was 42 gold, 27 silver and 12 bronze.

We should be really proud of these young athletes for the effort they have put into their activities and try to encourage them to further success.

KILLAM SR. CITIZENS

Killam Sr. Citizens met in the afternoon of July 8 with the Heister area. Wilson presiding. Minutes of June meeting were read and approved. Treasurer gave a good report on finances. Mr. Manning, as head of the membership committee, hoped to get going on seeking out old and new members, a number having already signed up. It was moved we join Albertan Council on Aging, as a group.

Suggestions were given for Killam's 70th anniversary on Aug. 6, 7, 8, and 9th, 1976 including a coffee party sponsored by the Sr. Citizens. 60 visits to hospital and shut-ins were reported. Happy birthday was sung to Len Quilston and Patti Osbeck.

Eighteen members of our group had joined the Forestburg Sr. Citizens for a picnic at Big Knife, also a lot of visiting and card playing. Several gave remarks on the trip by bus to Calgary June 17 to Heritage Park, the zoo and on to Drumheller the following day. Everyone enjoyed every minute of the trip. Mrs. Clara Schuetter reported several Sr. Citizens had joined the Flagstaff Lodge residents on a trip to Drumheller with Mr. Ross Danielson as their bus driver.

A card party was planned for July 29 and a bus trip to Alameda's Farm on July 22. Party members left the Elks Hall that morning with all taking along a picnic lunch. After lunching at the tables among the trees, the group made their way at their own speed over the farm's trails, some taking a train ride to help tired feet. Didn't see any of our group riding the elephant! We arrived back at the bus to have another bite and some lemonade. Visiting and singing shortened our journey home. Many thanks go out to Mr. Gordon Taylor, our bus driver.

Part of our 'energy dollar' buys a bundle of energy for new Albertans.

Planning for the future is an on-going program at Calgary Power. This year, the rapidly increasing demand for electrical energy will cost us almost triple what it did in recent years. But we've planned for it. In 1974, the total generation on the company's system was 8,651 million kilowatt hours and this demand is continuing to grow. We now serve more than 163,000 Albertans with a distribution system spanning 75,000 square miles. And we're growing.

This year, plant expansion will include completion of a 375 megawatt generator at the Sundance Plant, and continuation of work on Unit four which is scheduled for commissioning in 1976. Tomorrow's energy needs? A fifth unit at Sundance has been approved and Calgary Power has applied for a sixth unit. We'll expand our facilities to provide a bundle of energy for new Albertans ... today and for future generations. You can count on it!

Sedgewick Golf Club

Sunday, August 10th was chosen for an afternoon of fun and sociability at the Sedgewick Golf Club. The weatherman co-operated fully as twenty golfers took to the course for an 18 hole, twoball foursome.

Due to a scarcity of lady golfers, several of the young and not-so-young, men kindly offered (1) to act their nannies, and (2) to provide the alpride acids and replace the missing ladies. This program is being conducted by Miss Polly Moore with the assistance of local volunteers. Polly recently attended a provincial Workshop for Playground Supervisors in Red Deer representing the Sedgewick and District Recreation Board. Anyone wishing to help with this program please contact Polly at 384-3803 and will be greatly appreciated.

It is hoped that this will be a fun time as well as a creative learning experience for all attending. Evaluation of the program will be made at its close with plans for next year in mind. The program is being sponsored by the Killam Club and the Sedgewick and District Recreation Board. Have fun, kids.

Keeping in touch

Arnold Malone, M.P. A quick glance back at past issues of Keeping in Touch soon impressed upon me that most of my articles were about serious issues that confront Parliament. Last year, I wrote the last issue of this column to share with you some of the lighter sides of politics.

Following the July, 1974 election, I quickly left for Ottawa to locate office space and hire staff. On that first visit, I was invited to Mr. Dielenbach's office for "an experience of a lifetime". Among many other bits of wisdom, he told me that I would sound the first six months wondering how I got there and the rest of my career wondering how everyone else did.

Mr. Dielenbach congratulated me on my visit and being a bit unsure as to how one should graciously accept the kind comments from a former Prime Minister. I, in turn, congratulated him on his 12th consecutive victory to which he immediately responded, "Thank you: the next one will be my 13th."

Then there were those unusual moments during the appointment of James Jerome to the Speaker's Chair. On the first meeting of the House, the Prime Minister announced that we could not officially be without a Speaker and that he was recommending the name of James Jerome. Following the agreement of the House, the Prime Minister and the Government House Leader latched onto the terms of James Jerome and proceeded to escort him to the Speaker's Chair. Throughout this process, Mr. Jerome kicked, struggled and generally resisted in what seems like an unusual set of acts for a person about to be promoted.

The struggling was based on the tradition of some of England's earliest Parliaments when, like now, the Speaker's word was law in the Commons. However, if the King disapproved of the Speaker's decision rather than let the Speaker rule, the King would behead him. With a history like that, one can truly appreciate the premeditated ceremonial struggle.

The first question I asked during the Question Period had its own lesson of introduction. It was my intent to get a Minister to state a general principle with my first question and then ask in a second supplementary question why there had been a specific exception in regard to this principle. The first part of this plan went well, however, when the Minister responded in French, I was found with my instantaneous translation earphone disconnected and not knowing what position the Minister took, was unable to ask the appropriate supplementary.

Then there was the day when in Committee of the Whole, N.P. Member, John Gilbert, from the Constituency of Broadview in Saskatchewan was asking a series of questions of John Turner on tax regulations. Mr. Turner kept responding in midst of laughter. He was the Honorable Member from Broadview. Mr. Turner, however, was perplexed because he hadn't realized his error. Some of his liberal colleagues prompted him by saying, "It's the Honorable Member from Broadview". Mr. Turner dumbfoundedly responded that's what I said, the Honorable Member of Broadview. As we can all understand, that is the way some days go.

Oh Well! Roll over and hit the alarm. Maybe this just wasn't meant to be a good day for keeping in touch.

KILLAM NEEDS NAMES
If you've been asked for the current addresses of friends and relatives who once lived in Killam and haven't yet found time to phone them in, take a minute now.
The Killam Homecoming '76 Committee have an urgent appeal out to everyone in the area to get addresses in by August 15, this month, this year.
The dates set for homecoming, Aug. 6, 7, 8 and 9, 1976, seem comfortably far in the future but addresses are needed now while the young women in the tourist information booth at Killam are working. They have been assisting the Homecoming Committee by typing envelopes which will eventually carry a personal invitation to every former Killamite who can be contacted.
The thousands of envelopes that will be needed can be addressed now.
Phone addresses to the tourist information booth at 235-2744 or to Mr. Kelly at 235-2141; Amy Ross at 235-2744; or Mr. Kelly at 235-2744. (They are the ladies who will have to get the job done.)

Centurian, James Young passes

Mr. James Young, a long time resident of the Killam district, passed away in the Auxiliary Hospital on July 24, after a brief illness, at the age of 100 years.

Funeral services were conducted in Knox United Church in Killam by Rev. Allan Richards on July 28.

James Young was born in Bruce County, Ont., on April 10, 1875, third in a family of four. He came west in 1902 and in 1905 returned to Ont., where he married Catherine Bruce. They then homesteaded at Yellowknife, Saskatchewan where they lived until 1908. At this time they came to Killam and farmed for 3 years. They then moved to the Chinook area where they again homesteaded and remained until 1927. At this time they returned to Killam where he farmed until his retirement.

He was predeceased by his wife Catherine in 1950 and his eldest daughter Margaret Kirby in 1971.

He is survived by daughters Ethel De Maere of Graman, Mabel Bly of Gahand and son Bruce of Killam. Also twelve grandchildren, 19 great grandchildren and 5 nieces and 1 nephew.

Pallbearers were 6 grandsons, Robert, James, Philip and Sidney De Maere, Donald Young and John Bly.

Floral tributes were received from the family. Numerous memorials and donations were given to the United Church, Flin Flon Auxiliary Hospital, Community Cemetery Assoc., Alta. Heart Foundation, Cancer Society & Purple Cross fund.

CARDS OF THANKS

A sincere thank you to Dr. Amin, Sisters and Staff of the Auxiliary Hospital for the wonderful care given our father, James Young while he was a patient there. It was deeply appreciated by all of us.

The Young families

Thank you to all who attended the opening of our new dairy barn.

Ernie, Lily Moore and family

A sincere thank you to my friends, family and relatives for the surprise birthday and housewarming, also for the lovely birthday cards and gifts. A big thank you to Mrs. Rolf Jacobson and Mrs. Crevi Meerts for the nice cakes. Also to Mr. and Mrs. Norman Culbert and other Sedgewick folk for the help given me, as well as my family. May God bless you all.

Mrs. Annie Hagen

We would like to express our thanks to all the people who worked hard and spent considerable time organizing and carrying through to a final conclusion the 5th homecoming of the Alliance School. It was certainly a tremendous success. A special thank you to Phyllis Aileen for her efforts in compiling the history of the Alliance area.

Marie and Ken Gledes

We wish to express our thanks to all who made our Golden Anniversary a truly golden day. To our sons and daughters-in-law who planned and carried out such a perfect day for the grandchildren for their thoughtful and perfect gifts, flowers and visits. It was all greatly appreciated.

Shelley Blumhagen

We would like to take this opportunity to thank our neighbors and friends for their thoughtfulness and expressions of sympathy on the death of our father. A special thanks to all who sent food to the house, the U.C.V. who served lunch after the funeral, and to all who sent cards and made memorial donations in his memory.

CARDS OF THANKS

The Loughheed Baseball Club wishes to thank all the people who helped in the booth, on the gate, umpires, P.A. system during our Sunday tournament. Without all this co-operation, the success of the Tournament and running a team would be next to impossible.

The Loughheed Wildcats 2-1p

The Loughheed Rockettes would like to thank all our supporters who so enthusiastically ventured to Vermilion for our playdowns, also thank you to the Village Council for the trophies for 1974 Alberta Provincials.

May I take this opportunity in thanking all the Exhibitors, judges, stewards, directors, and all who made our Fair and Parade at Loughheed a success. Without co-operation and a lot of work on everyone's part, this could not have been possible.

President of Loughheed Agricultural Society

We wish to thank our children for putting on an open house for our 25th anniversary on July 6th. Many thanks to all our relatives and friends for coming and for all the gifts, flowers, purse of money and well wishes. It is all greatly appreciated. We thank you all.

Louise and Cora Anderson

I wish to thank Dr. Kerins of Gahand and Dr. Bissell and Struck and staff of the Royal Alex Hospital for the care I received while a patient. Also a sincere thank you to all the cards, gifts, flowers and visits. It was all greatly appreciated.

Hardisty Happenings

Back for a short visit with her relatives and friends was Dorothy Tremblay from Watton Lake, N.W.T.

Visiting Lloyd and Kay Stuart were friends from Steveston, Ont., Mr. and Mrs. Winand.

Constable Stephen Stuart spent the long weekend visiting his parents, Dad and Doreen.

Congratulations to Mrs. Ted Roon on winning the Elk's Jackpot of $100.00.

My mistake when I mentioned that the late Tommy Weeks, whose wife visited the B. Matthews' was an elevator man. He worked for the C.P.R. for many years.

Isabel Nelson attended the wedding celebration at Ctd for the newlyweds on August 2, Mr. George Heward and Mrs. Della Jensen whom she had known for many years.

Related congratulations to Adolph Russel who had his picture in the Western Pioneer with his threshing crew at Pion-Era in Saskatchewan.

Mr. Hans Ekland was returned from his trip to Norway. He found Norway booming, building oil refineries but found everything to buy very high.

We were all addressed to hear about Ben Chapman's death at Banff and sympathy is extended to his wife Bertha and son Duncan.

Also sympathy is extended to the Manning families concerning Dennis Manning's tragic airplane crash at Hope, B.C. on his return to Drayton Valley after a family reunion at Hardisty. He had taken his sister Carol home to Vancouver and crashed on the way home. Several from here went to high school with Dennis at Sedgewick.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Landals have been visiting friends around Hardisty and attended the Loughheed Fair which they enjoyed very much, as they met many of their old friends and neighbors there.

Also attending were Ted and Mervyn Hietel from Edmonton.

It's hard to say who was the farthest away from the Loughheed area that day, but we do know that there was a lady from Switzerland there. She had been born near Alliance but left as an infant and this was her first visit back. She was hosted around the grounds by Norman Ili and was enjoying herself immensely.

Bill Davies has enjoyed a visit from his nephew and wife and their three young children when they camped at Hardisty Lake. They live near Toronto and were on their way to Vancouver.

Congratulations go to Doris Powell on her many wins at the Loughheed Fair, also to Mrs. H. Burpee on her many sewing and knitting.

Some of the people winning prizes were the young Crane and Manning kids, Paulelle Manning and Barney and Barbe Matthews.

The paintings were lovely, my choice being the little old shack by Mrs. L. Farner. The dinner plates add by the ladies were excellent too, and it was nice to see so many entries from Hardisty, Irma, and Dorothy. Mrs. Jim Jackson had some very nice knitted articles there and the museum open. It was a very enjoyable day.

Wed at Hardisty Legislature

THOMSON - JACOBS
On July 26, 1975 at 4 p.m. a pretty wedding took place at St. Paul's United Church, Hardisty with Rev. N. Jackson officiating. Karen Christine Thomson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Thomson was united in marriage to Mr. Kenneth Verli Jacobs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Verli Jacobs of Edmonton.

The bride wore a long white sheer dress with short sleeves. Her long train was held in place by a band of white daisies. She carried red roses and white daisies.

Maria Margareta de Kock was the bridesmaid, dressed in a blue floral gown. The groom was supported by Mr. Laren Irving of Edmonton. The groom and best man both wore a three piece medium grey suit. The ushers were Mr. Mark Thomson, brother of the bride and Mr. Neal Jacobs, brother of the groom.

The bride's mother wore a two piece long green floral dress. The groom's mother wore a long coral gown. The reception was held in the church hall with Mr. D. Lindgren as master of ceremonies. Louis de Kock proposed the toast to the bride. Mrs. Theodor de Kock sang a solo accompanied by Mrs. Eva Ho, who was the organist for the wedding.

In the evening, an open house and dance was held in the Elks Hall. The bride changed into a coral pantsuit for her going away outfit. Out of town guests came from Fort Simpson, N.W.T., Saskatoon, Sask., Stony Plain, Calgary, Whitecourt, Tofield, Truex, Edmonton, Camrose, Jasper, Irma, Olds, Amisk, and Sedgewick.

REVV CCA pressure treated POSTS
now in plentiful supply

Pressure Treated For Long Life
Each year, termites, decay and other wood-destroying elements cause losses amounting to millions of dollars. Numerous wood structures are rendered useless or need expensive repairs because of this hidden damage. Revv posts are pressure treated with a vacuum-applied preservative that repels such attacks by wood destroyers, and provides from 300 to 500% longer life than untreated wood.

Permanent
Preservative qualities won't weaken in the ground or fresh water because of the chemical reaction that fixes CCA in the cell structure of wood.

Maintenance Free
Revv posts require little or no maintenance whether painted, stained or left as is.

Reduced Fire Hazard
Since CCA is administered in a water solution rather than gas or oil, it is not subject to the possibility of combustion.

Safe To Use
Although CCA repels insects, fungus, mold and rot, it is non-toxic to higher life forms.

Clean and Odorless
Posts are clean to handle, dry to the touch and will not cause eye or skin irritations.

Square Pointed
The square pointed design of the post enable truer driving.

And . . . We Meet Canadian Specifications
As specified in the latest revision of Canadian Standards Association, the retention of dry salts in Revv posts is .08 pounds per cubic foot of wood for ground contact and fresh water, and .22 pounds for above-ground use.

Hardisty approves centre

(Hardisty Council Briefs)
At a recent regular meeting of Hardisty Town Council, a proposed building was approved for a Drop In Center for Senior Citizens. Council advised the Hardisty Social Club that Lots 27 and 28 of Block 6, Plan 948R could be approved as a site, upon application for a building permit, showing the full development proposed.

Council also approved the complete package prepared by Alberta Transportation Department, wherein Hard-isty airport will be paved—specifications for tenders are now prepared, the crushed gravel tested and found satisfactory.

A proposed by-law re truck unloading was not passed as the merchants had been having delivery trucks unloading from the alley instead of from the street.

From July 22 to August 1 inclusive, ninety three children from Merna and surrounding districts of Alliance Gal-land, Forestburg, Sedgewick, Kilmarnock and Loughie attended V.B.S. at the Merna Seventh Day Adventist Church.
The representatives taught homes. With the weatherman cooperating, a very exciting week of stories, crafts and games was enjoyed by all.
The closing exercises on Saturday night of August 2 found the church filled with parents, relatives and the children. The 30 kindergartners children sang and performed some very vigorous exercises after which the older groups moved on in pantomime the stories of Je-siah and Queen Esther. In a short talk, Elder Gordon Miller of Scotter brought the threefold messages of V.B.S. to better teach the young people how to make attractive and useful things with their hands, to develop sociability and sportsmanship in the playing of games, and to acquire boys and girls more with their friend Jesus. Since V.
B.S. falls on the last week of July, some folk said that

Shower for Daysland girl

Approximately sixty people attended the miscellaneous shower held for Miss Sandra Robinson, which was held in the social room of the United Church on August 17, which was very beautifully decorated for the occasion. Seated at the head table was Sandra, her mother, Mrs. Robinson, and friend Dorcas Robinson who helped to open the gifts. Mrs. Marilyn McLeod presided at the guest book and wrote down the gifts and the guests' names. Two cocktails were played and the gifts were opened and passed around. Sandra thanked every one for her lovely shower. This was followed by a delicious lunch.

Keeping in touch

This issue of Keeping in Touch is being written just prior to the hearing of the money from John Reid, M.P. from Kenora-Rainy River, in regards to alleged leaks on budget amendments. During the past two days, the Committee heard statements from, and cross-examined, Mr. Mangot, Parliament Law Counsel, and Mr. Farrell, Publisher, Mr. Edgar, Editor, and Jacques Hamilton, Reporter — all of the Montreal Gazette. These hearings have all centered on the issue of alleged leaks as written in articles in the Montreal Gazette published July 26th and 28th.

By the time a person has completed 7 hours of cross-examination in which every question and every response bears an extreme importance on the final conclusion of the hearings, then one becomes clearly aware of what it is like to be totally engulfed by an experience. With certainty, the written conclusions at the end of the hearings will be unable to epitomize much of the drama that takes place during the process of the hearings as they unfold moment by moment.

In the speech from the Throne in the fall of 1974, the Prime Minister indicated that sometime during the third Parliament, it was the intention of the Government to review the possibility of introducing television into the House of Commons.

Talk It Over — with Gordon

Gordon Stromberg, M.L.A.
Each year immediately after the Camrose Fair, my father-in-law and myself take off for a few days of peace and quiet, fishing, and each year we come back with some pretty good stories and the fish. But this year, the less said about it, the better. Maybe I will have to concede this year is no exception as to who caught the biggest and most trout or bream or huck on the B.C. river. An interesting speaking of B.C. line page 2.

Such a suggestion should be, on the surface, greeted with mixed emotions. There are many reasons, both pro and con, regarding this issue and certainly there is one that requires a full and detailed study.

Nevertheless, it has been my experience in Committee activities that the public at large would be well served if they had the opportunity to view the television debate the proceedings of these Committees. The present Committee activities would be interesting because of the tremendous importance connected with this particular affair of alleged leaks on budget amendments.

A new addition to the Loughood Fair this year, was the Pet Show. And a distinct type of pet was shown by Allan Moffat of Camrose, with his collection of garter snakes. Allan was a visitor at the Keith Firkus home at Fair time, and caused quite a stir in the show!

Investigate fish ponds

Well, how has your summer been? Ours has been busy. The Iron Creek Fish and Game Association has now 412 members which is a new record.

The proposed Trout Pond near Selkirk was checked out by an engineering consultant firm. Their report stated that the site would not be a feasible project due to the sandy nature of the soil which would not allow stable banks and would let the water level fluctuate with the water table. We are sorry to report this, but we are looking for another site in this area.

A delegation from our club recently toured the Killam area checking out ponds for the purpose of trout planting. Some seemed favorable and will be reported to a Fisheries Biologist.

Hill Lake, near Hardisty, was recently visited by a Fisheries biologist, who, in addition to the Trout Club, was also from the Fisheries Biologist. A study of the lake was taken for the purpose of fish planting. Tests were taken for oxygen content, water clarity, temperature, pH content etc. This study will be completed by a winter test taken on the lake. We are waiting for this report which will be available at the next meeting.

Recently a special meeting was held with Ray Stokewick, Fisheries Biologist and Development Biologist, Dick Kraft (Regional Fisheries Biologist) and Bill Scholer, our Game Officer. The purpose of this meeting was to discuss local fish planting and development.

At our September meeting (Sept. 10, 8:30 in the Hall in Lougheed), Mr. Doug Culbert, Water Pond Biologist, will be present to discuss Goose Nesting sites in this area. Some sites were set out this spring but reports on success are not available.

The Iron Creek Fish and Game had a special prize for Bird House entries at the Lougheed Fair. We wish to congratulate the winners whose prize money will soon be out.

So see you at the Sept. meeting.

Fall rye must be insured

Farmers who wish to insure fall rye or winter wheat in 1975 under the "All Risk" crop insurance program are reminded by an advertisement in this issue, that these crops must be elected not later than August 31st of this year. This reminder comes from the Alberta Hill and Crop Insurance Corporation.

For other grain, elections are made in the spring, but because of the early seeding of these two crops, farmers must make their elections prior to seeding this fall.

Farmers interested in insuring these grains are encouraged to contact the Flagstaff area office in Selkirk for details including coverage levels and premium rates.

In 1975 Alberta farmers are carrying a record amount of insurance under the "All Risk" crop insurance program.

Agri Days successful

The 2nd Annual Agri Days was held August 16 and 17 with Sunday's activities cut a little short by the rain.

Saturday, August 16 got under way with men's and ladies' Fastball, garden vegetable show and a Flower Show. The entries in the Garden Vegetable were somewhat low with only 50 entries, but they were of very good quality. The Flower Show held at the Community Hall was a huge success with more than 200 entries and around 300 people visiting the show. The top entry of the show was won by Bertha Rands of Alliance.

The Barbecue took place at 5 p.m. with a lovely meal being served to about 250 people. This was followed by a Dance where the crowning of the Queen took place. The candidates were Donnell Forsler of Killam, Cindy Quast of Loughheed, Cathy Vickerman of Hardisty, Marina Miller of Forestburg and Irene Korth of Sedgewick. The crowning took place at 11 p.m. Saturday evening with 2nd runner up being Cindy Quast, 1st runner up being Cathy Vickerman and Irene Korth crowned as the Queen for the 2nd Annual Agri Days. The Queen and her princesses were then presented with trophies from the Ag. Society and thanked for all their hard work. Then the Queen drew the lucky ticket for the $100.00 prize on the Queen tickets. This was won by Mrs. Dorothy Lane of Sedgewick.

The men's and ladies' Fastball and baseball commenced early on Sunday with the Horse Show opening soon after. The men's Fastball A and 2nd was split between Sedgewick and Edmonton, 3rd and 4th between Thone Tigers and Irma. Men's B was split four ways: Vermilion, Fabian, Lloydminster and Irma Midgets. Ladies A was split between Loughheed and Sedgewick with a four way split in the Ladies B: Wainwright, Viking, Roseland and Canoe. The Baseball Tournament was also called after the first games. Participating teams were Viking, Roseland, Sedgewick, Loughheed, Killam and Spring Lake.

The Horse Show was very well attended with 74 entries. The Judges, Ellis Lawes of Wainwright for open class and Judy Bergel of Edmonton for the 4-6 classes, very ably handled the judging. Ken Jacobson announced the classes with Phyllis helping out on the recording and Rod Doody as gate man.

Big top coming Saturday to Killam

The Circus Big Top will raise in Killam on Saturday, August 30 when the Killam Recreation Board sponsors a local appearance of the Royal Bros. Circus.

Adults wishing to relive childhood memories or to introduce their children to the magic of the Big Top, are invited to the grounds early circus morning to view the activities and watch the feeding of the animals.

The show will be held at Killam Sports Grounds, and circus morning will be a vivid scene of trucks, tents, animals and workmen as they get the tents ready for performances at 4 and 7 p.m.

The show features 15 great acts to entertain children of all ages, including performing monkeys and poodles, prancing ponies, and the popular clown. You'll also see circus stunts such as jugglers, acrobats and the ground early circus morning to view the activities and watch the feeding of the animals.

There are no reserved seats, but advance tickets are being offered at a discount at several outlets in surrounding towns. See the ad on page 7 for complete details.

SUNDAY CATCH — The three fellows pictured here proved Sunday that there is fish in Sedgewick Lake. Would-be fishermen having been trying to land fish there ever since trout was planted last year, but with no success. Bob Clark, Clarke James and Jack Vennard of Edmonton brought in 10 Rainbow Trout on Sunday, measuring 7 to 8 inches long without heads. On Monday, several more were caught. It is assumed that these trout are part of the 7,500 yearlings planted June 11 1973 by the Wildlife Dept. of the provincial government.

AND THE ROOF CAME OFF — No, there wasn't a tornado — just Oliver Seal's bad day. The top story of the Pioneer Hotel in Sedgewick. The top floor had not been used in recent years, so has been eliminated.

Usually, when there's a roof to put on, or a barn to shingle, it rains, but Mr. Seal was fortunate to have the new roof completed before last week's rainy weather arrived.

GREEN ACRES

Marvin Macle, Alberta Minister of Agriculture, says that anyone in the province can obtain this price information without charge by dialing the long distance operator and asking for Zenith 2-8075.

Residents of 6 Alberta telephone exchanges can hear the same price report by calling local numbers. These numbers are: Grande Prairie, 525-8997; Edmonton, 422-1387; Vermilion, 853-5422; Red Deer, 347-8155; Calgary, 765-1540; and Lethbridge, 328-4300.

The report, revised three times daily, gives the latest prices for flax, rye, rapeseed, feed wheat, feed barley and feed oats. Included in each report are street prices, feed-mill prices, Winnipeg Commodity Exchange futures prices, and in the case of rapeseed, the Vancouver cash prices.

Until now, farmers have relied chiefly on radio broadcasts for current grain and oilseed prices. The Feed and Forage numbers can be obtained by calling my office, and should be used to list feed and forages.

All farmers, feedlot and mill operators are encouraged to use these new numbers to obtain up-to-date grain and oilseed prices for their operations.

Busy time for ladiesRUSHING CLUB NEWS

The August meeting of the Rushing Club was held at the home of Mrs. Clarence Reber with nine members present and the following guests: Mrs. Cyril Dwyer, Mrs. Russell Harris, Joy and Lori Elm and Darlene Dwyer.

The meeting was opened with the Prayer and the minutes and treasurer's report were given.

Letters were read concerning the publishing and binding of a cookbook and the committee decided to wait until next reply are received from publishing companies that had been contacted regarding this project.

The following suggestions were made regarding other fund raising projects; namely, selling of farm produce to interested parties. A report will be made to members as to time and place of sale.

Also, members decided to have a paper book exchange for book rental. All members have been asked to bring a book to be exchanged at the September meeting.

A motion was made that the election of officers for the new term be made in Dec. with the new officers starting in January of 1976. The motion was voted on and approved. In the past, new officers were elected in August.

The September meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Mildred Fraser, on lunch committee and co-hostesses will be Eleanor Lawson and Betty Kells. The special raffish gift will be donated by Eleanor Lawson.

After the meeting was adjourned, members enjoyed a very tasty lunch served by their hostesses, Mrs. Reber.

GREYNA GOOD WILL CLAN

The Club held their August 13th meeting at Mrs. Rita Huse's. Six members, two visitors and three little boys were in attendance.

Melba Cameron brought us some wedding bells and decorations that were donated to us from Mrs. Freddie Hall which we appreciate very much.

An appreciation card was sent to Porter O'Reilly for making the club a very nice place to hold and carry out our duties. Six very nice towels were bought from Mary Albrecht for the club's use.

It was suggested, motioned and voted on that we give a $20.00 donation to each of the following clubs: Bellshill Social Society, Lougheed Agri-Society, Alliance Fun for All Club, Sedgewick Agri Society and Sedgewick Senior Flagstaff Lodge towards the proceeds on the picnic.

The roll call was answered by naming your favourite T.V. program and 'why'. There certainly were some very interesting 'whys' on many different programs.

Mrs. Zimmerman (Melba's mother) won the hottest prize, and Mrs. Gloria Gammache (Mary Roninow's daughter) won the Lucky Tea Cup prize.

The next meeting is to be at the club on Sept. 18th. Mrs. Albrecht assisted as co-hostess. The roll call: 'Bring a baby picture of yourself.' It was a quiet social hour accompanied the serving of lunch, co-hostesses was Christine. Melba passed around some very nice and interesting pictures of us taken at our last catering's day.

Hardisty Happenings

Mrs. Mettie Johnston and her sister, Mrs. Annie Rigby, had a lovely trip by bus via Spokane, to Portland Oregon and then on to visit an old friend, Mrs. Hilma Hunking, who, with her family, used to live in the Seaside Hill district. However, they were able to attend a family reunion at Hunking's which was held not too far from Portland. In between bus rides, they stopped at Blairmore to visit Mr. and Mrs. Harry Johnston and family. Harry and Joyce took the ladies to Leithbridge where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Henshaw, who in turn drove them to Waterton Lakes which they had never seen before. It was only three weeks after they found and busmen had had three feet of water in them. They also saw Ft. Steele, Kimberly and Ft. McLeod before they returned to Hardisty.

We were very pleased to read some Hardisty Council news in the last issue of the Press and to learn that tenders should soon be out for the Senior Citizens' housing project. It was nice, too, to know that the basement for Dr. Cahill's house has been dug, also a well. Label Nelson spent a week in Edmonton visiting the Wilfred Martin's who are both in the Muscoria. She accompanied Mrs. Martin every day to see Mr. Martin as they are on different floors. She stayed with Mr. and Mrs. Storer who are keeping well. Mrs. Storer still loves her flowers altho' has smaller quarters now to keep them. Had a chat in the bus depot lunch counter with Rev. H. Osborne, his wife and daughter.

They were looking forward to meeting a friend from Toronto who has been ill recently. A few Hardistivites attended the Wainwright Ladies Legion Bingo. Congratulations go to Betty Hoyle who tied with another lady on the $500.00 jackpot. Hazel Voros was another lucky winner while Jeanette Moran and Karen Galka also shared bingos.

Jack Anderson is home again after spending a week in Calgary with sister Minnie and her husband.

Mr. and Mrs. Brian Elby and two children of Vancouver have been visiting at Mrs. Marie Kobitzsch.

Mr. and Mrs. Doug Hiet and boys have returned to their home in Manitoba after spending the summer at the lake and with her parents, the Ernie Quintan, and her grandmother, Mrs. Marie Kobitzsch.

Sympathy is extended to the Alderice family in the passing away of their mother, Mrs. Annie Alderice, in Kilian Auxiliary where she had been for some time. She was 77 years old. Mrs. Annie Alderice was an oldtimer of the Strong district arriving there with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Dovenham in 1919. She was mother to twelve children, ten of whom survive her. Her home was always open to many people and she always had a cup of tea ready for them. Although she was very fond of horses and flowers, her children were her life and she will be remembered by many for her many kind acts to neighbors and friends.

The three young travellers, Dana Miller, Randy Johnson and Doug Bane have returned from their European and Mexican tour. They report having had a wonderful time. We were very sorry to learn that Wilfred Devitt has had a stroke. But he is getting therapy at Glenrose Hospital and is improving nicely. Anyone wanting to visit him will find him on Station 12.

Mr. and Mrs. Oakley Clark and Mrs. Miller, Verda's mother, were holidaying in B.C. and sent the B. Matthews card congratulating them on their 30th Wedding Anniversary.

Our postmaster, Mr. Al Rollinson of Red Deer is on holiday, so the post office is in charge of our very capable postmistresses, Belva Leadley and Pauline Cavanagh. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Voros and Irene spent the weekend at Aspen Beach, Gull Lake, where they were joined by Dahl and Carol Voros, and some friends from Ponoka.

Ann Alderice of Taber, Alberta was surprised last week by one of her old school friends, Irene Hobson (McPhee) and her husband and three lovely children of Red Deer dropped in. They really had a good old visit as it's been 16 years since they have seen one another.

The first part of August found forty-five of the "Canton Club" gathered at Hardisty Lake U.C. Camp site for a reunion for eight days. They came from Australia, Africa, Manitoba, the West and Fort Nelson and Fort St. John, B.C.

The above mentioned campsite is an ideal place for such a gathering and one and all agree we had a most wonderful time. This gathering included all 7 of Mrs. Canton's children with their husbands, wives, and offspring.

Before they left, they presented Mrs. Canton with a "Canton Crest" which surely will be treasured and handed down.

The son from Fort St. John had worked for Gerald McShane in the late 40's while John and Phyllis were still at home.

A baptismal service was held in St. Mark's Anglican Church on Aug. 10 with Rev. E. Conrad officiating. The baby was baptized Terra-Lea Rose, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Davidson. Godmothers were Mrs. Jean Powell and Mrs. Joanne Nelson, while Allen Nelson was godfather.

Congratulations to Dale and Sharon McAdyen on the birth of their baby daughter, Deana Lea who weighed in at 8 lb. 16 oz. Welcome to the grandparents' club. Don and Erna McAdyen, also Ian and Marion Harrison.

Congratulations to Cathy Vickerman who ran as a Queen candidate for the Hardisty Agricultural Society and was runner-up at the Sedgewick Agri Days.

Mrs. Nellie Johnston visited with her sister, Mrs. Annie Rigby at Breton for a few days.

Gary and Merrildell Bell of Drumheller were visiting with parents and grandparents around Hardisty recently.

Dr. and Mrs. Cahill and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hays went on a short trip together.

Legislature

Offences such as traffic violations which currently clog court dockets would be heard by special tribunals run by justices of the peace who would hold much longer and convenient hours.

The commission's two year study found numerous cases where judges were handling cases at the rate of one every few minutes and aimed most of its recommendations at producing a fair workload for all court officials.

Judges should be able to have one or two days away from the courtroom for contemplation of cases and study, it said. The current pay of $35,000 a year should be increased.

Police officers should no longer serve as court officials but their role should be restricted to investigators and law enforcement. Prioritization between judges, prosecutors and police should be guaranteed against because the isolation of the three groups is essential to justice.

"There is little wonder that criticism is levelled at the system. In such circumstances of constant frustration and overlapping jobs it is difficult to convince defendants that a conspiracy against them is not occurring."

The commission also found a horror list of courtroom conditions from Edmonton's overcrowded to rural courtrooms where palls had to be set up to catch water from leaking roofs. It calls for a hefty contribution of provincial funds to bring facilities up to a fair standard.

Help build homes

by Kevin Peterson

The provincial government has decided it will begin subsidizing mortgage payments to bring home ownership within the financial reach of those earning only $9,000 a year.

The Starter Home Ownership program (SHOP) is an election promise that promises $200 million in new provincial mortgage money, will be open only to those who are buying their first home.

It offers subsidies as high as $130 a month to low-income owners of their mortgage payments, and sets a ceiling of $1,000 on the annual income of a childless couple who want to take part in the program. The ceiling increases to $12,500 for couples with five children.

Housing minister Bill Yurko said the province hopes the program will provide the push to encourage builders to return to "more modest" housing with fewer luxuries, not just for first-time homebuyers but for everyone. He expects the program — which will cost $30 million in funds this year — should provide 800 to 1,000 new housing starts this year and up to 2,000 a year when it is in full swing.

Mr. Yurko also said that if demand from builders in subdivisions in Calgary and Edmonton threatens to use up all the money available in any year he will slap on a quota system to make sure some money is available in rural areas.

While Mr. Yurko expects commercial builders will apply for most of the mortgage money in the major cities, individuals are also eligible. They can also put in "sweet equity" — do some of their own work on the house and count the value of their own payment.

The subsidy program assumes that a couple should be willing to spend 28% of their income towards buying a house. Provincial surveys show the "minimum" cost good housing can be built at cost and 28% of the couple's income.

The program will allow families to spend as much as 35 per cent of their income on mortgage payments if they want to purchase a higher quality home.

Maximum home prices under the program are $38,000 for a childless couple at $800 increasing to $42,000 for those earning $12,500.

The SHOP guidelines have strict guidelines on the type of house eligible however. The pamphlet describes them as "bedroom homes" — no second bathroom, no extra landscaping such as patios, decks or carport in living room only, and so on. The houses must also be small — under 1,500 sq. ft. for a bungalow and 1,300 sq. ft. for a two-story.

School starts

School started on Wednesday for the children of the County of Flanagan. It had appeared that a strike of the teachers of Elk Island Region would delay the opening. Last minute meetings resulted in a settlement.

Much has been said about the strike by the various groups concerned. Mr. Ackerman, spokesman for teachers "stresses" that teachers are somewhat angry and fed up with the treatment they have been receiving for the last 5 years. There has been a pattern in which teachers have followed the collective bargaining process through the various steps, only to settle at the last minute for minimum figures.

School authorities are faced with trying to make the budget stretch. A seemingly huge task.

Parents have also voiced their thoughts on the strike. One such letter sums up the parents' views best. The writer says "We as adults demand and regulate that children go to school and then we have some teachers who deny this right for their own gain. In a normal school year I feel that most children are required to learn to their mental capacity and with school days lost, unnecessarily, most children cannot regain lost time. These children are therefore hurt, unjustly, by the people they are taught to respect—adults, who in this case are teachers."

Magic show coming

On Sunday, Sept. 14th, an all new magical review entitled "Hocus Pocus" will be presented at Sedgewick Community Hall by Don Arthur.

Don Arthur has combined old and new magical effects of his own. These will be a part of his presentation here. When not on tour, he owns and operates "The Magic Works", a company devoted to the creating and building of magical paraphernalia for other magicians. His "magic" has been seen on coast-to-coast television, Blazing Broom & B Circus and the Magic Land of Alacazan just to mention a few. Chances are, if you have seen a magic show recently, you have seen some of Mr. Arthur's magic.

THE Homemakers

by Barbara Green,

YOU'VE COME A LONG WAY — BABY!

This phrase and other such allegories are becoming part of the language in various female circles.

In the academic field, it has been noted that the people of similar qualifications, the male averages 38.5% higher income than does the female.

When the topic of equality is raised, comments are usually made in reference to body build. "What about muscle building schools for women?"

I would suggest both sexes need to improve physical build. "What about muscle building schools for men?"

Several women have mentioned to me — "You can wear a 'Why Not' button, but I enjoy having doors opened for me!" Some girls might want to pay $2,200.00 for that 'trill'!

I do not! I want equal pay for equal work.

Sure we've "come a long way" but there can be no human dignity if a woman is relegated to a status below her capabilities.

Women must be guaranteed equal rights and as a corollary, equal responsibility.

I'm ready. Are you?

WANTED — 1000 BUSHELS OF STOLLEN RAPESEED

It isn't likely that a want-ad of this type would appear in the local paper, or even less likely that it would be answered. Nevertheless, the thief that would reveal an ad like this happens and it happens to a good number of Alberta Farmers last year. You can help prevent thieves and losses of this type by using "GrainAlert".

GrainAlert is to grain — what the red dot is to livestock. It is a trade name for confetti-like paper 1/4" to 1/2" in length with one letter and up to 5 digits. The paper is strongly attracted to grain as well as alfalfa, and is difficult to remove by simple cleaning. The number on the papers is a registered number which is different for each customer.

Apparently this registered number has been accepted as proof of ownership by the courts and the R.C.M.P. Consequently farmers are encouraged by both the R.C.M.P. and the Canadian Grain authorities to use it to protect their grains and alfalfa.

This "GrainAlert" is simply mixed in the grain, preferably at harvest, when the grain is being elevated into storage. The cost is low — they less than $30 per 40,000 bushels. For information as to where and how to order, contact me at 384-1277.

SWITCHING THE BUREL:
Around this time of year, I can get a number of calls regarding inactivity stages for switching. Here are some thumb rules:

1. Wheat, barley and oats: the "green" stage should have turned color, though stalks may still be green; the kernel els should be in the late dough stage — less than 35% moisture.

2. Rye: crop begins to turn golden green, seeds are quite firm and some have turned color.

3. Flaxseed: once field has a definite brown coloration and the crop can be cut with difficulty.

Killam senior citizens meet

About 40 members were welcomed to the August meeting of Killam Senior Citizens by Mrs. Marian Wilson, who read a very appropriate poem. The club now has 65 paid-up members.

Mrs. Clara Schmitter, one of the directors of the New Horizons Program, gave a short review of their meeting. Mrs. Chagun of Camrose will be invited to come to a future meeting. Mrs. Amy Robinson was the new treasurer for this group.

The Senior Citizens had been asked to serve breakfast to the swimmers at the Regional Swim Meet held August 1-3, at harvest, when the grain is being elevated into storage. The cost is low — they less than $30 per 40,000 bushels. For information as to where and how to order, contact me at 384-1277.

It was decided to have a picnic at Big Knife Park, inviting Forebush, Alliance and other clubs, to be postponed if it was raining. The meet early party, which was scheduled for August 20th, the meeting closed, after which a delicious lunch was served. Some of the members began dining and others got a card game underway.

HAZELWOOD GOOD DEED CLUB NEWS

The Hazelwood Good Deed Club held their August meeting at the home of Mrs. Violet Copeland with nine members answering the roll call. Three visitors welcomed were Mrs. Carolyn Lee of Vernon B.C., Mrs. Selma Eastly and daughter Joanne of Calgary.

The meeting took place in its usual manner with Mrs. Irene Creasy in the chair. Treasurer was Jean Dine, and all bills were paid to date. Money was handed in for two small quilts and ticket sales.

The Club was very pleased at the amount of tickets sold on the quilt, which took second in the Loughheed Fair. Mrs. Josephine McClements has ordered more books of tickets. It was moved that the meeting from making any individual quilts other than the annual and baby quilts, on account of too great a demand.

The fast tea was discussed and it was decided that each member bring three pies and a home to contribute the bake sale. Our new officer, Mrs. Clara Schmitter, would like all sewing groups to be present to the picnic ahead of time.

A gift of money was given to Irene Creasy's by the members of the club, as a going away gift. Birthdays of the month were Mrs. Kay Cox and Mrs. Marie Drager. Hostess present was Mrs. Adele McClements.

Next meeting is to be held at Irene Creasy's. The meeting adjourned with a lovely lunch enjoyed by all.

GRAINFETT®

GRAINFETT® — small bits of paper, each containing a number — is a product to identify stored grain and is a modern means of providing a preventive measure to grain theft.

GRAINFETT® is an idea developed by police, in cooperation with the Saskatchewan Farmers' Union, to deter theft of stored grain.

The tiny, numbered pieces of paper should be mixed with the grain and, in particular, crumpled over the top of the bin or in the granary.

Care should be taken to assure that numerous slips of GRAINFETT® would be included in any quantity of grain stored — whether stored from the bottom of the bin, shovelled from the top or removed by pouring it into a truck-trail or into the granary.

Stolen grain, by itself, cannot be identified in court, while in transport or in someone else's grain storage bin. But — "numbered" GRAINFETT® identified grain is a definite proof of ownership.

GRAINFETT® is a solid only in five-pound (5-lb) quantities and each order has its own individual registration number. Once sold, this number belongs to the purchaser and remains his property. This number will not be used again unless the original purchaser re-orders.

Should your personalized GRAINFETT® supply be stolen, the number would be cancelled and it would be of no use to anyone.

Authorized agent for GRAINFETT® in this area is...

Some relief for fuel for Alberta farmers

by Kevin Peterson

The Loughheed government has increased its farm fuel rebate to eight cents a gallon in an attempt to offset the effects of gasoline price increases on agricultural production in Alberta.

The increase, a three cent hike, means that farmers will be paying only two to three cents more a gallon for their fuel than in 1974. Pleasure motorists meanwhile, are paying 15 to 16 cents a gallon more.

"The government recognizes that even with substantially improved farm cash income, there are still numerous family farms struggling to make ends meet," Agriculture Minister Marvin Moore said in making the announcement.

The three cent increase is expected to cost the government $6 million a year. The cabinet had earlier considered reducing the 10 cent a gallon fuel oil tax to reduce gasoline costs for pleasure motorists but rejected the idea.

Since last year, prices at the pump have gone up twice, 10 cents a gallon in June when Ottawa slipped on an excise tax and 5 to 6 cents in August when higher well-head prices hit retail sales.

Farmers are exempt from the federal tax and now will get back an extra three cents a gallon to help meet the second increase.

The increase came only days before NDP leader Grant Loughheed denounced the Loughheed administration for poor fiscal planning that he claims will produce massive deficits and higher taxes within a few years.

Mr. Noley, in making the announcement, released yet another secret provincial report, this time a treasury department production that projects spending and revenue increases over the next 10 years.

The report predicts that the province will be running a deficit ranging from $2.5 billion a year to $4 billion by 1984. However, it makes no attempt to anticipate future revenue increases beyond normal growth or possible changes in expenditure patterns.

The NDP leader argued strongly however that fiscal disaster is around the corner despite the province's current healthy state.

"The Loughheed government has been running the fiscal affairs of this province by the seat of their pants," he claimed. "Over the next ten years, we will have to increase taxation, there is no doubt."

Mr. Noley claimed the petroleum exploration incentives announced by the government 10 months ago will end up costing the province $600 million a year over the next decade.

He also criticized the 19-1/2 tax cut this spring, saying it will cost the province large amounts of money while benefiting the rich more than anyone else. The government document estimates the tax cuts more than $300 million a year over the next 10 years.

Mr. Noley suggested the province should have offered a maximum $100 cut which would have given the poor the same benefits while limiting the benefits of higher income earners.

SIX FROM COUNTY AT SUMMER GAMES

Six athletes — Jackie Coates of Loughheed, Dwayne Baker of Poudre, David Saker, Ricky Johnson, Karen Cray and Richard Cooper from Hardisty, and Mr. Peter Gray from a coach, travelled to Red Deer for the 2nd Alberta Summer Games on August 31 & Sept. 1.

The standard of competition was very high and the local athletes should be commended for their selection to the team.

Dwayne Baker performed extremely well, taking a silver medal in long jump, 6.15 m., thus jumping over 20 ft. for the first time. He also received the bronze medal in long jump with a leap of 12.0 m.

Becky Johnson qualified for the final in 100 m. and just missed in the final, finishing 4th in 16.42 m.

Richard Cooper spent two busy days at pentathlon (200 m., High Jump, Shot Put, Long Jump, 800 m.) and finished 13th place.

Although the others did not finish in the top six in their events, all the athletes and coaches were given a medal to commemorate their involvement in Summer Games.

Depicted here is part of a collection of Indian artifacts belonging to Art Adamson and his sister Mrs. E. McKenzie of Sedgewick. For the most part, these specimens have been found in Flaggstaff County.

HUNTING ARTIFACTS IN FLAGSTAFF COUNTY

by E. McKenzie

Hunting artifacts is a special pastime for many people and an open field for all interested. Patience and an eagle eye are necessary for this interesting hobby.

It takes a long time for the novice to recognize Indian relics, and to the average person, the arrow head is the most familiar Exploration relic discovered that most Indian camps and villages usually have been selected with care, located on knolls within eyesight of a creek, or where Indians could see for miles over tall prairie grass, which then covered the land.

Displayed in the picture is a collection of arrows, scrapers and knives belonging to Art Adamson and his sister Emily McKenzie, shown at the recent Hobby Club meeting in Sedgewick. Most of these were found in the Flaggstaff County area.

The "Ceremonial Hammer" was found by John Adamson over 20 years ago, and is estimated to be 2,000 years old. There is an ever increasing interest in Indian relics and artifacts — arrow and spear points in particular. If you go into the country with your eyes and your mind wide open, you might find an arrowhead and at least your bloodline interest should be a refreshing experience.

HOBBY CLUB

On Wednesday, Aug. 20, the Amalgamated Hobbyists of Flaggstaff held their monthly meeting in Sedgewick United Church hall.

Mr. R. Sorenson conducted a short business meeting. The topic for the evening was Rick Hounds and Artifacts and Mr. R. Sorenson had a fine program planned, with the aid of several hobby club members.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Weber displayed their recently acquired Indian pipe.

JACKIE COATES RUNS FOR ALTA.

Jackie Coates of Loughheed was recently selected to represent Alberta in the Canadian Legion Track & Field Championships. She travelled to Waterloo with eleven other athletes and two coaches.

Jackie ran extremely well in her competition and finished 2nd in 100m with an excellent time of 12.9 sec. Unfortunately she fell at the end of the race and was slightly injured, but still competed in the Long Jump and managed a 4.20 m (about 1 ft. less than her best).

While in Ontario, the team had time to take a side trip to see Niagara Falls.

Congratulations, Jackie!

new dept. head

The provincial cabinet has assigned Alberta's most respected - and probably highest paid - civil servant the task of putting its energy and natural resources department into smooth running order.

The appointment of Dr. Geo. Govier, as chief deputy minister for a term of at least one year is aimed mainly at bringing in a man who can both smooth over the inner-department rivalries and also bring energy expertise of international renown.

As chairman of Alberta's Energy Resources Conservation Board, a widely admired institution, Dr. Govier has acquired a reputation as both a sound administrator and knowledgeable expert on worldwide energy concerns.

In his new job, the main task will be to sort out decades of uncertainty about exactly where Alberta oil and gas policies are formed and establish a smooth-running process to produce long-term policies.

Prior to 1971, Dr. Govier's board was virtually the policy-making body in Alberta. The scene both nationally and internationally was quiet and Social Credit cabinets were content to rubber stamp board recommendations as provincial policy.

But with the arrival of the Loughheed government and higher world prices almost simultaneously, the situation changed dramatically.

Projects started at Hardisty

by A. W. Elzstly

The current atmosphere of Rural Alberta Development has taken hold at Hardisty where four major projects are currently in various stages of development. Each one is designed to attract traffic to the Hardisty area.

Plans have been received and have been approved for a 24-unit Senior Citizen Complex consisting of 24 self-contained apartments in a two-level style building. To be situated on several lots in the southern portion of main street, each apartment will contain 525 square feet, with living room, kitchen bedroom, bath and storage area. It is expected that initial construction will be commencing this month.

Directly across the street from the above Complex, the Hardisty Senior Citizen Group has acquired space for a new Drop-in Centre. The basement has been dug and the new building will be in place by fall. Secretary Wes Fedlar has informed this reporter that the paving tender has been let for the Hardisty Airport, and government information is that this will commence in September and be completed before freezeup in anticipation of this, the Hardisty Flying Club has purchased a plane for use of the members and anticipate a bright future for the Club.

Plans are also completed and received for the full expansion of the Town of Hardisty to the south-east. Original plans call for the completion of a new street fully serviced and with extensions for further expansion as required. In this connection, work is proceeding as scheduled on a new quarter million dollar sewer disposal system in the north-east of the Town, capable of servicing the present Town, along with the proposed new extension and further development into a complete new subdivision.

Also in the south-east area of the Town and adjacent to the new section, plans are developing for the laying out of several acreages of from 2 1/2 to 3 acres each.

Bearing in mind the proposed Energy Corridor and the anticipation of small industry for the area, the Council of Hardisty decided to move now and be prepared for future development with new serviced lots and acreages to accommodate the expected influx of new citizens over the next few years.

Strome News Items

(by Charlotte Curtis)

STROME - The past week has been very nice harvesting weather and the farmers are combining mody to hours between midnight and 1 a.m. And then there's all those thousands of bales to be made and hauled - the thought of them makes me glad I'm not a farmer! I guess the rest of the farm life makes up for that though, especially the beauty of nature; the trees turning to tinges of green, red and gold are most golden, the crops a golden yellow. Flecks of green are still in the air "rustling" as they head south and ducks are furiously beating their wings in search of the best grain field (in spite of the hunters getting their target practice on them). At the close of day, the sun, scarlet from all the field dust, leaves the sky as low as it sinks beyond the horizon till Mr. Moon is doing his best for those humming combines with Thanksgiving day. Darning nearer, I remind me that every day should be a thanksgiving day to the God who made and still gives this world. How much we take for granted.

With school in and harvesting the order of the day, there's not much else going on or else you're not saying so.

David and Linda Wesley and Christina of High Level are spending a couple weeks with friends and relatives and at the home of her mother, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ziesel, Butler and Myrna Curtis. Tim, a friend spent Sunday with them and at the G. C. Curtis home.

Miss Tanya Seiferman is a patient in Killam Hospital. We hope you'll be feeling better and home again soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Breumeling of Provost were visitors with their daughter Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Triks for a few days. Mildred is at home, recovering.

Keeping in touch

Last week I had the opportunity to have a group of lengthy conversations with constituents on local concerns facing the people of our area. These opportunities arose following speaking engagements which I had been invited to.

I checked through my current schedule of future activities for the constituency, and note that there are a number of interesting opportunities coming up, whereby I may participate in local events. On Sept. 18th I will be speaking to a Grade 12 class at Camrose High School on the role of government in the national economy. Sept. 24th I plan to be meeting with a group of senior citizens at Bashaw on the occasion of the opening of the new senior center. On Sept. 27th I will be guest speaker at the Allix High School Graduation.

October 6th and 7th, I will be attending the National Party Caucus in Ottawa and then will visit with the Committee on Privileges and Elections in resuming hearings on John Reid, M.P. and alleged budget leaks. The opening of the House of Commons will be on October 14th and from that time on, I will be spending most of the week days in Ottawa and returning to the constituency on weekends.

I will be returning to the community of Wainwright on October 21st and will be associating myself with the activity of The Food for the Hungry Organization that will be taking place that day. I have accepted an invitation to serve as guest speaker in mid-November at two United Grain Growers shareholders meetings, one in Stettler and the other in Camrose. No doubt there will be other invitations to participate in local activities and I hope that the opportunities will prevail such that I can meet with citizens from all parts of Battle River

FOR THE HORSEMEN

October 3rd is the deadline for entering your horse in the new A.C. Horse Improvement Program. This program is unique in Canada and probably in the whole of North America. The three-day event will be held on October 17, 18 and 19 at Spruce House, an excellent new equestrian center located about eight miles south of Calgary.

Devised by Alberta Agriculture's "use Industry Branch, working in conjunction with the A.C. Horse Improvement committee, the basic principle of the program is to identify superior horses within each breed through an evaluation of their conformation. The program aims to improve the quality of Alberta bred horses and to establish better markets.

The young horses that will be evaluated in the program will be evaluated mainly on the basis of their skeletal and muscular structure as it relates to the athletic function for which they were bred to perform. The three, four and five year olds will be judged, in addition to conformation, on their ability to perform maneuvers that require considerably more athletic ability and training than those expected of the younger animals.

Apart from the brood mare and Stallion classes, only purebred Arabian, Appaloosa and Quarter horses are eligible to participate in the program this year. They must have been born in Alberta and be from a mare owned by an Alberta breeder. All horses entered in the program must be registered and be accompanied by a certificate stating that they have had a negative Coggin's Test within the last six months.

This certificate is to protect horses against exposure to Swamp fever. Since it takes several weeks for veterinarians to get test results back from the Animal Disease Research Institute in Lethbridge the test should be done immediately.

Following is a list of the classes:

Two year old, Three year old, Four and Five year old classes as well as, Class for Brood Mares, and a Stallion class.

For further information on the program, as well as, general rules, class description, etc., call our office at 384-3737.

Arnold Malson, M.P.,
Battle River Constituency.

I look forward to setting up a number of banquets during the next year to which would be invited speakers of high national importance. It is certainly important for citizens at the grass roots to have the opportunity to hear and ask questions of others who make decisions that will affect all Canadians. They also need to keep in touch.

At the time of writing this column, I have just returned from the Committee hearings on federal constituency boundary readjustments for the Province of Alberta. In the original proposal, the constituency of Battle River would disappear with part of the area being served by the present constituency of Vegreville and the remainder forming a part of a newly proposed riding to be called Acadia. There were several briefs presented by individuals and groups, all suggesting that a different name be chosen for the newly proposed riding. Those making recommendations all agreed that the name Acadia, connoted a Nova Scotia origin rather than an area of Western Canada.

Legislature ...

The government wanted and needed more active support and found the only expertise it possessed was in the energy business. So the board, meant mainly as a quasi-judicial institution, found itself doing background work for decisions that involved basic policy, such as natural gas policy.

With the formation of the new energy and natural resources department this spring, Premier Lougheed moved to return the expertise to government ranks. But the new department was formed at the risk of losing Dr. Govier - hence the cabinet went to him to decide what people and power should go where.

Oil and natural gas won't be his only problem either. The department headed by minister Don Getty also contains several elements from the old lands and forests department under his overall natural resources tag.

The lands division and forests division have acquired a reputation within government circles as highly independent institutions, jealously protecting their role. Mr. Getty has been quietly tearing his hair out over how to draw them into the larger department now it is Dr. Govier's responsibility.

The new chief deputy - he is one of only four civil servants in the top salary bracket eligible for salaries of up to $8,000 a year - also brings substantial expertise in coal policy to the new job.

Mr. Getty says Dr. Govier's appointment is for one year although it can easily be extended to two if the job requires it.

After that he is expected to return to head the energy board.

HARDISTY C of C ACTIVE AGAIN

The Hardisty Chapter of Commerce monthly meeting was held in the Park Cafe on September 18th, 1975 at 8:30 p.m. in the form of a supper meeting. Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

We had a report on the Senior Citizens Home. Blueprints are in the architect's office and plans for an early start on construction should begin in the near future.

Fred Crone gave an informative report on the progress of the new airstrip at Hardisty. Grading of the runway of 3000 ft. has been completed and paving will be completed in approximately one month.

The Agricultural Committee reports during Agriculture week, buttons and place mats will be made and distributed by the committee. Doug Drever and Don MacIsaac will have these for sale.

The Recreation Board are urgently in need of new members and persons to replace the resignations of the past year. Anyone interested in the projects that are necessary to keep our recreation facilities in operation, please contact any member of the Chamber or members of the Town Council. Your immediate concern to this matter would be greatly appreciated.

All members are requested to notify Mrs. W. Fraser of new residents in and around the community of Hardisty.

Life membership presented to Tina

Sunday, Sept. 14th was the day chosen for the Sedgewick Golf Club's Men and Ladies' club championship play. The sunny skies and warm temperatures made for beautiful golfing. Tina Blakeney was presented with a "Life Membership" in the Sedgewick Golf Club. The presentation was made by the President of the ladies golfers, Vivian Koehn. Tina has been a consistent member of our club since 1959 and has always contributed willingly in whatever way was required. Miss Stubbs, president of the local club, was won by Jackie Christensen for ladies championship. Congratulations to both!

Other winners of prizes were as follows: Mrs. J. Longest drive on No. 4 - Ed Watkins; Drive club to hole on No. 2 - Fred Henderson; high score on No. 6 - Ernie Koehn; Most putts on No. 9 - Jim Hallam; Low gross - George Gabruk.

Ladies — Longest drive on No. 6 - Vivian Koehn; Closest drive to hole No. 2 - Dorothy Stubbs; Low score on No. 4 - Tina Blakeney; Most putts on No. 7 - Jean Gabruk; high gross - Jackie Christensen.

The Senior Citizens are reminded of their monthly meeting to be held in the Elks Hall at 8 p.m. on Thurs. night. They hope to be in their new building for the next meeting.

Robert and Judy Hara of Edmonton are the proud parents of a son, Robert Hugh born Sept. 14th, 1975. Grandparents, he and Bernice Moore are rather learning, too, over their first grandchild. But keep your chest in and your buttons on, Tina!

A delicious pot luck supper, prepared and served by the ladies, was enjoyed by all. As was a closing suggestion "It would be very encouraging to have more members participate in this club championship for 1976".

This photo is typical of the break-throughs experienced by Central Rams hockey team. The Rams won over the high-rated Vermilion squad by a two-point margin. The game was the first game of the season for the Rams. Journey to Wainwright on Wednesday. Good luck!

Mr. and Mrs. Sig Johnson motored to Regina recently where they spent a few days visiting their daughter and family Bob and Maureen Bell, then travelling on to Swift Current where they visited with old friends.

Joan and Michael McCulloch, Charlotte and Michael Lunne were at Mrs. Alice Porter's over the weekend. I hear they have come up with a Strome champion-sled boat so far - 3 h. 11 min. outswinging a 3 h. 10 min. speed at the Mergan's. However, Rusty Robbins has a hunch that will make your potatoes look small at the public meeting in Killam September 17th.

Miss Sandra Hauser of Edmonton was at the home of her parents, the Harold Hughs here for the weekend. The Senior Citizens are reminded of their monthly meeting to be held in the Elks Hall at 8 p.m. on Thurs. night. They hope to be in their new building for the next meeting.

Coal... fuel of the future

by Kevin Peterson
The long-awaited provincial government policy on coal development appears to be just where it was a year ago - several months or more from completion.

Energy Minister Don Getty said in a recent interview that prospects for proclaiming the policy before year-end are slim. It appears that the complexities of balancing both old and new elements of Alberta's coal mining industry, coupled with increasing world demand for Alberta coal, are responsible for the decision to delay any policy.

Mr. Getty admits the lengthy delay is frustrating to coal mine operators. "I know if I were a coal operator I would be screaming like a crazy," he says. But the government's desire to avoid a continuation of the traditional boom and bust cycle in the industry, coupled with a desire to keep traditional high-grad mines open, means the delay is necessary.

New coal developments in Alberta have been virtually halted since the Conservative took office. The policy was revised recently when the vague inclusion calling for the policy was pronounced and exploration and testing permits were given to some companies.

Other companies have already completed their exploration work, however, and now find their investment is tied up until the overall policy is ready.

Heading the list of concerns is a change in the ridiculous coal royalty of 10c a ton, a review started more than two years ago.

While the royalty was kept deliberately low to keep high-grad mines open, the government now finds itself in the embarrassing position of charging only 10 cents royalty on coal heading from other mines to Japan for more than $11 a ton. "We have to find a system that will get out money from the profitable ones," Mr. Getty said. The province is also trying to devise a system that will attempt to force customers to buy a mix of both high and low quality coal from Alberta mines.

While Ontario Hydro and Japanese interests will buy all the high quality - traditional boom and bust cycle in the industry, coupled with a desire to keep traditional high-grad mines open, means the delay is necessary.

The cabinet is also grappling with an energy board recommendation calling for the province to save known, cheaply mined deposits for Alberta mines. The idea would appear obvious: it will create more national debate when other provinces are told they will have to pay for fuel from areas that are expensive to mine and produce a costly product.

Killam to use grant on four area projects

by Doris Milke
KILLAM — There was unanimous support for the suggested division of the Recreation-cultural grant money at the public meeting in Killam September 17th.

An earlier joint meeting of the town council, Recreation Board, management facilities board, and Chamber of Commerce suggested: $70,000 be applied for to pay off the Agriplex debt; $20,000 for upgrading the arena ice surface, lobby and dressing rooms; and joining the arena to the complex; $20,000 for library facilities; and $20,000 for new park facilities.

There will be an estimated $40,000 grant money come to the Killam district over the next ten years if present plans are carried through. This money must be matched locally by a minimum of $10,000 or the equivalent in man-hours.

Mrs. Marilyn Munro, Mayor, said the Recreation Board, and budget proposals for the various projects were: George into projects. The Recreation Board, Len Dutton, Arnold Saunders, Irene Foston, Doris Milke & Dorothy Stubbs.

One time there was a boy who loved music very much, but could not make music. His brothers could sing and play instruments, but his voice was squeaky and out of key. All he could do was whistle, and that did not make music. His ability to whistle seemed to be of little value.

At last unable to bear it any longer, and thinking about his boys with woe, he went to a violin maker and asked him if he would teach him to make violins. If he could not play an instrument himself perhaps he could help someone else to make music.

The words of the violin maker are profoundly significant. "Come into the house," he told the boy, "and you shall try." The song in the heart is all that matters, for there are many ways of making music. Some play violins, some sing, some play pictures, some carve statues, while others till the soil and grow flowers. Each sings a song and helps to make the music of the world; you can make music too.

Taking hope from the old teacher, the boy set out to learn to make violins. He put his heart into his work whittling his hidden melodies into the wood, and his violins became famous. All over Italy and out to the world musicians said his violins were the best with tones that were mellow and haunting and marvelously sweet. People wondered at his secret; why his violins were the best.

But to Antonio Stradivari, for that was his name, there was no secret. He knew his were the best simply because he put so much love into the violins he whittled out of wood. So it is that each one of us, (though we may not be wounded soldiers) can have a song of healing for the hurt of the world. We have a song to sing, whether sweet or sad. In Jesus Christ it is a song of the heart a song of love that speaks to others and helps them in turn to make beautiful tones. Whether singing or whittling our melody does not matter, the world needs the music that each can make.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR
To the Citizens from Killam, Loughheed, Hardisty, Sedgwick, Alliance and area.

Because of our extensive extra curricular transportation requirements, we find that the County transportation allowance is inadequate at this time. We have therefore decided to supplement our transportation budget by raising extra money.

We would therefore like to enlist your support in our upcoming battle drive that is to be held Saturday, Sept. 27.

If you wish to donate any beer, pop, or liquor bottles, we will be going from house to house, just leave the bottles on your doorstep.

Thank you very much for your help and cooperation.

Yours Sincerely,

By Kevin Peterson
Alberta's medicare system appears headed for its toughest crisis ever with a threat by the Alberta Medical Association to pull out because the province will not meet their fee demands.

But in making the threat, the doctors appear to have played right into the cabinet's hands and supplied a perfect issue for the government to show it intends to stick by its announced guideline of limiting spending increases to 11 per cent.

The A.M.A. voted unanimously in convention to take the step of billing patients directly after the doctors' request for a 35.8% hike in fee payments was met by a provincial offer of only 8%.

The A.M.A. scheme calls for individuals to be billed at the higher level, leaving it up to the individual to submit his claim to medicare - which would end up paying only part of the bill.

GREEN ACRES - PROGRAM REEF STABILIZATION

Glen Werner, D.A.

On Sept. 22, 1975, Agriculture Minister Eugene Whelan announced a payment of one hundredweight livestock under the federal beef stabilization plan for the year August 12, 1974, to August 11, 1975.

"All cattle of A, B, and C, quality sold for slaughter during that year are eligible for the payment," Mr. Whelan said. "That means producers will get about $4.00 an animal."

Cattle slaughtered during the 12-month stabilization period are expected to be something in excess of 2.5 million head resulting in an estimated pay out by the Agricultural Stabilization Board of about $12.5 million.

The support price established by the stabilization plan was $45.42 a hundredweight based on animals of A1 and A2 quality. The weighted average price of A1 and A2 cattle was $44.84, calling for a deficiency payment of 6¢ a hundredweight.

Mr. Whelan stressed that the payment will be made on all eligible A, B and C animals whatever price the producer received for them.

To receive payment, producers must submit proof of slaughter to the Subsidy Processing Section, Agricultural Stabilization Board. The address is on the back of the application forms which will be available at stockyards, packing sheds, livestock dealers and regional offices of the Livestock Division of Agriculture Canada.

Services held for Bill Robinson

Mr. Bill Robinson passed away in Edmonton on July 5th 1975. He had been a patient in the Killam Auxiliary Hospital for some time.

William George Robinson was born in England on April 21, 1905. After he came to Canada he lived at Swift Current, Gadsby, south of Hardisty in the Silver Heights area and in the Hughenden-Car districts from 1945 to 1965.

He took life in its stride, the good, and the not so good, and it must have been very hard to change from an active life, to a long session in bed and wheel chair after his accident. He had a great sense of humor and had many tales to relate about his rodeo days.

He is survived by his loving wife, Elora, his sister Ethel, Ronald of Carleton Place, two brothers Albert of Stettler and Leonard of Carleton, and many nephews and nieces.

As Rev. Jackson quoted in the service held for Bill "The eagle has its place of rest. The wild horse, where to dwell; Great Spirit that gave the bird its nest, make me a home as well," also applied very much to Bill. He was a man who made friends "without half trying" (lyrics sung were "The Old Hugged Cross" and "Rock of Ages").

The non-party passers were all rodeo friends. Bill Brown of Car, Mel Wells of Veteran, Allen McQuigge and Muff Dunn of Halkirk, Ross Hinkley of Hardisty and Len Long of Car.

The active passers were Gary and Fred Mitchell, Larry Robinson, Ernie Ronald, Bill Green, and another nephew. Interment was in the Hardisty Cemetery.

pays half of medicine costs but administration of the scheme, setting of premiums and establishing a fee schedule is left to the province. A double-billing system would be "a step backward in all respects" because the spirit of federal legislation is that the insurance system should cover all costs," he said in Edmonton.

"The technique of double-billing would be an administration nightmare and would be regressive socially," Mr. Lalonde said. "The system we have is very definitely the best, easiest to administer and the best for individual citizens."

Ottawa would step in with federal legislation if the provinces failed to take action and double-billing became widespread, he stated.

The doctors are likely to find themselves on the receiving end of tough provincial talk because of their threat. The province intends to keep its increases within 11%, and is likely to use the high-paid medical men as an example.

With acquisition of the 2.7 trillion cubic feet of gas under the 1,000 square mile Sulfield range near Medicine Hat, Mr. Getty hopes the company can start earning its keep quickly.

While AEC has a series of options on other resource projects, the minister predicts Sulfield gas will be its key income earner during its early years.

The "bona fide" claims Mr. Getty illustrates advantages the administration sees in becoming one of Alberta's biggest business promoters.

Initially, the province's bill for AEC rights to the gas will be $94 million, including $4 million for 77 test wells the government financed to "prove up" the block's capacity.

But the agreement's small print could more than double the price tag on the reserves. AEC is expected to pass extra mineral rights charges on to private firms which will produce the gas, along with Crown royalty bills.

The total payable for the gas rights will rise to half the energy company's net earnings from production if AEC's income from Sulfield exceeds Crown royalties for the gas.

Even though the reserves turned out to be about 30 per cent less than the 4 trillion cubic feet originally expected, income projections for Sulfield are staggering.

The energy department's most pessimistic predictions had the Crown, in royalties plus the "bonus" more than $1.4 billion over the next 25 years. Total earnings are reckoned at $2.5 billion for the government and $1.1 billion in taxes.

The figures are of course hypothetical. In Mr. Getty's words in 1972, AEC was set up as "a unique partnership between the government of Alberta and its citizens."

The company's performance with Sulfield gas will be a test of government involvement in the energy business all sides will be closely watching.

OPENING CEREMONY — Hardisty's Mayor Bill Mitchell assisted one of Hestler's dignitaries, Jack Hall to "cut the log" and officially open Roy's new premises at Hardisty. In the background is Henry Grebe, public relations manager, who was M.C. for the ceremony.

Mr. Hall, in his address to the large gathering, said that his company was pleased to be a part of the growth of the Hardisty community. At the conclusion of his remarks, he presented the Mayor of Hardisty with an engraved gold hammer.

Legislature report

by Kevin Peterson
Energy Minister Don Getty claims winning an extra "open-ended bonus" for the treasury with transfer of massive Sulfield Block natural gas reserves to the Alberta Energy Company (AEC).

A new deal handing over the mineral rights is a major step to getting a key item in the government's "Alberta-first" energy development policy actually producing.

AEC promises to make its public stock offering, leaving half the shares with the government, this month. Its sole capital so far is a $25 million advance from the treasury early this year.

With acquisition of the 2.7 trillion cubic feet of gas under the 1,000 square mile Sulfield range near Medicine Hat, Mr. Getty hopes the company can start earning its keep quickly.

While AEC has a series of options on other resource projects, the minister predicts Sulfield gas will be its key income earner during its early years.

The "bona fide" claims Mr. Getty illustrates advantages the administration sees in becoming one of Alberta's biggest business promoters.

Initially, the province's bill for AEC rights to the gas will be $94 million, including $4 million for 77 test wells the government financed to "prove up" the block's capacity.

But the agreement's small print could more than double the price tag on the reserves. AEC is expected to pass extra mineral rights charges on to private firms which will produce the gas, along with Crown royalty bills.

The total payable for the gas rights will rise to half the energy company's net earnings from production if AEC's income from Sulfield exceeds Crown royalties for the gas.

Even though the reserves turned out to be about 30 per cent less than the 4 trillion cubic feet originally expected, income projections for Sulfield are staggering.

The energy department's most pessimistic predictions had the Crown, in royalties plus the "bonus" more than $1.4 billion over the next 25 years. Total earnings are reckoned at $2.5 billion for the government and $1.1 billion in taxes.

The figures are of course hypothetical. In Mr. Getty's words in 1972, AEC was set up as "a unique partnership between the government of Alberta and its citizens."

The company's performance with Sulfield gas will be a test of government involvement in the energy business all sides will be closely watching.

Let Us Be Thankful

If anyone should give me a dish of sand and tell me there were particles of iron in it, I might look to them with my eyes, and search for them with my clumsy fingers, and be unable to detect them; but let me take a magnet and sweep through it, and how it would draw to itself the most invisible particles by the simple power of attraction. The ungodly heart, like my finger in the sand, discovers no particles, but let the thankful heart sweep through the day, and as the magnet finds the iron, so it will find in every hour some heavenly blessing; but only the iron of God's hand is gold.

The prayers we have made for our poor requests have not been the means of God's giving. Our very desire to pray is His gift to us. So when we thank Him today for all His loving care and material blessings, we include countless unnamed mercies.

You know it is well that our Pilgrim Fathers included the day of Thanksgiving. It gives us a special time in which to take stock of our many blessings and to thank God as a nation. Let us make this Thanksgiving Day one of recognition of the mercy and care of our Maker, not merely a holiday occasion. May the work and business of preparing the Thanksgiving feast be made easier because of our deep feeling of God's nearness. Unless our preparations for the day are shot through with genuine gratitude, it is not true thanksgiving. R. Chappell

Rape and Barley step up

AGRI - INSIGHT

By Alberta Wheat Pool
Wheat used to be king! But now, barley and rapeseed are competing with wheat for a share of prairie farmland.

Grain markets have changed and with it has come the need to stimulate new export grain markets. The Canadian government, along with grain agencies and associations, responded to the change by formulating programs for export market development.

The federal Department of Industry, Trade and Commerce (ITAC) is committed to developing markets for agricultural commodities. Also Agricultural Canada and the Export Development Corporation are involved. ITAC promotes grain and other agricultural commodities. About 15% of the fair's and missions, which ITAC sponsors, are primarily designed to develop markets for farm products.

Agriculture Canada is active in forming agricultural trade policies, and provides technical personnel and resources for trade fairs and missions. The department administers the $1 million per year New Crop Development Fund, designed to identify, develop or adapt new crops or varieties for Canadian agriculture. Since its inception in 1974, universities and producers have received funds for research on utility wheats, sunflowers, field peas and barley, oats and rapeseed varieties.

Federal government guaranteed loans to customer countries are particularly beneficial to export grain sales. Although the Canadian Wheat Board offers short or medium term credit arrangements for grain purchases, all are guaranteed by the government. Longer term loans are insured by the federal Export Development Corporation.

The Canadian Wheat Board offers financial incentives to market development activities itself or with the assistance of the Grains and Oleseeds Market Incentive Programs of ITAC. Wheat Board projects include testing feed wheat varieties in potential market areas, feed grain missions, seminars and development of high quality durum wheat varieties.

The Canadian International Grains Institute is an educational facility which contributes to market development by offering courses on Canada's grain industry to existing and potential customers. An examination of potential grain markets in the world was undertaken by the Canada Grains Council through seven technical overseas missions.

Reported market development has been primarily sponsored by the Rapeseed Association of Canada with the assistance of governments and universities. The Association has involved itself in rapeseed variety research, oil and meal utilization, missions, seminars, and the removal of trade barriers.

Government and prairie-wide agencies and associations have not been the only ones developing grain markets. Producers or organizations also promote grain exports through variety research, missions, technical resources and financial support.

The Amalgamated Hobbyists of Flagstaff held their monthly meeting in the Sedgewick United Church Hall on Wednesday evening, Sept. 17. President Mr. R. Patterson was back with us to chair the meeting. He spent the summer in his native New Zealand.

Correspondence was received from the Provincial Museum and Archives regarding coming displays.

An announcement of the opening of Creators Corner in Edmonton was also received. Several members contributed slides of horticultural and natural interest to be shown. Mr. Patterson operated the projector. These slides provided a most enjoyable evening program.

Lunch and social hour completed the evening.

Hardisty News

IN THIS CORNER . . .

Think on these things

A great many people from the Hardisty area attended the funeral of the late Tye Hope in Viking on Thursday, a brother of Mrs. Hazel Bilsen's. The church was packed and so showed the high respect in which he and his family were held. The choir sang "Amazing Grace" with Mrs. Bert Hill being one of the choir members.

Tye spent his early years in Hardisty but had lived in Viking for some time.

Nice to see Mrs. Adella Goldsmith home again. Believe it or not, we really missed you Adella. She has been visiting family and friends in Regina and area and getting acquainted with her newest grandchild.

Mrs. Nettie Johnston visited in Killam on Thursday with her sister-in-law Mrs. Mary Renshaw.

Mrs. Thelma Fisher spent Thanksgiving at Valleyview with her daughter Carol and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Voros spent last week in Edmonton with their family. They also enjoyed taking in the hockey game at the Coliseum when Edmonton Oilers played Houston Aeros and saw the famous players such as Gordie Howe, Dryden, Norm Ullman, whom we almost look upon as a local boy, having been born in Provost or Macklin.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Voros and Irene spent Thanksgiving in Red Deer.

It was nice to see Mrs. Barbara (Bawcliffe) Prodan in town. They have been at Grande Cache for some time, and are happy now to be stationed at Forestburg, much closer to both Barbara's and Larry's parents.

Sure sorry to hear of Hugh Duncan's serious accident which sent him to hospital. Ken Alderode was called in to deliver the mail.

Don't be surprised to enter the Nelson building and smell some mighty appetizing odors emanating from Mr. Eklund's room . . . as he's got an electric stove to cook on now!

"It is really possible for an ordinary human being to enjoy a deep and lasting relationship with the infinite and awesome creative power that we have come to know as God? This question was the topic of a large recording made by Dr. Narramore, a Christian Psychologist. This, of course, is a very important question for us to consider, for after all, what could be more influential to our lives than the answer to such a question. To be brought into an amazing union with the originator of all that has been created, is a thought that surely must have top priority in our minds.

In the Holy Scriptures, we read of how he is beginning "God breathed into man the Spirit of Life," and man became a living being.

The truth that is being expressed, of course, is that something of God was placed within man. Somewhere deep within us lie hidden powers and treasures of indescribable beauty.

The beloved Master once said, "The Kingdom of Heaven is within you." And He exhorted His followers to search first for this amazing inner world which once discovered, will enable the discoverer to enjoy life and have it more abundantly. Later Paul was to ask, "Do you not know that you are the dwelling place of God? The Spirit of God is within us. What an incredible thought. All this surely whispers to us that we are much more than we have been able to realize; and that somewhere deep within our being, there is in fact, an "inner sanctuary" in which we and the Father can be one.

When you allow your mind to dwell on such thoughts, you cannot but marvel at the wonder of it all. How utterly impossible it seems that the wonder and beauty of the life of God could be brought into an amazing union with that of our own life. However mysterious and impossible it may sound . . . nevertheless it is precisely what Jesus taught and lived for. In His life, He demonstrated that it is God's intention that man be restored to what God intended him to be; and when His work has been completed, men and women will reflect the image of the One who has created them.

"I live, yet not I, but Christ who lives within me." Such were the words of the Apostle and they are the same words that can and should echo within our hearts and minds. For after all, they are but the answer to the prayer request once made by Jesus when He said, "Father, my prayer for all of them is that they will be of one mind and heart, just as You and I are, I in them and You in me, so they will be One in us."

My friend, to be one with God must surely be our deepest hope and the most frequent of our dreams.

Mrs. Tina Blakeney and her sister Mrs. Clara Johnson of Alliance left last week on a month's tour of the Holy Land.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack McBride and Mr. and Mrs. Tim Dixon and family were weekend guests at the home of the Geo. Jeweys.

Can't find out whose guest she was, but saw Mrs. Austin Smith of Edmonton greeting friends at church on Sunday.

Mrs. Mary McCree of Calgary brought her mother, Mrs. J. L. Mulreid home on Saturday after she had spent a month visiting with her families in Stratford and Calgary.

Mrs. McCree returned to Calgary on Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Scott Truss and Brad Truss were weekend guests at their parental home, the Larry Truss's.

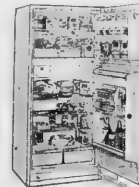

Congratulations and best wishes to Mrs. E. Schmidt and Mr. Don Good on their recent marriage. A family dinner was held in their honour at the Legion Hut on Sunday, October 12th.

The beautiful way to cook

Here's a microwave oven that's beautiful to see, compact in size, big on features. Panasonic's NE-6700C has a big 1.25 cu. ft. cooking cavity, roomy enough for a 20-lb. turkey. Automatic Defrost lets you defrost a 5-lb. roast in about 15 minutes with a touch of a button. We call that beautiful.

Panasonic Micro Wave Ovens will be demonstrated by Mrs. Evelyn Foster, a factory representative on Thursday, October 23rd. Bring along all your questions.

IN MEMORIAM

McDELMOTT - In loving memory of Ernest McDermott a dear husband, father and grandfather, who left us October 19th, 1962. Little tribute and tender just to say we still remember. Though absent, you are very near. Still loved, still missed, and very dear. Sadly missed by your wife Grace, children and grandchildren. 10-2c

JOHNSTON - In loving memory of husband, father and grandfather, James S. Johnston who passed away Oct. 17, 1971. There was no little time to say "goodbye". The day you went away, you left us all so suddenly. One year ago today. Our hearts still ache with sadness. And silent tears still flow. For what it means to lose you. Only God and you must know. Loved and sadly missed by wife Nettie and families. 10-3c

Hardisty News Items

St. Mark's Anglican Church and Hall look very lovely with a new coat of white paint. The paint was donated by the Alderice family in memory of their mother Mrs. Annie Alderice.

Hardisty athletic group went out on a bottle drive as did various other districts, collecting funds for sports transportation. The Hardisty group collected well over $100 and the students were pleased with the co-operation received.

Seen in Hardisty was Tom Cooper who has been at Young Bay, Prince of Wales Island. He is home for a week, and expects to be moved to Hecia on Melville Island very soon. He is already used to the snow and cold.

An odd-limer of the Hardisty Hoity area was visiting in town this week, being Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wagner. Bill now resides in Ladysmith, B.C. and son George and daughter Sharon live on Vancouver Island too. Bill left here in 1962 and enjoyed renewing acquaintances and staying with his sister Doris Yuskie and her husband.

Congratulations to Thelma Fisher who won the $50.00 bi-actone, and to Wade Wells who won the door prize at the Agricultural Bingo last Monday night.

For the draws at Lefty's Foodland last Saturday night, Mrs. Paige Fisher won an ice cream maker and Mrs. Ron Stiel the grocery voucher. Congratulations to both!

Nice to see Mrs. Urs Deming and Mrs. Carol Nelson of Metlakwila in town on Tuesday. More little residents arriving in the world. This time, John and Gail Johnson are the proud parents of a big boy, 8 pounds, 4 oz., Davion Jayvyn. A first grandson for Joyce Johnson.

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Hazel Bilzer and Warren Hopie of Wetaskwin on the sudden passing away of their brother Type of Viking, at the age of 51 years. Sincere sympathy goes out to his wife and family as well.

Congratulations go to Belva Leadley and Howard Stoner who have birthdays the same day. While Belva is not telling her age, we are sure glad to see Howard enjoying his 57th birthday. May you have many more.

Mr. and Mrs. Nels Jensen have bought a new car and are visiting at Williams Lake, B.C.

Get well wishes to Pauline Cavanagh and Herman Sch-

Another old-limer who worked here many years ago, is Mr. Fred Lowie who now is working for the Dept. of Transport and is working out at the airport. He came here about 1958 and left in 1957. He worked for the late Bill Kobitsch and threatened with the Stargast also worked for Dennis Fisher's father, Cyril Drover and others. He sees many changes in the Hardisty area and was quite surprised to see the lovely lake at Bott. He calls Millet home now, but is all over the province in the summer time.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Reber and family of Lumsden, Sask. and Mr. and Mrs. Marty Boschman of Edmonton spent Thanksgiving with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Timbolen.

"The Educational Program" is the key to the control of cancer until research develops an effective cure. Many cancers, if diagnosed in an early stage can be cured through conventional medical treatment. The educational program of the Cancer Society provides an outstanding film library: features guest speakers, panelists and displays.

"The research Area" of the Cancer Society and its affiliate of the National Cancer Institute of Canada have developed a program that includes research projects and research fellows, associates and students. Having several research projects in Alberta, a major one in this field is taking place at the J. S. McClellan Cancer Research Laboratory in Edmonton.

ular breast self examination. (7) Have a Pap Test at least once a year.

The "Patient Services" program is to provide services, programs, equipment and material that will help the cancer patient. Surgical dressings including colostomy bags are supplied free to any cancer patient in the province who is being cared for at home. All doctors and hospitals have a supply of the Society's requisition forms for these materials. Also hospital equipment such as beds, wheelchairs, overbed tables, bed pans, urinals and other items; these can be kept as long as required. Assistance for some other services is available when a financial need has been established.

Students Visit Press

Miss Dodman's class visited the Community Press on Wednesday afternoon for a tour of the shop. Present were Edward Gould, Jack Watkins, Glenda Erickson, Margaret Glenic, Shirley Burr, Dawn Erickson, Dennis Burr and Gary Whitehead. They were accompanied by Miss Elaine Dodman.

The Knox United Church in Daysland held a 70th Anniversary service and reunion on Sunday, Oct. 12, 1975.

It began with a church service at 11:00 a.m., by Rev. Armstrong assisted by Mr. John Gardner of Edmonton, and with a choir of new and old members, a solo and a duet.

A dinner was served in the community hall where over 250 people gathered. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schmidt had charge of the guest book, assisted by Mr. Grant Bowley.

M.C. for the afternoon was Mr. John Gardner, who had lived in Daysland many years ago. He extended a welcome to all those returning to Daysland for the occasion. Mrs. Ann Duggs, as hostess, also welcomed the guests.

A sing-a-long was enjoyed by all as well as a solo by Mr. Reynaldo Roberto of Edmonton. He also sang in a duet with Miss Karoline Kent of Daysland.

Recognition was given members and visitors from 1905 to 1975 when the church was first started. In Daysland the Methodists and Presbyterians. Then those from 1917 to 1925 when joined by Union and United. Then from 1925 to 1942 United to Amalgamation. Each were presented with a souvenir plate. Telegrams and letters were read from those unable to attend. Mrs. Lucas (nee Daisy Nelson), the first baby born in Daysland, now resides in Wetaskiwin and was present to renew acquaintances.

Mr. Frank Moore gave a brief history of the church in Daysland from 1905 to the present.

School-public library now one at Killam

by Doris Milne

One of the first actions of the newly appointed municipal library board has been to sign an agreement with the county to establish a public library within the Killam public school.

When the public library merges with the school library sometime in the next few months it will mean an expanded service for Killam and district residents.

The library will be open to the public for set times during school hours and seven hours a week outside of regular school hours. The library will also be able to order in specific books requested or books on certain subjects and provide them to residents for the normal lending time.

Until the public library opens in the school the present library will continue to function (continued on page 5)

Let's Talk It Over

A couple pleasant jobs to do this week, delivering a cheque to Her Worship, Mrs. Blaser of Heston, for the amount of $23,000. These funds are provided as a street improvement grant and are a part of a Gov't of Alberta program to assist town and village councils to improve local conditions. Also to Mayor De Wolfe of Banham under the same program, a cheque for $25,540, and to the village of Forest-burg, $34,940.

Last Wednesday, the Minister of Hospitals and Medical Care, along with the President of the Alberta Medical Assoc., the chairman of the Hospital Commission and the President of the University Hospital Board visited the Daysland Hospital. This was part of a tour of a number of Hospitals visited in East Central Alta. This group also had a meeting with the Flagstaff Hospital Board and Gordon Ministry indicated that if the Board could prove the need, he could see no reason for that part of the old Hospital that is presently vacant be put to better use such as a nursing home.
Last spring during talks with the Edberg Local of Uniform, it was suggested that Dried Meat Lake be zoned a game sanctuary for deer. A petition of land owners follows plus a letter of agreement from the County of Camrose and the Camrose Fish and Game Association. The Dept. of Wildlife has always been cool to the idea of a Game Preserve for this area and last week I again met with Gordon Kerr, Director of Wildlife for the province. He suggested that we look at game management area for the whole length of the Battle River basin from Battle Lake to the Sask. border. This game management area could include some areas closed for the protection of deer and would allow deer licenses in proportion to the deer population or in other words, a more manageable deer harvest. The idea to me has some merit and I will be contacting the Edberg Local and other groups as to their reaction to a game management area for Battle River.

Anyone having suggestions, either pro or con, to this idea,
I would appreciate hearing from them.

Alberta's hidden heroes

Presenting the 1975 Alberta Junior Citizens of the Year

There are many "hidden heroes" in Alberta — fine young people who, through acts of bravery, initiative, selflessness or social responsibility, are quietly making their contributions in our province.
Each year, with the help of proud Albertans and the Alberta
Weekly Newspapers Association, we select several of these youths to receive Alberta

Junior Citizen of the Year Awards.
In 1975, as always, there were many deserving candidates. We salute them all and welcome the winners to our Honor Roll. Their example proves that the spirit and values that built our province still exist
— both today and for our future.

The Social Convener made a motion that we hold the first party October 17th, from 7 to 11 p.m.

The Foster Child fund collector said that the school no longer has a foster child because of the fact that we did not send the money required to foster parents.

At the cross country race at Hardisty, the lunch convener came in first, Sedgewick 2nd, Hardy 3rd, Jayland 4th and Heisler 5th. Girls: Hardy was 1st, K'lon and Heisler tied for 2nd and Sedgewick was third.

hull at the back of the fire-hall. It is now open Thursdays after school from 4 pm to 5:30 and Thursday evenings from 7:30 to 9 pm, as well as Saturdays from 2 to 4 pm.

At the organizational meeting of the new Killam and District Public Library Board, Terry Tiffen, public school principal, was named chairperson. Jack Sparrow, who is in charge of the present school library, is vice-chairperson, and Doris Milke is secretary and acting treasurer.

Killam town council at their Oct. 2 meeting passed a by-law setting up the municipal library board under the provincial libraries act and appointed nine persons to the board for three year terms, William Stang, Gerlie Slavic, and Doris Milke, for two year terms, Harry Kousowatz, Dutton, and Carol Cavanaugh, and for one year terms, Jack Sparrow, Margaret Manning, and Doris Freidrich. Mr. Tiffen was appointed to the board by the County School Committee as their representative.

Following the wishes of the first public meeting on library facilities September 9, the new board decided to sign the agreement with the County School Committee to establish a school-based public library.

The agreement allows for the book collections of the public library and the school library to be consolidated into one book stock which will be available to both students and the general public. The library room will be maintained, heated and cleaned by the county and washrooms will be available to library patrons.

The school's librarian-clerk, Margaret Lewis, will be head librarian and will manage the library, set hours, fees and levy fines. She will be responsible for the library during school hours and the library board will be arranging for volunteer staff to keep the library open the seven hours a week outside school hours. Books and other items placed in the library by the county or the library board will remain the property of the party purchasing them, providing them and the library will imprint an ownership stamp on each article and keep records on ownership.

The agreement which is to be in effect for two years has been approved by the county school committee at their Oct. 2 meeting. After the initial two-year period the agreement is renewed on annual basis. Should the agreement be terminated it will be possible to separate property because of the ownership records and stamping.

Legislature report

Alberta law may soon be rewritten to give husbands and wives who break up properly equal title to property they build up together while married.

After four years study and an Alberta case that caused national controversy, leading lawyers now recommend formally recognizing both spouses' contributions to family finances.

The Industrial Institute of Law Research and Reform in a 195 page report projects the "separation of property" doctrine the Supreme Court of Canada applied in the famous Murdoch case.

In its 1974 Murdoch ruling, the court said a ranch wife could not claim any property her husband acquired as a result of the couple's joint effort while they stuck together.

The rule means a spouse holding assets owned through a company, for example, in property disputes, husbands and wives have no more say than each other's holdings than strangers. All the poorer spouse can do is plead support.

New rules should be passed "on the principle that a husband and wife carry on their married life for their mutual benefit and account," the institute says. Unpaid homemaking and caring for children would be as valuable as paid jobs.

In its post-election three speech, the Lougheed government promised new marital property rules. A public opinion survey the institute took will help shape MLAs into action.

Of 1,500 people interviewed in the survey, most saw spouses as joint owners of homes, furniture, cars, stockholdings, securities and all other assets.

"Even businesses acquired since marriage were considered to be property of husband and wife by somewhat more than half who owned businesses. There was no significant difference between the responses of husbands and wives."

The seven member institute study panel split, however, over how to divide up property when marriages fail, and over just what assets should be included in the sharing.

The majority wants to divide only gains made after marriage. It's individual inheritance, pits and assets spouse held when they went to the altar.

A tougher minority wants the courts to have complete discretion over any sharing, but to include all assets a couple has, regardless of how or when they were acquired.

Both schemes offer escape hatches. Using court-approved contracts, couples could agree to their own sharing formula. And awards could be varied if one spouse was "bad" and failed to contribute responsibly to the family over the years.

The October meeting of the Hardisty Legion Auxiliary was brought to order with 10 Auxiliary and 4 Legion members present.

Mrs. Barb Matthews reported that she and Mrs. Nettie Johnston visited with Mrs. Clinton to return the Auxiliary's original gavel. The gavel had been fashioned for the Auxiliary by the late Mr. Cantelon when the Auxiliary was first founded.

The President reported that of the 800 light bulbs that were ordered, 750 bulbs had been sold. The remaining 50 bulbs were placed in front of the members. The golden light bulbs are to represent the 50th Anniversary of the Royal Canadian Legion in 1976.

A letter of thanks was received from the Polio Foundation thanking the Auxiliary for their donation of $41.75. The donation was the profit made on the bake table at the Spring tea.

It was reported that the Hut floor had been refinished in Sept. The president thanked all the ladies who helped in the undertaking.

The Auxiliary decided to buy a new lock for the Hut door. Comrade George Kruseer said that when he could, he would install the lock.

After a discussion, it was decided to donate the sum of $10. towards the St. Citizens Drop-In Centre.

After a discussion between Auxiliary and Legion members it was decided to have a banquet and social on the evening of November 11.

Hardisty Happenings

The Lougheed Bingo Monday night appeal was a very successful venture - at least for Hardisty bingo players! Betty Hopfe led on the black-out and won, which was a lovely sewing cabinet. She also won a pair of sheets. Eddie Manning and Isabel Nelson each went home with a blanket. Doris Powell won a pair of sheets, and Doreen Bell, who very seldom attends a bingo, won a number of lovely towels. A novelty gift was given to the one who came the farthest, and a lady from Kamloops knew her mile, while a lady from Langenburg Saak didn't give her miles, so Kamloops was her prize. However, Langenburg is east of Yorkton, not far from the Manitoba border, so she was a close runner-up.

Hardisty is indeed grateful to learn that donors have been for the Senior Citizens housing and hope to activity in that direction shortly.

Fred Blackwell and Isabel Nelson had the pleasure of meeting our postmaster's wife on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Rothmeier attended a wedding in Provost Saturday afternoon and an anniversary at Bodo on Sunday. As they both originally come from that part of the country, I imagine they met many old friends.

Mrs. Lottie Kells and her daughter Mrs. Leona Kells of Provost also attended a wedding in Provost on Saturday. Mrs. Kells is back in her home again, and her daughter Leona is spending some time with her.

Your reporter met a nice couple with two little boys, from Anaheim, California, in the cold wash. They evidently like our part of the country as they were here for holidays last year too. They said it was 106 degrees before they left, and were surprised to find meat cheaper in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Sampson of Edmonton spent the weekend in Hardisty, visiting relatives and combining a bit of business too.

The Rufus Hurleys and two boys from Oyen were at the Perry Provost for Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. Stan Lemski have returned from visiting their daughter in Halifax. While they were there, they called on the former Sisters from Hardisty. They had dinner with Sister Henry and she asked about everyone, and wished to be remembered to all her friends here.

It was a busy day for the Sisters that day, as Sister Elizabeth Selton, the founder, I believe, of that order of the Sisters of Charity, was being recognized as a Saint. Sister Grace Marie was busy with activities in this regard. Ann Fyfe is also there, and Sister Clare, who left Hardisty for Wetaskiwin, is now in Boston.

Thanks Stan, it's always nice to hear about our former friends of the hospital.

The Lemskis spent Thanksgiving with their daughter Jean's in-laws at Devon, and much to their surprise, Jean and her little one arrived from Vancouver, driving the distance after a last minute decision to come. So it was a happy day for all.

The Ken Blackwells had a family reunion in Saskatoon at Thanksgiving. All the family except a daughter and Ken's mother were able to attend and enjoy a lovely meal at the Beesborough Hotel.

Mrs. Myrna Akers and family of Edmonton spent Thanksgiving with her mother, Mrs. June Bone. June's daughter Marcia and George Hagen were also home for Thanksgiving.

If you see a new red Camaro driving around over these days, you will know that Doug Bone is home. He has just finished a job at Olds with a survey company.

Glad to hear that Johnnie Akers is feeling fine again and is back with the survey company also.

Correction re Hospital Auxiliary notes: The donation of $25.00 was from Mr. and Mrs. Nils Haugen of Lougheed, not Hugerhuden. Sorry folks.

J. S. Cavanagh has returned home after taking Pauline to Edmonton. She stayed in the city as far as the close to the hospital. We wish her well after all her tests.

Jim also saw Hugh Duncan and we're glad to hear that he is on the mend, but it will take time.

Ways to Get all the Heat You Pay for This Winter.

1 No matter what kind of heating system you have, you should check it periodically to ensure that it is in safe, efficient, working order. Check that your vents, ducts or radiators are not restricted by furniture or carpets and are free of dust and lint which can reduce efficiency.

2 Don't reduce the air circulation through your furnace because of a dust-clogged filter. Disposable (glass fibre) filters should normally be cleaned monthly and replaced twice a year. Permanent type filters should be cleaned and re-sprayed periodically (ask your heating contractor for servicing information if in doubt).

3 A humidifier, if you don't already have one, can save fuel by controlling the relative humidity. You will feel more comfortable at a lower temperature if the relative humidity is reasonably high.

4 If you use a garage heater, install adequate insulation in the garage if you wish to use it for a workshop or other than car storage. Adjust the heater for minimum levels when the garage is used for vehicle storage only.

5 Once you set room thermostats at your family's lowest comfort level, you should not have to touch them again regardless of variations in outdoor temperatures except to reduce the temperature at night for sleeping comfort. In fact, moving thermostats up and down increases your heating costs.

6 If you have a fireplace keep the damper closed when the fireplace is not in use. Shut off heat to unused rooms and keep door closed. Close registers to basement, rumpus or recreation rooms if not used regularly. Draw drapes at night to cut heat loss and open them in the day to let sun warm your rooms. Even a winter sun helps keep your home warm.

7 Proper insulation can be your single biggest money and energy saver. Areas to check are attic and outside walls. We recommend a minimum of three inches in ceiling and two inches in walls. If you are uncertain about insulation, have an expert check it.

8 Check the weather stripping on doors and windows. This can be especially important if you live in an older home. Add storm windows and doors where necessary. Avoid drafts, but do not plug up small air leaks - making your home "airtight." Gas appliances, like you, need fresh air.

Well-known lady passes

Mrs. Letitia May York was born June 24, 1882, at Glade Run, Pennsylvania; the second youngest of seven children of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Foster.
 As a child she moved with her family to Allan, Saskatchewan where in 1910 she was united in marriage to Mr. William Fairweather.

Following periods of residence in Southey, Regina and Govan, Sask., the family moved to Killam in 1932, where she has since resided.

Following the passing of Mr.
 Fairweather in 1958 she served for some time as Matron of the Central High School Dormitory in Sedgewick. In 1952 she was married to Mr.
 D. Vasker York, who resided in Killam. She was predeceased by her five brothers and one sister.

Mrs. York passed away peacefully in the Flapjack Auxiliary Hospital on Tuesday morning, Sept. 23rd at the age of 83 years.

She is survived by two daughters: Grace Mrs. Robert Schmidt of Agincourt, Ontario and Edna Mrs. Edgar Fox of Killam, and by 7 grandchildren and 7 great grandchildren.
 Also surviving are two stepdaughters: Eva Mrs. (Hilda Roberts) of Victoria,
 B.C. and Madge Mrs. John DeVos of Surrey, B.C. and their families.

Mrs. York was a member of 45 years standing in the Rebekah Lodge and a Life Member in the W.M.S. of the Presbyterian Church.

Funeral services were conducted by the Reverend Larry Lin from the Killam Presbyterian Church on Friday, September 23rd Pallbearers were Messrs James Grant, Sidney
 J. MacLennan, John Lawton, Lewis, Joe Prince and Joe Scott.

A meeting of the Board of Directors of Calgary Power Ltd. held Sept. 16, 1975 approved a final prospectus relating to an underwritten offering of 1,200,000 Class A common shares at a price to the public of $25 per share.
 The underwriter was also approved an option to purchase up to 120,000 additional Class A common shares to cover overallotments and if the option is exercised, the shares will be offered by the prospectus at the same price to the public.

THE family of Mrs. Letitia York extend appreciation and thanks to Dr. Amin and the Sisters and Staff of the Auxiliary for the care given during her hospitalization. Sincere thanks also are extended to those who in many varied ways expressed sympathy and understanding at the time of her passing.

A HECTIC TIME - As our readers are aware, this newspaper was late last week, and shown above is the reason why. The large newspaper press was moved from Alliance to Sedgewick.

Plans had been made well ahead of time in an effort to make the move between "press runs". But, as Burns so ably put it "The best laid plans of mice and men..."

 After some extra hours of labour and assistance from the electricians, builders and staff, the paper "went to bed" on Friday last week.

With the move to Sedgewick, the publisher hopes to be better able to schedule the printing of the two papers.

An opportunity for Albertans

An information program has been launched by an investment dealer in Alberta to acquaint Albertans with the opportunity available to participate financially in Canada's largest investor-owned electric utility, Calgary Power Ltd.

Called "An Opportunity for Albertans" the program is intended to provide broad provincial coverage to ensure all Albertans have an opportunity to invest in Calgary Power, if they wish to do so.

Calgary Power Ltd. serves over 64% of Alberta's electric energy requirements in a service area of more than 75,000 square miles. Currently, more than 98% of the utility's common shares are held in Canada.

A.W. Howard, Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer, said the company is planning a new public offering of common shares in the near future, and in doing so, wants to ensure Albertans are aware of the opportunity to invest.

"Since we are a utility company operating within Albert's boundaries, we would like to see an increase in the number of Albertans holding common shares. We have instructed our investment dealers to pay particular attention to the Alberta market," explained Mr. Howard.

"They have responded by devoting the program to pre-vide Albertans with the opportunity to invest, if they wish to do so. Representatives of the investment dealers will be circulating within Alberta, making themselves available for consultation in more than 20 centres, primarily served by Calgary Power," said Mr.
 Howard.

With this common share issue, we want to retain our Canadian identity, and enhance our Alberta status as much as possible," said Mr.
 Howard.

IN THIS CORNER...

Try To Hold On

"I do not think that I can hold on much longer." Such are the words of someone who is feeling that he or she is falling apart. Often we hear the expression, "I want to pieces." And this implies that someone breaks down and was no longer able to cope with the circumstances of their life. Pressures of many kinds are being experienced by many people in all walks of life and many are reaching that point of breaking beyond which they cannot safely pass.

It is for the benefit of such people that I write these few words, because I know something of the mental pain which so many are enduring. Perhaps the first observation that I would like to share is that most of us become more familiar with our problems than we are with Him who is the solution to all of them. In the Book of Job are the words, "Acquaint yourself with Him and be at peace..." (Job 22:1). You see we become very well acquainted with our problems and we are not acquainted with Him who is the solution to all of them. We become fearful and depressed and sink in an abyss of hopelessness.

Yet, supposing that we could know for certain that surrounding us constantly there is a love so beautiful that it surpasses all our understanding. Suppose that we could know as a reality that available to us there is a power of such immensity that it can endure and overcome all things. Supposing we could know for a certainty that everything is going to work out, and something good will emerge from the debris of our problems. Supposing that we could know for sure that incredible help is available to us and that the darkness will pass, and it will be light again. Suppose that such things could be known for sure, then would it not be possible for us to "hold on for a little longer?"

All of the things I have mentioned can be known for sure, once you have become acquainted with Him who is the Solution to All Problems. You know that if for a moment we could lift our eyes above our present darkness and distress we would be able to see the "Light and Peace of His Presence." It is when we know that the Lord is close at hand that you can echo the Prophet Micah and say "Rejoice not against me, O mine enemy. When I fall, I shall arise and when I sit in darkness, the Lord shall be as light about me."

If you are going through a difficult time, remember these words, repeat them frequently but above all, "Acquaint now thyself with Him and be at peace."

USE THE CLASSIFIED AD

OUR TOWN

Use Straw In Feed

by Glen Werner, D.A.

Straw is adequate for beef cow winter maintenance rations, providing it is properly supplemented with protein, minerals and vitamins.

However, it is important that straw which is going to be used as feed be baled as soon as possible after it has been combined and that it be stacked immediately after it has been baled. Even a slight amount of rain can cause rapid deterioration and reduce the straw's feeding value.

Although wheat, oat and barley straw all normally contain 70 to 80 per cent of the energy level of good quality hay, the crude protein level is usually only about 4 per cent, and only about a quarter of this 4 per cent can be used by an animal. Hence, the need for additional protein when a

The good quality grass hay, the alfalfa hay, the straw and the grain used in each ration has a minimum of 9 per cent protein. 10 per cent crude protein, 4 percent crude protein and 10 per cent crude protein respectively.

Ration 1: 20 lb. good quality grass hay; salt, mineral and vitamin supplements added.

Ration 2: 10 lb. straw; 13 lb. good quality grass hay; salt, mineral and vitamin supplements added.

Ration 3: 15 lb. straw; 7 lb. alfalfa hay; salt, mineral, and vitamin supplements added.

Ration 4: 10 lb. straw; 6.5 lb. grain; 12.5 lb. 32 per cent protein supplement; salt, mineral and vitamin supplements added.

Mr. Berg recommends grinding and thoroughly mixing all the components of the rations to prevent cows from eating the hay or grain and leaving the straw, as sometimes happens.

If you need help putting together a ration for your stock, just bring your analysis reports into our office.

Kindergarten to alternate

The Sedgewick Loughheed kindergarten children have been very busy in the recent weeks, as they toured the Sedgewick firehall, the Lodge in Sedgewick and Zane Parson's farm.

Their teacher, Mrs. Donna

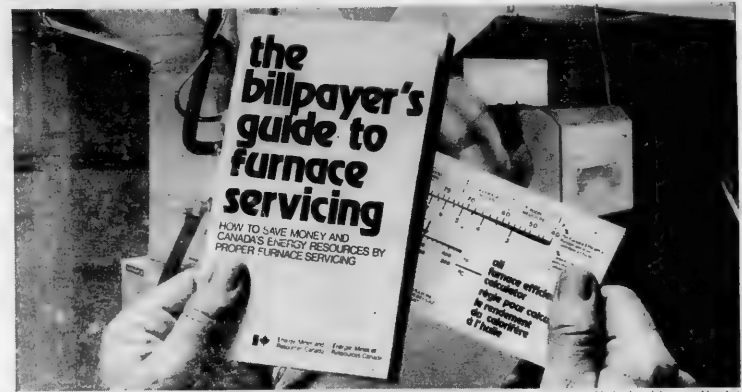

Poleg spent some time in the Killam hospital and we were fortunate to have Mrs. Velma Armitage as substitute teacher.

The parents, under the supervision of Crawford Thors, made two tables, supply bags, bean bags and a sink stool for the children.

As of Oct. 15, the kindergarten class has been divided into a morning and an afternoon class. Both groups will attend the morning class for a Halloween party on Oct. 31st. Parents are invited to attend.

Use this calculator to measure the efficiency of your oil or gas furnace. The book explains everything that you and your serviceman should do to save fuel and money. Both free when you send in the coupon below.

How much of your heating dollar is going up in smoke?

Get your furnace in shape for winter—so you can be both warm and a little richer. You'll cut your fuel bill by as much as 25%, and help to conserve Canada's fast-dwindling energy reserves:

AS A NATION we waste more energy than some countries consume in total. We're on an energy binge that we can't no longer afford. Misused cut-backs now will be easier to face than shortages and even higher prices in a few years time.

For every $100 you spend on energy at home, more than half of it goes into heating. So your furnace is a great place to start saving.

Is your oil furnace working at top efficiency? Find out:

Look for a dirty flame. Lift the flap that covers the small hole on the front of your furnace. If you see black smoke coming from the tip of the flame, your burner needs adjustment. Call the serviceman.

Inspect for soot. Shut the furnace off and poke a flashlight inside the box. An accumulation of soot means it's time for a service call.

Check the barometric damper. This valve between the furnace and chimney pumps open and shut as the wind blows and as the furnace runs in and out. If it sticks in any position, you're wasting energy.

Put your serviceman to work twice a year.

A thorough oil furnace check-up in summer and mid-winter can cut as much as 25% from your fuel bill. If you have a gas furnace it should be checked once a year.

Remember, it will take a year's serviceman about two hours to do a good job on an oil furnace (somewhat less on gas).

He should remove soot from the firepot, heat exchanger and pipes; check the stack temperature; perhaps try an oil nozzle 10% to 20% smaller (or the lowest firing rate recommended for your furnace).

If you're paying for a complete check of the furnace and heating system, make sure you get it. Start by reading The Billpayer's Guide to Furnace Servicing.

This free book explains everything that you and your serviceman should do to save fuel and money. (See coupon below.) It has a complete oil and gas furnace checklist, and a calculator for determining overall furnace efficiency.

Dropping your setting from 72 to 68° will save about 10%. If each of us saves 10%, Canada will conserve 8 million barrels of oil and 24 million cubic feet of natural gas each year.

It's time to pay the piper.

We can't live in the future as we do now. The resources simply won't be available. Here are two facts to ponder:

- If we continue to consume at our present rate of increase, Canada will need twice as much energy in 12 years.
- The capital costs of developing new sources of energy will soar to $410 billion over the next 10 years—an investment of about $20,000 for each Canadian family.

It's no longer a matter of choice. We must save energy to save ourselves.

Free information to help us all.

TWO FREE BOOKS: The Billpayer's Guide to Furnace Servicing shows you how to save fuel by proper furnace servicing. It explains what you can do, and what your serviceman should do. Free when you send in the coupon.

100 Ways to Save Energy and Money in the Home has 160 pages—80 of them to help you get the most heating efficiency at the lowest cost.

DELEGATION
Montana 1975
4-H CLUB CONGRESS

by Helen Nikiforuk
One of the highlights of my summer activities was a trip, accompanied by nine 4-H leaders from the northern part of the province, to the 30th Montana State 4-H Congress at Bozeman.

After two days of travelling (in two cars) we were billeted at the Montana State University, where all the activities were held. Many of the University students are still 4-H members.

We sat in on a Leaders meeting, where we learned of their foundation and ground-work of their 4-H system. We listened in on the Public Speaking finals, which were superb, the dress revue was fantastic, from casual, western to formal, all garments made by the members.

One afternoon was devoted to demonstrations, by members from all the clubs all over the state. Some of the demonstrations were: spinning, tractor safety, photography, how to make a corsage, what makes your car run, to grandma's old fashioned doughnuts, and many many others. Many of the members were competing for a variety of out-state trips and other awards.

"Bobcat" Coach, Sunny Holland told the assembly of more than 700 that competition and learning is what 4-H is all about. 4-H can and does provide the opportunity for you to be great. He compared football coaching to farming, with people and good planning what makes each successful. "Today's youth have tougher decisions to make than their mums and dads," Holland said. He urged the 4-Hers to "avoid a defence loaded against you — the car with a driver who has been drinking or the bad colored cigarette." He added "It takes courage at the scrimmage line to change the play."

President Dick Rolfe of the University 4-H Club added "4-H competition combines good cheer, fun, learning experience and abiding by the rules."

The banquet, awards, dance and flag (American, Canadian and 4-H) folding ceremonies brought the Congress to an end.

I found this experience at the Congress very stimulating and rewarding and enjoyable. The club to the Dept. of Culture, Youth and Recreation, Calgary and Alberta Power Companies. On the return trip home we visited Yellowstone National Park, saw Old Faithful geyser erupting, covered the earthquake scene, Virginia City, predominating scenes, "antiques" and lots of beautiful scenery.

Readers: Support your local 4-H Clubs, give them a boost, be proud to live in your community.

KILLAM NIMBLE THIMBLE
The meeting was brought to order with Mimi Deabreu leading "O Canada" and Jackie Collins the 4-H pledge. Happy Birthday was sung to the members and mothers having birthdays in April thru' to October.

The secretary's report was read and adopted.

Our Vice-president will be Jackie Collins.

Our group leaders are:
Unit 1, Mrs. Nikiforuk and Mrs. Carol Wilson; Unit 2, Mrs. Graff and Miss Gayle Nikiforuk; Unit 3, Mrs. Spiller and Mrs. Hoffman; Knitting Instructor, Mrs. Ruby Wilson; Larch Convener, Mrs. Maureen Collins.

Mrs. Knevel made a motion that we pay the way for our assistant leader attending the 4-H convention. Mrs. Ruby Wilson seconded that motion. Mrs. Graff made a motion that we contribute $25. to the Agri-plex, seconded by Mrs. Knevel.

Mrs. Gaume made a motion that we sell tickets on a quilt for our bazaar, seconded by Gayle Nikiforuk, Valerie Doyle and Elaine Manning volunteered to make the tickets.

Deanna Wilson adjourned the meeting. Mrs. Knevel instructed the girls in a short public speaking practice.

We broke up into our groups. Lunch was served.

Keeping in touch

There are two interesting issues centering on the question of law and order that both lead to the same fundamental question. One has been the recent demands by prisoners across Canada to establish and operate a prisoners' union; the other is the dormant but potentially alive Bill C-22, which is an intent to change The Elections Act to grant prisoners the right to vote.

In both the above situations, what the prisoners are asking for is the opportunity to exercise basic rights. Perhaps that request underscores the fundamental misconception that many prisoners have about the objectives of a prison sentence. Clearly, the most essential reason for sentencing a person to prison is to extract him from society because he has breached the established law of the land and, therefore, has forfeited many of the basic rights that would normally exist in the society. In essence, it ought to be the thrust for the return to basic rights that is the motivating factor that encourages prisoners to desire release and then behave in a way whereby they can retain these basic privileges. Obviously, if prisons grant all of the social amenities within the confines of the prison system that are offered in the world at large, then obviously all that society has created is an institution whereby those who would rather be "looked after" than go out and fend for themselves can seek refuge from the normal expectations of responsibility.

Clearly the concept of a union in prisons and the right for prisoners to vote is utter nonsense, if Bill C-22 were to come before Parliament in the coming session, it would be my intention to vote against the Bill.

On a very different note, I wish to share with constituents that I have installed a telephone answering system at the home farm. This small gadget attaches to my telephone and has an electronic device where I can leave a message for the caller and, in turn, you can leave a message that is private and confidential from all except myself. It is truly my hope that the unit will not need to be used often, the expectations being that there will be occasions when there is no one in the farmhouse for a period of time.

Those who have ever called an office and been greeted by a telephone answering system will be well aware of how cool the reception of technology can be. I recognize fully that the above system is far less personal than being at the phone myself. I just consider it somewhat less insulting than having a phone ring on at infinity without anyone being available to answer; and, of course, on occasion that situation will be necessary.

I have now relocated to my Ottawa office in preparation for the fall session and a number of pre-session Committee meetings. In this regard, the home office telephone answering system will be a tremendous help in assisting me to maintain contact with constituents. So, the system is in, even though I recognize that it is a second class method

HARVESTY TRACK MEET

The Hardesty Track & Field Club held a very successful Track Meet in the Arena on Saturday, October 26th. Over 70 athletes competed in different events and a total of 53 different people won ribbons.

The following did extremely well in their age groupings, winning more than one ribbon:

Free Wee Girls: Leona Wegman (Kilham) 3 firsts, Shari Lukers (Hardesty) 1 first and 2 seconds.

Free Wee Boys: Barry Bagdan (Kilham) 3 firsts, Jim Owen (Irma) 1 first, 2 sec.; Bantam Girls: Jackie Coates (Loughheed) 4 firsts, 1 second; Karen Cressy (Hardesty), 1 first, 1 second and 3 thirds; Shelly Dion (Hardesty) 1 first and 2 seconds.

Bantam Boys: Greg Fisher (Irma) 4 firsts; Cory Gibruck (Sedgewick) 3 seconds; Midget Girls: Becky Johansson (Hardesty) 2 firsts, 1 second; Dawn Sanko (Hardesty) 1 first, 1 second, 1 third.

Midget Boys: Len Parsons (Irma) 3 firsts; Brian Gulbraa (Irma) 1 second.

The athletes who braved the cold and the wet running surface are to be commended for their sportsmanship, as well as officials who gave up much of their day on Sunday. A special bouquet goes to Mario Watkins and family who efficiently operated the booth.

And, if no concrete announcements have resulted from it yet, the premier and 25 "citizen advisers" he took along feel that the dividends of the investment will appear in future years.

Most of Mr. Loughheed's formal meetings with other political leaders concentrated on selling Prime Minister Trudeau's "third option" foreign policy which stresses the need

Daysland Strippers Graduate

Twelve girls who have finished a course in working towards being a Candy Stripper at the hospital, were honoured by members of the Hospital Auxiliary, Tuesday, Oct. 21st at the United Church, Social room. The girls marched in to stand until "O Canada" was played.

Mrs. Anna Boggs as chairman for the evening, called on the following speakers:

Mr. George Cramton, in the absence of Mr. Myer, spoke to the girls on behalf of the Hospital Board.

Mr. H. Narine on behalf of Daysland School, stated that credits were given to the girls for having taken the course.

Representing the mayor, Mr. M. Tarango spoke for the Town Council.

On behalf of the medical staff, Dr. Remy brought greetings to the girls and welcomed their help at the hospital.

Mrs. Alice Wood, director of nursing at Daysland Hospital spoke highly of the work the girls did as candy strippers.

Mrs. Leslie Koehl who had trained the girls, said she enjoyed working with the girls and hoped some of them would become nurses.

Myrna Lorenz, a candy stripper from a former class, spoke briefly and Terry Holte spoke on behalf of the class, and presented Mrs. Koehl with a bouquet of red roses.

Successful European tour concludes

by Kevin Peterson

Premier Peter Lougheed has proclaimed his two week $300 thousand mission to Europe, "an unqualified success... even better than I had hoped."

The mission, 55 people in all and the largest Alberta has ever undertaken, concentrated on four main countries with business contacts, markets and study of social projects its main goals.

And, if no concrete announcements have resulted from it yet, the premier and 25 "citizen advisers" he took along feel that the dividends of the investment will appear in future years.

Most of Mr. Loughheed's formal meetings with other political leaders concentrated on selling Prime Minister Trudeau's "third option" foreign policy which stresses the need for a "contractual link" between Canada and the European Economic Community.

Both Canadian leaders feel the link is essential if Canada is to achieve any presence in the EEC market, apart from the U.S. The written recognition of Canada's special role is particularly important in agriculture where a complicated system of internal support prices and export subsidies virtually shuts out Canadian products.

Mr. Loughheed emerged from his meetings convinced that Canada will achieve its goal: European leaders are "getting down to brass tacks on how I will work" he said as the mission concluded.

The agriculture sub-group of the mission concentrated meanwhile on looking for "windows" in the protective EEC structure where any Canadian goods could slip through. But they emphasized that with Canada designated as an export market by the EEC countries, it will be an uphill struggle.

Mr. Loughheed also went out of his way to tell German businessmen that he is not happy with recent land purchases in the province by European investors. With the likely prospect of the province moving in to stop foreign land buyers that have driven prices out of the reach of young farmers, he told a black-tie gathering of German business leaders they should not buy land as a hedge against inflation or investment here.

Such reclamation techniques may not be applicable in the making of arable land, but they do show that minor scars such as gravel pits across Alberta can be reclaimed by companies and turned back for agricultural use.

Throughout the journey Mr. Loughheed and the four ministers accompanying him emphasized that Alberta now represents a land of opportunity. Instead of looking for loans, they told businessmen that with a guaranteed supply of energy and stable government, businessmen should be looking to Alberta instead of vice versa.

Live The Christian Life

Why is it that so many of us have been Christians for so many years but find it difficult to live the Christian life? Perhaps the answer is to be found in the fact that many of us are imitators of Christians. We are imitating Christian love.

Paul writes: "Let there be no imitation of Christians love among you." (Romans 12:9, Philippians) The person who imitates love is a narrow kind of religion. He or she may be doctrinally sound and give to church every Sunday but then turn around turning people off, boring people, hurting people or simply being unable to relate and love in a meaningful way.

Jesus commands us "to love as I have loved you." Here He is talking about relationships—the relations between persons. The inability to love is a spiritual cancer at the very heart of some of the most dynamic churches. Indeed, many beautiful churches are brushed by the inability "to love as I have loved you." They become judgmental and pharisaical. Jesus had some pretty hard words for these kind of persons.

How can you discover right relationships with persons or in the group?

(1) Identify with people. This is what the coming of Jesus means. Jesus came to be where we are and identifies with you and me. The incarnation principle means that we are to go where people are hurting to let them know we care.

(2) Listen to people. "I love you enough to listen." Real listening is never easy. The ministry of listening is rare. Listening means that you hear with your ears and your heart with your mouth closed.

(3) Affirm people. Jesus is God's great affirmation of man. Jesus believed in people, affirmed them, called apostles from the docks, loved prostitutes, pharisees and Samaritans.

(4) Share decision making. We must honor each other by letting the other set goals and determine the future for families and our church.

(5) Don't try changing people. We must be ready to accept people as they are. Jesus did. People see the Christian life by what we are, not by what we say.

(6) Love specifically. To love everyone with Christian love is not enough. Love must have specific persons in view. It's a commitment one to another.

(7) Love sacrificially. Love is vulnerable. There is a risk in loving.

(8) Ask for help. Jesus was always asking for help, for food, for water. Don't be afraid to expose your weakness.

(9) Love in terms of weakness.

(10) Love in terms of weakness.

to the other. Minister to needs rather than what you think the other person wants. Look to Jesus for the way to love. Be free to give yourself to another person. "Love as I have loved you." John 13:15. Ministerial. H. Chappell

DAYSLAND LIONS NEWS

On Thursday, Oct. 16th, the Daysland Lions Club held a farewell party for two of its members who have transferred to other Lions Clubs: John Poleboyko to Vegreville and Bob Tuttle to Camrose. Both members have been most active and our loss is the gain of the other clubs. President Les Daysland Lions are working on Phase II of their Senior Citizen Homes "Westside Mansions". In order to prove the need for such, the Club is conducting a survey to see how many Senior Citizens in Daysland and area are interested in renting a unit in the new project. Interested Senior Citizens are asked to contact Lloyd Gillespie (374-5645) or Les Dolan (374-5651). After the list of prospective renters is made up, Alberta Housing Corp. will be contacting each person on the list to obtain the necessary information to see if an expansion to Westside Mansions is feasible.

Daysland Lions voted to hold a Lions Auction at the Daysland Auction Mart on Wednesday, Nov. 19th and they will be canvassing the area for donations for this auction.

CO-OP SHOPPING

IS COMING SOON!

— and with it comes the benefits of membership in the Forestburg Co-op — the organization that will provide you with the advantages of shopping co-operatively. One dollar is all it takes to become a member of the Forestburg Co-op. This small investment will make you a full-fledged member-owner and will provide you with a membership number.

Beginning with the official opening, each purchase you make will be recorded under your membership number so that at the close of the year, you will know the total value of the purchases you have made. This is important because, as a MEMBER-OWNER, you will be entitled to share in whatever operating surplus has been declared according to the amount of your purchases.

In addition to receiving patronage refunds, you will be able to share in the democratic control of THE BUSINESS YOU OWN by electing a Board of Directors — for which you are also eligible to be nominated, by voting on matters of policy, and by helping to make decisions at membership meetings.

Beginning with the official opening soon to take place, you are invited to step up to membership in the Forestburg Co-op. Remember, though: IT'S ALL VOLUNTARY. You will not require membership to shop at the Co-op, but only members will be able to share in the special advantages of patronage refunds and democratic control. Joining and taking part in co-op affairs are always voluntary matters.

Get ready to "shop co-op".

Watch for the official opening and apply for your membership in the Forestburg Co-op.

The Great Combination

by Glen Werner, D.A.

The program of cash advances to Alberta Cow-Calf Producers will be extended another year, announced Minister of Agriculture, Marvin E. Moore.

The program is designed to provide working capital to carry lightweight calves to heavier weights and avoid current low market prices. "The 1975 advances will be available to all cow-calf producers, including purebred breeders and dairy producers" said Mr. Moore.

Two major changes in the conditions of the loan during the 1975 program from its predecessor. Producers with existing cow-calf producer advance program loans will be required to pay the existing loan with the proceeds of their new loan. Additionally, the loan will be given at a cost of 7 per cent interest to the producer. The true interest rate will be one per cent over the prime lending rate, but the government of Alberta will pay the difference between the two rates.

Mr. Moore said the one-year cash advance of $75 per calf on 80 per cent of the 1975 calf crop would be to a maximum of $8,000 per producer. To be eligible, calves must have been born during 1975 to cows owned by the applicant before August 1st.

Application forms for the advance program will be available on November 18th at the County Office in Sedgewick. Applicants will be required to sign a statutory declaration at the time of applying. Please bear in mind this is a loan which will be obtainable through a lending institution, and is not an outright grant.

Mr. Moore said the Cow-calf producer advance program is necessary as a result of the inaction of the Federal Government.

"The failure of the Federal government to implement realistic support to Canadian cow-calf producers has forced the government of Alberta to extend the program for one more year."

Mr. Moore said the refusal of the Federal government to implement a program appears to be the result of a lobby by the Canadian Cattlemen's Assoc. Mr. Moore said the Canadian Cattlemen's Assoc. does not represent the majority of producers in Alberta and that the other farm organizations should be presenting Ottawa for action. Mr. Moore further stated that "the problems in the beef industry are international, but we have identified signs that adjustments are taking place. It appears 1976 will be a much more favorable year for beef producers in Alberta and therefore, a more favourable time to terminate the cow-calf producers loan."

Cattle inspected for warble grub

by Brian Lee, Ag. Fieldman
All Alberta cattle sold in auction markets and terminal yards next spring will be inspected for warble grubs. The one that are found to have grubs will be treated and the cost of treatment charged to the owner.

The new Alberta Agricultural Pests Act, passed last spring, declared the warble fly a pest in the whole province. However, three districts were allowed to remain outside the provincial regulations which made warble control treatment mandatory. This means that, at the present time, 94 per cent of Alberta cattle are under warble control. Even in the three districts which are exempt, there are a fairly large number of cattle being treated annually.

Ken Spiller, Alberta Agriculture's livestock supervisor, points out that farmers will be much further ahead financially to treat their own cattle than to have them treated at an auction market or terminal yard. Charges for this treatment will be considerably higher than the cost of farm treating.

Mr. Spiller reports that inspection results of all cattle sold through Alberta auction markets and terminal yards last spring showed that approximately 95 per cent of cattle handled by these facilities were free of warble grubs.

Unfortunately, this figure is not quite as encouraging as it looks. A study of the results on a regional basis showed that the proportion of cattle treated varied from a high of 98.3 per cent in some areas to as low as 80 per cent in others. "This situation," says Mr. Spiller, "indicates that beef and dairy producers need to treat their cattle every year. Now is the time to treat both beef cattle and non-milking dairy animals."

Among the systems which are approved for use are Ruene, Neguvon, Epsco Trichlorfon, Spot On and Co-Ral. With the exception of Co-Ral, systems cannot be used during December, January or February. Milking dairy cows should not be treated until next spring and then only with Rotenone powder. Systemic insecticides destroy the small grubs which enter an animal's body after having hatched from eggs laid by the warble or heel fly. The reason that they must be treated between early September and the end of November is that in December they move from the non-vital areas of the body to such vital areas as the spinal cord and the gut. If they are destroyed in these places they will cause adverse side effects to the animal. Systemics also give a limited amount of louse control during the winter months. "Alberta has been a leader in warble control across Canada for the last six years," says Mr. Spiller, "and results are being closely watched by the other provinces. Now that we are so close to eradicating the warble grubs in our cattle, everyone should make a concerted effort to finish the job."

ON METRICS

As many of you are probably aware, the metric system is being introduced in Canada on Sept. 1, 1975, and now announcements and forecasts have been reported in metric units.

Here are a few metric precipitation hints:

If the weatherman tells us that 3 millimeters of rain fell overnight, that can be regarded as not much more than a heavy drizzle. If you are camping and the weatherman says that 100 millimeters (or 10 meters) of rain fell in the mountains last night, better move your tent well away from the side of the stream, that could lead to a flash flood.

If the weatherman tells you to expect 3 centimeters of snow overnight, don't worry, your broom will handle the load next morning. But if he says expect 30 cm. of snow, better get the shovel ready and be prepared to leave a little earlier for work.

Safeguards Benefit Customers

Indignant consumers who fume at the sales clerk in the store when she goes through what may appear to be a long drawn out procedure with regard to credit cards and cheques should consider this. According to the "Canadian Press," a study of 100 letters of the Canadian Association of Chiefs of Police.

A properly conducted retail business must adopt a firm cheque-cashing policy and all staff must adhere to such policy. Most firms are far too casual and glibly about cashing cheques."

Bromby-Gunn exchange vows

The Irma United Church was the scene on July 28, 1975, of the wedding of Muriel Edith, Mrs. Donald Gunn of Irma, and David Andrew, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Bromby of Hardisty. Baskets of yellow and white gladioli decorated the altar. Rev. G. Wilson performed the double ring ceremony.

Escorted to the altar by her father to "Pachelbel's Trumpet Tune", the bride wore a floor length empire-waisted dress of pale yellow crepe trimmed with lace tatted by her mother. Her floor length veil fell from a band of daisies. She carried a bouquet of yellow and white roses. Her jewelry was a cameo brooch worn by the mother of the groom at her wedding and came earrings, a gift from the groom.

Maureen Lukens, maid of honor, and bridesmaids Sharon Newman and Maureen Bradbury, sisters of the bride, all wore floor length dresses of floor crepe in peach, blue and pale green. They carried baskets of white and yellow daisies.

The groom was attended by Terry Hendricks, Aaron Johansson, and Glen Johansson, the groom's brother-in-law. They wore brown tuxedos, with shirts to match the bride's and bridesmaids' dresses. Gary Bromby, brother of the groom, and Jim Bradbury, brother-in-law of the bride, ushered guests.

The organist was Mrs. Don Crenzy. During the ceremony, Louise Galka read "Love" and "Marriage" from Kahlil Gibran's "The Prophet".

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Gunn wore a floor length dress of light green tulle with a sleeveless flowered chiffon coat. Her corsage was a mix sweetheart roses.

Mrs. Bromby chose a floor length dress of white dotted blue jersey. Her corsage was pink sweetheart roses.

The reception was held in the United Church Hall. The bride's table was laid with a lace and linen tablecloth which had belonged to her maternal grandmother. The cake, baked by the bride's mother, was trimmed in yellow by Mrs. Margaret Smith of Irma. It was topped with yellow and white daisies.

Master of Ceremonies was Ron Neuman of Edmonton, the bride's brother-in-law. Mr. A.C. Milne, a long time family friend, proposed the toast to the bride, to which the groom replied.

The groom's sister, Debbie Johansson of Hardisty, was in charge of the guest book. Open house was held in the Irma Ladies Hall, followed by a dance in the Hardisty Elks Hall, with music by the Canadian Race.

For travelling, the bride wore blue slacks with a printed toe to match. Her corsage was yellow roses.

Following a trip to B.C., the bride is living in Grande Prairie.

Peacock-Manning married

St. Paul's United Church in Hardisty was the scene of a beautiful wedding on July 28 at 2:00 p.m. when Marie Phyllis, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Manning of Hardisty, was united in marriage with Dean Allan Peacock, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Peacock of Amisk, Alta.

Reverend Jackson of Hardisty officiated at the double ring ceremony. The radiant bride entered the church on the arm of her father, to the tune of Lohengrin's Wedding March, played by Mrs. Margaret Wall.

The bride was attired in a floor length gown of nylon organza with Venice lace and an attached lace train. Her head piece, a cluster of white daisies was caught by a long net veil trimmed with small white appliques. Her bouquet was at yellow roses entwined with lily of the valley on a wedding ribbon.

The maid of honor was Miss Marilyn Manning, sister of the bride. Miss Darlene Peacock, twin sister of the groom, and Mrs. Laura Lakevold, school friend of the bride, were bridesmaids. They wore floor length floral tulle jersey gowns in pastel shades of yellow, green and peach. Each carried a bouquet of daisies complemented by airsmen matching their gowns and each wore a white picture hat. Their jewellery, heart-shaped gold lockets, were gifts from the bride. Master of Ceremony, Trevor Peacock, nephew of the groom was ring bearer. He carried a heart-shaped white satin pillow with ribbons holding the rings in place.

The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Rick Peacock of Milk River, Mr. Raymond Small of Car, and Mr. Harry Small of Bodo. The groom was attired in a champagne western styled tuxedo touched off with a boutonniere of a white carnation tipped with a yellow rosebud. The groom's attendants wore dark brown tuxedos with shirts to match the bridesmaids' dresses. Ushers were Mr. Ken Sheets, cousin of the groom, and Mr. Allan Manning, brother of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding the bride chose a floor length tulle tulle dress with a turban tipped gladioli corsage. The groom's mother was dressed in a floor length yellow tulle dress with a yellow tipped gladioli corsage.

During the signing of the register, Mr. Ron Sheets, cousin of the groom, sang "The Wedding Song" accompanied by Miss Loretta Manning, a cousin of the bride.

Following the wedding, a reception was held in the Reayth Hall with 140 guests attending. Decorations for the hall were yellow, green and peach streamers leading from a large gold heart with the names of the bride and groom in green flowers surrounded by yellow flowers and an edging of peach flowers. The tables were decorated with three different shades of pinks.

The guest book was presented over at the reception and open house by Miss Linda Sather and Miss Laura Manning, cousins of the bride. Miss Lynn Manning also a cousin of the bride, looked after the gifts.

Reverend Jackson gave the blessing, after which the Royal Uniform ladies served a delicious hot turkey and ham supper.

Master of Ceremony was Mr. Maurice Manning, uncle of the bride. The toast to the bride was proposed by Mr. Fred Crosse, to which the groom ably responded. The toast to the bridesmaids was proposed by Mr. Stan Rutherford with Mr. Rick Peacock replying. After the cutting of the cake, the bride and groom served the wrapped places to the guests. The cake, baked by the bride's mother and decorated by Mrs. Donald Wilder, featured yellow flowers with a cake top of white doves intermingled with lily of the valley and yellow roses.

Mr. Ron Sheets favored the guests with another vocal selection, "On Top of the World". Open house was held in the Reayth Hall. The Storhakk orchestra from Sedgewick supplied music for the dance.

For a short honeymoon trip the bride donned a pink floral tulle pant suit touched off with a mauve tinted orchid.

The happy couple will reside on the groom's farm north of Amisk.

Out-of-town guests were from Port St. John, Edmonton, Provost, Wainwright, Hughenden, Amisk, Car, Bodo, Milk River, Cypress Hills, Penitence, Abbotsford, Calgary, Saskatoon, Vancouver and Red Deer.

Talent show at Hardisty

The Amateur program in the Hardisty Elks Hall on October 2nd, sponsored by St. Mark's Anglican church was an overwhelming success. The hall was filled to capacity with people from a large area.

Rev. Richard Conrad welcomed the crowd, and introduced Mr. Peter Gray, who very capably announced the program.

Seventeen varied entries gave the judges, Mr. Ken Gutmann, Dr. Mitchell and Rev. Jackson a difficult task in selecting the winners.

An interesting home-town number was the Hardisty Melody Makers, consisting of about fifteen youngsters, who sang two numbers, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Owen Baumgartner, with Mrs. Joan Drager, conductress. This group was only formed about a month ago, and won second prize in the show.

The Rittenhouse girls from Alliance played the accordion, guitar and piano. Then Brent Pierce of Irma paid the saxophone, accompanied by Doreen Bell on the piano. It was delightful to learn that these two numbers tied for 3rd.

Two brothers from Brownfield, Gene and Rodney Waldstein sang and played, each singing individually, and Gene was awarded first prize. Must have been his song "Wasted Days and Wasted Nights" which proved to not be wasted after all.

A humorous skit was put on by the "Hardisty Hillbillys", called "Money for the mortgage on the cow", which was quite entertaining.

Mrs. Cantion gave one of her humorous recitations. Piano solos were in the majority, but it was a good variety program.

Much credit goes to the members of St. Mark's for all the organization and hours spent arranging for entries and making the program run very smoothly.

The door prize was won by Ted Roen.

Hardisty Happenings

The Camrose and District Multiple Sclerosis Society were selling tickets on an oil painting of Sundance Canyon, and we congratulate Mrs. Geraldine Metz on winning this lovely picture.

A lady from Breton, Mrs. Welling, visited her sister in West, B.C. and met our well known friend, Freddie Gibbs. They were married in October. She was decorated with good wishes for many years ahead. Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Kneller and Ricky of Camrose visited Beatrice's mother, Mrs. Nellie Johnston and they celebrated Thanksgiving by taking the Wayne Blazers and Nettie out to a Chinese food supper at the Park Cafe.

Beatrice and Ervin had reasons to be very thankful that their son Kenny was well and alive after being buried alive in a cave-in. Someone was there to uncover his head and the last thing he saw in that terrible situation. Although he did suffer a broken collar bone, he is lucky to be with us.

The antelope have been very plentiful this year in that country and are often seen out on the road.

Brian Stuart is in Dayton, Ohio but with the magnetic actions by letter bill, his parents are wondering how he's getting along.

The Elks Mini Jackpot Bingo of $40.00 was won by Thelma Fisher, while Mrs. Barbe Matthews won the big one of $130. Congratulations, ladies!

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Fairfield of Gunn and Edmonton, have been honeymooning in the Barbados, using a trip won by Mrs. Fairfield some months before their marriage.

Harold and Almee Moody, accompanied by Mrs. Cantion, motored to Brandon, Man., recently to attend a wedding of Mrs. Cantion's granddaughter. Incidentally, one notable feature of the trip in crossing Saskatchewan, was the vast expanse of flat treeless prairie. Rams to play for top spot

On Saturday, November 1st, the Central High Rams beat Lloydminster Barons 28 - 21 in the semifinal game of the Wheatland Football League.

The Rams, who were trailing 21 - 0 at half-time, never quit. Kim Sae led the way with two touchdowns, while Bob Siesman and Steve Maturse each got one. Brian Long and Bob Siesman also got one 5-point conversion each.

Although the whole team played well, offensive stars were Reg Hart and Lorne Keindorfer. Defensive honours went to Dennis Basterdash and Murray Hampshire.

The Rams really appreciate the number of people who came out to watch the games throughout the season, and would like to see lots of Central supporters in Vermilion for the final game of the Wheatland Football League, on Saturday, November 23rd, at 1:00 p.m.

Buses for spectators have been arranged to leave Sedgewick at 10 a.m. They will pick up in Lougheed and Hardisty as well. The fee for students is $2.50 and for adults, $3.50. Contact the school for further information.

Initiate Goose Nest project

At their October 14th meeting of the Iron Creek Fish & Game Assoc., the guests were Mr. Bill Wihart, Wildlife Research Biologist and Mr. Doug Culbert, Wildlife Habitat Development Biologist. These gentlemen were down to help the club complete their plans in establishing a goose nesting project at Bellhill Lake and other smaller bodies of water in the area. The club plan to build gravel islands for nesting sites and also using large straw bales for other nesting sites. This club was the first to come up with the idea of large straw bales for this, so the Biologists are quite interested to see what results they bring. If the project is successful, Mr. Wihart indicated they would consider a goose release on Bellhill Lake next summer.

Eberl Walter and Vernon Simpson were in Red Deer at Fish & Game business on October 6th and talked with Fish Biologist Neil Kraft. Mr. Kraft was pleased to hear of the success anglers were having.

LEST WE FORGET. More than 100,000 Canadians lost their lives in the three great wars of this century. On the battle-grounds where they died are impressive memorials to their sacrifice. Their names are written in the Book of Remembrance in the Peace Tower at Ottawa, shown in the middle of this composite photo. On Vimy Ridge, where the Canadian Corps stormed a German stronghold, April 9, 1917, stands a tall white monument (top). Near Groesbeck, a tiny Dutch village, neat white crosses mark the last resting place of many who fell during the Second World War. It is called Flanders Field. — TNS Photo

IN THIS CORNER . . .

What has God's House become?

He seemed so "humble," a "humble captain!" But when this riding there upon an air-laid Jerusalem, His mount and his demeanour recalled the words, "Tell ye the daughter of Zion, behold thy King cometh unto thee, meek, and sitting upon an ass, and a colt the foal of an ass," and His supporters were humble enough to spread their garments in the way, and cutting down branches to be celebrated in a few week's time. What can be more meek than a baby in a manger? But Christ is the judge. He judges us by His presence. He labels us for what we are. He will label and separate us. He will label and separate us. He will label and separate us.

1. A house is a place where a beautiful home with everything in its place, just like a showroom in a furniture store. A house is a very different thing from a house. A house is concerned with furniture, decor, and the overall appearance. There is warmth, affection and refreshment in a house of believers. 2. A house is a place where a house to the community in which it is set, or it is merely a house containing ecclesiastical furniture? 3. An efficient social machine — Efficiency is necessary in a church. The social needs of the community must be met by the church as far as is possible. But social ends are not pursued, turn the church into a machine and a machine is not a church. 3. How will our Church be labelled — A Club for the religiously-minded? Or a place of a particular religious outlook. This is unhealthy. A church should be outward looking, outreach. It must have a sense of mission. How do people label our church? Most important how does Christ label it? We must think of our own local church. It is easy to label the church in the next parish or the church as a whole. We do this to judge the judgement on ourselves. We are afraid of the label Christ might affix on the door of our building. What should a church be, first and foremost? A house of prayer. A place where belief in God turns into action with God, and communion with God turns into action for people. Christ would probably not label our church a den of thieves, but would He call it a house of prayer? A place where we take from our fellowman, but where we learn what we may give our fellow-

IRON CREEK FISH & GAME (continued from front page) spring from the 1720 stocked this year. It is also hoped to have a double stocking of Owen's Pond next year to help relieve the heavy fishing pressure there. As the trout are not expected to survive over winter, anglers are reminded to continue to fish after the lake freezes over and harvest as many as possible. Ang at Sedgewick Lake. A request was made by the club for increasing the number of trout to be stocked next year. While in Red Deer, our two members picked up material for the Hunter Training classes which are being taught in Loughheed and Galahad schools. Loughheed has 45 students. Galahad has 27 taking the course, which is being taught by the teachers with some assistance from the Iron Creek Hunter Training Instructors. The Hunter Training course consists of a variety of subjects including water safety, first aid, outdoor survival, animal, bird and plant identification and safe handling of firearms plus a number of other items. The club's next meeting will be held in Loughheed Community hall on Tuesday, Nov. 11th at 8 p.m. with Mr. M. H. Henry Kroger as our guest. See you there!

Talk It Over — with Gordon

About a year ago, I was the guest speaker at the Camrose W. L. monthly meeting. I must have done not very well, as a job, as they asked me back for their October meeting. Speaking to a group of 30-40 women is not the easiest thing in the world. Fortunately, I spoke on something I do know. I have an interest in our local history and a long struggle in the Alberta Field. Tracy and Diana, and their connection with Fort Belvoir, 74th Belvoir and the Labovance Settlement at Damsel.

On October 8th, the Transportation Committee of the Forestry and District Development Assoc. asked Harry Kroeger M.L.A. for Sedgewick Corralton and myself over for discussion of the future of that portion of 83rd east of Foxburg to 805. Unfortunately Henry didn't make it, so another meeting was held the following week. Only one or two of this highway line is in my constituency, but this road is extremely important to the Village of Forestry as a market road as well as a thorough road, and to the development of the Battle River Power plant. Six miles of this road were slated for construction this summer, and after years of waiting and promises, the Development Assoc. has now received notice from Dr. Harner that due to lack of funds in his budget, construction will be postponed for another year. My patience is wearing pretty thin as well as my constituents with waiting forever for pavement, especially when it's been promised!

October 13th, the NFU local of New Norway asked me to their monthly executive meeting to discuss the financial troubles of the co-op calf operator.

Also met with the Bawlf Senior Citizen Club where we talked over ways and means of applying for a Recreation grant for their Drop-In Centre. They also introduced me to the game of darts, and our side only lost the game by two points. Then that night, over to Stan Rasmussen's home for a meeting with the directors of the Highway 13-14 Assoc. The Assoc. will be sending a request to Dr. Harner that a contract be let now for completion of date next spring for 10 miles of soil cement base on 136 (the correction line). That way we will know it will be done for sure next year. His estimated cost of this job is $1,000,000.00.

Friday, April 11 I was at the Battle River Town & Assoc. annual meeting and banquet and Saturday, I was over to Heather Brice to help an old friend, Charlie McDonald and his wife Gladys celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary.

The problem of the week, or as a matter of fact, of the year has been the letter sent out by Agriplant of Camrose to their contract holders indicating that they were not willing to honour their commitments. I played a major role in convincing the Agriplant people to live in Camrose instead of Vegreville. At that time and as of now, I am impressed with the idea of making polythene from a renewable source and the potential this has for Agriculture. To the contract holders that have phoned me, I have advised that they seek legal advice and not my interpretation of the validity of the contract. That they then phone the Farmers Advocate, Helmut Estrup and that they write to the Agriplant some needed time that they can either sell the company or arrange more financing. I have suggested to the Farmers Advocate that he use his office to request and arrange with the directors of Agriplant to hold meetings with all the contract holders, lay the cards on the table, and set the story from both sides. The trouble with this whole thing is that the letter sent out by Agriplant has of interpretation, nobody is sure what this meeting is held, the better. I have a feeling that if cooler heads prevail, this thing will straighten itself out.

I have suggested to the Farmers Advocate that he use his office to request and arrange with the directors of Agriplant to hold meetings with all the contract holders, lay the cards on the table, and set the story from both sides. The trouble with this whole thing is that the letter sent out by Agriplant has of interpretation, nobody is sure what this meeting is held, the better. I have a feeling that if cooler heads prevail, this thing will straighten itself out.

Also met with the Bawlf Senior Citizen Club where we talked over ways and means of applying for a Recreation grant for their Drop-In Centre. They also introduced me to the game of darts, and our side only lost the game by two points. Then that night, over to Stan Rasmussen's home for a meeting with the directors of the Highway 13-14 Assoc. The Assoc. will be sending a request to Dr. Harner that a contract be let now for completion of date next spring for 10 miles of soil cement base on 136 (the correction line). That way we will know it will be done for sure next year. His estimated cost of this job is $1,000,000.00.

Friday, April 11 I was at the Battle River Town & Assoc. annual meeting and banquet and Saturday, I was over to Heather Brice to help an old friend, Charlie McDonald and his wife Gladys celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary.

The problem of the week, or as a matter of fact, of the year has been the letter sent out by Agriplant of Camrose to their contract holders indicating that they were not willing to honour their commitments. I played a major role in convincing the Agriplant people to live in Camrose instead of Vegreville. At that time and as of now, I am impressed with the idea of making polythene from a renewable source and the potential this has for Agriculture. To the contract holders that have phoned me, I have advised that they seek legal advice and not my interpretation of the validity of the contract. That they then phone the Farmers Advocate, Helmut Estrup and that they write to the Agriplant some needed time that they can either sell the company or arrange more financing. GREEN ACRES

by Glen Werner, D.A.
Harry Gordon, Chairman of the Alberta Cattle Commission announced that "elections will be held throughout Alberta in the week of Nov. 24-26, 1975.
Under the revised Alberta Cattle Commission plan, the province has been divided into nine zones. A series of election meetings will be held in each zone and a total of ten representatives will be elected by ballot, forming a Zone Committee. These ten men will then elect one of themselves to act as the Zone Director on the Commission. For an initial two-year period, there will be an additional eight appointed directors from other cattle organizations.
The majority of our local producers will be in Zone 4, which consists of the Counties of Peace, Flag, and the M.D.'s of Acadia, Provost and Wainwright, and Special area Nos. 3, 2 and 4. Within each of these areas there will be a voting location which are:
Killam, Wainwright, Provost, Coronation, Oyen and Hanna.
The dates of the voting will be November 24 - 26, one day for each of these centers respectively.
Some of the highlights of this election as listed by the Alberta Cattle Commission are — "Eligible producers" (both to run for office and to vote) are those persons who have paid or checked-off, 60c in the Commission in 1974-75.
— A producer may vote at any election meeting in his zone.
— A producer may vote for up to, but not more than, 10 percent on the ballot.
— A non-residing committee has been set up to bring forth a slate of at least 15 names for each zone, producers will vote for a zone committee consisting of 10 people.
— The 10 zone representatives will form the official voting delegates at the Annual General Meeting, will be able to decide the level of check-off now a Marketing Council responsibility).

Edna Palmer vice-president

John Gust Heads A.S.A. Assuming the office of President of B.R.T.A. is John Gust of Bashaw. Immediate Past President is Ken Line of Sprotter. The transfer of office occurred at the 8th annual meeting and banquet held Oct. 17 in Camrose. Also elected were first and second vice presidents, Edna Palmer of Killam and Bob Rutan of Provost, respectively. Sylvia Clements of Camrose will continue as secretary manager. The meeting drew 160 persons from all points in the Zone which stretches from the Brazeau Dam to the Alberta-Saskatchewan border and lies between Highway 12 and 14. Held What We Have in Ready, and Culture.

Lieutenant Governor Ralph Steinhilber challenged the B.R.T.A. members to "hold what we have in beauty and culture" when he addressed the annual meeting. He said that Anthony Henday was the first white tourist in Alberta when he arrived at a point seven miles from Chinle in 1794. He crossed the Battle River Zone from east to west and became the first white man to see the Rocky Mountains. Others followed, he said, explorers MacKenzie and Thompson, fur and whiskey traders, and missionaries. These people liked what they saw and encouraged others to come and make their home.

Mr. Steinhilber said that he has toured the entire province and seen changes occurring. The eyes of the world are now on Canada and on Alberta, he said, and predicted that people will soon flock here to exploit our province. He praised the A.S.A. for its work in promotion of orderly and peaceful tourism and urged the members to guard carefully what we have in beauty and in culture. With his typical subtle humor, he reminded his audience that the white man had taken the beautiful land away from the native Indian and "if you spoil it, you'll want to give it back to us," he said. The government is trying to exercise responsible stewardship in developing our great country, he added, but government needs the help of people like those in B.R.T.A. and he encouraged them to maintain a responsible attitude in the era of development which lies ahead.

Also a highlight of the B.R.T.A. annual meeting program was an audio-visual presentation by the Camrose Camera Club. Slides of Zone 5 scenes were shown with commentary and musical background. Wetaakwin Wlas "Efficiency" Award.

The Wetaakwin Chamber of Commerce, which operated the Tourist information centre, won the B.R.T.A. "Information Centre Efficiency Award." The two young ladies who staffed it accepted the plaque. They were Olga Rapchowski and Debbie Murphy. The selection was made by "ghost" tourists during the summer who called at each of the 11 information centres in the Zone and evaluated the efficiency of the staff and the facility.

Secretary Manager Sylvia Clements reported the information centres in Zone 5 had registered 3840 visitors during the past summer which represented a threefold increase at some points. Tourism is promoted in Zone 5 with brochures, photo mails, post cards and place mats, said President Line. A hospitality seminar was also held last June. Mr. Line cited Zone 5's participation in TIAI's policy presentation to the cabinet as one of the year's highlights.

STEP Girls' complete Inventory Research. Darlene McClure of Oshon and Valerie Thordson, Camrose have completed an inventory research project for the B.R.T.A. The project was done during the past summer. The two young women gathered information about all the Provincial Parks, cities, towns, villages and guest ranches within the zone and then completed the report which is now available in book form.

4-H Club

STIRNIE, SNIPS - SNACKS

The meeting was called to order by president Shanna Yarnum at 4 pm. Shirley Petterson then read the minutes of the last meeting. Mary-Jane led the 4-H pledge and Wendy led the singing of O Canada. Shirley Petterson read a letter saying that we could use the school. We all paid our fees this meeting. As our project books have come, Mrs. Hayes advised that we keep them neat and in order. She mentioned that the samples should all be the same color and told us what should be in them. The meeting then adjourned. Mr. Norman came and talked to us about camps and trail rides. Then we broke up into our groups.

Take TIME for Home Heating SAFETY.

Northwestern Utilities carries out safety procedures the year round to protect its customers and help insure uninterrupted service. But once natural gas has arrived in your home it's up to you to continue the safety program.

Before winter sets in take a few moments to make sure your heating system is in proper working order. Venting is particularly important. Be sure the vent pipes connecting your furnace and gas appliances to the chimney are clear, and properly secured and they are not corroded, also check to insure that the chimney is not clogged with debris. It's time well spent protecting your family against the possibility of a home heating accident. Since an efficient, trouble free system also uses less energy, you'll be getting all the heat you pay for this winter.

The pamphlet "Take Time for Home Heating Safety" contains more safety tips. Copies are available at your nearest Northwestern Utilities Limited office.

The first fall meeting of the Parent-Learning Disabilities Association for Children was held recently. Mrs. Georgina Nelson, R.N. of Otonari, spoke on Nutrition and Learning Disabilities. The Ordonneau Approach.

Mrs. Nelson explained the effects of improper nutrition, food additives, vitamin deficiency and dependency, as a cause of learning problems such as hyperactivity and perceptual distortions. Also the allergy and low blood sugar conditions which affect a large percentage of the population and if untreated lead to mental learning and behavior problems.

She stressed the early detection of these conditions and treatment by proper diet and vitamin therapy. For maximum results.

An interesting approach to the day of lecture was a pop and chip luncheon. The local association for Children with Learning Disabilities has been organized for one year now and has been mainly involved in presenting information to Learning Disabilities to the general public. The response has been most encouraging and all those that have shown interest will be contacted to see what direction future programs should take.

A seminar "Learning Disabilities and its Implications for Society" will be held in Camrose on Saturday, Nov. 23 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the United Church, sponsored by the Camrose and County A.C.L.D. and the Alberta A.C.L.D. It is hoped that many will attend from this area. For further information and registration, contact your local A.C.L.D. representatives or Mrs. Carol Elford at 672-3823, Camrose.

Service for Eileen Archbold

Eileen Meira Daly was born in England on September 10, 1910. She came to Calgary with her parents, Col. and Mrs. P.J. Daly, following the Armistice in 1918. They came to a farm south of Loughheed in 1919 and farmed in the Treaty Hill district. Eileen's mother passed away in Aug. 1931 and her father in Feb. 1932. She was married to Eric Clark on November 30, 1935, and to this union were born two children, Marjorie Ruth and Thomas Patrick. Eric and Eileen farmed in the Bell's Hill district until 1938, when they moved to Vancouver, B.C. where Eric had a Film Flushing business. They returned to Alberta in 1939 and went back to farming in the Meria district until the passing of Eric.

Eileen married Harold Archbold on September 10, 1940, and they farmed east of Alliance until they retired to Camrose in Nov. of 1973 due to ill health. She here has been suffering bravely, never complaining and passed away quietly in St. Mary's Hospital on October 14, 1975 at the age of 65 years and 16 days.

She leaves to mourn her loss her loving husband Harold, her daughter Marjorie and son-in-law Don Garrett, her son Pat and daughter-in-law Jackie Clark, 8 grandchildren, Susan, Cathy, Bob and Brian Garrett, and Tammy, Robbie, Darren and Tracy Clark, all of Camrose, and one sister, Mrs. Cathy Watson, England.

Funeral services were held in the Alliance United Church on October 20, 1975 with Rev. George Butler officiating. Carol McDermott was organist and Ruth Peacock was soloist. Pallbearers were Porter O'Reilly, Lloyd O'Reilly, Edna Albert, Norman Holt, Arthur Wolf and Peter McPherson. Interment was in Alliance cemetery with Hobbs' Funeral Home of Calgary in charge of all arrangements. The many beautiful floral and memorial tributes showed the esteem in which Eileen was held.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank everyone for the beautiful flowers sent to the Church and house in Alliance and to our homes in Camrose. Thank you also for the wonderful cards of sympathy, the donations in memory to the cancer fund and cemetery fund. Thank you to those who prepared the grave, the pallbearers and also those who sent flowers to the home.

Thank you to the ladies who served lunch at the Hall. Thank you one and all for your kind, thoughtful words. Special thanks to Shirley Holben, Rev. Geo. Butler, Carol McDermott and Ruth Peacock. Sincere appreciation from the late Eileen Archbold Family

Mrs. Knevel conducted a short public speaking program

The meeting was brought to order with Elaine Manning in the chair.

The pledge was led by Valerie Doyle. Happy Birthday was sung to the people having birthdays in November. Roll call was taken and was answered with why or why not you like public speaking. The Treasurer's report was read and adopted.

A letter was received from Carl Knitt and family saying they greatly appreciated the farewell party the 4-H Clubs put on for them.

Mrs. Helen Nikitichuk and Mrs. Carol Wilson attended the 4-H convention in Calgary. Gleister Hemmings' Sewing Club challenged us to a bowling competition for the silver cup donated by Tip Henderson with our Club the lucky winners.

Our bazaar which is to be held in December was discussed and the ticket books for our draw were handed out.

We broke up into our groups. Lunch was served.

Daysland 4-H Clothing Club
A halloween initiation party was held in the United Church basement for the new members of the Daysland 4-H Clothing Club on Oct. 27. All the new members were dressed up in halloween costumes and they played games like passing the egg and blowing up a balloon and then popping it. Jackie Winkler and Sharna Braaten were in charge of the entertainment for the party. Lunch was served along with halloween treats and pop. After the party, everyone went into their groups and worked on their projects.

Another meeting was held on Nov. 5 in the basement of the United Church. Lunch was served and at the meeting, we discussed the up-coming banquet. Several new members have joined and the Daysland Clothing Club now has 38 members. Mrs. Spiller, our leader, handed out the project books and the membership cards.

LIQUIFIRE
COOLS IT!

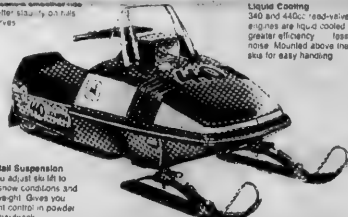

Liquid cooling takes the heat off high-performance snowmobiling

CD Ignition and Surface-Gap Spark Plugs

CD ignition plugs "hotter" spark "faster" and "longer" life. Surface-gap spark plugs work in cold or warm weather.

Liquid Cooling
340 and 440cc "red-valve" engines are liquid-cooled for greater efficiency, less noise. Mounted above the seat for easy handling.

Longer "Wheelbase"
The suspension system has been modified for a longer wheelbase, giving you a smoother ride on bumps and ruts.

Slide Rail Suspension
Lets you adjust six lift to match snow conditions and rider weight. Gives you extra control in powder on hardpack.

Dark Mirrors
One light on steep inclines. Provides fast, fade-free stopping with less chance of moisture buildup.

Wide 32-inch Ski Stance
A full four inches wider than last year. Reduces weaving on hills and switchbacks.

Turn on the performance, hold down the heat. The new John Deere Liquifire with liquid cooling improves efficiency by reducing heat buildup. The water jacket on the engine muffles noise levels, too. But Liquifire has more in it for you that just liquid cooling.

There's more comfort because you ride on an energy-absorbing seat that's padded with two layers of polyurethane. More control because Liquifire is "human engineered" with handgrips, throttle, and brake lever within easy reach. More performance because 340 and 440cc engines have dual Mikuni carburetors, one for each cylinder, for maximum power. Combine all these features with those shown above, and you've got quite a machine. The all-new liquid-cooled Liquifire from John Deere.

Ladies Afternoon Bowling

In the ladies afternoon bowling last week Ruby Parquharson bowled the highest single score so far of 248. Ellen Ness had the high triple of 302 and Vivian Koehl the high average of 188. The highest team total for the week goes to the Aces with 2099. High for the previous week were: Marlene Truss, high single, 257; Cathy Gagne, hi triple, 323; Vivian Koehl, hi average, 208; Demons, high team, 2013.

We welcome into our league the Coffee Mates from Alliance who have just recently joined. Congratulations Co-op Members
From Federated Co-operatives Limited

Today, as you celebrate the Grand Opening of the Forestburg Co-op, you are starting a community business, owned and controlled by friends and neighbours who know each other's needs. You are also joining a system of retail co-operatives serving communities throughout Western Canada.

Above all, you are demonstrating the strength of co-operation: when people join together, to help one another, each person benefits. And when each person benefits, so does the group.

So patronize your Forestburg Co-op regularly. Take an active part in its affairs. You'll be doing something for yourself and your community.

Your Co-op has more to offer. CO-OP

WELL STOCKED — The dry goods department of the new store is well displayed with the everyday needs of the housewife. Also carried are a line of clothing for the whole family, wool, yard goods and footwear.

The design of the store is such that shopping for your needs is as convenient as possible through the wide aisles and brightly lit interior.

GROCERIES — People of Forestburg district will be pleased with the opening of the grocery department of the new Co-op store. The well-stocked shelves will feature a variety of popular brands of goods and also carried will be the Co-op label.

The Co-op label are goods purchased and packed for the store and represent savings for the customer by being bought in large quantities.

Large frozen food freezers and coolers will assure the customer of the freshest of goods including produce.

Two checking-out counters with the latest of equipment completes the whole case-of-shopping idea designed into this building. One, of course, should not forget the people who will be at the check-outs and those doing the packing. All of these people are there to give the customer goods, service and satisfaction. ***

Newcomers welcomed to Hardisty

The annual meeting of the Hardisty Chamber of Commerce was held in the Park Cafe with a lovely banquet of Chinese food preceding the meeting.

Among the many new members to Hardisty within the last year and welcomed by Lou Golka, on behalf of the Chamber of Commerce were Bert and Valerie Zavers. Valerie is a Sedgewick girl (Valerie Ball) and is nursing at the Hardisty hospital, while her husband Bert, coming from Manitoba, is teaching at Hughenden.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwayne Rorick, formerly Peace River residents and Dwayne is 2nd man at the Alberta Wheat Pool.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Patry from Athabasca, with probation, is as Mr. Jack Carter from Montreal.

Mr. and Mrs. Myron Penny from Cape Breton. Mrs. Penny teaches in Hardisty school. Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Ridley from Edmonton and working for Gibson Oil.

Joe and Joan Fitzgerald from Australia. Joe looks after animal health at Hi-Grade Feeders.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. James of Wetaskiwin who drives a truck for Hi-Grade Feeders.

Rodney and Debbie Shopland with brother Tim Shopland, from Wainwright work for Midfield Trucking.

Bob Taylor from Outlook, Sask. who has been working at Hardisty Motors for some time.

Mr. Doris (Wager) Yukas, whose husband Jim is a standby boiler maker at Port McMurray.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Blackwell from Saskatoon, both of who are presently employed at the C.P.R. depot.

Dick Anderson from Milledgeville.

Complimentary tickets to the banquet had been issued to the newcomers, who in turn, thanked the chamber very much for this courtesy and all had enjoyed the banquet.

Minutes of last meeting were read by B. Hahn. Treasurers report read by Ray Doodall. Ray Doodall, with students help is preparing a brochure regarding the town of Hardisty and area.

Jeannette Moran read comments received from letters sent out, re - likes and dislikes about the town. One letter seemed to be agreed upon was our beautiful scenery. Two many old buildings was another comment, however not too many of these old buildings have been unexpected which is an asset. Fred Cronse gave a report about the airfield.

Lou Golka commended the town council for their co-operation in gaining information about coming projects and their co-operation. It appears that the Town Council and Chamber of Commerce complement each other which is as it should be.

Wes Pedlar spoke regarding the Devonian Institute and it was decided to obtain more information about this institution.

The Chamber have finally got interest aroused by the proper authorities regarding the widening and improvement of the road which is Highway 13, as that narrow road has been the cause of numerous accidents.

Len Golka gave a report on meeting in Edmonton re - new hospital, also met with M.P. Henry Kroeger.

A slate of officers was nominated for the coming year.

Lou then called on Wally Selo, family and staff to thank them very much for the lovely meal.

Mr. Hugh Wild of Stettler and Allen McRoberts of Edmonton (formerly of Irma) spoke on recreation and how it is very important for a town to have proper recreation facilities if it is to progress.

There was quite a bit of concern about the operation of some of these facilities as they are quite costly.

Recreation is required for adults as well as young people.

After the guest speakers gave their information and answered a few questions, the meeting was closed with an invitation to all to attend the next meeting in the Park Cafe in December.

AT LOU'VED — The community paid tribute to the fallen soldiers of two World Wars, led by Klara Branch of the Legion, as the top picture shows the parade to the Cenotaph for the laying of wreaths.

IN THIS CORNER . . .

The Unexpected

There shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations . . .

We can recognize our own times in this. Anxiety is widespread. Everywhere there are signs of what is coming on the earth. But what does this gospel message mean? When these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads: for your redemption draweth nigh! what are these seasons?

1. Hard Times
When outward circumstances are at their frightening worst, that is the time to expect God to act. A Christian who believes this, and in consequence lifts up his head when times are hard, will stand out like a beacon light in a community.

2. Self Denial
When man is brought to the end of himself, when he is conscious that his own resources have failed, when his own weaknesses stare him in the face, then he may know that he is not far from the kingdom of God. Christ came to be born in a stable, where there was apparently nothing worthy of making him a suitable cradle. When a man despairs of himself, that is the time for him to hope in God.

3. Christ most often appears as the Unexpected Christ. He was not expected in a stable. He was not expected in Nazareth. He was not expected in the storm-tossed sea of Galilee. He was not expected among the publicans and sinners. He was not expected to be seen on a cross. He was not expected to be slain in the garden where he was buried. We must never think we can "get the measure" of Christ. He will always do above all we ask or think.

So the proceeding gospel quotes are a challenge to our (1) gloominess (2) self-sufficiency (3) rationalism. We are confronted with the great God, the God who is never brought to an end of himself, by what happens on earth, or on any human heart.

Years ago the Grandparents were part of the family (eg. were Mr. and Mrs. Howard MacDonald, entertaining, and being entertained themselves).

In today's world of busy everyday living are we just going to put our grandparents and other people in our Auxiliary hospitals, nursing homes, Lodges, etc. and leave them to look after themselves?

Remember these old people were your age once. Just because they are older now, don't think for one minute they do not love to see little children, have a visit with others, hear what is going on in their community and be entertained.

Our Auxiliary does have a huge, strong, active and Church Service throughout the week, but it is time the community organizations, clubs and church groups take a more active part in bringing entertainment throughout the year, instead of in a two week period at Christmas time.

We welcome any talent from all groups or individuals, please come and make our Senior Citizens and long term patients here at the Auxiliary HAPPY.

Hardisty Happenings

Our sympathy is extended to Mrs. Bert Hall on the passing of her husband, also to a guest from Calgary, Don and Minnie Hall of Calgary.

The big news is that Anita Young is selling her stock and hopes to sell the building as well. We will all miss stopping in for a friendly chat with her but we wish her the best if she can travel around with her husband Bud now.

We understand that Bud will be working at Sarnia, Ont. for awhile.

Your reporter was in Camrose for eight days, part of that time spent keeping house for two lovely grandsons while their parents Mary and Lerne Brown attended a Machinery Convention in Las Vegas.

A tour for the ladies was much enjoyed by Mary and Shirley. The Hardisty Hospital Auxiliary Bings appeared to be a huge success as the hall was packed.

Congratulations to Hattie Lloyd for winning the lovely big hamper of Christmas goodies, also to Karen Goka for winning the black-out.

Eather Johannessen won the 10th bingo which was a special prize of a Christmas cake and a turkey.

It is a very comforting thought to see so many good people turn out for such a worthy cause, as many benefit from the proceeds.

Work on the Senior Citizens project has really got started with a boom. There is lots of digging going on and trucks moving litter and debris.

We understand that the contractor is Wolfski Construction of Camrose.

Mrs. Marilyn Elm has returned home again after being at the home of her son Adrian's for six weeks while Adrian's wife underwent surgery.

BRIDAL SHOWER

A number of ladies gathered at the Christian Education Building on Sunday, Nov. 24 to honor Miss Terry Jackson, who is a guest from Calgary, as soon to take place.

At the guest of honor's table were Terry, her mother, Mrs. Jackson, also sister Dorothy and Shirley Reber.

A short program started the afternoon off with a reading by Barbara Hays, also one by Ben Hahn. Mrs. Cauton in her usual good form, recited "My Daughters." A really humorous skit was put on by Mrs. Mary Anne Thomson and Shirley Reber. Gifts were placed on the table by Ben Hahn and Barbara Hays, while Dianne Kells passed them around.

Terry received many lovely gifts and thanked everyone for coming.

A lot made from the bowes by Shirley Reber and modeled by Terry was very nice also.

The hall was nicely decorated by Mrs. Jackson and the farthest guest was Mrs. Hargrave from Carr.

Mrs. Nettie Johnston, with daughters Beatrice Koellar and Ervin of Camrose, Doris Blize and Oscar of Lloydminster, and Mrs. Edith Bitter attended funeral services in the Coronation United Church for Mr. Bargholz who passed away at 87 years of age. Our sympathy is extended to Jean and Bud Bargholz of Brownfield.

Many years ago Mr. and Mrs. Utely lived in Hardisty where Fred Crane now lives. Mr. Utely was a car man for the C.P.H. Mrs. Jack McEae was pleasantly surprised when their daughter Gerlie called on her avuncle back. Both parents have passed on.

A surprise visitor in town on Friday was Mr. Billy Outward of Drumheller. Billy had attended the Mason's meeting here the night before and was made life member, having joined 46 years ago. He was happy to see his old friends once more and among those he called on were W. A. Bone and Isabel Nelson.

Fred and Marj Alderice of Gunn, Fred's sister Mrs. Ruth Brydland of Alliance visited for a little while in Hardisty on Saturday. Fred tried to see his brokers as he doesn't get down too often.

So many people have asked your reporter if she has heard from the Abel Pearsons so I phoned their daughter Shirley. I found out that they are in a nursing home near St. Helen's, Oregon, a very lovely home but much higher priced than our homes. Abel is 89 now and although Blanche is much younger, she has memory problems.

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Hurley and boys of Oyen spent the weekend with Carol's parents, Doris and Perry Powell.

A smoldering fire along a right of way was suddenly a very fast travelling fire after a terribly high wind on Friday. About ten minutes after Carol Vickerman spotted it in the south, it had travelled the length of the quarter section. Happily, due to a change in the wind and the very prompt action of the Hardisty Fire Department, the fire was stopped with only the road between it and the house. With Carol's daughter-in-law and young baby in the house and Carol and Cathy outside trying to get things done, there were some very tense moments until the fire was brought under control.

Howard, Ellen and baby Kris Vickerman of Calgary spent the weekend with Howard's parents, Bob and Carol with Ellen and Kris staying awhile.

Congratulations to Lucy Sydor the opening of such a beautiful cafe at the hotel. Lucy served free coffee and pie on Saturday to people coming in and after taking 40 pies for the occasion, which were very good indeed, she won't want to make too many for awhile.

Courses planned for coming season

On November 10th, the Further Education Council met at the Killam School with 13 members present. Mr. Sheila Purvis called the meeting to order and informed the council that the grant money applied for has been approved by the Government. The secretary was asked to have two phasetal copies of the Application Form to form a Further Education Council and the letter of approval from Mr. Shields, Assistant Director Further Education Services as the Department seem to have misplaced theirs. One of the copies to be sent to the Department in Edmonton and one to Mr. Cleveland at the County Office.

It was moved that any special committees be struck at the discretion of the Chairperson. Mr. James Wierman asked how much responsibility would be given to this committee or any committee and it was made clear that no decision would be made by the Council until the next meeting.

The following courses were approved: Keep Fit, Basic Math, Color Decorating, Macramé, Typing, Ceramics, Art, Woodwork, French, Spanish, Creative Writing, Pottery, Leather, Landscape Painting, and Defensive Driving.

A letter concerning the fact that all the Further Education Meetings will be held in the Killam School Library was sent with the next meeting to be held on Dec. 2, 7:30 p.m.

Sixteen ways to kill an organization

1. Do not attend meetings; if you do, be late.
2. Be sure meeting is over.
3. Never have anything to say at the meeting, wait until you get outside.
4. When at a meeting, vote on everything, and then do nothing.
5. The next day find out who your executive.
6. Take no part in organization affairs.
7. Be sure to sit in the back of meetings, so you can talk with other members.
8. Take all the club will give you - but give nothing in return.
9. Talk co-operation - but never co-operate when it's not your idea.
10. Never get anyone to join the club.
11. If you are personally criticized - resign.
12. If asked to help say you don't have time.
13. Never read anything concerning club affairs.
14. Never accept an office or chairmanship.
15. If appointed on committee never give it any time.
16. Do not do more than you have to. Let others willingly give of their time and ability to help the cause, say that the club is being run by a clique.

IN THIS CORNER...

A Passenger

A Passenger (St. Matthew 9:1) your contribution to life...
1. Not his fault.
2. It wasn't this man's fault that he was a passenger in life, and his friends had to carry him along. He had paralysis, or paralysis or "polio". The first fact is that he was, however, is that he was a passenger.

There are people in the community, sometimes even in church or in their homes, who are passengers. They contribute almost nothing to the group except everything to be done for them; they are of course, undoubtedly dull. Perhaps it isn't always their fault. Perhaps they lack ideas. Perhaps life only pumps feebly through their bodies and their minds. They are "weaker brethren" and Christian people must always be ready to Christianize them. It is doubtful if we ought to carry passengers on our committees, but we must sometimes be prepared to carry them in life. They test the depth of our understanding and self-control.

2. Probably his fault.
It looks as if this man's paralysis (Matthew 9) was his fault. This is not always the case, but perhaps not often here, or why did Jesus begin "Son, be of good cheer, thy sins be forgiven thee"? Perhaps the man was regretting the life he had led. Perhaps he reckoned it was too late for him to expect a chance now. So he was depressed, and his depression increased his paralysis. "Mind" effects body. It is possible some of the passengers in the community, church and home need not be passengers at all. It is their fault. They have never really laid hold on what the Christian faith offers us. It offers us the knowledge that God has a purpose for each one of us, however difficult it may be from our neighbors. At the Lord's table the words are specific and individual: "The body of our Lord Jesus Christ which was given for thee, preserve thy body and soul unto eternal life".

It is for each one of us to believe God, and to rise up to the call which comes in Christ. Today at Communion service's Christ says to every communicant: "Partake. Make your contribution to the life around you, and do not be carried again."

5. Christ came to deal with souls.
In Capernaum they marvelled when they saw this paralytic walking and carrying his mattress. That is what Men's reaction should be to what they see going on in the churches, "passengers" being turned into contributing citizens. It can happen when we believe the gospel as read in Matthew. Do we believe it? Have we really thought how the Christian is looking at us today and calling, "Thy sins be forgiven thee. Arise and walk. Don't be a passenger any more, stand up on your feet. Make 11-48-0 is obsolete.

11 told you about Elephant Brand 11-55-0, the fertilizer that makes 11-48-0 obsolete. Sure - 11-55-0 is the same kind of fertilizer as 11-48-0 but pound for pound, it contains more plant food than 11-48-0. 11-55-0, in fact, is exactly what you need to cover the same number of acres - it even means less handling, less labour, less time filling your applicator. Elephant Brand pioneered 11-55-0 and they've done everything possible to make their 11-55-0 the best. An improved production process virtually eliminates dust which makes Elephant Brand 11-55-0 an easier handling product that flows smoothly through your equipment and permits more even application. These are reasons enough to change to 11-55-0 this crop year. 11-55-0 is just one of the quality Elephant Brand products and services I offer. Come in soon to see what's just right for your soil and your crops.

Heisler District News

Wednesday, October 22, a social was held in the Elks Hall in Heisler. This was a community affair sponsored by the local organization of the Order of Royal Purple, Elks Lodge and Catholic Women's League. In conjunction with the Edmonton Shriners organization, this was a commemorative affair to pay a tribute to the community for the contribution they gave the Shriners in honor of Danny Smith, who had the misfortune to lose his arm. The Shriners undertook the medical care of Danny and we sincerely appreciate their care and concern.

The Shriners visited that evening with a delegation of 88 men and wives who came from Edmonton and surrounding areas. The evening began with a presentation of all the Shriners into the hall to a trumpet band. The first band was the Shriners Band, followed by the Shriners Band, followed by the Shriners Band. The Shriners Band, followed by the Shriners Band, followed by the Shriners Band.

They left, a lone pipe paced the hall and we listened to the plaintive music of his bagpipes. As this concluded, Shriners George Cranston, introduced a lot of the dignitaries, then Gordon Drayton, the Hospital Representative for the Shriners Club, presented a lovely plaque to Mrs. Rika Fankhael, president of the C.V.L. and to Mrs. Lorraine Martz, Honored Royal Lady of the Royal Purple, and to Ralph Weller, the Exalted Ruler of the Heisler Elks.

This concluded the program and the dancing resumed. The evening ended with a lunch served to all in the basement. A Halloween dance was held on Friday evening, October 31. In the Heisler Elks Hall sponsored by the O.R.P. Winners were: first original Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Eason, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Zimmer, dressed as witches, second: Alvin and Betty, dressed as a robot, Mrs. Brenda Louise Mercer, dressed as an old gentleman, second to Mrs. Knecht and Rita Benedek dressed as bride and groom, Comical: Alvin and Larry Blatt dressed as a man and a woman, Ed and Brenda Fankhael as monkeys and to the lady piano player of Horne's orchestra who supplied the music for the evening.

GREEN ACRES

by Glen Werner, D.A.

FALL FERTILIZATION:
Farmers and ranchers are urged to order their 1976 fertilizer requirements by October 15 to insure that there will be an adequate supply and orderly delivery.

Fertilizers are generally more available in fall and often with a price advantage. The head of the Alberta Agriculture's Soils Branch, Adolph Goetel, reports that the present fertilizer outlook is similar to that of this time last year. He further predicts that nitrogen fertilizer could be somewhat short, but phosphorus and potash should be adequate in supply.

Donn Penny of the soils branch says the main advantage of applying nitrogen fertilizers in the fall or forage crops is that it reduces the spring work load. Although many farmers apply their nitrogen fertilizer at this time of the year, preliminary research results carried out in Alberta and in other parts of Western Canada indicate that under some conditions nitrogen applied in the fall for cereal crops may be less effective than that applied in the spring.

Theatre gutted by fire

Fire at the Princess Theatre in Killam has resulted in damage amounting to over $15,000.00. The alarm was turned in about 3:00 p.m. on Sunday, November 30th. The fire was contained in the cement block building, and was put out by 8 p.m. However, it flared up again about 7:30 and was finally declared out about 10 p.m.

The Press was told that the fire started in the west end of the building, and preliminary checks indicated no faults in wiring or gas services. The west end interior is badly charred, and there is considerable smoke damage.

Return Giving

Christmas is coming, the season is getting on. People are buying, the store is here as it is. The season is not the only time when the gift is being purchased. The other items are gifts: gifts and more gifts. We give to those who give to us and to those to whom we wish to express a deep feeling of love or appreciation. Jesus advised us not to give to expect something in return, but to give to those who may be unable to return the gift. We are surrounded by charitable organizations that could put to good use our gifts for the sales of others.

In all of our gift giving what are we giving to the one around whom this season centers. Jesus Christ, the Son of God? Here is one important case in which we have been given so much. Ought we not remember his gift, with some expression of our knowledge and gratitude. We are told that simple obedience to the first and most important commandment requires that we love the Lord our God with all of our heart and with all of our soul and with all of our mind. (Matthew 22:37) To love God requires constant attention and devotion to Him. Such love requires us giving Him our very best. Do we dare neglect Him so badly at Christmas time?

King David realized and lived out his devotion to God. When offered a place of worship in a soot-soot explained, "Neither will I offer burnt offerings unto the Lord my God of that which doth cost me nothing." (1 Samuel 16:14) True love costs something! True love indicates a true commitment. To truly love God means it will cost us something. We will want to give to him more than just our money. When to His church but our lives given in worship and love to Him. When you give gifts this Christmas forget not to give God the gift of your complete love and worship. He loves you. Rev. K.A. Hudson

OAKES — In memory of "Mom", Mrs. Jessie Oakes who passed away December 2nd, 1964. Memories are treasures no one can steal.

Death is a heartache no one can heal. Some may forget you, now that you're gone.

But we will remember no matter how long. Still sadly missed by The Families.

McBRIDE — In loving memory of our beloved parents and grandparents, Clive and Ethel McBride who passed away on Dec. 3, 1974.

The blow was great, the shock severe. We little thought the end was near.

And only those who have lost can tell. The pain of parting without farewell.

More each day we miss you, Friends may think the wound is healed, But they little know the sorrow.

That lies within our hearts - concealed. Their smiling ways and pleasant faces.

Are a pleasure to recall; They had a kindly word for each.

And died beloved by all. Some day we hope to meet them.

Some day, we know not when. To clasp their hands in the better land.

Never to part again. Ever remembered and sadly missed by: Bill, Joy and family, Gordie, Wanda and family, Merv, Sharon and family, Neil and Penny and Laurie.

MEMORIALS

Additional memorials for J. McClements have been received as follows: Mr. and Mrs. R. VanDewar, Mr. and Mrs. F. Drager, Mr. and Mrs. E. Elms, Mrs. M. Elm, Mr. and Mrs. A. Hardisty News Items

Your reporter was in Edmonton over the weekend and spent her evenings with Howard and Gladys Stoner at Killam House. They would be glad to see any of their old friends who happen to be in the city. Also had coffee with Dave Fairfield at the bus depot and Dave wished to be remembered to all. Then our former hotel keeper Bill Gregory dropped in, and Bill is no longer in the hotel business. He is employed by the Legion in Edmonton and for those school pals of the Gregory family, Barry is Superintendent of the town of Whitecourt. Sandra and Debbie married brothers and live at Hay River. The 12 year old son is still at home of course with Bill and Anna.

Then before leaving the bus depot, Logan Mah from Lams-ont saw me and she was going to Calgary. I felt pretty dumb not recognizing her after working for Dick and Leanne at the Park (Crystal) Cafe for a few years.

Also met an old friend from Consort whom I hadn't seen for fifty years. I think. We two standing on Jasper Ave waiting for a bus on Sunday and we talked and discovered we had known each other a long time ago. Being in the city, it was like two needles in a haystack finding each other.

Kenny and Mary Johnson with two daughters at Stettler, Edith, Wayne Bitter, and family, also Jean and Bud Bagholz helped their mother Mrs. Nettie Johnson celebrate her birthday.

Province now on anti-inflation scheme

by Kevin Peterson
 Alberta has introduced the legislation it will use to participate in the national anti-inflation program, even though there has been no settlement on Premier Lougheed's demand it extend for so long as 18 months.

The provincial government has also started its wage control program at the top with the 75 MLAs - they have accepted a four-year package of salary increases they feel are within federal guidelines. For cabinet ministers the settlement will mean accepting less money than the provincial legislation promises them as they can meet federal guidelines.

Still awaiting release is rent regulation legislation. The premier has promised to serve as a companion legislation to Act introduced.

The Anti-inflation Measures Act introduced in the house means that the cabinet the power set up a provincial board to administer controls if some agreement cannot be reached with Ottawa - the alternative the Lougheed cabinet would prefer.

Intergovernmental Affairs Minister Lou Hyndman said negotiations are proceeding and there is a good chance Ottawa will administer the provincial program. He also says there is "a reasonable chance the fed. govt. will accept an 18 month term for the anti-inflation fight instead of the three-year proposal Prime Minister Trudeau has put forward."

Alberta has also insisted there will be no price control on agricultural products at the farm gate and that energy prices be allowed to rise to world levels as was promised last spring.

While potential disagreements exist, Mr. Hyndman

Mark 50th wedding

Over 200 relatives and friends attended the Open House on November 22, 1975 in honor of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Rancier of Killam, on the occasion of their Golden Wedding Anniversary.

Mr. Rancier settled, with his parents north of Killam in 1925 and on Nov. 27, 1925 was united in marriage to Annie C. Detman. Mr. and Mrs. Rancier farmed in this area until December 16, 1967 when they retired to Killam.

Their family, Gordon of Edmonton, Bob of Victoria, Norman, Betty Lewis and Jean Sorenson of the Killam area, were honored to sponsor a dinner for their parents and fifty relatives. Their eldest son Gordon, acted as Master of Ceremonies for the dinner. The hall was beautifully decorated for the occasion. Pastor Norwood returned the thanks to God for His care and blessing through the years. Seated at the head table were Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Rancier, Mr. and Mrs. Talmage Rancier of Calgary, Mrs. Flo Rancier of Ponoka, Mrs. F. Hall of Killam, Mr. and Mrs. J. Nafziger (nee Della Detman) of Calgary, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Rancier. A toast from the grandchildren was proposed by Doug Rancier. A poem, written for this occasion, was read by Jean Sorenson. A program consisting of music by Irene Sorenson, the Lewis family, Agnes Debeck, Shelly Dion, Margaret Gutmann, Jeanette Johnson, Joe Lukens presented a gift to Mrs. Zavers and Mr. Cahill. Mrs. Gray also presented a small gift to Mrs. Zavers and Mr. Cahill on behalf of the Auxiliary, in appreciation of the time and effort that they put into the instruction. The gathering was very well attended by the parents of the girls and Auxiliary members. They were all encouraged to hear Mr. George Matthews, chairman of the hospital board, offer his congratulations to the girls and go on to confirm the provincial government's intention of building a new hospital in Hardisty. With the termination of the mail order further information should be available on the new structure. In the meantime a Hospital Planning committee has been appointed to investigate the medical needs of the community.

Hardisty Volunteers graduate

On Tuesday Nov. 25 nine Hardisty girls graduated as volunteers at the Hardisty General Hospital in a graduation ceremony sponsored by the Hardisty Hospital Auxiliary. The Auxiliary also sponsored the program of instruction undertaken by the girls. Mrs. Alayna Zavers and Mrs. Doreen Cahill were the instructors and all the girls fared extremely well in their final exam. Mrs. Hilary Gray, president of the Auxiliary opened the proceedings with a welcome to the guests, girls and parents. A few words of explanation, encouragement and congratulatory remarks were given by Mr. Myers, the hospital administrator and Mrs. Rombough the director of nursing.

The presentation of certificates and crests was made by Mrs. Zavers to the girls, who then passed on to Mrs. Cahill who pinned a beautiful corsage on to each of the girls uniforms. This she did on behalf of Dr. Cahill who kindly donated the corsages.

The graduates were: Sheryl Baumgartner, Sharon Cross, Agnes Debeck, Shelly Dion, Margaret Gutmann, Jeanette Johnson, Joe Lukens, Susan Watkins, Chris Whitehead.

Joe Lukens presented a gift to Mrs. Zavers and Mr. Cahill. Mrs. Gray also presented a small gift to Mrs. Zavers and Mr. Cahill on behalf of the Auxiliary, in appreciation of the time and effort that they put into the instruction.

The gathering was very well attended by the parents of the girls and Auxiliary members. They were all encouraged to hear Mr. George Matthews, chairman of the hospital board, offer his congratulations to the girls and go on to confirm the provincial government's intention of building a new hospital in Hardisty. With the termination of the mail order further information should be available on the new structure. In the meantime a Hospital Planning committee has been appointed to investigate the medical needs of the community.

The evening ended with a short talk by Mr. Ken Offord, the high school work experience coordinator, explaining the place of the work experience program in the high school curriculum. Three of the graduates are working towards high school credits.

After a general thank you by Mrs. Gray to all those in attendance, a delicious lunch was served courtesy of the hospital.

Christmas Blues

Last week this column spoke about giving God God. It was about love and worship especially at Christmas time. Why? Because God commanded it. But more than this because He first loved us. 1 John 4:19
Yet to so many people love seems so distant. Perhaps because of the loss of a dear loved one you wonder where God is at. Where was He when your husband, your wife, your child, your parent needed Him? Where was God in your lineages? Where was He when your name was bea-stified? Where was He when disaster struck? Jesus too cried out from above "My God, my God why have you forsaken me?" Mark 15:34
He too faced a dark hour when he thought his sin past passed from his memory.
Whether you are lonely or lonely feel that distance from God remember that Christmas is for you. Christ did to remove the barrier between you and God. Christ took your sins on himself so that you can talk to God as a clean, pure person. You are important to God! He loves you! He cares what happens to you because your companionship was purchased at the cost of His own Son's suffering and death. When this tribly prize your heart you will say with John "We love Him because He first loved us." 1
John 4:19.

Keeping in touch

I suppose one never misses Keeping in Touch until the Post Office runs dry. Thank goodness the long ordeal is over! During the course of the strike, few news items have described the situation better than Charlie Brown's statement of, "Good grief!" During the next one or two columns of Keeping in Touch, I will comment in detail on the various aspects of labor management disputes in the public service. In the interim, however, I will share with you some of my activities since we have last had an opportunity to communicate.

On Saturday, November 1st, I had some meetings with CP-INTV in Edmonton followed by a trip to the Camrose area on Sunday where I delivered mail to that community and had a meeting with some of the members of the Sons of Norway regarding their new cultural center. Since a number of meetings had contained me in the area, I was also able to meet with the Camrose Chamber of Commerce, Town and Country Meeting on Nov. 1st.

On Wednesday, November 13th, I met with a family in the Donalds community on a matter dealing with flooding of farmland and then journeyed to Stettler for a meeting with the staff of Canada Manpower. That evening I had the privilege of being guest speaker for the United Grain Growers

WARNING! WATCH THOSE FUMES

TAKE NO CHANCES

CHECK YOUR CHIMNEY AND VENT PIPES NOW.

- Are fumes leaking from corroded vents or poor vent pipe connections?
- Are the vent pipes properly secured?
- Is there evidence of rust formation or soot on the burners, vent pipes or appliances?
- Watch for moisture or a black liquid dripping from vent pipes.
- Is the top of the chimney (outside) free of obstructions? Check routinely during winter for snow or frost build up.
- Are you using a brick chimney where mortar or other debris may be blocking the vent pipe entry? (Check with a hand mirror at the clean out opening.)
- Check that the vent pipe is not inserted too far into the chimney that the end is blocked.

APPLIANCES NEED AIR FOR COMBUSTION, VENTS CAN REVERSE AND SPILL DANGEROUS FUMES INTO YOUR HOME.

- Has your furnace been enclosed by building a ramped room or laundry room without provision for an adequate air supply?
- Never operate a forced air furnace unless the fan compartment door is closed and properly secured.
- Exhaust fans and fireplaces can create a lower air pressure in your home than the outside causing gas vents to reverse and spill dangerous fumes into your home when the house is tightly sealed. It may be necessary to open a window.

Killam to extend invitation

KILLAM - As you're digging out your Christmas tree, let's tell you that the mull strike is over, the Homecoming '76 Committee hopes you'll remember to add a note to each card to a former Killamite reminding them again of our homecoming dates - Aug. 8, 9, 10 and 11.

The committee in charge of reinviting names and addressee of former residents, Amy Robinson (383-3308), Marion Wilson (382-2148), Margaret Gibb (383-2003), Margaret Dutton (383-3430), and Irvin Posen (383-3481), now have some 1,000 names with addresses.

They feel however that this is just a beginning. The total should be nearer 5,000 now but the mail strike has greatly hampered them.

So as you address your Christmas cards won't you check again with one of this committee to make sure all the names and addresses you can give are really in their files.

KILLAM PUBLIC SCHOOL

On Tuesday, December 2nd, the Killam Cougar's Basketball team played against a team of fathers and teachers, which the boys had chosen to play. The adults played a very fine game being the victor over the Cougars, 44-38.

The Cougar's showed the skill that they used in other games and some girls for Junior High cheered for the adults while the regular cheerleaders cheered the boys on.

The seemingly star player was Mr. A. Frendrich who scored 28 of the total 44 points scored by the adults. After the game was over the adults and spectators went into the school library for coffee and lunch.

A formation of birds was flying south for the winter, and one bird near the back asked another: "Why do we always follow the same old leader?"

Replied the other: "He's got the map."

Control land sales

Alberta expects to have rules on the law books by next spring that will control the sale of agricultural land within the province to foreigners.

But Premier Peter Lougheed has warned in a statement to the Legislature that federal foreign investment review powers may give Ottawa "unnecessary interference" in controlling land sales.

While the Lougheed administration has been concerned about possible purchases of land by foreigners, it has been "stymied to date by federal rules that would require the province to prohibit sales to non-residents, not just foreign owners."

The premier read a letter to the House from Prime Minister Trudeau that said Ottawa would make the necessary amendments to the Canadian Citizenship Act to give the provinces' power to restrict sales on the basis of citizenship.

Mr. Trudeau's letter indicated however that Ottawa would still have the power to rule on all transactions unless the foreign investment review law.

The law states that Ottawa cannot rule on land transactions unless the sale is worth at least $10 million. But so far the federal government has been classifying its sales as businesses which allows the review agency to get involved if the sale is worth $250,000.

Mr. Lougheed told the House that fears of massive foreign land grabs may be false alarms on the basis of early reports from provincial monitoring of sales.

Records at the Land Titles office "tend to discount alarm" in this area and the need for "urgent legislative restrictions" he said.

However, Alberta is aware that some foreign investors are interested in land here as a "hedge against inflation" and expects to report next spring will be used as a guideline for the new rules, the premier said.

Since the province started monitoring land sales about a year ago, only 2.2 per cent of all rural land sales have been to foreigners. The foreign purchases were "well scattered" around the province, Mr. Lougheed said.

Opposition spokesmen criticized the premier's statement for offering would-be investors a warning to step up their plans for purchases. Several leader Bob Clark said the statement that rules were coming in the spring is tantamount to an open invitation to speed up deals to avoid the law.

Blank Christmas

Contributed

There's a bleak Christmas ahead for one young mother and her child, under the name Marilyn Creighton Lowen, a former Killam girl, has just lost her husband in tragic circumstances.

On Friday, September 26, 1975 David Lowen and a friend, Peter Peterson, were flown in to Gordon Lake 40 miles east of Fort McMurray for a weekend hunting and fishing trip. The pilot dropped them and their supplies and arranged to return for them on Sunday, September 28, 1975. That was the last time either man was seen. When the pilot arrived to pick them up, he found only their canoe, some paddles and a few articles of clothing apparently washed up on shore.

The Fort McMurray R.C.M.P. were notified and an immediate air-ground search was begun, but it proved fruitless. Dragging operations were carried out for 17 days and again there was not a trace of the missing men and finally the search operations ceased.

Because David Lowen's body has not been found, he will not be declared legally dead by the courts for 7 yrs, during which time his bank account and his life insurance policies have been frozen by the government.

His wife and six month old daughter, Tasha, are left with no means of financial support and a load of debts they cannot pay. These debts include a bank loan fully insured with a life insurance policy in David's name. But he's not legally dead.

David's employer, Great Canadian Oil Sands, did offer Marilyn some assistance. This continued on page 12

Is Christ in you?

"Know ye not your own selves, how that Jesus Christ is in you, except ye be reprobat?" 1 Cor. 12:3.

Paul said "I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me, and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God who loved me and gave himself for me." Gal. 2:20
 To His saints "God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory: As you have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him; rooted and built up in him, and established in the faith as you have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving." Col. 1:27; 2:6-7.

Think of FERTILIZER NOW

Every farmer is interested in saving time and money. One of the best ways to do this is by using fertilizer faster and easier. It's 4-6-0. High analysis phosphate fertilizer from Elephant Brand, 11-5-0 makes 11-4-0 obsolete. Why? Fertilization is faster because fewer tons are required to do the job. Fewer tons means less handling, less labour and less time filling your applicator.

And fertilization with Elephant Brand 11-5-0 is easier — on you and your equipment. The Elephant Brand people have developed a way to make 11-5-0 virtually dust free, so it's less irritating to you and there's less chance of plugging your applicator.

11-5-0 is just one of the many quality products and services your Elephant Brand dealer has to offer. Drop in to see him now.

Keeping in touch

In an earlier column, I promised that I would write comment on labour management disputes, a topic which receives its stimulus from the recent postal strike.

May I suggest that we start from the premise that all people ought to have the privilege in a democratic society to better their lot in life on the assumption they also do not infringe on the wellbeing of others. In the independent business world, that practice is widely accepted. Farmers recognize that if they want to improve their conditions, it is their privilege to attempt to do so. Likewise, other busnessmen have a similar privilege. However, it ought to be recognized that fundamental disputes, a topic which receives its stimulus from the recent postal strike.

The fundamental problem in the labour management disputes of recent years is that they encompass a psychology of confrontation rather than one of co-operation and secondly, there is no required correlation between productivity and reward. Thus, while in many cases, you have examples of productive and efficient labour which are rewarded rather than the salaries they make, we do, on the other hand, have a disturbing number of people who are being financially and otherwise rewarded beyond an extent that is justified by their output.

The essential elements of production are capital, technology, management and labour. Ideally, the more efficiency all of these forces work together, the higher the rate of production and subsequently, the greater the benefits that ought to be shared amongst those that contribute to labour and management input. Under the present system, however, labour and management are often pitted against each other; a situation of confrontation rather than co-operation and, thus, the cost results are counterproductive rather than a system of dignified efficiency.

While one could enumerate at great length examples to illustrate the inefficiencies and counterproductivity that have accrued from the present labour management system, perhaps it will suffice to reiterate that ideally we are seeking a method by which just rewards result according to input or productivity. Certainly, it is difficult to criticize a labourer for receiving a high salary if, on the other hand, it can be demonstrated that he has in fact contributed extensively to the production in our society.

After a study of some seven different labour management relation programs that are in operation in various other democratic countries in the world, I have come to the conclusion that Canada does not need to patch up the present system, but rather needs to opt for a totally new labour management relationship program. The fact that Canada now has the world's worst record amongst the free nation countries for man days lost due to labour strikes, is reason enough why we have to rethink the system.

Of the seven different systems that are in operation elsewhere I tend to favour the one that is generally labelled as "Co-determined Relations or Industrial Democracy". This is a system used in West Germany and it should be noted that in the past decade Germany has had a high degree of productivity with a very insignificant number of labour management confrontations.

In a continuing column, I will give some explanation of some of the different labour management systems that are in operation elsewhere so as to extend to you a "thinkpiece" for your consideration on this issue of vital importance. To be sure, all citizens of Canada wish to see that each in this society is justly rewarded for his or her contribution and it is high time that we developed a system that matches human nature and is still in line with our economic principles.

Since the conclusion of the postal strike, I am once again receiving numerous letters and I very much appreciate the opportunity for keeping in touch.

Sedgewick and District News

Former Sedgewick resident Mrs. Robin Cox of Edmonton spent several days last week as a guest of Mrs. Jean Muirhead and visiting with friends in Killam and Sedgewick.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Truss of Calgary spent the weekend at his parental home, the Larry Truss's.

At the four tables of whist players at the Senior Citizens' Card Party on Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Clara Johanna and Mrs. Hazel McKinnon led the ladies high. Mr. and Mrs. Art Falla won for the men. Congratulations were awarded to Mrs. C. Davis and Mr. Harry Pottage.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Donald Robertson on the birth of an 8 lb. 15 oz. son, Benjamin Donald, born at the Killam Hospital on December 8th. Proud grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. C. Robertson. Also congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Doug McClellan on the arrival of a 6 lb. 8 oz. Jeffrey Douglas at Killam Hospital on December 11th. Mr. and Mrs. Red Culbert are happy with their new grandsons.

Mr. Bob Muirhead, Mr. Gordon Muirhead and Mr. Wayne Schmitz, who are all working at Three Hills, spent the weekend at their homes here.

Congratulations and best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Ted Archibald (nee Wendy Simpson) who were married by the Rev. George Butler at the Alliance United Church on Friday, December 12th.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Backen returned at the end of November from a four week tour of Hawaii, Fiji, New Zealand and Australia. In New Zealand they visited at Christchurch with the parents of Mr. Robin Patterson, who teaches in the High School here. While in Australia they phoned Mr. and Mrs. Graham Hannan who lived here for a few years. The Hannans are well liked and to be remembered to their many friends here. Gudrun said the whole trip was a real adventure and there was something interesting and different about each place. But she thought that Fiji was best of all, she found it so unspoiled by civilization and the natives so proud of their little country. The only complaint she had was that the time just wasn't long enough to really absorb all there was to see. Maybe there'll be another trip sometime!

Congratulations and best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. George Lepard (nee Stelaine Thidall) who were married at the Anglican Church at 4:00 p.m. on Friday Dec. 12th.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Taylor left on Tuesday for a visit to their two daughters and families in the United States. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sparrow and girls spent a recent weekend in Red Deer visiting Jack's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Koehli left on Tuesday for Edmonton where they will stay overnight before boarding a plane for Singapore to visit daughter Karen and family, and Mrs. Ken Schampmeyer and children.

Planned to see Mrs. Florence Chappell here and around again after surgery in Camrose Hospital.

Miss Mrs. Stella Kneeland and son Blair in Camrose last week and was happy to hear from her that Mr. Lawrence Kneeland is now at home at the farm after a lengthy stay in the University Hospital. Stella said that considering all he has been through he is feeling pretty good.

Newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. George Lepard have taken up residence in Culbert Court. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Johnson attended a Battle River Planning Commission Christmas Party at Wetaskiwin on Wed. Mr. Johnson represents the town of Sedgewick on the Commission.

Lindsay Jack and Jimmie Hampshire left here on Saturday for Calgary where, with six young fellows from Killam, they boarded a plane early Sunday for a flight to the Barbados. They will spend three weeks soaking up the sunshine.

RIBBON SHOWER FOR HARDISTY BRIDE-TO-BE

On Sunday, December 7, a number of ladies met in the United Church C.R. Building at Hardisty to honor Miss Dorothy Jackson on her forthcoming marriage.

The hall was attractively decorated in red and white. A very interesting program was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Cantlon and Mrs. Hays provided inspiring readings. Miss Gail Koblitz sang a lovely number, and Miss Mrs. Joan Deinger a group of six class held a mock wedding. Two "brides" were dressed from an assortment of materials producing very unique outfits.

Three of Dorothy's former piano pupils, Janice Birk and Nancy and Kristine Keith brought lively musical numbers. Dance sang "O Perfect Love", a number sung at Dorothy's parents' wedding.

Aiding the bride with the opening of presents were her quince, her sister Terry and Miss Shirley Reber.

Guests Koblitz tastefully decorated a hat from the gift ribbon haul.

Miss Dorothy thanked the ladies for their many beautiful gifts. A lovely lunch was served.

Mrs. Anne Forberg went to Edmonton this last weekend.

We are glad to hear that Jimmy Tapp, who underwent surgery in University Hospital is home and feeling better.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Doug McClements on the birth of their son on Dec. 11 at Killam Hospital.

Due to cold weather, the arena travelling supper was called off but a large crowd gathered at the Legion Hall and had their supper there.

The evening was spent with card singing and skits. A presentation was made to thank Mrs. Sandy Tapp for all her work involved in making this a success. Her friends found out that the loved "Lafes" a Norwegian dish so they presented her with a Lafes Grill to bake them on. So if anyone wants some, see her as she can make them better than on Norwegian. Best of luck to all the hard working members and a big thank you to one and all.

Hardisty Happenings

was that so few younger ladies attended, and as hospital auxiliaries have a long range project, younger women and younger men too, have more to give than older Senior Citizens.

Mrs. Cantlon entertained Mr. and Mrs. Jackson, Mrs. Parsons and Mrs. Neill Johnston to a very "scrumpious" supper recently which was greatly enjoyed by all.

The U.C.W. held their Christmas party last Tuesday evening in the C.E. Building with a good attendance, some from the country even venturing out on the very icy roads. A constant mix of words pertaining to Christmas was enjoyed and a recitation by Mrs. Cantlon regarding Maggie and Jiggs conversing with St. Peter at the Golden Gates was really good and we younger ones are always amazed at Mrs. Cantlon's wonderful memory. Mrs. Maryon Drager recited a comical piece too.

Dues by Doris Powell and Doreen Bell with Mrs. Barbara Hays bringing the Christmas message to all, completed the program. After an exchange of gifts, a lovely lunch was served.

This is an event that is looked forward to, and enjoyed by all at the Christmas season. A very enjoyable reception and dance was enjoyed by all attending the Chart-Met wedding last Saturday in the Community Hall at Sedgewick.

Some of those seen from Hardisty area were Edith Wilson, Bill Inka, Millie Hall, Bill and Merle Chave, the Sneathman brothers and their wives, Bill and Rose Barnes, Gilbert and Ruth Tillmar, Ross and Gail Gibson, Don and Doris Fraser, Gus and Virginia Johnson, also your reporter, Isabel Nelson who had the honor of holding the bride's beautiful bouquet for awhile. Does that mean anything????

The happy young couple are making their home in Camrose.

The Strong Ladies held their Christmas party in the Elks Hall on Dec. 14th with a good attendance of adults and children. Everyone brought food so it made a very interesting potluck meal.

A parody of "This is the Law" was given by the young people, Todd Korth being the Mountie and Bobby Goodrich Santa Claus who broke the law.

"Twas the night before Christmas" was enacted by some members and was very good. A solo by Gail Koblitz and songs by her niece, Heather Tillmar rounded out the program. Santa passed out gifts and bagged treats were given to the children. A good time was had by all with people making their own entertainment.

Correction To Whom it may Concern: Retraction of statement made in October 18, 1975 issue of Community Press, concerning painting of St. Mark's Anglican Church and Hall, Hardisty.

This donation has to this date not been made; further more will not be made by the (Alderice Family) in memory of the late Mrs. Annie Alderice.

Killam dads and moms

The Killam gym was the scene of some furious and sometimes comical competition on Friday, December 12th. Over fifty parents, grades five and six students, and teachers competed in an exciting basketball tournament.

Two divisions were established with a round-robin type competition in each division. The top team then competed against each other in a final.

Sudden death overtime was necessary to decide the final winners. Mr. Jim Black and Mr. Ralph Sorenson treated the spectators to a fierce plucking duel as the ball was blasted from end to end. The goal post saved Mr. Black's team several times and a goal was finally scored by Mr. Sorenson.

The winning team consisting of Ricky Fawcett, Mr. Jim Black, Mrs. Irene Black, Lee Black, Debbie Trotter and Mrs. Louise Grant were presented the "A" trophy by David Smolaki.

David Bonnett presented the "B" trophy to the runner up team of Leighton Sorenson, Mr. Ralph Sorenson, Leon Coote, Mrs. Norma Whitecock, Ted Smolaki and Mrs. Connie Smolaki.

The trophies were made by last years Physical Education option class and the evening was a project of one of the groups in this years Physical Education option class. David Smolaki was the group leader.

Everyone was treated to coffee, lemonade and sandwiches following the game. The evening was declared a success by everyone.

Christmas is a time when we should all be thinking of the less fortunate. The spirit of Christmas is to bring joy to all, and to help those in need. Let us all join together in giving to those who are less fortunate than ourselves.

As we begin the festive season, let us all remember the poor and needy. Let us all give to those who are in need, and let us all strive to make the world a better place for all.

Today's nation and people share in the joy of Christmas. Let us all join together in giving to those who are in need, and let us all strive to make the world a better place for all.

The Gift of Grace

This is the season of Christmas. For many of us, it is a time of great pressure and activity, a time when we are often too busy to think of the needs of others.

One that you will seek reconciliation with and peace with persons with whom you have at the moment a relationship of unhappy rivalry and peace. During the year that is rapidly coming to a close, you have perhaps had many experiences with more kinds of people, those with whom you live, those with whom you work, or those with whom you play, and in the course of these dealings there have been times when the relationships were strained and ruptured, and a desert and a sea desolved between you and someone else.

You were so busy with your own responsibilities, and perhaps so full of hostility yourselves, that there was no time to give to the business and experience and the grace of reconciliation. So will you think about such a person, find a way by which you can restore a lost harmony, so that your Christmas gift to yourselves will be peace between you and someone else. For Christmas is the season we celebrate the birth of the One who was born for us, and for the reconciliation between God and the world. We seek the right and good relationship with God, we should also seek the right and good relationship with other people. What is your relationship with Him who was born for you? Do you have a good relationship with your loved ones, friends, neighbors and other people?

The second is just as simple. Will you with your imagination, with your fancy, will you conjure up into your mind's eye a gift of grace that you might give to someone for whom you have no obligation, someone whose need is not so great that if you do not respond to it during this season you will feel guilty - but someone upon whom you might confer a private blessing. It might seem to you that you are not in a position to do this, but remember that you are a child of God, and as such you are a part of His family. You are a part of the body of Christ, and as such you are a part of the Church. You are a part of the world, and as such you are a part of the human race. You are a part of the universe, and as such you are a part of the cosmos. You are a part of the whole, and as such you are a part of the totality of existence.

While we celebrate the birth of Jesus of Nazareth, we should remember the meaning and the purpose of His coming into the world. He was born as a Mediator to bring reconciliation between God and man and between men and men. He was born to be a friend to every human being regardless of known or unknown. He was born to be a Comforter to those who are lonely, rejected, sick, depressed, distressed, broken-hearted, mourned, and troubled etc. Have you included these in your Christmas celebration? Or, do you celebrate His birth by simply enjoying yourselves with your loved ones? Do you remember these things? Have you included these in your Christmas celebration? Or, do you celebrate His birth by simply enjoying yourselves with your loved ones? Do you remember these things? Have you included these in your Christmas celebration?

Now may I take this opportunity to wish you and your loved ones the warmest seasonal greetings. May the peace and joy of Christmas be with you all. May the grace of God be with you all. May the love of Christ be with you all. May the peace of the Holy Spirit be with you all. May the joy of the angels be with you all. May the glory of the Father be with you all. Amen.

Grain situation and outlook

Now that this year's crop production is underway across the prairies, producers can give further consideration to grain supply and demand. To evaluate the situation for Canadian grains, it is necessary to study the world grain picture. A recent publication of the Canadian Grains Council titled "World Grain - Supply and Demand Situation" analyzes this year's and next year's prospects.

Wheat Situation: In 1974-75 adverse weather for crop production in several countries reduced the world wheat crop by 5% from the previous year to 347 million metric tons. This decrease was particularly significant in the U.S.S.R. where production fell by 26 million tons.

Exports of wheat for this crop year are forecast at 100 million metric tons. This is an improvement over last year. World wheat shipments could reach 65 million tons in 1975-76, but would be less than the 67.5 million tons exported in 1973-74. Wheat stocks in stores at the end of the current crop year in the major exporting areas (Argentina, Australia, Canada, E.E.C. and U.S.) are estimated to be lower than during the last three years. Stocks could be about 1/2 the volume on hand at the end of 1977-78.

When final statistics are available, it is anticipated world wheat consumption will have shown a slight decline from the previous two years to 325 million tons.

Wheat Outlook: Production in 1975-76 is likely to be larger than during 1974-75. The high prices for wheat experienced this year will likely stimulate more wheat production in many areas of the globe. Increased plantings, coupled with the assumption that last year's poor weather will not be repeated, could mean a record crop - in the order of 370 million tons. If production reached this magnitude, it would represent a 6% increase over 1974-75.

Trade in wheat could be highly dependent on the size of the Russian and Chinese crops. However, a lack of foreign exchange in many nations and the potential for improved wheat output could result in less demand. It appears that wheat exports could reduce to 60 million tons in 1977-78.

Coarse Grain Situation: Production of coarse grains declined in 1974-75 to 363 million metric tons from 401 million in 1973-74. The U.S. contributed significantly to the shortfall when corn output dropped by 20%. Fewer livestock on feed and a smaller grain supply during the current year are forecast to reduce coarse grain exports to 68 million tons in 1975-76. World stocks of coarse grains are expected to total 40 million tons at the end of the crop year, 14 million less than one year ago.

Consumption of coarse grains is also estimated to be lower in 1975-76, at 378 million tons. This is a decrease of 29 million tons from 1973-74. Coarse grain availability, lower meat consumption and consequently less livestock feeding are the major factors involved in the reduction.

Coarse Grain Outlook: Considering the size of the U.S. corn crop is likely to increase, it appears world coarse grain production will expand in 1975-76. Total output could reach 600 million tons, a rise of 5% from 1973-74. If this is achieved, it would surpass the 1973 record for coarse grain production.

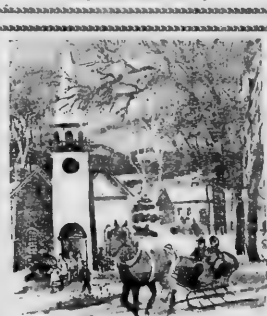

It seems probable that world coarse grain consumption will increase next year to almost 600 million tons. High production may encourage more grain exports during the 1975-76 crop year. Unless coarse grain prices decline, trade in coarse grains appears likely to remain about the same as in 1974-75.

What does this mean for Canadian grain producers? Markets for our wheat may not expand beyond our 1974-75 share of world exports - approximately 440 million bushels. Domestic demand for feed grains could increase during 1975-76 with increased livestock feeding. Barley exports could total 115 to 135 million bushels, if U.S. crops are slack.

Drager-Grant married

Saturday, December 20, was the day of a beautiful wedding in the Killam area. The bride, Debbie Grant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Grant of Killam, and the groom, Jerry Drager, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Drager of Killam.

For the bride, Debbie was radiant in a long white tulle gown with a high neckline and empire waist. Her hair was styled in a simple, elegant updo. The groom, Jerry, wore a dark suit and tie. The ceremony was held in a small, intimate setting.

Blue Suits, White Ruffled shirts and Pale Blue Bow Ties. The bridesmaids were Rust and Yellow Mums, an offering of the bride's mother. The groomsmen wore white suits, white shirts and white ties, with a Red Rose boutonniere, an offering of the groom's father.

Ushers were Jerry Grant of Alliance and Greg Sambrook of Edmonton.

Member of the Bride chose a Lime Green dress with a cascade of white and gold mums. The Groom's mother wore a Green Plaid dress with a cascade of white and gold mums.

Before Debbie and Dean pledged their vows, Ken Grant, Uncle of the Bride sang "The Wedding Prayer". After exchanging vows with a double ring ceremony the Bride and Groom then performed a "Two in One" song, "One Candle Service" before signing the register. Music was by Jess Ansell an Aunt of the Bride and Rev. Jackson officiating the ceremony.

Following the Wedding Ceremony the Wedding Party and Families had Wedding Pictures taken in Hardisty, by D'n Wilder.

The Reception was held in Hardisty Elks Hall with Peter Stolt, cousin of the groom as master of ceremonies, while Roger Erickson, Uncle of the Bride presented the speech to the Bride. Guest book was attended by Cathy Erickson, cousin of the Bride. The head table was centered with a four-tiered wedding cake made by the Brides mother and decorated with Red Roses and White Doves by Mrs. Watson.

After, during and following the meal Ken Grant accompanied by Jess Ansell on the Piano again entertained guests with three lovely songs.

Following the Reception was an Open House and Dance with music by Tom and Alma Scott of Three Hills.

For going away the bride wore a Burgundy Tweed pantsuit.

Special guests at the wedding were Mrs. L. Erickson, Grandmother of the Bride and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Grant, Grandparents of the bride, all residing in Killam.

Out of town guests at the wedding were from: Ontario, Winnipeg, British Columbia, Swan Hills, Edmonton, Calgary, Rocky Mountain House, Camrose, Fairview, Hughenden, Killam, Strome, Irma, Alliance, Loughheed and Wetaskiwin.

4-H Club

HEISLER NORTH SEWING The meeting of the Heisler North Sewing Club was held on Nov. 25 in the Heisler School Library. O'Canada was led by Helen Weller and the pledge by Cathy Zimmer. We discussed a home raft to be held with the Heisler North Dairy. The horse was donated by Leonard and Marcelle Schulte. We decided to hold our 4-H Christmas party with the Heisler North Dairy also. We picked our Christmas names and are to spend from $1.50 to $2.00 for our gifts. We ended the meeting with impromptu speeches.

At the Kinnor house in Killam, a rather unlit design brightens their home for the holiday season. The name "Kinnor" is artistically done in multi-colored lights on the front of their brightly lit home. It's worth a drive by to view this, as the camera doesn't give it justice.

Quotes 'n Quips

Every time folks are led to they lose some of their ability to quit.

The Country Parson

The only real equality is the cemetery.

What does Christmas mean to you?

"Behold a Virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a Son, and they shall call His name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us, and He knew her not, till she had brought forth her first-born Son; and he called His name Jesus. Matt. 1:23, 25.

For the majority today, Christmas doesn't really mean very much. For instance, to many it means a time of giving and receiving gifts and feasting. For others it means just another holiday. While to the busy world it means big profits and gain. Yet there are many who feel it is the battle of spirits, which leaves them sick and jagged with the world and life in general.

Thank God, today Christmas means more than just a holiday. It has a real meaning. A meaning which brings life and joy to all.

The world said to Joseph, "What shall we do with this child?" He said, "I will keep him, and he will be called Jesus." He said, "I will keep him, and he will be called Jesus." He said, "I will keep him, and he will be called Jesus."

It is Christmas. It is the day when the world is born again. It is the day when the world is born again. It is the day when the world is born again.

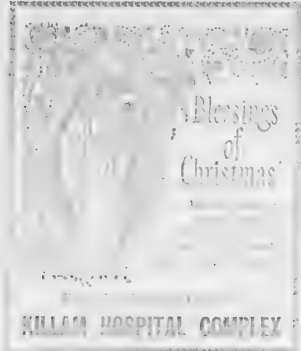

It is Christmas. It is the day when the world is born again. It is the day when the world is born again. It is the day when the world is born again.

May it be that this Christmas will be a day when we are born again. May it be that this Christmas will be a day when we are born again. May it be that this Christmas will be a day when we are born again.

Merry Christmas to All!
Be happy and full of good cheer now and throughout the holiday season.

Jeffery-Probst exchange vows

On August 16, 1975, Sharon Probst, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Probst of Lougheed, and Gary Brian Jeffery, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Jeffery of Ganges, B.C., were united in marriage at a lovely lawn wedding held at the home of the bride's parents.

Rev. Henry Tombran, of Lougheed, officiated at the double ring ceremony. Mr. Gordon Hallinger sang "O Perfect Love" and "Walk Hand in Hand With Me" during the ceremony, while Mrs. Rae Routhledge played the organ. A reading from Khalil Gibran's "The Prophet" was given by Ken Carlson, cousin of the groom.

The bride was escorted to the altar on the arm of her father. She wore a white satin floor length gown with chapel length train. The gown featured a square neckline, a high fitted bodice with front and back pin tucks, and long sleeves gathered into the buttoned cuff. The fingertip veil was held in place by a large headpiece. The bride's bouquet was of orange Abbey roses and white daisies.

quart was of orange Abbey roses and white daisies.

Rosanne Burden, friend of the bride, was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Margaret Ann, Janet and Valda Probst, all sisters of the bride. Flowergirl was Hope Quarantone of Whitecourt, a friend of the groom. They were dressed in floor length orange floral gowns and carried bouquets of yellow and white daisies.

Groom's attendants were Richard Ferchhoff of Rocky Mountain House and Ron Gouville of Whitecourt, friends of the groom; and Bill Allen of Edmonton and Ken Carlson of Chertill, cousins of the groom. The groom and his attendants wore dark green suits with Windsor style jackets. Ringbearer Derek Probst, nephew of the bride, wore a white suit. Ushers were Doug Nelson and David Jeffery.

For the wedding, the bride's mother chose a dress of orange, tucked material with wide bands of orange lace. The groom's mother wore a two piece dress of hot pink.

Following the wedding, a reception open house and dance were held at the Lougheed Community Hall. Brian Beanblossom, friend of the groom, was M.C. for the occasion. A toast to the bride was proposed by Joe Savage of Hildesley.

The bride's table was centered with a beautiful three-tier cake, made by the bride's mother and decorated by Mrs. V. Stettin in white roses and Lily of the Valley.

A telegram was received from the bride's aunt and uncle in Poland. Out of town guests were from Ganges, Vernon, Lethbridge, Whitecourt, Edmonton, Provost, Camrose and Stony Plain.

For a honeymoon trip to points in Saskatchewan, the bride changed to a coral skirt and sweater ensemble. The couple are now residing in Rosemary, Alberta where they are both teaching school.

The music of Christmas

Pastor P. Olsen
of the Lutheran Church

In 1741 a group of German people were gathered in a crude shelter of logs in the wilds of Pennsylvania, to observe Christmas. They had faced many trials and hardships to reach this new land of religious freedom. Count Zinzendorf, on sudden impulse seized a lighted taper and led the way into a building where the cattle were kept. As they went they began singing the old German hymn, "Not Jerusalem but lowly Bethlehem From that day that town is known as Bethlehem.

Two years later that group brought out a sparse organ from London to inspire them in their worship. Music, and especially Christmas music gave them lightness and added strength to face the hardships of frontier life. In the Christmas worship of 1743, viola of various kinds, flutes, and French horns added to great sounds of praise, carried by the breeze of the new world.

Is it any wonder that the first Symphony Orchestra ever organized in this new world should originate in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania? This city earned the title, "The Christmas City of America."

Bethlehem, gave birth to Christ, the centre of the calendar. Time, before His coming and after His coming is tuned to that Great Event, as music is tuned to middle C. Christ, the centre of Christmas music, musters divided men into a great symphony, and lifts the souls of men to a visible Faith in God's love and redemptive power.

Christmas brings again to our troubled and tired world a new Hope, Love and Strength. The Love of God brings men to a new high in showing love to each other in practical, visible ways. It is the message and music of Christmas that affects us with a lifting lifting power that passes understanding.

Despots, dictators and rulers of terror have banned music of Christmas and it's great symphonies and oratorios, sensing and fearing the power inherent to free men from slavery lifting them to brotherhood and sharing and forgiveness. Nothing can silence or chain the power of God which is in Christ Jesus, who is our Lord.

Yet with the woes of sin and strife, the world has suffered long.

Beneath the angel strains have rolled two thousand years of wrong:

And man at strife with man hears not The Love song which they bring.

Oh Stop Your Rush Ye Men of Strife and Hear The Angels Sing.

My Christmas prayer to all readers of the Community Press? God give you willingness to arrange your schedules to:

Rest beside the confusing roads,
And hear the angels sing.

A Prayer for Christmas

not a saviour afar off, but linked to our nature in the manner of His birth, in childhood, in humility, in love and sympathy. He who saw the light of day in the midst of the beasts of burden when first He threw the mantle of humanity over himself, has lifted from us the burdens of sin and anxiety. In Him we are glad.

With all the Angels who celebrated His birth we add our voice of joy. With the humble who inspired what these things meant, we still search for the truth of the incarnation. Give joy to all people this Christmas time, we earnestly pray. Bless all children, be with the poor and give to us all, and to all others, the spirit of good will and charity. Bring peace to earth, a reception of good tidings also. May the gifts of love manifest the spirit of Jesus, we ask in His name.

May this Christmas season be a real turning point in all our lives. A return to the real meaning of the nativity of our Lord. May every home be lit with the light of His presence.

The Temporary Rent Regulation Measures Act, establishes a system of rent regulation in Alberta effective immediately. The Act applies to residential premises rented in 1975, including mobile home pads. It does not apply to any residential premises constructed after January 1, 1976, or premises unoccupied in 1975.

Residential premises will each have attached, a "base rent" which will generally be the rental rate on December 31st, 1975, or the last rent charged in 1975. Any notices of rental increases which are due to take effect on January 1, 1976 will be covered by the Act. As such the increase will only be allowed up to the permitted maximum for 1976 of 10% of the base rent.

During 1976, a landlord may increase rent twice, but the total increase cannot exceed 10% of the base rent. From January 1, 1977 until June 30th, 1977, a landlord will be permitted to increase the rent of residential premises once by not more than 9% of the base rent, with the 1975 increase added, if any.

In exceptional circumstances, if a landlord wishes to increase the rent by more than the above, he may apply to a Rent Regulation Officer for approval to do so. Regulations covering this procedure will be forthcoming. Any notice of a permitted increase in rent and any application for an increase greater than the permitted must be made 90 days before the increase is proposed to take effect.

If services are reduced or cease from their level at October 1, 1975, a rent regulation officer can make an investigation. Landlords are required to notify any new tenant renting premises on or after January 1, 1976, of the "base rent" within 10 days of occupancy or by March 31, 1976.

A halt to further Condominium Conversion is imposed.

The Landlord & Tenant Act is amended to give tenants protection against eviction where they have taken some action under this Act.

The Act provided penalties for infringement.

The Act establishes a Rent Regulation Appeal Board to hear and decide appeals from the Rent Regulation Officers. Regional offices have been established in the following areas:

EDMONTON	427-6838	MEDICINE HAT	526-5994
CALGARY	261-8464	GRANDE PRAIRIE	532-9805
LETHBRIDGE	329-5505	FORT McMURRAY	743-1363

The Roayth Women of Uniform held their Christmas meeting at the home of Helene Busk. Delegates to Women of Uniform Convention held in Calgary recently were Kathleen Manning and Jeanette Crane.

A letter was received by your reporter from Myrtle Andrews who lives in 213 Harrison Road, Illinois. She has been busy making and selling dolls, 63 in all. A tractor had struck lifting up a recently vacated trailer, lifted it over a truck, then slammed it into the ground smothering it into bits. She said the noise was like many freight trains.

This was dated in November and her youngest son Neil had his crop all in and most of his plowing done.

She had visited with her son in Winnipeg and said the surely blessed Canada best. She used to live where Gilbert Tillman now lives.

A 10th wedding anniversary coming up in Victoria and of interest to people in Hardisty is the Anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. J.H. Perkins. Their address is 544 Vincent Ave, Victoria, and Mr. Perkins was a music teacher and played in the orchestra. Also played while the silent movies were being shown. Was also choir master at different times at both churches. Their daughter Gayne used to work in what is now the Tom-Boy Store. In the dry goods department. They would love to hear from their friends at open house on Dec. 28th.

Think of FERTILIZER NOW

Every farmer is interested in saving time and money. One of the best ways to do this is by using Elephant Brand 18-54. High analysis 18-54 is the most concentrated form of dry nitrogen available. This means less handling is required to spread your fertilizer requirements. 18-54 is free flowing and less corrosive than 34-0. These advantages mean big savings in time, labour and money.

It all adds up to the fact that when your soil needs nitrogen it needs 18-54. Talk to your Elephant Brand dealer now about 18-54 plus all his other top quality Elephant Brand fertilizers. Your Elephant Brand dealer also offers a full range of services, including soil sampling, equipment rental and the advice of an experienced Commercial Agronomist. So drop in and see him soon. Find out what's just right for your soil and your crops.

Good news from your Elephant Brand dealer: He's discovered a way to make fertilization faster and easier. It's 11-54-0, a high analysis phosphate fertilizer from Elephant Brand. 11-54 makes 11-0 obsolete. Why? Fertilization is faster because fewer tons are required to do the job. Fewer tons means less handling, less labour and less time filling your applicator.

And fertilization with Elephant Brand 11-54-0 is easier — on you and your equipment. The Elephant Brand people have developed a way to make 11-54-0 virtually dust free — so it's not irritating to you and there's less chance of plugging your applicator.

11-54 is just one of the many quality products and services your Elephant Brand dealer has to offer. Drop in to see him soon.

Mark 65th anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Sorenson of Killam, Alberta, who were married December 22nd, 1910, celebrated their 65th Wedding Anniversary on Boxing Day.

Mr. Sorenson arrived in Killam area from Westbrook, Minnesota, in December 1910 and is still residing on the original homestead. Mrs. Sorenson, nee Mary Johnson, also of Westbrook arrived with her parents in September of the same year.

The family hosted a dinner held in Sedgewick for approximately 45 relatives coming from Vancouver, Nanaimo, Vermilion, Calgary, Edmonton, Camrose, Wetaskiwin, and Killam. Seated with her parents at the head table were Esther Baker of Vancouver, Roy of Nanaimo, Ruth Peterson and Ralph of Killam, Amy Tracey of Newport Beach, California and Hartley of Vermilion were unable to attend. However, Hartley was able to send Christmas with his parents.

Ralph acted as Master of Ceremonies and called on Ruth and Roy to pin corsages on their parents. Then Rev. Gordon Sorenson of Edmonton, great nephew, returned thanks and gave a few remarks.

Following the dinner an informal program was enjoyed. Roy, on behalf of the family, proposed a toast to his parents and Kevin Sorenson on behalf of the grandchildren. Each guest then introduced themselves and an interesting time of reminiscing followed. Andrew is the sole survivor of the four Sorenson brothers who settled in this area. Present at the dinner was his cousin, Teddy Erickson, who is sole survivor of the seven Erickson brothers from Westbrook, who also farmed around Killam.

A gift of a stereo set was presented by the family. Congratulatory messages from Queen Elizabeth, Prime Minister Trudeau, Senator Ernest Manning, Lieutenant-Governor Ralph Steinhilber, Premier Lougheed, Leader of the Official Opposition Bob Clark and M.L.A. Henry Kroeger were read as well as greetings from relatives and friends unable to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Sorenson expressed their appreciation to each one for attending and in helping to make this occasion a happy one to remember.

An open house was held in the Killam Legion Hall from 2 to 3 p.m. Many neighbors and friends dropped in to extend their best wishes and enjoy the refreshments. They were welcomed at the door by Hartley's daughter Ellen, who was in charge of the guest book, made by Mrs. Carol Wilson. Pouring tea were Mrs. Macdonald, Mrs. Signe Cotton and Mrs. Ruth Peterson.

Rev. Fred Hunter, on behalf of the Killam Pentecostal Church, presented a lovely engraved tray. A purse of money from the community was also given.

Thus concluded a lovely wedding anniversary day with the sun shining brightly just as it did 65 years previously.

Well-known Lougheed resident laid to rest

For man's born to die and his sojourn on earth is a short span of years. Beginning with Birth Till death takes our hand And like pilgrims we wander And we start on our journey To God's Promised Land. A Place where we'll find no sufferings nor tears. Where Time is not counted by days, months or years And in this Fair City God has prepared. Are wandering joys to be happily shared. With all of our loved ones Who patiently wait On Death's other side. To open "The Gate" to us. Continued on page 3

THE TEMPORARY RENT REGULATION MEASURES ACT

The Temporary Rent Regulation Measures Act, establishes a system of rent regulation in Alberta effective immediately. The Act applies to residential premises rented in 1975, including mobile home pads. It does not apply to any residential premises constructed after January 1, 1976, or premises unoccupied in 1975.

Residential premises will each have attached, a "base rent" which will generally be the rental rate on December 31st, 1975, or the last rent charged in 1975. Any notices of rental increases which are due to take effect on January 1, 1976 will be covered by the Act. As such the increase will only be allowed up to the permitted maximum for 1976 of 10% of the base rent.

During 1976, a landlord may increase rent twice, but the total increase cannot exceed 10% of the base rent. From January 1, 1977 until June 30th, 1977, a landlord will be permitted to increase the rent of residential premises only by not more than 9% of the base rent, with the 1976 increase added, if any.

In exceptional circumstances, if a landlord wishes to increase the rent by more than the above, he may apply to a Rent Regulation Officer for approval to do so. Regulations covering this procedure will be forthcoming. Any notice of a permitted increase in rent and any application for an increase greater than the permitted must be made 90 days before the increase is proposed to take effect.

If services are reduced or cease from their level at October 1, 1975, a Rent Regulation Officer can make an investigation. Landlords are required to notify any new tenant renting premises on or after January 1, 1976, of the "base rent" within 10 days of occupancy or by March 31, 1976.

A halt to further Condominium Conversion is imposed.

The Landlord & Tenant Act is amended to give tenants protection against eviction where they have taken some action under this Act.

The Act provides penalties for infringement.

The Act establishes a Rent Regulation Appeal Board to hear and decide appeals from the Rent Regulation Officers. Regional offices have been established in the following areas:

EDMONTON	427-6838	MEDICINE HAT	526-5994
CALGARY	261-8464	GRANDE PRAIRIE	632-9805
LETHBRIDGE	329-5505	FORT McMURRAY	743-1363

Killam opens new library

Mayor G.C. Hilker has declared the week Jan. 19 to Jan. 25 Library Week in Killam to mark the re-opening of the public library in the school.

From Jan. 19 on there will be 22 hours a week that the library in the Killam Public School, which now contains both the school library books and the community library books, will be open to all members of the community and visitors.

Library patrons will not only have 22 hours per week of library service but the space for books is three times as much as in the former location and there is ample room for readers to sit in the library and read magazines and books. The County school committee arranged for the school board library to be relocated during Christmas holidays and they have purchased two area rugs. A pre-school area has been developed with smaller bookcases, a rug, and their books. As the whole library now is for the full use of students and adults the room will be a bustling place and the library board hopes adults won't feel shy about wandering throughout the shelves even if a table or two of students are busy, and perhaps noisily, doing research.

KILLAM MAN D'V'S THEATRE

It was announced this week that Bruno Bagdan of Killam has purchased the Princess Theatre from the former owners. The theatre has been closed since the recent fire. Preliminary work has been started for the re-opening which is expected to take place in April.

SEDGEWICK - LOUGHRED KINDERGARTEN

In November both of the Kindergarten classes visited the Sedgewick Post Office. They were also taken to see the play put on by the Citadel on Whistlers in Killam.

On Dec. 17 classes combined to present a Christmas program for the residents in the Sedgewick Lodge. Santa Claus helped them celebrate Christmas at parties held on Dec. 18th.

On Dec. 23 the 2 groups will switch times so that the morning will be going in the afternoon and those who have been going in the afternoon will attend morning classes.

Government for anti-inflation

by Kevin Peterson

The Loughred administration entered in the new year with anti-inflation programs securely written into the law books but still unable to enforce them.

A 10 per cent ceiling on rent increases for 1976 went in effect on schedule Jan. 1. Yet the agencies required to administer rent controls could take another two weeks, at least to set up.

Meanwhile, the province is still some time away from reaching agreement with Ottawa for administering restrictions on pay raises over the next 18 months for all public employees.

Officials and lawyers are still hard at work drafting, revising and studying detailed ways to hold civil service, health, municipal and school board salaries down to say government spokesmen.

Just about the only side of the anti-inflation plan passed at the fall legislature sitting that's turning out to be popular is the small job market the program has created.

A government spokesman expressed surprise recently at the number of applicants for the theory, short-lived job of rent regulation officer. More than 160 would-be rent controllers are seeking 35 spots.

While wage restraints will be dropped after 18 months, there is evidence that some of the quieter innovations behind rent hikes will be around much longer.

Consumer Affairs Minister Graham Harle now hopes to rewrite and toughen legislation setting out landlords and tenants rights - minus fixed ceilings on rent hikes - by mid-1977.

With nearly half the population of the major cities already living in apartments - a big slice of Alberta's population - the administration is beginning to assign urgency to landlord-tenant law.

In a series of background papers now being published, influential Institute of Law Research and Reform warns that Alberta's renters have only "very little" security against arbitrary landlords.

Suite owners can quickly evict tenants without saying why. Landlords are not obliged to repair their premises. They can deliver rapid-fire rent hikes. There is no ombudsman for troubled tenants who has any clout.

For 18 months, the rent controls shift the balance more in tenants' favor - and Mr. Harle promises not to forget them after they expire June 30, 1977.

While controls last, rent regulation officers can make binding orders. Tenants have formal avenues of complaint outside of costly court action. The officials can order basic upkeep and repairs and can block more than two rent increases a year.

The institute has warned the government to become more active reform in the rent market and the controls will likely become a trial run at official guarantees of tenants' rights.

Two rinks to provincials

The Curling Playoffs for Zone 11 for both ladies and schoolgirls were held at the Sedgewick Rec Centre on Jan. 11th and 12th.

In the Ladies first games, the Gould rink beat the Petruk rink while the Firkus rink beat the Brandingen rink. This dropped the Firkus and Brandingen rinks to the B section where Brandingen eliminated the Petruk rink. In the A section, the Firkus rink beat the Gould rink, thereby dropping them to the B section where they eliminated the Brandingen rink.

The winners of A section, the Firkus rink, then met the winners of B section, the Gould rink, in the final. The first game was won by Gould in an extra end. However, the Firkus rink came back strong and took the last game 11 to 1 in 8 ends so winning the playoffs.

Playing for the Gould rink were Mrs. Martha Pope as lead, Mrs. Helen Tanton as second, Mrs. Vivian Sparrow as third and Ardis Gold as skip. The Firkus rink consisted of Mrs. Yvonne Rawlukt as lead, Mrs. Shirley Ness as second, Mrs. Gladys Lien as third and Mrs. Firkus as skip. The winners will go to Edmonton from Jan. 23 to 26 to compete in the Provincial Championships at the Ottaville Curling Club.

No senior representatives were entered this year in Zone 11.

There were only 3 rinks in the Schoolgirls Playoffs. Walker from Tisdale, Bohmer of Bowell and Rose from Sedgewick. In the first game, Rose beat Walker, then lost to Bohmer. This dropped the B section where she again beat Walker. Rose and Bohmer then met in the final with Rose winning two games 5-3, 7-4.

So the Rose rink, consisting of lead Marv Shaw, 2nd Marv Shaw, 3rd Elaine Stevens and skip Penny Rose now goes to Edmonton to the Avastar on Feb. 6th to 8th to compete in the Provincial finals. Sharon Rose, zone co-winner of Canmore makes the representation in the above two photos.

Noted naturalist dies

A public service career of many years devoted to the conservation of wildlife was the noted Friday afternoon with the death of William G. Burgess of the Diamond R. Ranch near Round Hill, Mr. Burgess had just come into the house from working outdoors, when he was suddenly overcome and died immediately. He was 75.

Funeral services were conducted in Round Hill Community Hall, with the Rev. Bernice Osborne of Camrose officiating. Interment followed in the Royal Burial Memorial Grounds, at Round Hill. Burgess' Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

He is survived by his wife, Emma, two sons, Robert at home and Bud in the R.C.M.P., four daughters, Margaret at home; Gladys, at the Wellington Zoo, New Zealand; Betty Susan and Clara Harman at Edmonton; four granddaughters, a brother at Vancouver, and three sisters at Edmonton, Brownfield, and Carver River, Sask.

Born August 30, 1900, in London, England, he moved to Montreal with his family in 1903, and then to Alberta in 1911, where he helped his father farm. By 1914 they were working in the Veteran district and here he learned

REAL CLUB ACTIVITIES

BATTLE RIVER 4-H MULTI-CLUB
The night of Jan. 6, the Battle River School roared with laughter as recreation started the meeting once more. 24 members and-were there for a call with their New Years resolution. Our Community Project was discussed, and we finalized it by donating $30. to the Battle River School for our use of the light and gas.

Money, another problem of every organization was also discussed. A committee was then formed to look after the Fund Raising with the suggestion of a raffle, bottle drive, and bake sale. Our leader then informed us about the last District Council Meeting that took place and the one which is approaching us, urging all interested members to attend. He also informed us about the District Fair Day on Jan. 31 in Sedgewick, hoping a great number of us would attend. Community projects then wrapped up the meeting with a "Keep Talking" service followed by adjournment. The members then broke into their project groups with their leaders for project discussion. This was then followed by a delicious lunch. Reporter - Dianne Barns.

KILLAM LIGHT - HORSE C. The Killam Light-Horse Club held their Christmas Party on Dec. 17th in the United Church basement. Nearly all of the members and their families attended including the 4-H Beef Club and the 4-H Sewing Clubs as guests. Following a short meeting president Karen Iltis handed out the record books etc.

The program consisted of several members giving readings, singing, playing piano and guitar, skis and relays. The Sewing Club entertained us by doing a square dance. All were much enjoyed.

Lunch was then served. Thanks to leader Elsie Warfield for the pop, the Beef Club for the chocolate and the Sewing Club for the oranges.

The first meeting of 1976 will be held Jan. 8th, 8:00 p.m. at the old Killam Town Hall.

for their knowledge and their work.

Always a supporter of the work of the Fish and Game Society, his hard work of earlier years tapered off as he became more interested in the wildlife refuge he established, and he was called on to speak and show slides on many occasions. Using the slogan "Hawke Creek Wildlife Refuge" he called Mr. Hawke was called upon to travel far and wide, and on one occasion made a special trip to Camp Morton, 30 miles north of Edmonton, to show slides for Sister Richard and her class, as she expressed keen interest.

In 1954, he married the former Emma Mulholland, of Victoria Two years later he moved to the farm near Round Hill which he rented for 8 years before buying it in 1942. It was a proud moment only six years later when he completely discharged the mortgage, harnessing hard work to long working hours. However, with the farm free, he decided to give more time to a field he had been interested in for years, that of the conservation and in 1950 he made his first start.

In 1952, with the aid of the noted naturalist, Fred D. Bennett, he gained his first master's of Canada status and started on his long and interesting career of birding and observing the wild birds in their changing patterns. With Mrs. Bertha, he was a staunch helper, the flock extended and the Bertha's gained a good deal of fame.

Perhaps his personal creed can be recorded as well as any by the message he distributed by thousands on the back of his business card which reads: "Boys and Girls - You are young and as such, full of hope, sit down and think of what you would like to do about all else. Then get up and do it. Follow your star to the bitter end in spite of all hazards and perils. You will enjoy life to the full, and even if you do not have total success you will leave a lot of kind thoughts in the hearts and minds of others that may carry on where you left off."

The Gilbert Tillmans have arrived back after spending Christmas with Ruth's folks in Nova Scotia.

Just had a phone call from Wilda Bone and she had a visit by a niece (Mrs. W. Bone) of Carleton Place, Ontario. Her mother was a Bone and many years ago they lived on Old Nelson farm. Wilda was so happy to see her niece after an absence of nine years.

The Ken Blackwells are back again from the Rose Bowl Parade, Football game etc. But the flu bug was no respecter of persons or places, so their trip was not as pleasant as anticipated.

Christmas Day at Mrs. Nettie Johnston was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Kneller

When one of her fellow workers found out that she was from Hardisty, she was asked if she knew Dr. and Mrs. Cahill. She had met them at her cousin's wedding in Ireland a year before. Small world isn't it???

People are saying that "Viking" will still come back to play hockey against Hardisty in spite of the terribly one sided score Saturday night 19 - 3.

Shirley MacKenzie, Leorne and Bradley were in Calgary, and were there during that terrible snow storm. Shirley's sisters and their children had come to see her and there were 13 of them snowbound in a house for 2 days, the youngest 3 months. The weather was nice but

Melba Cameron
New President,
Gretna Goodwill Club

The Annual Meeting of the Gretna Club was held at the Marvin Ramboough home on Jan. 16th, with 8 members and 4 visitors in attendance. The president, Melba Cameron, opened the meeting by welcoming all and Mary Albrecht gave a reading, "The Other Ninety-Nine." The minutes of the previous meeting were read and accepted. The secretary-treasurer gave the financial report, which was accepted.

Election of officers for the coming year was as follows:
President — Melba Cameron
Vice Pres. — Elia Huse
Sec. — Tress, Mary Ramboough Club Reporter — Christie Armstrong Sick Committee — Helen O'Reilly

Regular business was dealt with, bills and memberships were paid. We are happy to have two new members, namely Helen Suberland and Margery Storkhagen. The "Red Call" — "An Article I have heard or read, brought out some very interesting ideas, especially Christie Armstrong's."

Silent Sisters for the past year were "Guessed at" — Only two of the ladies made correct guesses, the other 11 had to pay a fine of $1. each, nice for club funds, eh girls? Farewell gifts were given to our 1975 Silent Sisters and new draws made for 1976.

Helen O'Reilly thanked the Club ladies for their gift of a set of stacking stools.

The hostess, assisted by Melba, served a delicious lunch, including her Christmas cake for "luck for the coming year." Hostess Hattie was won by Christie Armstrong, and Helen O'Reilly had the Lucky Tea Cup.

See you all at Kathy's on Feb. 14th ladies.

Courts accused of sex discrimination

A disturbing lesson in human rights is being given the provincial government by an appeal judge who rejects Alberta practice of declaring the sexes adult in court at different ages.

Solicitor-General Roy Farman says the ruling could cost the population of provincial jails by a quarter, and force construction of new reform schools for 18 and 17 year old boys at great cost.

Attorney-General's department spokesmen say the finding is "under advisement" and an appeal by the government is nearly certain.

In a rare civil liberties ruling, District Court Judge W. A. Stevenson quashed two lower court convictions involving the law on juveniles as violations of the federal Bill of Rights.

He found the rule in Alberta saying males are adults at 18 while females are juveniles — and out of criminal courts and jails — until 18 amounts to unacceptable discrimination.

Technically, the finding affects federal legislation, but, in reality, it undermines longstanding provincial policy. Under the federal Juvenile Delinquency Act, provinces can request setting the age of majority differently for the sexes.

Alberta made the request about six years ago, to reflect boys' and girls' performance levels, rather than to discriminate, the solicitor-general says.

Galahad Sr. Citizens elect

The Galahad Senior Citizens Friendship Club met in the Drop-In centre on Thursday afternoon at 2:00 p.m. The President opened the meeting by repeating the Serenity Prayer and a few words of welcome.

Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. The Treasurer's report for the month was presented. Mr. Bowmes also presented the Auditor's report. Bills were presented. A motion was made that all bills be paid.

After a short discussion, motions were made that the club get some bingo cards etc. Mr. Wise reported that owing to the severe cold weather and Christmas, the bingo attendance had fallen but was cheerful that weather was warmer and he would be busy on Monday.

Election of Officers for 1976 followed:
President — Mrs. Anne Wiso Liaison Pres. — Scott Crenshaw and Vice Pres., Bill Stevens Secretary — Mrs. Alta Willis

Treasurer — Mr. Bill Wise
Mrs. Wise thanked the members and made a motion of Thanks for the wonderful work Mr. Hugh Bowmes had done as Sec. — Tress. She hoped that 1976 would be as successful as 1975 had been.

Plans were discussed for a new way of dealing with the lunch. In future couples will provide lunch and act as the Host and Hostess.

The Sr. Citizens will be entertaining the pupils of Grade 7 and 8 when they visit the Drop-In centre on Tuesday afternoon to interview the Sr. Citizens about the early history of Galahad.

The meeting was adjourned. Games were played and lunch was served by Mrs. Prunzio Gamroth and Mrs. L. Keichinger.

Birthday — Miss. Carrie Bowmes and Mrs. Alta Willis. Happy Birthday was sung and a beautiful cake was cut and enjoyed.

The Voice

Winston Churchill's voice moved England and the Allied world. "We shall fight on the land, on the sea and in the air—we shall fight on and never fail."

Thinking men still ponder his almost immortal words. "Never have so many been indebted to so few for so much. This quote is preserved from one of his addresses. "I say that the great theme of Christian ethics is still our highest guide. To guide and cherish it is our first interest, both spiritually and materially. The fulfillment of spiritual duty in our daily life is vital to our survival. Only by bringing it into perfect application can we hope to solve for ourselves the problems of the world."

"A Voice: What is that to be about, the world is full of voices," some say. This is not true. Our world and our communities are full of parasites, babblers, content chatters, discord and noise playing back accepted public opinions.

Who Are You? This question is scarcely asked of a man who spoke out. He used his voice to stop parrot people in their tracks and to encourage them to re-dedicate themselves to higher capabilities under God. He called people to report of their sins and turn to Almighty God for an obedient guidance. This is in essence what Churchill did.

We live in a time when men will sell their souls under the guise of "getting with the times." As a result we are surrounded with swirling grey mists. Ethics is situational. That which degrades body, mind, home, marriage, children, church life, social life, political life and worst of all individual and national conscience, has so many whispering followers crying for "legalization of all things." You hear them parroting "blue laws." Now, in the moments of common sense one can know what's blue, when the basic colours of black and white are not known and blue is grey.

John the Baptist, God's voice at that time spoke out about it; judgement at the door. It is clear that this judgement is now here. The price for not heeding the Voice of God is very high. (The cost of alcoholism, drugs, broken homes, abandoned children, teen-age crime, prison programs—to mention a few—are enormous) In the immediate future the price will go higher. This is directly treacherous to "parrot people so anxious to 'get with the times'."

You and I, if we are Christians, are called upon to lift up our voice, get back to the Bible for Divine directional ethics, to save ourselves and others. John would probably say, "This is a gut issue, calling for men with guts."

Mrs. Osbeck conducted the devotional with the text, "Wendroday show thy steadfast love, O avenger of those who seek refuge from their adversaries at thy right hand."

In this new year resolve to be kind in every way. Bring peace and joy to all. Condemn not those who make mistakes rather help them up. A poem, "Don't Find Fault" and a prayer closed the devotional.

A letter from Russell Center was read thanking the U.C.W. for the shipment of good used clothing. They asked for children's clothes size 2-6 also for household effects and furniture.

Church calendars were sold and dues collected for the year. Programs were handed out. The next meeting is to be held on Feb. 11. Roll Call will be a sympathy card and used stamps.

Annual reports were presented. It was decided to bring our dishes up to the required numbers and get new curtains for the church parlor windows.

The purpose of the U.C.W. is to provide a medium in which women can express themselves in the Christian citizenship mission, share experiences, support the community, and encourage understanding.

Mrs. J. Forster brought the meeting to a close with a reading about January. It was named after the two faced god Janus. One face looks backward and one forward. It is well for us to review what can be done in the coming year.

LOUGHEED W.I.

Mrs. H. Probst was hostess for the regular meeting of the Lougheed W.I. at her home on Jan. 15.

The meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. W. Patterson, who led the members in repeating the W.I. Creed. The minutes of the Dec. meeting and a director's report were read and adopted. This was followed by the treasurer's report and committee reports. Four $2.00 well cards had been sent.

Work is progressing well in setting up the library. The shelves have arrived and the provisions have been received. Some books have been purchased, and many have been donated. It was decided one dollar per year per family would be charged for membership when the library is open to the public.

Three large boxes of clothing had been packed and sent to the Unitarian Service Committee.

Roll call was answered by each member donating a "paper back" toward the library. Eleven members and one visitor were present.

Mrs. W. Frost, co-chair for Citizenship and Education had charge of the program, and read an article on the Port McMurray Tar Sands Development. It expressed the feelings of the organization "Stop" toward the danger to the environment and people from the toxic by-products of production when the plant is in operation.

Mrs. G. Coates and Mrs. V. Strubbe will be hostesses for the Feb. meeting and the convenor of Health and Home Economics will be in charge of the program.

HAZELWOOD CLUB

The Hazelwood Club Deed Club held their January meeting at the home of Mrs. E. Dwyer, with 10 of their 14 members and visitors. Mrs. Jerry Johnson, Mrs. Margaret Dwyer, Mrs. Shirley Dwyer and Miss Molly Ferguson have served the sub-committee to come to the meeting. As co-president and secretary were unable to attend, Mrs. Dwyer, Mrs. E. Dwyer and Miss Molly Ferguson acted as substitutes. Mrs. Inga Haugen, Mrs. Josephine McClements was elected to take minutes at the meeting. Minutes of the last meeting were transmitted over the telephone. The treasurer's report was given. Thank-you's were read from the Lougheed Senior Citizens and Flaxmill Lodge for donations of money that the club had sent them. A vote of thanks to Mrs. Violet Mot and Mrs. Olive Love for the nice job done on the Christmas Caddy bags. It was moved at the meeting to send our birthday money to the Geym Home in November as a Christmas gift. Our sunshine money goes towards small gifts, cards and postage. Mrs. Adelaide McClements was elected to purchase layette materials and supplies and get them ready.

The next topic was our annual quilt. It was in favor by all to make another one of the same pattern but to change the color. It was moved and carried that Mrs. D. Swanson and Mrs. A. McClements be the quilt convenors and purchase the necessary materials. Club also decided to book their Christmas and Tea dates and was asked by Mrs. Jerry Johnson if they would be interested in catering at a woman's day at the New Horizons on February 16. There was no birthday girl for January, but being as there was no meeting in December, our hostess, Mrs. Eadie Drager, made a beautiful, but surprising birthday cake with three unquenchable candles for our birthday girl, Mrs. Inga Haugen. Mrs. Olive Love, Mrs. Josephine McClements and Mrs. Eadie Drager had prepared a beautiful "Happy Birthday" was being sung, the handsome trim with pulled cheeks were trying so hard to blow out the candles but never did succeed. The hostess prize went to Mrs. Geris Thorp. The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Inga Haugen. The meeting was adjourned.

Hardisty News Items

While in Edmonton last Tuesday night, Mrs. Catherine Martin in the Maceridric and found out that her roommate was Mrs. Iola Mack. She used to be Iola Brownson, a sister of Mrs. Willet Arden, also Earl Brownson's and used to go to school at Silver Lake.

She is to undergo surgery, her address is 8726-106 Ave. If any of her old school friends would like to get in touch with her, she has been away from Hardisty for some years, but Mrs. and Mrs. Willet Arden would be up to see her now, your reporter was there.

Jack McDonald, our trusty car driver visited to be remembered to all his friends here and in Alliance.

Your reporter was indeed saddened to learn that the couple killed in east Edmonton last Monday was a cousin of Jack's and your reporter had gone to school with her husband, Merritt Young had worked for the M.C.I. of Pro-vost for many years.

A few old friends of Jim Brady who was an old timer between Hardisty and Amisk some years ago, were delighted to attend his 100th birthday party at Benson Heights Hall in Edmonton on Jan. 17th.

A banquet was held for family and friends followed by open house and a dance. Thirteen guests and nephews came by plane from Vancouver.

Hardisty and Amisk areas Among those attending from were Mr. and Mrs. James Whitehead, Keith Bodin, Eleanor Moody and Faith Longman who were met in Edmonton by Ruth's son and daughter, Leslie and Elsie, Art and Arlene Weyn who also celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Anhol.

Jim Brady has boarded with Hazel (Hiltz) Lindgren for many years and a most wonderful time was reported by those attending.

Sympathy is extended to the Kerth families on the passing away of Otto Kerth, whose funeral was Jan. 19th in Hardisty.

Mrs. Lottie Kells is now moved to her new place of residence, Flaxmill Lodge in Sedgewick. We hope that she will enjoy her new home.

The long awaited draw by the Elks Lodge took place on Friday night at the Bingo in the Elks Hall, with Elks Paul Murray, Don Baumgartner, and Doug Dwyer (sorry that I do not have your proper titles) overseeing the drawing and Doug calling on various members of the crowd to come up and draw a name, the results were as follows:

$200 to Wayne Bignell of Sedgewick,
$200 to Wayne Reber of Hardisty,
$250 to Mollie Little of Hardisty, $75 to Terence Clark of Car.
$25 to Joe Cameron of Lougheed, $100 each to Paul Mazure, Fred Mitchell, Marguerite Dwyer, Eleanor Moody all of Hardisty and Vice Spencer of Consort.

Sorry to hear that Pauline Cavanagh is again hospitalized in Edmonton so we send her all wishes for a speedy recovery.

Mark Burn's birthday

A fair crowd attended the Variety Program in honor of Robbie Burns, sponsored by the Sedgewick and District Agricultural Society, on Sunday, January 25th in the Community Hall.

M.C.'d by Lief Orback, the program consisted of local talent led off by Mrs. Christine Myrchaug who sang two solos: "How Long Has It Been" and "Lach Lomond".

Miss Edna Mae Duff, a teacher in the Sedgewick School danced three numbers, "Hilghird Lad", "Blue Bonnet Over the Border" and "Sailors Hornpipe". Miss Duff is a very accomplished dancer who has won awards in competitions in Canada and overseas and was greatly appreciated by the audience.

Miss Linda Hobert accompanied herself on the piano as she sang two solos, followed by a trumpet solo by Miss Cheryl Anderson.

Eric Beddoes and Don MacLeod played from Dayland, played several selections including "Scotland the Brave" and solo "Amazing Grace" by Mr. MacLeod.

After songs by Mr. Harry Anderson accompanied by his wife and duets by Mr. and Mrs. Ralf Jacobsen accompanied by Mrs. Ruth Potter, Mr. Beddoes recited "For All That" by Robbie Burns and the program was brought to an end by Mr. Jim Tindall, President of the Ag. Society who thanked all participants and those who attended.

The official opening of the Killam and District Library Saturday was a social and financial success.

Between 70 and 100 people attended the opening and the Junior High Tea to benefit the library raised $100, which included generous donations from North Drug and Clara Lewis.

Some 400 books are now available through the combined book stocks of the I.O.D.E. Community Library and the public school library. Mayor Gordon Hilker and County Councillor Art Bunney held a ribbon for Mrs. George Stewart, regent of the I.O.D.E., to cut declaring the new library open. Each of the official party spoke and principal Terry Tiffin, who is also the library board chairperson, welcomed the public to the school where from now on their public library - a free service provided by the generosity of the Town Council, which gives financial support; the County Council, which provides the space; the high school, and a wide range of equipment such as t.v. film projector, and tape recorder; and through the work of 80 people from the community. For this year at least the library will give free borrowers cards to any resident of the county.

Mayor Hilker presented an engraved plaque to Mrs. Stewart honoring the I.O.D.E.'s service to the library here from 1941 to 1976 and Mrs. Stewart presented the branch charter to be placed in the library. The I.O.D.E. have turned over all their books to the central of the municipal library board, Margaret Macleod, who served as librarian for the I.O.D.E. library is the T.M. Network and the new facility as a member of the town-appointed library board.

Honored guests at the opening included town councillors, county councillors, members of the I.O.D.E., separate school board members, and librarians from other libraries in the county.

The tea, sponsored and operated by the public junior high students, was well appreciated by the public as hundreds of community women were in baking to be sold. Teas, of course, were one of the ways that the I.O.D.E. ladies raised money for books as far back as 1928 - like the library itself it is a tradition continued.

Church Water

Did you ever hear of "church water"? It is a muddy concoction that has picked up the silt and wastes of man's so-called intelligent mind, and the flow of time has mixed it into something called "religion"?

The shades of color vary with each community but the muddy water kills marine and growing life. And of course it's true when anyone says, "My religion is as good as yours," . . . very true: it's no good. Yet, there is not a single river that is polluted at its source. High in the mountains somewhere, fed by the eternal melting snows begins the trickle of clear pure water to become great rivers, the water-ways of life. Intelligent man pollutes the water with his wastes, but a Wisdom that created nature re-cycles the water systems to return it to the mountains again. From this the highest point in any land, fresh pure water flows

NO VEHICLES - NO HOCKEY
Do you as parents want your boys to continue playing hockey? Yes, you say. Okay, where is your support? Who do you think is responsible for getting your boy out of town games? The Coaches? The Coach can only drive one vehicle and one vehicle will only hold so many boys and their equipment.
The Coaches get on the phone, trying to find someone who will take a car. You say you have your own car too busy. Don't forget, the Coach has his job too, and is just as busy as you, they know how to manage to go with your kids. The Coaches can go to every game, why can't you, the parent, arrange to take a vehicle once in awhile when you are asked.
I know this doesn't apply to everyone. There are a few who will go every time if they possibly can, but why should these same people bear your kids all the time.
If we can't get vehicles to take these boys, there will be no more hockey. If you want them to stay in hockey, get behind their team and support them.
The Coaches, . . . Sedgwick Minor Hockey.

The Church has been given this message, "O Lord get you up into the High Mountains, and behold the cities of our God. The dew of Heron shall drop down their blessings. There is a stream that shall make glad the cities of our God." The simile is clear with a pure life giving power.
Church water: That comes directly from the Highest source, Almighty God through a revelation completed in Jesus Christ. God has given us a book, The Bible. It alone reveals to us Pure Water and Divine re-cycling plan. Spillages men have constantly made it a water because they do not have the back-home to have their chapel religion challenged. They then blame the Church because it has become an exact replica of themselves, a wacky wacky muddy river that turns around to pollute them and their nation.
Gentle Jesus meek and mild treads above into The Mighty God who calls to repent of their sins, overthrows the money taught, exposes hypocrisy and religious garbage. He calls "Come ye to the Waters buy milk and wine without money and without price".
"Bring forth a life that proves you have repented. I will give you power to be the sons of God." That is "Church Water", without it neither you nor your church can live. This water recycles the life that drinks from Him, Jesus Christ.

Keeping in touch

International Women's Year has come and gone. No doubt most women are hoping it will never come again; seven hundred thousand dollars worth of "Why Not" buttons were below their threshold of expectation. Advertising that "women are people too" was little compensation for the time expected legislation reform.

This April the farm housewife who milked cows, drove the tractor at seedling time and the iron ton truck in the harvest season, will once again remain helpless as she watches her husband include her as a taxable deduction of $1,644, but unable to pay to her a salary. One could argue that in these times of high technology and labor scarcity that the farmer ought to be able to pay a trusted wife rather than be forced to hire unknown help of considerable suspect. More important, however, our society should reason that any person — male or female — who contributes so significantly to the family business as a farm wife, ought to be considered a part of the operation and be allowed a commensurate wage. Under present day law a farmer can hire outside labour but cannot engage the employ of his wife. To date, about 70 per cent of the recommendations put forward by the Commission studying the Status of Women in Canada remain unconsidered. There is still no requirement for equal pay for equal work. Further, bankers making loans often refuse to consider a wife's earnings as part of the family income or to allow a working wife to borrow on her own income merit without consideration of her husband's assets. These are but a few of the inequities that undermine the status of women as full participating citizens.

The year 1975 has passed into history with an advertising objective about women and their role in society (which is at least an improvement over women as objects in advertising). Now 1976 arrives before us and once again we must address ourselves to the annoying problem of unequal rights. The role of government is one of defining and defending rights. To defend the right to be equal, does not, and should not, demand equality. Many women, out of choice, would not change their lives in any significant way if their rights were suddenly extended. However, injustice lies not in a right unpracticed but rather in the right denied. For the law the fundamental question should be elementary and simple,

How aware are you?

Two years ago Theresa Smith was working in a London, Ontario, hospital when she was diagnosed with cancer. She was told that she had a malignant tumor confined to the spot of the cervix, and that she had a 50 per cent chance of survival. She was told that she had a 50 per cent chance of survival.

Through her scientific training, Theresa knew all about the Pap test, how the method was developed, the principle on which it works, the startling accuracy of it - yet she had never bothered to have a smear taken. Only by chance did she decide to have the test. The decision saved her life.

At that time Mrs. Smith of London, Ontario, was a twenty-five year old medical technician at St. Joseph's Hospital in London, Ontario, and the mother of three children.

"There was a standing job amongst the staff about not forgetting to have a Pap test," said Theresa. "It was like a proverbial joke about the machine who fixes cars for everybody else but lets his own fall apart. I had given birth to my third child about that time so I decided I should have a smear taken since I had missed my six week post-partum check up."

The technologist in the cytology department, a friend of Theresa's, found the smear to be suspect and immediately referred it to her doctor. A biopsy followed.

"It seemed that I had a malignant tumor confined to the spot of the cervix," said Theresa. "and before I realized the extent of the finding I was hospitalized."

For the next six weeks she underwent radiation and chemotherapy. The procedure in such cases is a hysterectomy, but in the opinion of the doctors, the procedure found microscopical spreading of the cancer to surrounding tissues and decided radiation was better treatment.

Thiamine, Riboflavin and Nicotin.

These are the 3 vitamins which are added to breakfast cereals, wheat flour, and pastas. Ever wonder how it was decided that these particular 3 vitamins are added and not others? Some cereals and breads are whole grain, and as the name suggests they are made from the whole kernel. Some products (eg. white bread) use only the endosperm of the grain - these are refined products. Refined grain products don't contain the nutrients from the wheat germ and bran - so, under government regulations, the major nutrients - thiamine, riboflavin, niacin, and iron can be added back. That is the meaning of "enriched" flour, bread, or cereal.

Thiamine, riboflavin and niacin, each have a role to play in the body's breakdown of carbohydrates to a useable form of energy.

Making Baby Foods at Home
Many commercial baby foods contain added salt and sugar. To avoid these added seasonings, parents may wish to make their own baby foods. The pamphlet "Making Baby Foods at Home" is available free from our office. The pamphlet discusses nutrition for the infant, how to make, store and freeze baby foods, it gives hints on different foods to feed to baby with recipes.

Ever wonder how to remove the "burnt" bathtub appliances? The Rubbermaid Company suggests that MEK (Methyl ethyl ketone) which is a form of acetone and contact cement thinner should remove the appliances.

Price-Quast Wed

On November 1st at 3:00 p.m. in Trinity Lutheran Church, a pretty candlelight wedding took place joining Wanda Rose Katherine Quast and Allen Joseph Price in Holy Matrimony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Quast of Lougheed; the groom being the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Price of Sedgewick.

Pastor P. Olson officiated at the double ring ceremony. The church was decorated beautifully in early of the Valley and Talamian flowers. Candles were lit by the ushers.

The soloist, Mr. Harry Anderson of Sedgewick sang "When he gave me you" and was accompanied by Mrs. Kay Routledge.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of white satin with sheer ruffled overlay, enhanced with rhinestones and matching long circular train. Her hairdresser of a cluster of Nosegays and lilies, surrounded by pearls held a shoulder length veil of fine net with matching pearl cluster. She carried a lovely bouquet of Talamian roses and white daisies.

The maid of honor was Miss Tor-Lene Perberg of Edmonton, friend of the bride. Her bridesmaids were Miss Debbie Wingfield of Gibbons, Alta and Miss Debbie and Candy Quast of Lougheed, sisters of the bride.

They were dressed alike in floor length gowns the color of tulle with an overlay of white sheer embroidered with peach flowers and mist green leaves. They wore empire waisted with a full skirt and short puffy sleeves. They were nicely set off by bouquets of tulle roses and white daisies.

The best man was Warren Rick of Edmonton. The attendants were Mr. Allen Quast, Mr. Edwin Abbott and Mr. Orville Vandewort all of Lougheed.

The flower girls were Diane Wingfield of Gibbons and Tracy Pellers of Sedgewick. The ring bearers were Dean Rick of Edmonton and Darcy Custon of Lougheed.

The ushers were Mr. Wayne Swanson and Mr. Larry Smith both of Lougheed.

For the reception at the Lougheed Community Hall the bride's mother received the guests wearing a turquoise floor length gown with a pinstriped skirt. Her accessories were Spanish lace earrings and a pearl drop necklace with a corsage of Talamian roses.

The groom's mother wore a floor length gown of teal blue accented with a corsage of pink roses.

Open House and Dance were held at Lougheed Community Hall. For a honeymoon to various points in the United States the bride and groom wore light blue safari suits. Wanda's secretary of a charm bracelet was a gift of the groom.

The newlyweds will reside at Sedgewick on the Price farm.

THE BIG INCH

The ruled box is the amount of space occupied by a one-inch advertisement. It measures one column wide by 1 inch deep. It costs advertisers $1.12

It looks kinda lonesome by itself, but look at it this way: What you get when you buy a one-inch ad in The Community Press is not just a single inch of space in the paper, but one inch multiplied by our circulation of 1,950.

So you're buying 1,950 inches, which at 75 inches a page would be almost 26 pages of newspaper.

That's a mighty big chunk of space for a cost of only $1.12 and that includes mail delivery. Just imagine the cost of reaching all those people by post card. It would amount to $117.00.

So you can see that a little one-inch ad is really a BIG INCH when it's advertising space in The Community Press!

And figures show that it's the most effective and economical way possible to let people in the County of Platteau Trading Area know that you have wares or services that they could use.

Sedgewick and District News

Christine Louisa, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Whitehead, was christened by Rev. Robert Chappell at the morning service of worship at the United Church on Sunday, January 18th.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Horinek returned from a two week vacation in Arizona. They visited Phoenix, Las Vegas and various other places and really enjoyed the sunshine.

There were four tables of whist players at the Senior Citizens Card Party on Wednesday afternoon. Prizes for the highest scores were won by Mrs. Hazel MacKinnon and Mrs. Russell while consolation prizes went to Mrs. Storbakken and Mr. C. Lane. For lunch, all enjoyed a delicious cake made and decorated by Mrs. Pat MacKinnon.

Sympathy is expressed to the family of the late Mr. Walter Pankiw of Edmonton who passed away on Jan. 22. The Pankiw family resided here for a number of years during which time they owned and operated the hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Simpson and Mr. and Mrs. Ole Lundie returned recently from a Caribbean cruise. They flew to Miami and there boarded ship for a 4000 mile cruise which took them as far as Venezuela and the Barbados. Mr. Simpson says it was really quite an experience and she thoroughly enjoyed it but when she saw how things were in some places she realized how fortunate we are in Canada. They left on Jan. 3rd and arrived home on the 18th after a trip I'm sure will all remember.

Nice to see Mr. Jimmie Davidson airport on Tuesday to meet Mr. and Mrs. Werner Hovette on their return from Germany. Mrs. Hovette was quite ill while away, and we wish her a speedy return to good health.

RHIO KNEP CHANGES HANDS
John Cameron has recently taken over the above repair shop operated by Stu Cameron in Sedgewick. The shop will retain the Cameron name, and will offer the same services, in the same location on railway avenue.

That cloud of smoke to the east of town on Sunday afternoon was caused by the burning of the elevator that tipped over. The local fire brigade was in charge of the blaze.

Mr. Stanley Seeger of Viking was a Monday visitor at the Jack Djos home.

Welcome to the Porter O'Reilly's who have recently moved into town.

Mrs. Helen Mayne, Sherry, Lennie and Doyle drove to the International Airport on Sunday evening to meet Mr. Frank Mayne. He had left here on Jan. 17 with Mr. and Mrs. Rosa Hinkley of Hardisty to travel by car to Los Angeles. While there he attended an N.H.L. hockey game, the Toronto Maple Leafs vs. the Los Angeles Kings. The Hinkleys are staying for awhile so Mr. Mayne returned by plane.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Danielson, Mr. and Mrs. Matt Kott, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Simon and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Sparrow, returned on Saturday from a week in Las Vegas. They visited the Hoover Dam and took a trip in Death Valley to see a place with quite a history known as "Scottie's Castle". All seemed to have enjoyed themselves.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorne French and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hansen returned on Jan. 26th from a trip to Cuba. They left here on Jan. 11 and flew to Toronto in South America. In the two weeks they stopped at eight places, including Puerto Rico and the Barbados. Mr. French says it was really quite an experience.

Mr. Chester Falls of Edmonton arrived on Saturday to visit relatives and friends in the district.

Rev. and Mrs. Robert Chappell drove to Edmonton on Monday where Mrs. Chappell will spend a few weeks in the hospital.

Nice to see Mr. Jimmie Davidson home from the University Hospital and out and around again.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Potage left on Jan. 17th and flew to San Diego where they spent a week enjoying temperatures in the high 70's and low 80's. They returned to Edmonton last Saturday. Ray went on to Kelowna while Barb stayed in Edmonton until he came back and they arrived home on Tuesday afternoon.

Certainty is one of the qualities of life that is essential to a person's well-being. Indeed, without this element of certainty a person soon becomes frustrated and finally adopts the "throw in the towel" attitude.

Yet I have discovered that a job which you are certain about, you are able to be certain about right through it, without too much difficulty. But, on the other hand when you are doing something about which you have little or no certainty, frustration and discouragement runs rampant.

The dictionary defines certainty this way: state of being certain, having no doubt, confident, indisputable, unquestionable or definite. I am sure that most of us have a desire for greater certainty in every area of our lives.

And also in our relationship with God certainty is needed for the same obvious reasons, and without it chaos reigns.

Have you personally invited Jesus Christ to enter your life by faith? The Bible says, "As many as receive Him, to them gave He the right to become children of God, even to those who believe in His name." But it begins as we recognize that Christ is not living in and through us and that we must open our lives and invite Him in. And when you do that, if you have not already, Jesus Christ will come into your life. The Word of God says it like this: "Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come into him, and will dine with him and he with Me." In this verse notice the words, "I will."

Do you have the certainty of eternal life? If you have received Christ by faith, and allowed him to enter your life, then this certainty is your rightful possession—claim it! But, if you have not invited Christ into your life, invite Him now. And receive the gift He offers. "For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord." And what is more certain than receiving a gift?

Well, it's time to go, so thank you sincerely for this brief visit into your home. And next week we will look at "The certainty of belonging to the Best Family, the Family of God."

There was no little time to say goodbye.
 The day he went away. He left us all so suddenly. One year ago today. Our hearts still ache with sadness. 26-1c

And silent tears still fall.
 And silent tears to lose you. Only God and you must know. From your loving wife.

TWEEDY — In loving memory of our son, Laverne D. Tweedy, who passed away February 7, 1975. One lonely year has passed and we cannot forget the memories of our dear son who was carried away. No tears, no flowers, no tears can say. How much we miss him every day. His life was unselfish, for others he lived. Not to receive, but always to give. So many things have happened since we were called away. So many things to share with you. Had been left to stay. So many times we needed you. And so many times we cried. If Love could have saved you, you never would have died. It broke our hearts to lose you. But you did not go alone. For part of us went with you. The day God called you home. So dearly loved and sadly missed by mother and step-father, Wanda and Carl Lindquist. 26-2c

APPLES:

For genuine eating pleasure no fruit can equal the Canadian apple. In its nature has achieved a masterpiece - beauty of form and color, appetizing aroma, crisp juicy texture and a delicate flavor.

Apples have a wider variety of uses than most other fruits. They can be served with any food - raw, cooked, hot or cold, or as a snack.

There is a book called "Apples" available free from our office. The booklet presents ideas for serving apples for breakfast, as a main course, in a salad, as a dessert and for a treat. If you would like this booklet, write or drop into your local Alberta Agriculture Extension Office.

BUILD-UP OF FABRIC BOTTLE:

Both with and without fabric bottles are also sold by the fabric. The amount to use is adjusted to the size of the bottle and the amount of use.

Too much fabric bottle will cause the children to appear self-willed or have an odd look and no one wants that.

Too little fabric bottle will cause the children to appear timid or have an odd look and no one wants that.

Hardisty News Items

Congratulations to David and Diane Burpee of High Prairie on the arrival of a young daughter, Jan. 29, 1976. Michelle Dawn, weight 8 lbs. 3 oz.

We also wish to welcome Harmon and Peggy Burpee to town. They are residing in the house recently vacated by Mrs. Joan Davis. Joan has moved to Grand Cache to teach school up there.

Also attending Jim Brady's 10th birthday were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Chew, along with daughter Paul.

A few girls from Hardisty attended the Central Alberta Zone Free skating and dance competitions held in Camrose Jan. 24th and 25th. Those taking part in various events were: Joe and Shari Lukens

In juvenile ladies pairs, Pro-Novice ladies singles, also artistic impression No. 1.

In the juvenile ladies singles were Lorna Bonnell, Lyla and Lara Skake, also in juvenile ladies pairs.

In the Junior Ladies Singles was Shelly Dine, also in artistic impression No. 1. Your reporter has heard via the grapevine in Camrose and sent via her daughter either that the Hardisty girls did very well, so although we don't have the results, congratulations girls. This competition covered a large area, Red Deer, Ponoka, Olds, Sexton, Lacombe just to name a few of the larger centers so it is a pleasure to see that the girls were all up against some pretty heavy competition.

The Strong Ladies held their January meeting at the home of Mrs. Gladys Goodrich Jan. 29th. It was hoped that weather permitting the club would go to entertain the guests at Flagstaff Lodge, the latter part of February. Donations acknowledged and thank-you cards read.

Three ladies were honored by a lovely decorated birthday cake, who had January birthdays.

Mrs. Mary Brown of Camrose was down for a day or two visiting with her mother and visiting at Gail Runds home as well.

Pearl Reeve also had a birthday recently and spent the day with her parents Mr. and Mrs. George Stewart.

A lovely shower in honor of Kathy Conrad was held in St. Mark's Parish Hall on Monday evening sponsored by the Anglican ladies. After a few amusing games, the bride to be was seated at the head table. Announcing her there were from Sedgewick, and son Robert and Irving at whose place this took place.

Doug Bell was unable to attend and their only daughter, Doris Moulder and family, all of whom live locally.

Many who were born in Dalton near Lakeridge, Dumfriesshire Scotland on Sept. 12, 1889, went to school so far when he left to learn the cheese and butter making business.

In 1911 he came to Canada where he worked on a large ranch in Saskatchewan. Not having been there long he volunteered to enter a government man, seeking entries. Unknown to him Jimmy had had quite a bit of walking pole experience in the old country.

Being unable to get entries from this ranch Jimmy was accepted as an entrant and with a helper and four horses, he won the cup and $25.00.

The next year he won the cup again but by the third year, he had come to Hardisty and homesteaded in 1916, where he is living now lives. Many water wells have been successfully drilled by Jimmy Bell.

Mrs. Bell, the former Tillie Niekley, was born in Fargo, North Dakota in 1904 and came to Hardisty when only a few months old.

Her father was Ole Niekley a well known old timer who homesteaded on a farm now owned by the Kells brothers.

He went back to Montana where Tillie went to school in the winter time and in 1926 they came back to North Hardisty this time in the Strawberry plain district.

The certainty of belonging

In the natural, we all belong to a certain family. But before you could be in this family, you had to be born into it. Perhaps some of you were adopted into another family, or you may know of a couple who decided to adopt one or two children, as their own; to love and to provide for them just like their natural children.

And likewise to be in God's family, we must be born to it. Jesus Christ Himself taught us this when he said: "The one who is born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God." Marvel not that I said unto thee, "Ye must be born again." The person Jesus told this to was a religious leader.

The logical question to ask is this: What are the benefits of belonging to the Family of God? Let's just examine several verses of scripture to answer this. "The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirits, that we are the children of God," and if children, then heirs, heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ... (Eph. 1:14-17) Think about it! If you are a child of God, we are heirs of God, that is, God's possessions are our possessions. Whatever God has, we can have too, because we are His heirs. It is only reasonable then, that as His children we are joint-heirs with the Lord Jesus Christ. His only Son, because He has adopted us into His family, we become joint-heirs with His Son. To God you are a child of God, reach out and take what God has already given you. "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ" (Eph. 1:3). Even as our natural father, our earthly father, desires to love and provide the best for his children, in the same manner our heavenly Father desires to provide His best for His children.

The Psalmist David realized this great truth when he wrote, "Oh how great is the goodness, which thou hast wrought for them that trust in thee before the sons of men." (Ps. 118:1)

And this is just a brief sampling of the great things that belong to the family of God. Don't you also want to be included in this great family? If so, then I, see that my space has run out, so I must go. Next week we will look at, "The Christian and his home." Thank you kindly for your time and attention. I trust that you have been enriched. Pastor Arnold J. Dyck

Local groups mark Scout-Guide week

Starting Sunday, February 15th, the young people involved in the Scout-Guide movement are marking a special week, "National Scout Guide Week" in Canada.

Throughout the week, troops and companies will be commemorating the 110th anniversary of Lord Baden Powell — founder of Boy Scouts.

In Flagstaff District, several special events are taking place. To start the week, Scouts, Guides, Cubs, Brownies, Leaders and Parents enjoyed a Fun Day at Forsburg Arena where Joe Checkwagons races were held, added to by basketball and other entertainment.

To complete the week, the District will again gather for a Church Parade on Sunday, February 22nd in Killam. This service will take place at 2:00 p.m. in the Roman Catholic Church. All members of the movement, parents and the general public are invited to attend. A procession of flags will take place, and each of the youth groups will be contributing to the service.

GUIDES ARE ACTIVE

Scout-Guide Week is a very busy one for the Girl Guides of Killam & Sedgewick. On Sunday, seven of the Guides, with the assistance of Brownies Karen Handelman and Debby Stiel, completed with the Forestburg Scouts in the Checkwagons races at Forsburg.

On Saturday, Feb. 15th, the Clervo Parents' Club, in the Killam area, will perform one of the things they best like to do — to sing — at part of the service.

ENJOY WINTER HIKES

Saturday morning, Feb. 14th, the Clervo Parents' Club, in the Killam area, will perform one of the things they best like to do — to sing — at part of the service.

They swished about a half mile, then set up camp and cooked dinner. Amylee Miller, Kathy Keith, Theresa Desjard and Susan Stenberg were joined by Lauren Stenberg from Grand Prairie for this outing.

Utility increases cause problems

By Kevin Peterson

The new year shows signs of opening a season for rapid utility rate hikes that could pose thorny problems for Loughheed government spending and regulatory policy.

Alberta Government Telephones is warning of more billing increases on top of a 20 per cent general raise it is seeking now.

Utilities Minister Allan Warnock and Canadian Western Natural Gas Co. are talking of a minimum 30-per-cent fuel rate hike this spring — widely followed with increasing frequency. It could get a retroactive surcharge to make up for delays by the overworked board.

An alternative method of regulation is being designed for provincial governments by Canada's major utilities. The trouble is, it could anger a consuming public already frustrated with inflation.

The scheme would index utility rates to rising costs of providing service. In many cases, the board hearings where consumers can fight increases would be eliminated, as it must go through the courts to 36 cents.

A 20-cent increase would hike consumer bills about 30 per cent across the province, general but utilities minister in the pre-election government had exposed interest in the plan but study of it has gone underground.

Meanwhile, Dr. Warnock says last year's $70-million budget for subsidizing consumer electricity prices to 28 cents a thousand cubic feet won't be reduced even if the rate dou-

The rate could easily double again in 1977 when the subsidy is scheduled to end and well-head gas prices, already 72 cents, could easily pass the $1 mark in Alberta.

The government, which in 1972 promised to block all but an inflationary price increase, has in Energy Minister Don Getty's words been reduced to calling Alberta gas a "bargain" at twice its price now.

KNOX UNITED U.C.W. MEET
Mrs. John Forsner presided at the U.C.W. meeting. Adolph Young read from Gen. 4:24, the story of Creation. A hymn, "From every day or any wind that blows", was sung. The meditation told how various angels had pleaded with God not to create man because he would do many bad things but the Angel of Mercy pleaded for the creation of man and said he would help man to be better.

The World Day of Prayer is to be held this year in the Presbyterian Church on Friday, March 6th. The group practiced a hymn to be sung at this service.

Used cards are to be collected and brought to the next meeting on Mar. 10th. Marion Wilson read a report from Rita Sauer concerning her "Evacuation from Angola".

The meeting closed with a prayer. A delicious lunch was served by Doris Martin and Little Forsner.

HARDISY WINTER WIPEOUT DAYS

WATCH FOR KILLAM BROWNIES

Delux Scout Guide week. The Killam Brownies are a very busy group, but try to reflect our thoughts to our founder, Lord Baden Powell and his wife, our Chief Guide, Lady Baden Powell. We only hope that our contributions as leaders to this group will result in the betterment of our community.

We asked our group for comments of the various activities they enjoyed in Brownies, and would like to share them with you:

Delux THIN like "everything" in Brownies: Trina Hatcher likes "crafts"; Angela Cavanagh likes "everything"; Jackie O'Brien "I like the leaders treat us as Brownie camp"; Elaine Hatcher, "everything"; Judy Talson, "crafts, the leaders, a Thinking Day"; Jean Stover, "Pow Wow, the leaders, and camp"; Cindy Palczak, "everything"; Shanna Stenberg, "Rally Day and crafts"; Teresa Folgate, "I like Brownies because we have Pow Wow. In the Pow Wow, we talk things over and sing songs, and have lots of fun."

We were sorry that Terri Pederson was sick so was unable to give us her comments.

As leaders of the 11 Killam Brownies Pack, we would like to take this opportunity to thank the Brownies for being such an enthusiastic group of girls.

—Brown Owl Irene Stenberg.
—Taway Owl, Bonnie Frederick.

On Feb. 22nd, the Brownies will be participating in the Church parade in Killam.

The Brownies in Sedgewick are a relatively new group having started last fall under the capable direction of Betty Coderre as Brown Owl.

IN MEMORIAM

ELLIAND — In loving memory of our dear generous father and grandfather, Mr. Ole Kjelland (Viking) who passed away Feb. 18, 1974. Tonight the stars are shining On a silent, lonely grave. Where sleep's a dreamy slumber. The one we loved, but could not save. In kindness we saw you sleeping. We watched you fade away. Our hearts were almost broken. As you fought so hard to stay. A wonderful father, man and dad. One who was better, God never made. So to you who have a father, Comfort him with care. You'll never see the heartache. Till you see his empty chair. We pray to God to let us know. Take a message up above. Tell him how much we miss him. And give him all our love. Lovingly remembered and sadly missed by his daughter, Mrs. E. E. E. W.I. Library opens to public

The president of the Lougheed W.I. being on vacation in the "Sunny South" the vice-president Mrs. Wm. Frost. Chaired the Feb. 16th meeting at the home of Mrs. V. Stenberg. Mrs. Frost was the guest of honor. Eleven members were present. Mrs. Angela and Mrs. Cameron of the Rands and Mrs. Dugan were welcomed as visitors, after which the usual procedure of business was conducted.

Mrs. George MacNeil was pleased to read a letter from the author J.C. McNeil, requesting permission to use two quotes from the W.I. book "Verdant Valley" in a book he is writing. This was unanimously granted.

It was reported that the library had been opened to the public on January 31, and the schedule of days and hours is open as follows: Thurs. 10:30 - 11:30; Thurs. 2 - 4:30; Sat. 2:30 - 4:30. W.I. members will take turns being the "Liberators".

Those who participated in the trip to Edmonton and the Ice Caps had an enjoyable outing.

Two of the members had graciously helped a group of young mothers with some sewing problems.

"Why do you need a Home Economics Club?" was the topic for the Health and Home Economics program presented by the convenor Mrs. W. R. Frost. The members were shown a display of plans for utilizing space in the home for the storage of foodstuffs. A number of members had material made to present day business operations. It was suggested that the "roll call" at the March meeting, each member tell how these ideas had been put into use.

Such merit was created during roll call when the members present were asked to young mothers with some sewing problems.

Hardisty News

We were indeed thrilled to see a newspaper picture of Mrs. and Mrs. Ernie Mattheis of Okotoks, sent to Mr. and Mrs. J. Sherkley by their daughter, Muriel.

Mr. and Mrs. Mattheis celebrated their diamond wedding anniversary on Feb. 9th. They were married in England and came to Canada in 1946, when Mr. Mattheis was in the Hardisty district, when in 1952 they had an auction sale and moved to Okotoks. They have three children: Hays and family then moved to the Mattheis farm, and three sons Henry now resides there.

Miss Karen McKenzie of Calgary spent the weekend at home with her folks, the Mac McKendries. Karen likes her work with A.G.T. very much.

Yen Cooper has been home for a few days. He will return to Hecla strip and will be working at Red Point soon.

Cousins of Mrs. Doris Powell visited their Aunt, Mrs. Hele Strate and at the Powell home. They were Mr. and Mrs. Ned Dietrich and Mr. and Mrs. Art Dietrich of Forestburg.

Sorry to see Mrs. Algonquin Manning in the hospital with her leg encased in a cast, due to all this ice we have around. Seen passing through town was Vernon Sampson of Irma.

Isabel Nelson spent a lovely evening in Hurdston Thursday night, visiting at Camrose. She had a long drive home, Mrs. Leverage Bremner. Two old timers together.

Your reporter is off to Camrose again to keep house for two grandsons over the weekend. The Old-timer Hockey Team has chartered a bus to go to Leithbridge where 80 teams will be playing in the week-end. Ft. McLeod, Teller etc.

An exciting curling game took place in Amisk during the last of the bonspiel when the Davidson rink from Hardisty lost to the Munro Lehn rink 4-3 in the 11th end. Those on the Davidson rink are: ship, Bill Davidson, Allen Nelson, 2nd, Duwayne Burckle and Judd Welliver 2nd.

W.I. Library opens to public

The president of the Lougheed W.I. being on vacation in the "Sunny South" was the vice president Mrs. Wm. Frost. Chairman of the Feb. 16th meeting at the home of Mrs. J. McGregg. Mrs. Hays. Eleven members were present. Mrs. of the Angels and Mrs. Cameron of the Rye and Mrs. and Mrs. Draham were welcomed as visitors, after which the usual procedure of business was conducted.

Mrs. George Marlow was pleased to read a letter from the author J.C. McGregg. The questioning permission to use two quotes from the W.I. book "Verdant Valley" in a book he is writing. This was enthusiastically granted.

It was reported that the Library had been opened to the public on January 31, and the schedule of days and hours is open as follows: Thurs. 10:30 - 11:30; Thurs. 2 - 4:30; Sat. 2:30 to 4:30. W.I. members will take turns being the "Librarians".

Those who participated in the trip to Edmonton and the Ice Capades had an enjoyable outing.

Two of the members had generously helped a group of young mothers with some accusing problems.

"Why do you need a Home Business Center?" was the topic for the Health and Home Economics program presented by the convenor Mrs. W. Rosledge. Eleven were shown displaying plans for utilizing opportunities in the home for the storage of household documents and material needing to be presented day by day.

It was suggested that the "roll call" at the March meeting, each member tell how these ideas had been put to use.

March meeting was created during roll call when the members present were asked to young who their eldest sister had been during the past year. Some displayed the talent of an Agatha Christie; the understanding members are to provide the "extra" for a supper to be held in March.

Mrs. Rand, our Constituency Convener, was introduced and gave us a resume of useful information gathered at an executive workshop she had attended. Preliminary procedure, produced and executive duties were briefly outlined, and members were informed that "Mr. Chairman", which is obtainable. Pollution in the 1976 project for A.W.I. with the slogan "Stamp and Litterbugs". The Constituency Conference is to be held at Hound Hill on April 26.

G. M. Marlow, convenor of programs on the United Nations will be in charge of the March program, with Mrs.
W. Frost and Mrs. P. Norburn as hostesses.

Successful bonspiel at Amisk

Participation in the Amisk Curling Club's bonspiel, which has surpassed all previous records. There were 27 risks entered within an area from Prosser to Sedgewick, and Whitecourt east. There were 12 home risks. The spectators gallery was packed daily, and most of the curling was concentrated on the timely installation of artificial ice in the Amisk Curling Club rink this year, for there has been very little opportunity to use natural ice in the unusually mild winter this 1976.

The event was sponsored by a lucky banquet — over 200 plates were sold. Patrons were also entertained with an excellent display of curling in the bonspiel playoffs. Much credit for this success is due to the hardworking ladies who served the filling meal smoo-gastyle from 1:00 p.m. to 6 p.m.

Vying for the Grand Challenge in the feature game of the day were Ken Gordon and Loren Whidden of Amisk, Ted Grocock, Carr and John Anderson, Sedgewick. Grocock defeated Anderson and Whidden but in Gordon, with Ken Gordon vs Grocock, the Amisk risk took an early lead to hold dominance throughout. Thus Gordon had captured this top event by demolishing his rival in the six end with a tally 4-1.
Grocock emerged in the 8th
First Event.

Curling for Ken Gordon was Joe Richardson, Daryl Hanson and Ed Lando.

The second event was a rivalry between Leanne, Amisk, and against Bill Davidson, Hardisty.

The third event was completed on Saturday evening
Jan. 24th. I think everyone enjoyed it and had lots of fun.
There was plenty of laughter and shouting. The lucky winners were: 1st, Mr. and Mrs. Leanne, Amisk; 2nd, Mrs.
Marilyn Denham and Mrs. Graham Denham, Amisk; 3rd, Mrs.
Marilyn Fetherough and Mrs. lie, Mr. Bill Coulson, Get well

nity Centre.

ing the most games and ading the prizes was awarded to of Sedgewick held the winning ticket in the Prosser bonspiel donated by Arthur Hadden. Other prizes were donated — Long Haul, St.

Bar's Coffee Shop, Doug Mc-Gregor, Amisk Hotel, Charlie Cameron, Thibault, and Car-added in the adjoining storage room. Patrons now enjoy

Mr. Bill Arbuckle is at the west coast where he intends to meet up with son Danny.

Sedgewick and District News

Congratulations and best wishes to the newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. James Austin Karan (nee Debbie Billow) who were married in Edmonton on Valentine's Day, February 14. Nice to see Mrs. Clara Johnson home after her stay in Killam hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Sparrow and Trevor were Sunday dinner guests at the home of the Jim Roddis in Camrose. Get well wishes to Mr. Frank Mayne (Sr.) whose presence is missed by the rest of the "potlickers" at their morning get-togethers. Also to the other patients in Killam.

Mr. and Mrs. H.L. Bearstar met Mrs. Carmie Scott of Hinton in Edmonton last Tuesday and she accompanied them home for a week's visit with relatives and friends in the Sedgewick district. She left for Hinton last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Colvin Bearstar who were on their way by car to the west coast for a visit with their parents.

Many folk from Sedgewick attended the funeral of Mr.

Bob Hynge at the Elks Hall in Killam on Wed., Feb. 11th. There were only three tables of whist players at the Senior Citizens card party on Wednesday. High score prizes were won by Mr. Steve Potage and Mrs. Tina Blakeney, while consolation prizes went to Mr. Harry Potage and Mrs. Rose Falla.

A crowd of relatives and friends gathered at the apartment of Mrs. Tillie Knutson on Sunday, February 15th to help her celebrate her 87th birthday. Among the out-of-town guests present were Mr. Chester Falla, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Moore of Edmonton, Mrs. Mabel Mayne of Grande Prairie and Mrs. Elsie Saire of Irma. Many happy returns Mrs. Knutson.

Apologies to anyone who rang me with news and received no answer. I just returned this morning (Tues.) from a week in the Killam hospital.

Mr. Fritz Howie entered Killam Hospital Tuesday afternoon.

A fire in the Ludvik Arntsen farm home on Saturday caused considerable smoke damage. It started in the basement about 5 p.m., and in a short while the house was full of smoke. There is fire damage to some of the floors, but the arrival of the Fire Brigade prevented further damage. As Mrs. Arntsen says, "They're all healthy and the house is still liveable".

Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Cysaew and children of Newlandland are visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Abbott before going to Seattle where they will be living.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Dunbar and two small children of Maryfield, Sask. were attending a livestock meeting at Fairmont, B.C. On their way home, they stopped at Sedgewick to visit the Vanderweers and the Heffels. They also visited at Stremie with the Goosses Williams family. Grant is Mrs. Heffels' nephew.

Four rinks of Sedgewick curlers took part in the Ladies Bonspiel in Killam over the weekend, and all of them came home with a prize! Fourth in the Grand Challenge was won by the rink skipped by Ardith Gould, with Helen Taiston at 3rd, Thora Johnson at 2nd and Margaret Hampshire at lead. The other rinks won 1st, 2nd and 3rd prizes in the Second Event. First went to the rink skipped by Vivian Sparrow, with Margaret Kobnar at 2nd, Debbie Huculak at 2nd and Brenda Lee Sterbakken at lead. 2nd prize was won by the rink of Mary Simon, Kathy Chave, Martha Pope and Ardith Bihault.
